of Glenmore, Musquodoboit, Halifax, Co., NS.)

Updated March 13, 2025²

This report follows the children of brothers Adam, Robert (descendancy from a daughter) and David Dickey, who emigrated from New Hampshire to Truro, NS. The Musquodoboit Dickey's are mostly descended from David, through one son David, which is my line. The Lower Stewiacke Dickey/Dickie families are mostly descendants of Adam.

Additions/corrections are always welcome!

However, there are other Dickey/Dickie families in the Truro, Stewiacke and Musquodoboit areas, so as Appendices I have included a brief sketch of the family of Thomas and Elizabeth (Scott) Dickey of Musquodoboit (Appendix 1, p. 349) and of Matthew and Janet (Nisbet) Dickie (Appendix 2, p. 368). Matthew settled in Kings County but two of his grandchildren, Hugh Logan Dickie and Isaac Patton Dickie settled in the Truro area, and there are other Upper Stewiacke connections to this family as well. Also, there is a Cumberland County Dickie family founded by Thomas Dickie (1758-1859) and his wife Jennet Mitchell (1788-1877). They were married in Aberdeenshire, Scotland in 1814 and emigrated soon after. They had a large family born in Mount Pleasant, Cumberland County, and some of the later generations of this family were in the Colchester County area – see familysearch for details.

² Many new details were added from a review of references 8-12 on the next page, and a visit to NSARM and Pine Grove Cemetery in Stewiacke East (May 31, 2019). A few more obituaries and family details were added from internet searches (Dec. 29, 2020 and Feb. 11, 2021). Further Londonderry, NH history was also added (Feb. 15, 2021). Minor updates were added July 27, Aug. 30 and Dec. 22, 2022., Mar. 25, 2024.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

I have found that some families have remained true to their original spelling, either Dickey or Dickie, while in others they seem to use both spellings through the generations. I have tried to use that found in the actual records for an individual.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

First Generation

1. Adam Dickey, son of David Dickey. Born in Co. Tyrone, Ulster, N. Ireland. Residence: New England (1718).

DICKEY The Ancient Clan, by the late Flo Dickey, Tucson, AZ

The DICKIES/DICKIES are Saxons of the ancient clan Diagha (Gaelic for Dickey, the followers of Richard). These people lived in the lowlands of Scotland and spoke "Broad Scots", a dialect of English that contains many Teutonic words. In the middle ages, during the Protestant reformation, they became Presbyterians and followers of Calvin, which was quite radical at the time. For their religious beliefs, they suffered persecution from both the Scotch Catholics and the English Anglicans. Several reasons caused our Dickey's to migrate to Northern Ireland but religion was the most important. The emigrants who settled in Ulster about 1612, were from Argyshire, Scotland. When they arrived in America they were known as the Scots-Irish.

Generations of Dickey/Dickie's

1. Adam of Tapunnthack (near Stewarton, Strathclyde, Ayr, Scotland) – that he was the progenitor was determined by Prof. David Dobson, University of St. Andrews, Scottish historian and genealogist, in conjunction with Dennis Dickey (Flo Dickey).
2. David Dickie, The Scot of Ayrshire, Strathclyde
3. Son (Most likely named Adam, David, or Robert), likely migrated from Ayrshire to Ulster (Northern Ireland) about 1612.
4. David of County Tyrone, Ulster, Northern Ireland
- *5. Adam Dickie, County Tyrone, Ulster. After 2 generations in Ulster, Adam emigrated to America, arriving 1718.
6. David Sr. (b.1699 Co. Tyrone, Ulster, Northern Ireland) m. Isabelle McGlaughlin (b.1701) in Londonderry, N.H.
7. Adam, Robert, and David - Grantees of the Township of Truro, Nova Scotia

*Adam Dickey: Our Ancestor from Northern Ireland and Two of His Sons

Adam Dickey left the port of Londonderry in Ulster. Through the years as the Dickey story has been passed from generation to generation, Londonderry became the place of birth/residence, when in fact, the Dickey family was from County Tyrone, Ulster, Northern Ireland and emigrated from the port of Londonderry. Adam, the grandfather of Adam, Robert, and David Dickey in Nova Scotia, arrived in New England in 1718. Two of his sons were David Dickey, our ancestor, and John Dickey. It appears that David was with Adam, as he was married in Londonderry, NH in 1722; John may have been with him or may have come later. It is very possible that there were other children with them or grown children who had families that came to America at a later date; and Adam may have had brothers and sisters that also came to America.

(Flo Dickey notes)

On March 6, 1718, Adam Dickey and his family were part of the 319 who signed a petition to His Excellency the Right Honorable Colonel Samuel Shute, Governor of New England which reads:

"To His Excellency the Right Honorable Colonel Samuel Shute, Governor of New England. We whose names are underwritten, inhabitants of the North of Ireland, do in our own names, and in the names of many others our neighbors, gentlemen, ministers, farmers, and tradesman, commissionate and appoint our trusty and well beloved friend, the Rev. William Boyd of Macasky, to His Excellency the Right, Honorable Colonel Samuel Shute, Governor of New England and to assure His Excellency of our sincere and hearty inclination to transport ourselves to that very excellent and renowned plantation upon our obtaining from His Excellency suitable encouragement. And further to act and do in our names as his prudence shall direct. Given under our hands this 26th day of March, Annoque Domini 1718."

A copy of the petition hangs in the Concord, New Hampshire Museum and Historical Society.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

A fleet of five sailing vessels arrived in Boston on August 4, 1718 carrying about 700 persons from Northern Ireland. The Reverend Cotton Mather called them "the oppressed brethren from the North of Ireland." Their migration was directly pursuant to the "address" signed by three hundred and nineteen men, one of them being our Adam Dickey. This group of immigrants who came to America in 1718, scattered throughout the New England states. Some of the settlers stayed in Boston, and some went from Boston to Worcester and other Massachusetts towns. Sixteen families sailed to Casco Bay, Maine. After exploring the area eastward from Casco Bay and finding no trace of land that pleased them, they decided to return to Boston and direct their course westward. As they sailed down the coast and up the Merrimack River they arrived at Haverhill on April 2. From Haverhill, they began their search on foot to find a desirable tract of land. They ultimately settled some fifteen miles inland in an area they called Nutfield, which is now Londonderry, New Hampshire.

Some of the Scots-Irish remained in Portland and many settled on the Kennebec at or near Wiscasset, and some went back to Haverhill, Massachusetts to settle there. A good number of the immigrants spent their first winter in Dracut and Andover before joining their families and friends in Londonderry, New Hampshire.

A considerable number of this body of emigrants, on arriving in Boston, 1718, decided to remain in the city; and, uniting with countrymen of their own faith, formed the first Presbyterian Church and Society. Mr. Moorehead was pastor and it was called the Presbyterian Church on Long Lane----now Federal Street. (From the Janet Fisher Archibald history in the Public Archives of Nova Scotia, David Dickey had pew 102 in 1727 in the new church in New England.)

In the next 25 to 30 years, it is reported that about one-third of all Scots living in Northern Ireland came to America and settled mostly in New England. Due to this rapid increase, the descendants of the early Londonderry settlers moved into Vermont and Maine. The towns of Chester, Windham, Manchester, Merrimack, Bedford, Acworth, and Antrim were founded.

Since Adam Dickey's name is not among the first sixteen families who went directly to Londonderry, New Hampshire and since they had pew 102 in Boston, one would presume that he stayed in Massachusetts, then went to New Hampshire and ultimately settled in Chester. Chester is just a few a few miles from Londonderry, New Hampshire.

Genealogical history of descendants of Adam and Elizabeth (MacPherson) Dickey.

"This family came from Londonderry, Ireland and settled in New Hampshire from the year 1719 to 1732. The children of Adam and Elizabeth (MacPherson) Dickey are: Elizabeth (1740-1801, md. Samuel Nutt), James (1741-1776, md. Mary Brown), Joseph (1744-), William (1746-1825, md. Mary Matthews), Jenat and Adam (1751-1840, md. Jennett Nesmith)."

This is a different family from our ancestor. There is no reference to Nova Scotia in this book. There is a suggestion that John and David are sons of Adam b. in Northern Ireland from a first wife and that Elizabeth McPherson is Adam's second wife and this is his second family, born in America.

<https://www.familysearch.org/photos/artifacts/58571763>

However, I have not seen any verification of that. It seems unlikely to me that the same Adam Dickey would have sons born in 1698 and 1751.

