“Alexander and Mary came into US on the 26th of Nov 1825 on the schooner Hennetta to New York harbor. There were 8 kids with them including Susan then 14 yrs old. Mary the mom was 51 at the time and the oldest son with them was 22 so I suspect there were other children left behind in Nova Scotia! I know most records also say the parents died by 1820....but they arrived in 1825 and I have found two of Susan’s brothers also in Michigan and traced them. One is buried in the same cemetery as Susan, A. F. as he was known by...which stood for Alexander Fletcher Deyarmond.”

The history of the Blaikie family in Upper Stewiacke

By Judy Miller
Upper Stewiacke, Nova Scotia

Deyarmond Family of Colchester, NS Register Report

The first Blaikie to arrive in Upper Stewiacke was Charles - the blacksmith. He married Letitia Deyarmond. They had five daughters. Charles and Letitia lived across the road from where Robert Hennigar now lives.

Blackie Brook was named for Charles Blaikie (Blackie). Daughters of Charles and Letitia Blaikie were: Ann, Mary, Janet, Rebecca and Elizabeth. Charles and Letitia are buried in Riverside cemetery. Their stone states that Charles died in 1867, aged 86. Letitia died in 1895 (Note: should have read 1835) - aged 63 (b. 1772). The 1838 Census reports Charles Blackie living alone - obviously he was still a bachelor. (Note: incorrect, they were md. 1804, she died 1835, so he was a widower).

From the United Church of Canada Bulletin 41-01, Remembrance Day.

With each passing year, fewer are left to remember the wars that the Remembrance day poppies signify. One Nova Scotia family has a unique way of remembering. Their grandfather and great-grandfather, James Howard Tupper, left his wife and four children to serve in the First World War. Before he left he wrote a letter to each of his sons which their mother, Letty, was to give them on their twelfth birthdays. In these letters James shared with his children his love for them, his devotion to his wife and his strong faith in God. "First", he wrote, "be true to your God. Second, be true to yourself. Third, be true to your country."

While he was serving in France, James asked a friend to take a small piece of ivy home to his wife. Letty planted the ivy, which thrived in the rich farm soil of the Annapolis Valley.

In September 1916, James was killed in action. No one can say for sure the influence James had on the succeeding generations. However, each of James and Letty's sons served as ministers in The United Church of Canada, and this legacy has continued as a great-grandson now carries on the tradition. James' presence is also acknowledged as his vine continues to be woven into anniversary corsages and bridal bouquets, and crawls along the walls of family homes.

November 11, 2001, Hello to Colleagues and Friends:

Just a note to let you know that the Mission and Service Fund bulletin for November 11, 2001 has a strong personal connection for me. The back of the bulletin tells the story of a Nova Scotia family who have a special way of remembering. The story is about my great-grandfather who was killed in World War I.

One of the things he did before he died was to pick a slip of ivy vine in a convent garden in France and it made its way back to my great-grandmother and it has been growing in the family, ever since. We have it growing in our kitchen in Fort Qu'Appelle. The bulletin cover mentions his legacy of faith and love. His two sons became United Church ministers (one being my grandfather) and it says that one great-grandson is a minister as well - that's me!

It is a legacy that I am proud of and remembrance has a personal meaning for me. Even though I never knew James H. Tupper, I do feel that he has influenced my life.

If you are worshipping or leading worship in a place that uses the bulletin, I have one request - could you send me a copy! It would be neat to have copies of the cover from congregations throughout the country.

68. Sarah "Annie" Graham (Andrew⁴, Rebecca Deyarmond³, Robert², Alexander¹). Born in May 1868 in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Residence: Census, 1900, 1910, 1920 - Lynn, MA.

Annie was a sister of Grace Graham, wife of George's brother Charles Groves.

Viola and Charles were born in Onslow (according to US census) but Arthur was born in Lynn, MA (according to his marriage certificate and 1921 census), so George and Annie must have gone there ca1892. George died in 1894 in Onslow (according to the Presbyterian Witness). After George's death, she must have gone back to Lynn, MA. Viola's census of 1920 suggests her year of immigration was 1894. Arthur, the youngest, ended up with Charles and Grace (Graham) Groves ca1897-1900. Grace was b. 1877 so she and Charles couldn't have been married until well after George had died (1894). Art was not with his mother in the 1900 US census but was with Charles and Grace in the 1901 Onslow census. Annie remarried Thomas Ayer Lennon in 1896, had children Thomas (1897), Marjorie (1899) John (1902), Marion (1904), Abbie Winnie (1906), Verna (1908), Annie (1910) and Evelyn (1913).