"William Dickey (1683-1743) and his wife Elizabeth (1678-1748) came from the north of Ireland approximately 1725-1730 with their three children, Samuel (1700-1781), Elias (1706-1755) and Elizabeth (1705-1762), and located in the westerly part of Londonderry, NH." Samuel md. Martha Taylor (1704-1775), d/o William Taylor and Betsey Grimes, in 1732. Elias md. Rosanna McDaniel, d/o James and Susannah McDaniel of Raby, Hillsborough, New Hampshire, on 17 Feb 1743. Elizabeth md. John Hall in 1741."

So there were several other Dickey's in the Londonderry, NH area at the same time as our family that spread through New Hampshire and beyond in the subsequent generations. They may or may not be related.

Familysearch has Margaret's surname as Reid, b. 1698, d. 16 Feb 1742, d/o Gen. Nathan Reid and Magdalena McDowell.

The following children's births are recorded but may not be the same John and Margaret.

David Dickey Sr., son of Adam Dickie, was born in County Tyrone, Ulster, Northern Ireland in the year 1699.

David Sr. would have been about eighteen or nineteen years of age when he arrived in America with his father and possibly other siblings.

David Dickey, Sr. married Isabell McGlaughlin or McLaughlin, who was born in 1701 in Northern Ireland. Her parents, the McLaughlin's, were also part of the 319 leaving Northern Ireland for America in 1718. David and Isabell were married Feb. 27, 1724 in Londonderry, New Hampshire by the Rev. Said Dickey was in the French Revolutionary war upwards of 3 years was in 13 hard fought battles + never was wounded nor made prisoner by his enemy.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Vassalboro, Maine, aft 10 Jan 1803; he was 72. Grantee of Truro. Residence: Truro, NS 1761; Vassalboro, Maine, 1771.

In the fall of 1759, brothers Adam, Robert, and David Dickey II were among the first 20 men who sailed up the Bay of Fundy from New England, to Truro and Onslow, to make preparations for a settlement. They had been in Nova Scotia prior to this, and led by Colonel Alexander McNutt, assisted the British in driving out the French settlers. After erecting small houses in and around Truro, they returned to New England to spend the winter. In May of 1760 they returned to Nova Scotia with their families. The earliest Truro grant was a tract of land comprising a hundred thousand acres. The number of shares or rights was to be 200, each share to consist of 500 acres, and each grantee to have one share, to be divided into one or more lots to each share or right as agreed upon by the major part of the grantees.

The conditions were that each grantee "shall bind himself to plant within ten years, two acres with hemp, and to keep up the same or plant a like number of acres during succeeding years; and that the grantees shall come to their lands before the 30th of September, 1760." The grantees, all except Deborah Hayward, widow, are described as yeomen, and all are said to be from the Province of Massachusetts Bay.

These settlers endured a considerable amount of hardship for the first few years. In the fall of 1760, all of the women except one, returned to New England to spend the winter. When they returned in the spring of 1761 a large number of settlers came with them as the enthusiasm for migrating to Nova Scotia continued through the New England coastal towns and many of the inland areas. Special inducements were offered to immigrants, such as free transportation to Nova Scotia, grants of cleared land, and aid in the first year of settlement in other areas of this Providence.

When Adam, Robert and David II went to Nova Scotia, they took with them; cattle, farming implements, household utensils, seed corn and seed potatoes for the first year of planting. As part of the conditions for land, not only did they have to supply all their own equipment, seeds, household equipment etc.; but it was a requirement to clear and work three acres for every fifty, drain three acres of marsh, keep three cattle and six hogs until three acres for every fifty were cleared and improved.

If the land was not fit for cultivation, they had three years to build a dwelling house 26 feet by 16 feet and to stock it with three cattle and six hogs for every fifty acres. By 1765 there were about 53 families (about 120 people) in Truro. It was in this year that they obtained a grant from the government for the township of Truro. Adam, Robert, and David Dickey II were among the first grantee's of Truro. This grant is displayed in the Colchester Historical Society in Truro, Nova Scotia. Adam Dickey had one and three quarter rights, Robert Dickey had one right, and David DickeyII had one and a half rights.

Most of the grantees of Truro were descendants of the 319 who left Northern Ireland for New England. The early settlers of New England intermarried with in this Scotch/Irish group and this tradition carried on in Nova Scotia.

The first census of Truro, Nova Scotia (1770) shows the following;

- (1) Robert DICKIE, wife, son, and daughter. All four protestant and all four Irish Stock.
- (2) Adam DICKIE, wife, 3 sons, 2 daughters over 16 years of age, 3 daughters under 16 years of age. All protestant, Adam- Irish, the others American.
- (3) David DICKIE, wife, 2 sons, 1 daughter. All protestant and all Irish American. (Note: the children would have been David III, either Eleazer or Samuel, and Mary. If Samuel had died young, then it makes sense that Eleazer was in Truro. If Samuel had not died by 1770, then it leaves open the possibility that Eleazer had not come to Truro and was left behind in Londonderry - see O'Flahery, reference below).

The names of some of the first settlers of Truro and the Musquodoboit Valley were DICKEY, Archibald, Taylor, Fisher, Blair, Whidden, Anderson, Miller, Morrison, Kennedy, McNutt, Logan, McKeen, Moor(e), MacDougall,

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Dunbrack, Cruickshank, MacDonald, Boyd, and MacInnes.

Not only were they early settlers of Truro and the Musquodoboit Valley, but most had families who were among the group that arrived in 1718 from Northern Ireland. Another group of early settlers in the Musquodoboit Valley had been in North Carolina from the Scottish Highlands. These families intermarried for generations and these family names are still prevalent in Nova Scotia today.

David Dickey II had six different parcels of land in Truro. One of these parcels like many others was approximately 100 yards wide and approximately 1 1/2 miles long. It ran from the Salmon River to the top of the hill overlooking the Salmon River Valley. On this parcel is the old Dickie house, which is still occupied by Dickies today. David would graze his sheep on another parcel of land that ran alongside the Salmon River. This parcel began at the fork in the river and ran southward. It was recorded that his sheep had one hole bored through both ears. This was done with a hot iron.

As the town of Truro grew, David moved out of town and settled a few miles east of Truro on the old Halifax Road on the south side of the Stewiacke River.

(Flo Dickey notes)

From Miller, "David Dickey (brother of Adam) was another of the first settlers of Truro, and a Grantee of the Township. He was married before he came to Nova Scotia. David and Samuel, twin sons of David and Mary Dickey, were born in Truro, April 29th, 1763. Samuel died when he was young."

The article "David Dickey of New Hampshire, Nova Scotia, and Maine" in the July 2012 edition of the New England Historical and Genealogical Register (vol. 166, pp. 205 - 218) by Ellen J. O'Flaherty, Prof. Emer., picks up the story of David after he removed from Truro to Vassalboro, Maine in 1771. The details of his other children, except David III, come from that resource.

In 1760 when David was 29, he married Mary Boyd, daughter of Samuel Boyd³, in New Hampshire. Born in 1735 in Topsfield, Mass.

Baptized in Topsfield, Massachusetts 27 July 1735, daughter of Samuel and Margaret Boyd.

They had the following children (surname Dickey):

- i. Eleazer Boyd. Born on 22 Mar 1761 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. Eleazer Boyd died in Monroe, Waldo Co., ME, on 8 Jun 1853; he was 92. Buried in Mount Solitude

³ Five children of Samuel and Margaret Boyd were baptiized in Topsfield, Mass.: Eleazer on 11 March 1722, Ann, John and Samuel on 16 Dec 1733, and Mary on 27 July 1735 (Topsfield Vital Records).

Eleazer Boyd was confirmed as a grantee of the "New Addition" to New Boston, New Hampshire in 1752. He had "gone to war" at the time of the 1756 New Boston census and in the same year he made his will. He left "onto my well beloved brother John Boyd and my sister Mary Boyd all my estate both real and personal". His estate was probated in 1761. Shortly after, David and Mary Dickey of Londonderry sold to John Boyd "land lying in New Boston, late the property of Eleazer Boyd, late of Londonderry deceased and left by the said Eleazer Boyd in his last will and testament unto the abovesaid Mary Dickey."

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Cemetery, Monroe, ME.

From his obituary - "Another Revolutionary Veteran Gone - In Monroe, on the 8th inst., died Eleazer B. Dickey, aged ninety three years and three months. The service which Mr. Dickey, in his vigorous youth rendered to his country, as well as the merits of his character in after life, demand more than casual notice. There are passing few left who in dying, will leave a similar record of the actions in the times when our infant colonies were struggling for a national existence. Mr. Dickey was born in Londonderry, N.H. (the town from which the original settlers of Belfast came) in 1760. In 1773 he removed to Vassalborough. In the year 1778 he voluntarily enlisted himself under the banners of his country, at a period when her fortunes seemed the darkest. In the army he did three years and nine months service, much of it under the immediate command of WASHINGTON. He was in many important engagements. It was a melancholy duty assigned to him to assist at the execution of MAJOR ANDRE, Oct. 2nd, 1780. In 1805, Mr. Dickey removed to the town of Monroe, where he resided till the day of his death, respected for the part he had taken in "the times that tried men's souls", as for his excellent qualities as a man and citizen. His descendants are very numerous, and nearly all of them reside in the County of Waldo. There have been 14 grandchildren, 110 grandchildren, 145 great-grandchildren and two great great grandchildren. Mr. D. was always a democrat, and voted for every candidate of his political faith from Washington down to the election before the last. He was unable to go to the polls to vote for President Pierce. We are happy to add that all his descendants to the present day are sound republicans. Mary, consort of Mr. D., died May 9 1852, aged 86 years. (Republican Journal, Belfast, Maine, June 24, 1853).

Eleazer Boyd married Mary Hamblin. Born on 17 Nov 1767 in Barnstable, Mass. Mary died in Monroe, Waldo Co., ME, on 9 May 1852; she was 84.

In 1784 when Mary was 33, she married Thomas Croker. Born in 1747. Thomas died in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS, on 14 Jan 1829; he was 82. Residence: Upper Stewiacke (1784).

“Mary, the eldest daughter of Adam and Janet Dickey, was married to Thomas Croker. They had three sons and five daughters. He was one of the eight who settled first in Upper Stewiacke, in the spring of 1784. Mr. Croker died there January 14th, 1829, aged 78 years. (Miller).

Thomas Croker had two sons, Wm. and John, and two daus., Margaret (md. Daniel Fraser), Rebecca (md. J. Whidden Graham). John had two sons, Thomas (md. Elizabeth Crockett - four sons James, Anthony, John, David) and James (md. Sarah Henry - four sons, John, Andrew, Ernest, Thos., two daus. Margaret (Geo. Higgins), Ida (Putnam Fisher)). (Creelman, Upper Stewiacke Centenary)

John Croker married Margaret Dickie, and it is perhaps easy to presume that they were first cousins.

“Died at Stewiacke on the 17th inst., aged 82 years, Mr. Thomas Croker, an old and much respected inhabitant of that place.”

They had the following children:

- 16 i. Rebecca (15 Feb 1800-15 Jun 1869)
- ii. John Crocker. Born in 1782. Buried in St. James and St. John United Church, Newcastle NB.

John married Margaret Dickie. Born in 1783 in South Branch, Col. Co., NS. Margaret died in Newcastle, NB, on 12 Mar 1867; she was 84.

March 23 1867, The Gleaner and Northumberland Schediasma, Chatham, “Newcastle (North. Co.) Tuesday morn. 12th inst., Margaret relict of John CROCKER, age 84.”

Note: I wonder if she was a daughter of James Dickey and Elizabeth Kennedy? The ages and place would fit, meaning Margaret and John were first cousins. A user-submitted tree on Ancestry has her parents as James Dickie and Grizelle Henry but no source, so perhaps unrelated. I have not run into these names before.

- iii. William. Buried in Old Middle Stewiacke Cemetery.

- iv. William married Elizabeth Millen.
Margaret.

Margaret married Daniel Fraser.

7. David Dickey (*Adam*³, *David*², *Adam*¹). Born on 18 Oct 1752 in Massachusetts, USA. David died in Shubenacadie River (drowned)., in Oct 1818; he was 65. Residence: Lower Stewiacke, NS.

“David Dickey, the eldest son of Adam and Janet, was born in Massachusetts, U. S., in 1752. He was married to Martha, daughter of Ephraim Howard and Sarah Blair, his wife. They had four sons and four daughters. He settled at Lower Stewiacke, south of the river and interval, and on the west side of the old Halifax road. On this place he spent the remainder of his days. He was drowned from a boat on the Shubenacadie River, October, 1818. His first wife died in 1807. He was married again to Mrs. Rebecca Rowland. They had one son and two daughters. Janet the eldest daughter of David and Martha Dickey, was on a load of hay when she was small, and fell and the wheel went over her body. She was not missed by her father until he went to his barn. He returned to look for his child and found her dead. Mr. Dickey's second wife died April 7th, 1866, aged 84 years.” (Miller).

Dickie, David (dated 5 Nov. 1818, Stewiacke). The administration of his estate (RG48 Reel 19,164(A), 19,179) mentions sons James, Ephraim, David, Elijah and Adam, as well as daughters Joanna, Jane, Martha and Esther.

He settled at the South Branch of Stewiacke. He and William Putnam built the first mill there. On Aug. 22, 1793, Mr. John Johnson came with his grain to the mill; Mr. Dickey left his house, which stood on the west side of the branch, to go to the mill, which was on the east side. His son James, who was about eight or ten years old, went with him; as they were crossing the stream on a raft made of poles, it was supposed that the boy fell into the stream, and the father went in to try and save his son. In a short time after, they were found both drowned. Mr. Dickey was a good swimmer. He left a widow and four young children (two sons and two daughters) to bemoan their sudden and sad bereavement." Family of David Dickey (5) & Mary Boyd

15. David Dickey (David³, David², Adam¹). Born on 29 Apr 1763 in Truro, Colchester Co., NS. David died in Musquodoboit, Halifax Co., NS, in Nov 1852; he was 89. Residence: Musquodoboit, NS.

David Dickey III, a twin of Samuel, was born April 29, 1763 in Truro, Colchester Co., Nova Scotia. He became known as "Yankee Davie" because of his sympathy for the American cause and had relatives fighting in the war in New England. David married Ruth Weatherbee, the daughter of Samuel Weatherby and Ruth of Mass. and grantee of Truro, Nova Scotia. They married before 1794 in Nova Scotia. They had six sons and three daughters. He settled in Musquodoboit, on the farm now occupied by Mr. Dickey, son of Thomas Dickey, of Middle Stewiacke. Ruth, his first wife, died in 1816. He was married again to Ann, daughter of John and Alice Archibald, widow of the late John Kennedy, of Middle Stewiacke, February, 1823. He died November, 1852, aged 89 years. His widow died at Pleasant Valley, October, 1868, aged 86 years. (Miller).

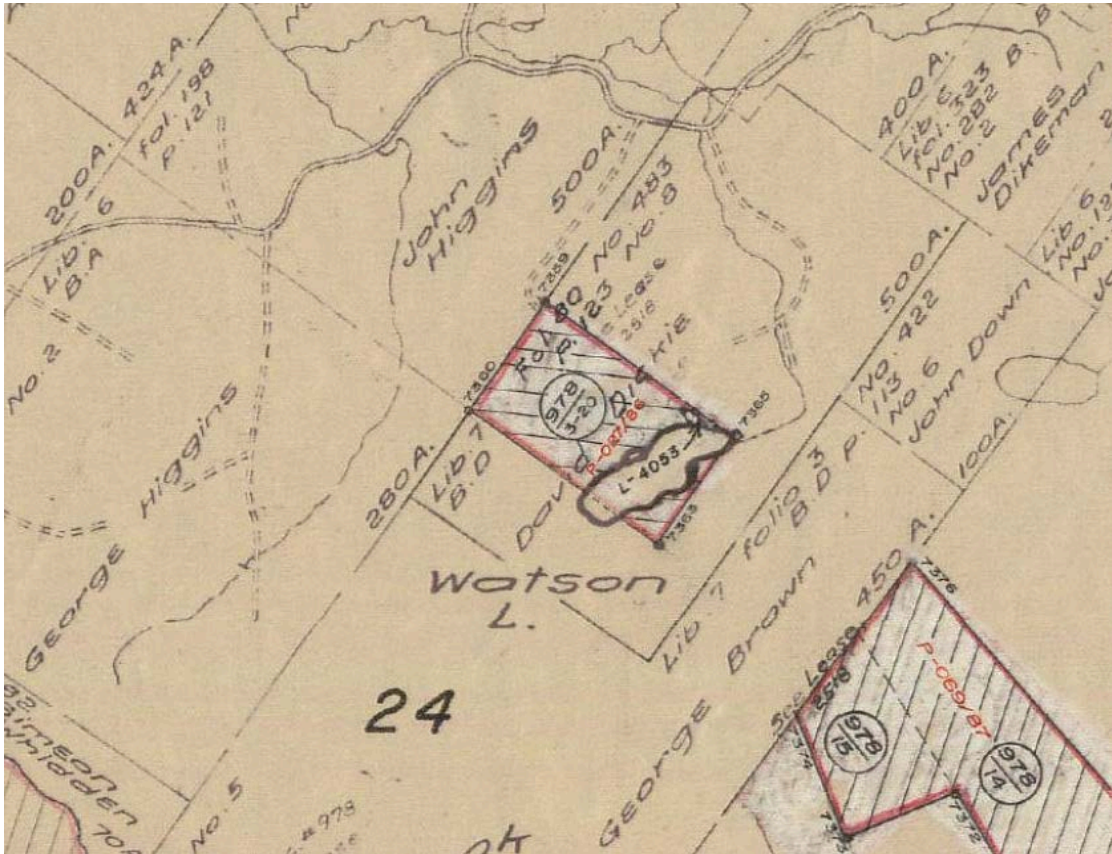

Ellen J. O'Flaherty (2012, NEHGR 166, pp. 205 - 218) suggested that David Dickey Jr. may have served in the army from Vassalboro, Maine during the Revolutionary War but by 1790 he had returned to Nova Scotia. In 1809 he petitioned for a grant of crown land and in June 1810 he was granted 500 acres of crown land in Musquodoboit.