Mom was born in Melrose, MA to Ernest T. and Rebecca M. (Whidden) Webb. She was one of five children: Kenneth, Melvin, William and Mildred.

Mom was married November 16, 1956 to my Dad, Arthur A. Sheppard. They lived in MA, and Dad helped to raise my eldest sister Linda and my brother Ron (from Mom's first marriage to Carl Young). They had three daughters while living in MA: Donna, Susan and Bonnie (me).

Mom and Dad moved their family to Wells, ME in 1964, and Dad commuted back and forth to MA to work. In 1966 they welcomed their youngest daughter, Pam. They have 14 loving grandchildren: Mary, Mark, Sandra, Sean, Jason, James, Jesse, Sara, Michael, Michelle, Matthew, Stephanie, Samantha & Ricky. Joining the family over the years were great-grands: David, Hailey, Tyler, Joshua, Bryan, Nathaniel, Sarah, Laci & Rashonda (since Mom passed have been Hunter, Jamey, Travis, Harlee & Alexander).

Deyarmond Family of Colchester, NS Register Report

Dad became ill in the '70s and had to retire. His disability opened up some interesting doors for my parents. It gave them the opportunity to open an antique shop, and it became a passion of theirs to go to flea markets and yard sales to find treasures to buy and re-sell. Their shop was quite successful until Dad's health began to decline, and they had to move to a smaller home in 1976-77.

They lived there for 9 years, raising their family, welcoming grandchildren, and enjoying camping and other activities as Dad's health would allow.

In 1985 they moved to Sanford, ME, and they lived there together until October 4, 2005 when Dad passed away. Mom continued to live there, although going on visits to her children's homes on occasion.

Mom passed away in Boston, MA from an aneurism, just below her heart. It was an unexpected and tragic event.

Mom's life was a shining example of what a loving wife and mother, grandmother and great-grandmother she was, as well as a beloved Auntie, sister and friend. We will miss her always.

Barbara Louise first married Carl Chesley Young.

Barbara Louise second married Arthur Archibald Sheppard. Born on 12 Jun 1925 in Suffolk, MA. Arthur Archibald died in Sanford, Maine, on 4 Oct 2005; he was 80.

Dad was known by many names. Among them were Art, Arch, Shep, and Don. (Where Don came from, I don't know, but he answered to it). I think the ones he was the most proud of were "Daddy" and "Grampa". Dad loved his family and enjoyed spending time with all of us. He was married to his beloved wife Barbara (known to him affectionately as "Kitty") for 48 years. They had 6 children: Linda, Ron, Donna, Susan, Bonnie & Pamela; 14 grandchildren: Mary, Mark, Sandra, Sean, Jason, James, Jesse, Michael, Sara, Michelle, Matthew, Stephanie, Samantha & Ricky; and 10 great-grandchildren: Davey, Hailey, Tyler, Joshua, Bryan, Nathaniel, Laci, Sarah, (born since he passed are Rashonda, Hunter, Jamey, Travis, Harlee & Alexander).

Dad was one of the first patients at Mass General hospital to undergo open heart surgery for a mitral valve replacement. The doctors at that time were unsure of Dad's life expectancy after such an operation, and gave him an estimate of 7 years. He lived many times over that from the time of the operation in 1962.

Daddy I love and miss you. I hope you were watching over the celebration of your life. We wanted this time to reflect our love and affection for you and to show the fabulous people you and Mom have raised us to be. You showed us how to love, how to not let things get us down, and how to make the most of every single day. Thank you for your love, your guidance and your patience. Thank you for being our Daddy. We love you, and miss you greatly.

He was the last surviving member of his family.

BEAVER BROOK - You may have known him as Sylvester (Bus) McCallum.

From now on, however, you might want to change that to "Sir Sylvester" Or, perhaps, "Sir Bus."

The 89-year-old Beaver Brook resident is the second local veteran to have been granted knighthood by the government of France for his services to that country during the Second World War.

"He's getting pretty hard to get along with," joked McCallum's wife, Doris, since being awarded the rank of Knight of the French National Order of the Legion of Honour.

"This distinction illustrates the profound gratitude that France would like to express to you," said Nicolas Chapuis, the French Ambassador to Canada, in a letter to McCallum, of his country's highest national order.

"It is awarded in recognition of your professional involvement in the liberation of our country. Through you, France remembers the sacrifice of all of your compatriots who came to liberate French soil."