After living in Truro and Upper Stewiacke, in 1814 David purchased land in the Musquodoboit Valley which became known as Higginsville. This is a beautiful section of land. It has tall pines, raspberry bushes, wild strawberries, oak trees, and a bubbling brook, known as Dickey's brook. This homestead was in the Dickey family until the about 1987 when it was sold to a Mr. Higgins (also related to the Dickey Family). It was in 1816 when Ruth Weatherby died. David married again at the age of 60 in Feb. 1823 to Ann Archibald Kennedy. Ann was the eldest daughter of John Archibald and Alice Moore. She was born in Truro on March 28th, 1772. She was the widow of John Kennedy and had 5 sons and 2 daughters. With David's children, that was a total of 16 children. They had no children together. David died at the age of 89 in November 1852. Ann died at her son William's house in Pleasant Valley, Nova Scotia in October 1858 at the age of 86. (Flo Dickey notes)

There were two Ephraim Dickey's in Stewiacke (records indicate both were Ephraim Howard Dickey). From the 1838 Nova Scotia census (Col. Archives), Lower Stewiacke, Dickey Ephraim 1 male under 6 1 female under 6 1 male 6-14 1 female 6-14 1 male over 14 7 persons total, and Middle Stewiacke Dickey Ephraim 2 females under 6 4 persons in total. Nova Scotia and US records show children born to Ephraim Dickey and Mary Tupper, and to Ephraim Howard Dickey and Mary Brenton, with dates overlapping. Each had a Thomas Dickey. Their fathers, David and William, both married daughters of Ephraim Howard, so Ephraim Dickey was named for his grandfather in each case. Ephraim who married Mary Tupper was a son of William, so Ephraim who married Mary Brenton must have been a son of David.

1861 census Lower Stewiacke, Ephraim Dickey 1 male, 3 females, 4 total in household (Note: only one Ephraim Dickey/Dickie in Colchester 1861 census).

Martha (b. 1837), Thomas (b. 1839), Eber (b. 1847), Abner (b.1849) and Ephraim (b.1854) all listed parents as

Family of William Dickey (11) & Hannah Howard

31. Ephraim Dickey (William⁴, Adam³, David², Adam¹). Born in 1800. Ephraim died in 1865; he was 65.

There were two Ephraim Dickey's in Stewiacke. From the 1838 Nova Scotia census (Col. Archives), Lower Stewiacke, Dickey Ephraim 1 male under 6 1 female under 6 1 male 6-14 1 female 6-14 1 male over 14 7 persons total, and Middle Stewiacke Dickey Ephraim 2 females under 6 4 persons in total. Nova Scotia and US records show children born to Ephraim Dickey and Mary Tupper, and to Ephraim Howard Dickey and Mary Brenton, with dates overlapping. Each had a Thomas Dickey. Their fathers, David and William, both married daughters of Ephraim Howard, so Ephraim Dickey was named for his grandfather in each case. The Thos. Miller book confirms that Ephraim, s/o William, married Mary S. Tupper. Hannah Munson, the daughter of Mary Tupper, claimed her grandparents to be William Dickey and Hannah Howard.

From a biography of their son Rev. Thomas Ellis Dickey, referring to his parents "Mr. Dickey's parents died in Nova Scotia, the father in 1865, the mother in 1879. Of their nine children, Eddy became a leading citizen of Elk River, MN, and was killed in 1890 by the falling of a plank from a pile-driver. Benjamin has been an extensive lumberman of Minneapolis for many years, Hanna [Mrs. Luther Munson] also resides in Minneapolis. Thomas E. came to Minnesota in 1854. The others yet live in Nova Scotia."

From Illustrated Album of Biography of the Famous Valley of the Red River of the North and the Park Regions of Minnesota and North Dakota: Containing Biographical Sketches of Settlers and Representative Citizens: Rev. Thomas E. Dickey. Alden, Ogle, 1889, Minnesota. "Ephraim Dickey had a family of nine children, seven of whom are now living – Eddy, Hannah (now Mrs. L. C. Munson, of Minneapolis), William, Elijah, Eliza, Benjamin and Mary (now Mrs. William Holesworth). {Note: Elijah?}

1861 census Lower Stewiacke, Ephraim Dickey 1 male, 3 females, 4 total in household. (Note: only one Ephraim Dickie/Dickey in the 1861 census Colchester Nova Scotia).

According to Thomas' biography, they had nine children. Eddy (1823), Hannah (1827), Thomas (1836), Elizabeth (1839), Mary (b.1841) and Benjamin (b.1845) listed parents as Ephraim Dickey and Mary Tupper. John (1826-1854, Pine Grove Cemetery) is a guess, so there is at least one more unaccounted for.

(Children from Helen Gibson and from Col. Archives and various US records)

On 19 Jan 1822 when Ephraim was 22, he married Mary Simpson Tupper, daughter of Eddy Tupper (1779-17 Mar 1816) & Ann Fulton (1778-). Born on 17 Jun 1801 in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Mary Simpson died in Lower Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS, on 22 Nov 1876; she was 75.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

From the Stewiacke Centenary by Charles Creelman, "Eddy, fifth son of Eliakim Tupper, married Ann Fulton. They had two sons Benjamin and Samuel and five daughters, Mary S. married Ephraim Dickie, Elizabeth married Hugh G. Cox, Jerusha married William Fulton, Alice married James Creelman (second husband Barry Hamilton), and Sarah married Samuel Creelman (second husband Jonathan Campbell).

From Miller "Mary S., their eldest daughter (referring to Eddy and Ann Tupper), was born June 17th, 1801. She was married to Ephraim son of William Dickey and Hannah Howard, January 19th, 1822. They had five sons and three daughters." *Mary, b. 1841, is named as the youngest daughter in her marriage announcement, Presbyterian Witness. Hence Eliza, b. 1851 d/o Ephraim and Mary, must be the daughter of Mary Brenton.

The Family of Charles Cox and Sarah (Pond) Fisher of St. Mary's

1. Charles Cox Fisher was born in Nova Scotia about 1814 of Scottish ancestry and first came to New Brunswick in 1836. He was part of the large Fisher family in the Truro area of Nova Scotia, descended from William Fisher (1716-1777) who emigrated from Londonderry, Ireland to New Hampshire but later settled in Truro in 1762. Charles Cox Fisher married Sarah E. Pond 14 December 1843, in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church at Fredericton. She was born 1 December 1823, and died 7 January 1904. Charles Fisher died 20 June 1879, in Marysville, York County. They were buried in the Methodist Cemetery on Canada Street in Marysville, now part of Fredericton.

Charles Cox Fisher was a farmer in St. Mary's Parish. Later, his farm became part of the town of Marysville when it was created. He was a Presbyterian but the rest of the family was Methodist. Disease must have struck the family in 1854 and 1859, in both years two family members died within a few days of one another. One of these deaths was Johanna Fisher, who died 17 September 1854, age 19 or 21. She was too old to have

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Samuel Dickey was born in 1797 in Musquodoboit, Nova Scotia. He inherited his forefather's Herculean strength, having been described as equal to that of two men. He was also described as a peaceful and loving gentleman. He married about 1823 to Alexandrina MacInnes of Lower Meaghers Grant, Nova Scotia. She was the daughter of Lieutenant Miles MacInnes, and Christiana MacDonald. They had 3 sons and 3 daughters. Alexandrina MacInnes Dickey died in 1841 at age 43, complications of childbirth. Samuel Dickey remarried 3 years later at the age of 48, to Hannah Swinburn Kent (1814-1892) on Feb. 25, 1845. They had 3 sons and 2 daughters. This family all adopted the spelling of Dickie. Hannah's brother, Wellington Kent married Eliza Ann MacInnes, Hannah's other sister was Mary Kent. Samuel Dickey died April 13, 1872 and is buried next to Alexandrina MacInnes Dickey and to the left of Hannah at Meaghers Grant, Musquodoboit, Nova Scotia. The 12 children of Samuel Dickey are named in Jennie Reid's Musquodoboit Pioneers, updated by Byron K. Jennings, 2004. A large portrait of Samuel Dickey hung in the home of Harry Dickey, grandson, but its whereabouts is now unknown. His picture (below) is from the Musquodoboit Family Album, Musquodoboit Valley Historical Society, 1983, provided by the Western Hennepin County Pioneer Association, Long Lake, MN.

Samuel Dickey (1797-1872)

From Halifax County Index to Deeds, Samuel Dickey bought land from David Dickey in 1830 and from Charles Dunbrack in 1845, and he sold land to Robert Dickey (his brother) in 1846, to Thomas McCallum (his brother-in-law) in 1847, and to Thomas Parker in 1850. This would seem to represent his move from Glenmore, Musquodoboit to Lay's Lake Road, Lower Meagher's Grant, land of which had been granted to James Dunbrack (Nova Scotia land grant map 74). However, he may have been in Meagher's Grant area as early as 1838.

1838 census Lower Musquodoboit (Meagher's Grant), Dickey (sic) Samuel, farmer, 1 male under 6, 1 female under 6, 1 female under 14, 2 females above 14, 6 total in family, incl. head of household.

Florence, who married Clarence Tonks, was close to Roy and I all of our years together. She died in 1969, aged 96". However, in the Nova Scotia Historical Vital Statistics, Alexia Shaw, d/o James Shaw and Janet Dickey (d/o Samuel Dickey and Alexandrina MacInnes), md. Francis Hyslop Todd in Halifax, 21 Dec 1871. The dau. Florence Todd was b. 28 Nov. 1872 and Francis H. and Alexia Todd are found in the 1880 census of Malden, MA, with dau. Emma F., ages matching those at marriage. So, Lexie Todd must have been Alexia Shaw rather than Electie Dickey.

Mabel Kerr Smith and Jamie Kerr in their history of the Kerr's and Dickey's only named 5 children of Samuel Dickey and Hannah Kent, no Electie was mentioned. Likewise, S. H. Taylor and M. D. Goff only named 5 in 1951, no Electie.

From the United Church of Canada Bulletin 41-01, Remembrance Day.

With each passing year, fewer are left to remember the wars that the Remembrance day poppies signify. One Nova Scotia family has a unique way of remembering. Their grandfather and great-grandfather, James Howard Tupper, left his wife and four children to serve in the First World War. Before he left he wrote a letter to each of his sons which their mother, Letty, was to give them on their twelfth birthdays. In these letters James shared with his children his love for them, his devotion to his wife and his strong faith in God. "First", he wrote, "be true to your God. Second, be true to yourself. Third, be true to your country."

While he was serving in France, James asked a friend to take a small piece of ivy home to his wife. Letty planted the ivy, which thrived in the rich farm soil of the Annapolis Valley.

In September 1916, James was killed in action. No one can say for sure the influence James had on the succeeding generations. However, each of James and Letty's sons served as ministers in The United Church of Canada, and this legacy has continued as a great-grandson now carries on the tradition. James' presence is also acknowledged as his vine continues to be woven into anniversary corsages and bridal bouquets, and crawls along the walls of family homes.

November 11, 2001, Hello to Colleagues and Friends:

Just a note to let you know that the Mission and Service Fund bulletin for November 11, 2001 has a strong personal connection for me. The back of the bulletin tells the story of a Nova Scotia family who have a special way of remembering. The story is about my great-grandfather who was killed in World War I.

One of the things he did before he died was to pick a slip of ivy vine in a convent garden in France and it made its way back to my great-grandmother and it has been growing in the family, ever since. We have it growing in our kitchen in Fort Qu'Appelle. The bulletin cover mentions his legacy of faith and love. His two sons became United Church ministers (one being my grandfather) and it says that one great-grandson is a minister as well - that's me!

It is a legacy that I am proud of and remembrance has a personal meaning for me. Even though I never knew James H. Tupper, I do feel that he has influenced my life.

If you are worshipping or leading worship in a place that uses the bulletin, I have one request - could you send me a copy! It would be neat to have copies of the cover from congregations throughout the country.

50. Eliakim Eddy Tupper (*Joanna Dickey*⁵, *David*⁴, *Adam*³, *David*², *Adam*¹). Born on 15 Jan 1822 in Lower Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Eliakim Eddy died in Bear River, Digby Co., NS, on 31 Jul 1895; he was 73.

THE COURIER DIGBY COUNTY NOVA SCOTIA CANADA - August 2, 1895 E. E. Tupper, M. P. P. - Eliakim E. Tupper, at present M. P. P. for Digby County, was born in Lower Stewiacke, Colchester County in 1822, and is consequently 70 years of age. In 1825 the Tupper family moved to Upper Stewiacke in the same county. When eight years of age young Eliakim was attacked by a severe fever sore in the leg, which prevented for nearly two years his attending school or aiding in the lighter chores on the farm. After recovery from this, his experience was that of ordinary farm boy, school when there was not much to do at home, but work before anything else. In fact about all the school education he ever received was obtained while he hobbled to and fro on crutches. In his fifteenth year the family moved to St. John, N.B., where the future representative of Digby served his time at the carpenter's trade. In 1849 his mother died, but the family remained at home until a few years later when the father again married. The family then scattered and young Eliakim, in his twentieth year started for the States. He arrived in Boston with just one half crown in his pocket, which owing to the young bluenose's perseverance in seeking employment, as well as to his trained economy, lasted until he obtained work with a carpenter. During the remaining ten years Mr. Tupper worked in his trade in that country until 1852 he built his house in Yankeeland and turned his attention to the manufacture of kegs by machinery. The business was followed five years when in 1857 the business was purchased by an American gentleman and the Nova Scotian returned to the land of his birth.

Mr. Tupper then settled in Round Hill, Annapolis county, and carried on a milling business for nine years when he moved to Bear River, where he has been ever since. Immediately after settling in his new home a partnership was entered into between himself and the sons of the late Nathan Tupper, and a general block machine and moulding business carried on for two years. In 1868 the boys sold out, and the business has been operated by Mr. Tupper ever since. In 1886 Mr. Tupper suffered a severe loss, when the fruit of many hard years' labor was swept away in the blaze of an hour. Shop, stock and machinery all went, and the once prosperous block maker, now in his sixty-fifth year became almost discouraged. It was a trying time, and would have closed the record of many a man, but it was also time for the little deeds of kindness and heartfelt generousities that had characterized his citizenship among the people of Bear River for so many years to bear fruit, and the fruit was borne. Soon willing hearts and hands responding to their own impulses were engaged in encouraging the erection of a new shop. James Hogan of Bear River was the first to volunteer assistance, hauling to the old premises about 1800 feet of boards. Stanley Clarke, Charles Clarke, John Thomas and others rendered valuable material aid, and Mr. Tupper feels deeply indebted also to the firm of Marshall & Hardwick, B. Wade, Charles Dunn, M.E. Rice and others for kindness rendered at that time. The shop was built and the old business resumed and Mr. Tupper has carried on blockmaking and milling with good success to the date.

In 1844 Mr. Tupper was married in Boston, Massachusetts to Miss S. H. Holland of that city. There are now living by that marriage three children---Ella, now Mrs. Justin L. Brock, of Lynn, Massachusetts; Fanny, who married William M. Tupper, a son of the late Miner Tupper of Bridgetown; and George T. Tupper, living with his father. In 1873 Mrs. Tupper died and some years later Mr. Tupper married Janet, daughter of Charles Fraser of Green Hills, Picton county.

A consistent member of the Presbyterian church, Mr. Tupper has always given his earnest and active co-operation to every social work.

His connection with the Masonic body dates back twenty-two years. He is a prominent member of Keith Lodge, Bear River, always in his office, and is one of the oldest past masters. He has also been for many years an officer of Grand Lodge, being D D G. M. from 1888 to 1890 for District No. 3.

Though always taking an active interest in politics, his first real political life, outside his representation of his won district as councillor, dates from the general provincial election of 1890, when he was elected in this county to represent the Fielding administration by a large majority. Mr. Tupper is a genial and desirable host, an a companion with whom none need fear to spend a lonely hour. As a public man he is well informed, a good speaker, lacking neither point nor pleasantry, and makes a very creditable representative.