And despite his wife's reference to a changed demeanor or his playful insistence at being referred to as "Sir Bus," McCallum said the award actually carries a lot of meaning for him.

"Oh, I think the world of getting one of those," he said, of the beautifully crafted insignia pin.

"Because to me, thinking where I joined up so young, and wounded, and slept on the ground for a number of years and all that, there's a lot of down pull or whatever you want to call it."

Sir Bus was 17 and working in the woods driving a yard (logging) horse when he and a buddy decided to head to Halifax to sign up for the war effort.

On May 7, 1944, he set sail from Halifax aboard the SS Ile de France and seven days later he landed in England, where he was subsequently assigned to the Canadian Scottish Regiment from British Columbia.

On D-Day, June 6, 1944, he was among the first allied troops who stormed Juno Beach in Normandy during the early morning hours.

Unlike many of his comrades, McCallum survived the bloody slaughter that followed, but his luck eventually ran out on Oct. 8, 1944, shortly after crossing the Leopold Canal in Northern Belgium.

"I was all by myself coming out this road and that's when I seen this fella limping, couldn't hardly walk," he said. The soldier was hollering for help and knowing that the German enemy was heading towards them, McCallum picked him up and started carrying him away.

Shortly after, he said, a highly deadly 88 mm shell came whizzing in and after striking a nearby barn, McCallum was felled by a piece of shrapnel that struck the back of one of his legs.

"So he went right over my head," he said, of the other wounded soldier. "I didn't bother picking him up anymore. He got up and left, running anyway."

After a long recovery period, McCallum was involved in several weapons-related courses before heading home for some rest and relaxation.

One day during that period, while putting in some hay on his brother's farm, he received word that the war was over. Now, seven decades later, as part of the 70th anniversary celebrations of the war's end, McCallum has been given his due by the French government.

"I can't imagine, I really can't imagine the honour that it is to receive that recognition," a proudly beaming Doris said. "Even if it is 70 years later

"And I just feel that he is really deserving of it."

He was predeceased by brother, Earl in infancy; parents-in-law, Arthur and Mary Deyarmond; brother-in-law, Eldridge Deyarmond; sister-in-law, Margie Fisher; nephew, Everett Deyarmond. Curtis was a kind and humble man always willing to help anyone who needed it. He had a quick sense of humour and loved to have fun. You always felt better for having spoken to him or spent time with him no matter what you were doing. He was dedicated to his family, work and community. As a young man he became interested in cars and trucks and this was his lifelong passion. In the early 1950's he drove a log truck for Creelman's in Otterbrook, followed by a stint operating a bulldozer for Ed Creelman of Brookfield Box Company. He shared many hilarious stories of his time spent there. He started driving a milk truck for Ross Ervin of Fort Ellis and in the early 1960's bought the business. He formed his own business C.E. Fisher Transport Ltd. in 1962 and worked diligently for 30 years retiring in 1992. His two sons, Dale and Ricky, drove trucks for their Dad for many years. Curtis was a member of Knox United Church, serving as a church elder for many years, and as a member of the Ministry and Personnel committee. He was on the Board of Directors of Don Henderson Memorial Sportsplex, a member of the Middle Stewiacke Bowling League, Brookfield Curling Club, as well as the Brookfield Golf and Country Club. Visitation will be held 4-6 and 7-9 p.m. today in Mattatall ~ Varner Funeral Home, 55 Young St., Truro. Funeral service will be held 11 a.m. Thursday, October 30, in Knox United Church, Brookfield, Rev. Larry Harrison officiating, with a reception to follow in the church hall. LEDREW, ERIC - Allison, NB - Born in Toronto, ON August 30, 1960, Eric lived in Sheet Harbour NS until moving to Truro in 1974 with his family. Two years later, Eric would tell you, it was in Mr. Wilson's history class where he met and fell in love with Shelley. Eric joined McInnes Cooper as an associate in the Litigation Department in 1988. Just to please Shelley, he dressed in costumes on every occasion for more than 30 years. Eric loved the outdoors and enjoyed kayaking, running, cycling, back packing, snow showing and cross country skiing. Fly fishing and the preservation of the Atlantic salmon became his passion after being introduced to the sport by Terry Teed over a decade ago. Eric delighted in mentoring the newly initiated whether in a fishing pool, classroom or law office. Eric approached his disease with the same methodical fashion as he had prepared for a trial. For more than two years, as chemo led to surgery which led to radiation then targeted drug therapy through molecular profiling, Eric adjusted his focus, acceptance and game plan. Sadly on March 28, 2014, Eric failed to win the case. Eric will be deeply and sadly missed by his wife of almost 30 years, Shelley (nee Groves), Allison, NB, sister Bonita, Halifax, NS; in-laws Dr. Robert and Debbie Scovil, Hubble, NS, Stephen and Janice Groves, Onslow, NS, as well as nieces Allyson Groves, Lyndsay and Alexandra Scovil and nephew Brady Groves. Eric was predeceased by grandparents Irvin and Gladys Fancy, mother Joan LeDrew and his three best friends, Golden Retrievers Elliott, Earle and Luke. Eric was a member of the Canadian Bar Association, the Moncton Area Lawyers' Association, the Moncton Northeast Construction Association, and was recognized by Best Lawyers in Canada for his construction law practice. He was a lecturer of Civil Trial Practice at Dalhousie Law School and chaired the Law Society of New Brunswick's Judicial Facility Committee. Eric was a Past President of Big Brothers - Big Sisters of Dartmouth/Halifax and volunteered with the organization in Moncton. He was a member of the Greater Moncton Chamber of Commerce, the Miramichi Salmon Association and the St. Mary's River Association. There will be no visitation at the request of the family. A funeral service celebrating Eric's life will be held at St. John's United Church, (corner of Alma St. and Victoria St.) Moncton NB on Saturday April 5, 2014 at 2:00PM with The Reverend Aaron Billard officiating. 217. Kim M. Bosse (*Edna Mae Duarte*⁷, *Dorothy Marie DeArmond*⁶, *James "Stanley"*⁵, *Samuel Deyarmond*⁴, *Samuel*³, *Robert*², *Alexander*¹).