Digby County, Nova Scotia THE COURIER August 2, 1895 DIGBY COUNTY'S WELL-KNOWN MEMBER AND ONE OF BEAR RIVER'S MOST HIGHLY RESPECTED CITIZENS LAID AT REST AFTER A LIFE OF BOTH PRIVATE AND PUBLIC ACTIVITY. ELIAKIM E. TUPPER - It is with a regret that we know is shared by our host of readers throughout the entire county, and farther that we this week chronicle the sad death of Mr. Eliakim E. Tupper. It is the general lot of the newspaper man to make record with other things occurring, of the obituaries within his field, but it is seldom that THE COURIER has had to speak of the decease of a local man so well, so long and so favorably known by the public, and so much regretted by a very large constituency as in the present case. We are writing the obituary of a part of the county, so completely, indeed, had Mr. Tupper been for several years associated with the every interest of Digby County. The tidings of Mr. Tupper's death reached Digby on Wednesday morning and though daily expected were yet as regretfully received. The memories of many incidents in their co-operation with the deceased will surge back to the minds of numbers of Digby men.

Mr. Tupper was stricken with what has proved his fatal illness early in the spring. He had all the many years life possessed a vigorous constitution which had enabled him to perform very arduous work in his private business as well as in political campaigns: but the strength gave way to utter prostration in the months of this last spring and from the first attack his attending physician gave up all hopes of a recovery. There seemed to be rallies at times but they were only rallies and though with faithful endeavors by physicians and nurses to ward off the illness, it proved incurable. Suffering was intense, confinement under most painful condition being necessary to even the maintenance of the spark of life. The end, prolonged, expected, merciful, yet by friends dreaded came on Tuesday evening, and the body for years so strong and active was past its woes. A resident of Bear River in conversation with us a few weeks ago voiced what seemed the general opinion, "We miss him even now while he's sick. There are some who may die and we will not miss them but Mr. Tupper is missed by everybody even when he is only kept within doors. He was so constantly among us and so constantly genial that we all miss him." And it was Mr. Tupper's unusual geniality of disposition, combined with a Quaker-like generosity, that made him so popular. For every honest man he had a smile of welcome, a good word, an open-handed hospitality. Many are those, and the writer includes himself, who have many times shared the thrice generous hospitality of his home and his every convenience.

Mr. Tupper was born in Lower Stewiacke, Colchester County in 1822. When about 15 years of age he went with his parents to St. John, and lived there for about ten years, learning and following the carpenter's trade. He then moved to the United States building up a large trade as a master builder in one of the New England towns. After a seventeen years residence in the republic he returned to his native province, settling in 1857 in Round Hill, Annapolis. There he followed farming and milling for nine years, building up a good and fairly lucrative trade. In '06, he again moved to Bear River where he had ever since made residence. His vocation there was chiefly that of miller and mechanic and in his line he was known as a master hand.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

But Mr. Tupper was not a man of private business success alone. He was a prominent man in the Digby County municipal and political affairs and had ever the best interests of the community at heart. In the village of his choice he was always to be depended upon to give an out-and-out expression of his opinion, an opinion that was pretty generally of solid worth. He was interested himself in what concerned the many, not the cliques. In November of 1872 he was appointed to the position of a J. P. of Digby county which commission he held until his death. In 1883 he was elected to the municipal Council, representing the township of Hillsburgh. After two years of service in that office he voluntarily resigned. His fellow councillors of the time speak of his work in very high terms. In the spring of 1890 he was brought out as a candidate for Digby in the local government on the Liberal ticket. At the election held May 21, 1890 he was elected by 1255 votes with Mr. E. A. Comeau as colleague. Mr. Tupper served his term of four years at Halifax with every success making an excellent representative and that his services were appreciated was shown by his return in the campaign of '94. He was present at the sessions of this last winter shortly previous to his sickness. He had political enemies as every politician has but even they learned to respect him for his staunch stands. He was true to his party and his convictions and it is men of conviction and the courage of the convictions we need to represent us. The Liberals have seldom had a better man.

Mr. Tupper's religious connection was in his earlier years with the Presbyterian Church, the church of his family but after his removal to Bear River, for local reasons, he had cast his lot with the Methodist Church and was an active worker in the Bear River church, being until his sickness the leader of the Bible class. In church as well as in business and political circles he will be missed. He was also a prominent Freemason, holding office in the Bear River Lodge, Keith, No. 16. He always took especial interest in the doings of the Order and was one of its most highly respected members.

THE COURIER has more reason than that of a news item to write Mr. Tupper's obituary. He was long a prominent stock holder in THE COURIER Printing and Publishing Company and his transactions with the company and his deliberations of counsel were always to the point and gladly received.

The funeral which took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock was one of the largest ever seen in Digby County. It was attended by the Freemasons in a body, Rev. R.S. Whiddon of Bridgetown, officiating with the Masonic ceremonies, assisted by Rev. J. Craig. The services were very impressive and solemn. The internment was made in the Methodist Cemetery. Premier Fielding was present and large numbers from Digby, Annapolis, and other towns, to pay their last respects to the man they all knew.

A second wife, and one son and two daughters, children of the first marriage, are left as the immediate relatives to mourn their bereavement, with a large number of family connections. We include ourselves among the acquaintances who regret our loss in the death of the last member of a well-known family.

Father: Ephraim Dickey b. 1800 d. 1865, son of William Dickey and Hannah Howard

Mother: Mary Simpson Tupper b. 1801 d. Nov 22, 1876, daughter of Eddy Tupper and Ann Fulton

Hannah Dickey and Luther Munson married on May 21, 1850 in Cooper, New Brunswick, Canada. Luther and Hannah Dickey Munson along with her brother Benjamin Tupper Dickey arrived in Minneapolis [called St Anthony] on July 4, 1850 after a varied trip over land, over the Great Lakes. Their steamer, the Delaware towed the burning Griffith to shore. Per an interview published in the Minneapolis Morning Tribune on Dec 19, 1915, she and Luther were some of the first settlers in St. Anthony and was a member of the Territorial Pioneers' Association. She kept a scrap book containing time-worn cuttings from ancient newspapers. She was best friends with Gov. Pillsbury's wife. She is proud of the fact that she comes of old English stock. Her mother was a cousin of the late Sir Charles Tupper, the "Grand Old Man of Canada". She is related to Robert Fulton, the builder of the first steamboat. She was called Grandma by every child in the neighborhood. When she first came to Minneapolis, there wasn't a bridge to cross the Mississippi River and the only means to cross was by ferryboat. For a time after the bridge was built there was a 5 cent toll, which was reduced to 3 cents. They lived in a little shack near what is now Third Avenue and Fourth Street Southeast. Her first parlor furniture consisted of 3 round stools and a dry goods box, which served as a table on top and held the kettle and saucepan underneath. She had a No. 8 cook stove and burnt green oak for fuel. "People nowadays seem to think we didn't have time for jollity in those days, but let me tell you we used to have the grandest times! There was no such thing as hired help then; we all just helped each other. Well do I remember the first ball ever given here. It was at the Winslow house, which was a grand place then, with statuary and pictures and carpets that couldn't be beat anywhere roundabout. They sent the guests to table in two lots. I was invited to go in with the first shift, but I said no, I'll keep on dancing a while. And right mad I was with myself when the second lot of us went in and found all the dainties gone and nothing left but a bit of cold meat and some bread." She remembers the first newspaper printed in 1857. "The Civil War-well, I guess I remember it! I took boarders those days and 5 of them went off. I didn't have any close relatives in it, but I knew every man in the first regiment that was raised here and sent off under General Baudeliere. We had a dinner for them all before they left and well do I remember what it was like for the women that saw their menfolk go and never got news of them for months." Her views regarding the European War "I guess it's a case of six of one and half-dozen of t'other, and I don't see any reason for worrying my head about it. It seems to me, thought, there's enough battles for every person to fight with himself in a lifetime without starting in fighting other people."

Obituary March 17, 1917. "Munson, Mrs. Hannah, aged 90. Died March 15 at her home, 327 2nd Av. SE. Born in Nova Scotia March 10 1827. She was a pioneer of East Minneapolis, having lived there 67 years. She is survived by her son Eugene and four grandchildren."

Extracted from "Progressive Men of the State of Montana" pages 1545-1546, A.W. Bowen & Co.

Among the prominent of the Churches that have transformed the wild Montana of the early days into the peaceful and law-abiding commonwealth that exists today must be considered the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Rev. Thomas E. Dickey was born in Lower Stewiacke, N.S. on April 2, 1836, son of Ephraim and Mary [Tupper] Dickey. His father was a large mill-owner, and a native also of Nova Scotia, his grandparents, however, being of Massachusetts Colonial stock, emigrating to the province from that state. His paternal grandmother was a Howard, and her husband, Col. Howard, was an active officer in the American army of the Revolution. The English family of Howard is one of the most distinguished, tracing its descent from Hereward, the Saxon, a powerful opponent of William the Norman in his successful conquest of England in 1066. Mr. Dickey's parents died in Nova Scotia, the father in 1865, the mother in 1879. Of their nine children, Eddy became a leading citizen of Elk River, MN, and was killed in 1890 by the falling of a plank from a pile-driver. Benjamin has been an extensive lumberman of Minneapolis for many years, Hanna [Mrs. Luther Munson] also resides in Minneapolis. Thomas E. came to Minnesota in 1854. The others yet live in Nova Scotia. Thomas E. Dickey was matriculated at Jubilee College at Robin's Nest, Peoria Co., IL in 1860. Then for seven years Mr. Dickey attended the Bishop Scabury Divinity School at Faribault, MN and was graduated therefrom in 1867. Entering the Episcopal ministry, his first charge was a mission at LeSueur, MN.

And from "Illustrated Album of Biography of the Famous Valley of the Red River of the North and the Park Regions of Minnesota and North Dakota: Containing Biographical Sketches of Settlers and Representative Citizens. Alden, Ogle, 1889, Minnesota." Rev. Thomas E. Dickey, a minister of the gospel, will form the subject of this sketch. He, like every other man, has had an experience that would fill a volume of this size, if given in detail, but duty devolves upon the writer to herewith record only the chief facts concerning this man's birth, parentage and relation in life with men. He is a native of Nova Scotia, born April 2, 1836. His parents were Ephraim and Mary (Tupper) Dickey, natives of the same country. The father was a lumberman and followed the business of lumbering until his death. He was a major of the militia and a justice of the peace. Our subject's grandfather was William and his grandmother Hannah (Howard) Dickey. Hannah's father was a colonel in the Revolutionary war and a native of England. Mary Tupper's parents were Eddy and Annie Tupper, natives of England and Nova Scotia, respectively.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Ephraim Dickey had a family of nine children, seven of whom are now living – Eddy, Hannah (now Mrs. L. C. Munson, of Minneapolis), William, Elijah, Eliza, Benjamin and Mary (now Mrs. William Holesworth). Until he was fourteen years old, our subject attended school in Nova Scotia, and then embarked in the lumbering business at the age of eighteen years. He came to Minneapolis, Minnesota, doing the same business until he was twenty-one years old. He then attended the high school of Minneapolis a year and went to Jubilee College, in the town of Robbin's Nest, Illinois, another year then came to Faribault, Minnesota, where he finished his classical studies, also graduated from the seminary, in 1867, having the degree of B.D. conferred upon him. He then took charge of the Episcopal Parish at Le Sueur, Minnesota, for three years. His next charge was at Austin, Mower County, Minnesota, where he remained two years, then went to Olympia, Washington Territory, remained one year and next spent a year in California. From that state he went to Silver City, Idaho, where he remained a year. The next three years were spent in Bozeman, Montana Territory. From there he came to Moorhead, Minnesota, in 1877, taking charge of the mission on the Northern Pacific extension from Lake Detroit to Bismarck, making two trips per month for a year. He was then made President of the Nebraska College, at Nebraska City, holding that office four years, and then returned to Moorhead and became rector of that parish. He built the Bishop Whipple School in 1882, south of Moorhead. The buildings and grounds cost not far from thirty thousand dollars. The date of our subject's marriage was 1870. His wife was Miss Helen Wright, a native of Vermont. Her father was Kent Wright. Their children are – Henry W., Charles K., Ellis S. and Edward. The first named is now a teacher in Dakota. Politically Mr. Dickey is a Democrat. He belongs to the Masonic fraternity and is now numbered among Moorhead's most prominent men.

On 5 Feb 1871 when Thomas Ellis was 34, he first married Hellen M. Wright in Le Sueur, MN. Born in 1836 in Shoreham, Addison, Vermont. Hellen M. died in Flathead, Montana, on 15 Oct 1909; she was 73.

- ii. Henry Whipple. Born on 2 Apr 1871 in Austin, Mower, Minnesota. Henry Whipple died in Humboldt, California, on 8 Aug 1942; he was 71. Buried in Conrad Memorial Cemetery, Kalispell, Flathead, Montana.

Henry Dickey was born April 2, 1871, at Austin, Minn. He was educated at Bishop Whipple College, Moorehead, Minn., and later graduated from the State Normal school at Moorehead. He came to Kalispell in the fall of 1892 and was connected with the Kalispell and Conlon Mercantile companies for a number of years. Later he was with the Conrad National Bank, where he served as cashier for a period of approximately 15 years. He served as assistant manager of the War Finance Corporation at Helena during the first World War. Later he was located at Conrad, Mont. where he was engaged in settling matters for the First National Bank of Helena. About 1932 Mr. Dickey went to Helena as assistant manager of the Regional Agricultural Corporation, and then he moved to Kalispell, for a year, before moving to California, where he passed away August 8. Mr. Dickey is survived by his widow and three brothers, Charles K., Ellis S., of Kalispell, and Edward of Seattle.

"The community of Lower Stewiacke was startled yesterday by the announcement that Mrs. Elijah Dickey was dead. The deceased lady was a very popular member of society and an active worker in the Presbyterian Church. She had suffered from an attack of la grippe from which had supposed to have recovered. She died at 3:30 in the morning, and was a sister of Mrs. Preedy and the Misses Tupper of the Hillside House of this city." (Wm. T. Hill collection, 26 Feb., 1892)

Pine Grove Cemetery, Stewiacke East, "In memory of Eliza Tupper, wife of Elijah Dickie, died Feb. 24, 1891, aged 62 years."

NSHVS Married 17 Sep 1868 Haifax, Harry Christopher Pready 32, Merchant, r. Haifax, b. England to Josephine Tupper, 20, d/o Samuel, farmer, and Elizabeth.

So Eliza might be another daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Dickey) Tupper. Birth date and place would fit. She was a daughter of William Dickey and Hannah Howard, so a 1st cousin of Elijah. Samuel was a son of Eddy Tupper and Ann Fulton.

On 20 Nov 1853 when Eliza was 24, she married 22. Elijah Dickie, son of David Dickey (18 Oct 1752-Oct 1818) & Mrs. Rebecca (West) Rowland (1781-7 Apr 1865), in Lower Stewiacke, Col. Proprietress of Emma's Place. Emma in many ways was a remarkable woman. She tended her chickens and prized the 10 volume set of British/American poetry by Edwin Markham. After her 2nd husband, Clark Spencer died in 1925, she needed a way to make a living, so she resourcefully started a business aimed at pleasure and recreation at her home and had some business cards made which read: "Alpine Rooms, Folsom, CA. Mrs. Emma Spencer, Proprietress. Rooms for Rent by Day, Week, or Month." She had a few girls working for her and the interior was decorated lavishly, predominantly in red. She ran her operation for about thirty years until the mid 1950's when it was shut down by the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office. In her old age she was penniless and ended up in the Sacramento County hospital. When she died, a plot was bought for her at Lakeside Cemetery by someone who did not want her buried in potter's field. She has a niche at the Folsom History Museum with a large photograph of her with her husband Clark Spencer. According to one inscription, the survival of Folsom during the hard years of the Depression was due to three enterprises: the Natomas Water Company, Folsom Prison, and "Emma's Place".

101. Miles MacInnes Dickey (Samuel⁵, David⁴, David³, David², Adam¹). Born on 22 Sep 1825 in Glenmore, Musquodoboit, NS. Miles MacInnes died in Wayzata, Minnesota, on 13 Jul 1917; he was 91. Buried in Old Wayzata Cemetery. Residence: MA (1854); MN (1864).

From Halifax County Index to Deeds, Miles Dickey sold land to Dominick Farrell in 1849. Miles immigrated to Bristol County, Mass. March 31, 1854, and from there to Minnesota around 1864. They lived at Parkers Lake for about 13 years. When their house burned down around 1877, he went to Wisconsin for awhile and tried his hand as a lumberjack. From there he moved his family to Waverly, Minnesota. Another disaster struck, this time locusts. Again, they packed their belongings and moved to Wayzata, this was about 1880. During his traveling around, Miles, his four sons Alexander, Samuel, Andrew, and Eliazer, and his brother in law, David Lydiard did some prospecting in the Dakota Territory. Their claim was the exact location of the famous Deadwood gold strike, but they never "hit it."

Miles was a deeply religious man. Even though there were churches around Wayzata, none seem to satisfy or fulfill his spiritual need for the denomination of his youth, which had a strong self-government and independence. Others felt this way as well and in 1881, Miles and eleven others established the Congregational Church of Wayzata, which he and Eliza Ann were charter members. Miles watched over the church. If the church needed money, Miles would volunteer to raise it from the Minnetonka summer people. Miles served as Sunday School Superintendent, Deacon, and would preach the sermons when the minister was ill or away. Miles took part in every activity involving the church. Miles never missed a Sunday and expected his family to be in the services each Sunday. He was instrumental in building two more churches. One to replace the original church that burned down and the construction of a larger church.