Kim M. Bosse married Victor Eugene (Gene) Bantilan. Born on 18 Nov 1949 in Pasadena, CA. Victor Eugene (Gene) died on 22 Feb 2016; he was 66.

Known by all as Gene, he passed away peacefully on February 22, 2016. Gene was born on November 18, 1949 in Pasadena to parents Vic and Ethel, where he grew up in a large working-class family and helped take care of his siblings. Rather than wait to be drafted, he volunteered for service, joining the Army in 1970. After training he was sent to Ft. Hood, Texas where he earned commendation as an expert rifleman and became his commander's favorite tank driver. After a brief courtship, Gene married his beautiful bride Kim Bosse' in August 1976, when they made their love for and commitment to each other official. They were married for nearly 40 years. Gene got into the plumbing industry at age 16, and in 1977 he and Kim opened their first business, The Supply House in Simi Valley. Following the birth of their first child Justina, they sold the business and moved the family to Oregon where Gene built his first house with his own hands, while working full-time at the local hospital. After their second child Cory was born, the family returned to Southern California and opened their second retail plumbing store, Santa Barbara Plumbing Supplies. Despite a wager by his competitors that the business would not last more than 6 weeks, it is still standing nearly 32 years later due to the shrewd businessman that Gene was. He was well respected by customers and vendors alike for his work ethic and honesty, always telling the truth whether you wanted to hear it or not. He thoroughly enjoyed providing employment and opportunity for others and particularly liked to mentor younger employees, showing them the inner workings of a plumbing part or process. If you were willing to learn, he was willing to teach. In 2008, Gene finished building his second house, taking pride in every aspect of the construction. He thoroughly enjoyed working with his hands in his shop, also known as his man cave. There he worked on many projects, including his most recent restoration of a 1931 REO Speedwagon. He loved off-road racing, beginning in the late 1960s and continuing to the most recent Baja 1000 in November to celebrate his 66th birthday. He enjoyed every aspect from building and rebuilding his race car, to helping others and spending time with his son and his racing friends somewhere in a hot, dry desert. Traveling to Mexico was a particular favorite of his as he got to enjoy the majestic beauty of Baja while drinking Coronas and eating at taco stands. Gene was an extremely hard worker. He was a stubborn, no-nonsense, straight shooter who would give you the shirt off his back. He was a man's man who had a soft and genuine heart. While not highly educated in the traditional sense, he graduated with honors from the school of hard knocks, imparting his knowledge, experience, and wisdom on all of us. Above all his accomplishments, his two children were his pride and joy. The newest joy in his life was his first grandchild Myles, also known as Lil' Gene. He is survived by his wife Kim; children Justina (Ben) and Cory (Lyz); grandson Myles; brother Kelly and sisters Sharon, Tracy, Kimberly, Dana, and Michelle; and many nieces and nephews. There will