"He was a broad-shouldered man and a handsome sight in his cutaway suit, his fancy vest, his big hat and white tie." Thelma Jones, states in her book, "Piety Hill," that after Miles wandered over deserts and mountains like the prophets of old, he found the plot of land for the new church. Miles and his committee composed and submitted for adoption, a Confession of Faith and a Covenant.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

On November 16, 1882 Miles Dickey, President of The Wayzata Cemetery Association, signed the document that donated and dedicated Lot number 7, Block 12, of the Town Plat to public use forever.

Being an avid reader, it is no surprise that he was instrumental in starting the town library. He and Miss Alice B. Palmer would borrow books to rent out and raised money to buy new ones and soon the library was established. This library was known as the Wayzata Library and Literary Club.

He was responsible for blazing a trail from Wayzata to Minneapolis through brush, swamps, hills, and trees. This trail is now the Wayzata Boulevard. He was indeed the "City Father."

When Miles immigrated to Minnesota he not only brought his wife and children, but his wife's parents as well. Miles' brother, Eleazer and his family had migrated to Minnesota around 1844 and settled at the east end of Long Lake. Eventually, his brother Ranald B. Dickey, his brother-in-law David Lydiard and his wife Janet Dunbrack arrived in Minnesota. It was during this time that a great many Nova Scotians (and most of them relatives) immigrated to Minnesota. The Logans, Millers, McCabes, Archibalds, MacDougals, Creelmans, Fishers, MacDonalds, to name a few. Most of these families had been neighbors in Nova Scotia and their families had intermarried for generations. These families remained in touch for another two generations.

Miles hauled barrels from the Long Lake factory to the rail-road for shipment to the mills, he operated a meat market, and served as Wayzata's postmaster. He led the party against the opening of taverns along the shore, he would shake his angry fist at the inn keepers in outrage.

On February 16, 1898 Miles won the bid for building a bridge across the creek flowing from Gleason's Lake into Wayzata's marsh (now Bay Center). A few months later Miles contracted to clear the cemetery grounds for the sum of $34. In October of the new graveyard would be named "The Greenlawn Cemetery."

Miles was a farmer, librarian, Deputy Sheriff and served as Town Clerk. He became a Naturalized Citizen on Feb. 18, 1889.

Miles died July 23, 1917. Eliza died three years later. They were married for 67 years. The minister said of Miles "The whole community will miss his presence and influence and proclaimed him to be one of the choicest spirits that ever came into the acquaintance of his life."

On November 13, 1919 the home of Miles Dickey which was a Wayzata landmark on Lake Street was moved to make way for a Standard Oil filling station. Will Dickey, a son of Miles, became a partner with William Milbert in the real estate and fuel oil business.

On 14 Nov 1847 when Miles MacInnes was 22, he married Eliza Ann Dunbrack, daughter of Alexander Dunbrack (1 Sep 1786-12 Jan 1887) & Isabelle "Belle" Cruickshank (18 Aug 1788-10 Nov 1889). Born on 24 Feb 1828 in Musquodoboit, NS. Eliza Ann died in Wayzata, Minnesota, on 8 Oct 1914; she was 86.

They had the following children:

- i. Alexander Dunbrack. Born on 15 Sep 1848 in Middle Musquodoboit, NS. Alexander Dunbrack died in Long Lake, Minnesota, on 10 Oct 1883; he was 35. Buried in Old Wayzata Cemetery. He was never married.

He lived for awhile in Bristol County, Mass. and moved to Minnesota. He operated a meat market in Long Lake, Minnesota. Alexander died October 10, 1883 at Longlake, Minnesota. Alexander's fiancée, Louell Varner, never married.

- ii. Alexia. Born on 28 Oct 1850 in Musquodoboit, NS. Alexia died in Wayzata, Minnesota,

In all writings of Hannah's, also the gravestone of her father Samuel and the naming of her son Miles Dickey, the spelling "Dickey" is used. I have therefore adopted that spelling for at least her father's generation, but thereafter Dickie seems more prevalent, although both can be found.

1891 census Goff Hannah widow 65, Ernest 24, Clifford 23, Power Catherine 23, Marshall Mary 11.

On 5 May 1853 when Hannah Ann was 26, she married William Goff, son of Thomas Goff (14 Jun 1796-23 May 1868) & Eleanor Holland (1800-16 Jun 1865), in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. Born on 22 Jul 1823 in Bedford, Nova Scotia. William died in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia, on 11 Feb 1885; he was 61. Buried in St. Johns Anglican Church, Lower Sackville, NS. Occupation: Innkeeper, Carpenter, Farmer, Justice of The Peace. Residence: Bedford, Sackville, Goffs. Religion: Anglican.

William received a land grant of 100 acres in 1846 at Guysboro Road, three years following the land grant of Thomas in 1843 in the same area. He also received grants of 112 acres in 1857 and 90 acres in 1862, and purchased Henry Goff's 100 acres in 1862. The 11-room house built by William on the south side of the Guysborough Road on his original 100 acres was to become home to four generations of Goff's. The village of Goff's, still in existence near the Halifax Airport, is named for these founding fathers and the history of the area has been recorded by Mrs. Noreen Gray and Mrs. Annie Smith in their book, "History Along the Old Guysborough Road". They write, "The Goff's farm is now gone, having become part of the Airline Golf Course. However, this family, in giving their name to the community, will long be remembered."

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

William and Hannah's home stood at the junction of the road from Enfield (the Oldham Road) and the old Guysboro Road near Kelly Lake. They ran a Stage Coach Inn which was no doubt a welcome sight to travellers when they finished the first part of their journey. The early days of stage coaches in Nova Scotia were described by R.D. Evans in a paper read before the Nova Scotia Historical Society on March 20, 1936 (Collections, NSHS, 1938, Vol. 24). He reports that the semi-weekly Guysborough stage was established in 1861 by a man named Archibald and ran from Halifax to Musquodoboit, Guysborough, St. Mary's, Country Harbour, and Port Mulgrave. The coach set out from Dartmouth, through North Preston, and thence pursued a northerly course through the woods to emerge on the Guysboro Road at the Inn familiarly known as "Goff's", a name which became adopted for the local village and has carried on to the present time.

Archibald secured the mail route in 1862 along the Guysborough Road and including the Eastern Shore and Tangiers, and by 1879, the Goff's Inn had also become the area's post office, which carried on at the same house until 1969. The house later became the home of James Ledwidge but has been left only in memory and pictures. Stories about the old property have appeared at least twice in Halifax newspapers. It was directly opposite to the Goff's school, which was for a period of time used as the community fire hall. A new fire hall and recreation centre has been built on the site of the Goff's school, directly opposite the site of the Goff's home. In 1990, Everill Goff and his sons Murray and Douglas donated a reprint of an original charcoal sketch of William and Hannah Goff to the Goffs Memorial Recreation and Fire Hall, where it now hangs.

William and his family also ran a lath and shingle mill. He was a skilled carpenter and his carpentry work is still in existence in the homes of some of his descendants. William was appointed supervisor of roads, Eastern district, Halifax Co., May 1865, and also acted as a Justice of the Peace in the area.

William Goff declared his birthplace as NS, nationality as Irish and religion as Church of England in the 1871 and 1881 census for Guysborough Road. Hannah declared her birthplace as NS, nationality as Scotch, and religion as Reformed (Wesleyan) Presbyterian. Despite a lifetime together, they were buried apart - William in the Anglican cemetery (St. John's) in Lower Sackville with his parents and siblings, Hannah in the Presbyterian cemetery in Meaghers Grant with her parents and siblings. William and brother Philip are on the same headstone. The inscription reads, "They were pleasant in their lives and in death were not divided." They died 6 weeks apart.

In the 1861 census, William Goff was enumerated with the Truro Road subdistrict, 2 males and 5 females. (Note: Thomas and Philip were in the Wyse's Corner sub-district). In the 1871 census Goff William 47, Hannah 44, Mary 17, Ellen 15, John 13, Alexanderina 11, William 8, Ernest 5, Clifford 3, Mary E 7, and Sarah Ann 4. Mary and Sarah Ann are William's brother Phillip's children. Ellen should be Eliza and William is William Miles Dickey.

In the 1881 census Mary 27, Eliza 24, Alexa 21 (school teacher), Dickie 19, Ernest 15, and Clifford 13 are at home. Only John had left by then. It is interesting that all the children are listed as Scottish and Reformed Presbyterian, like their mother, rather than Irish, like their father.

In addition to their seven children, a girl, Mary Jane Marshall, born in Halifax, Jan. 12, 1880, was raised in the home of Mrs. Hannah Goff. She arrived in the Goff home as a small child in need of parenting and was quickly accepted as one of the family by all the Goff's throughout her lifetime. In 1900, she married Frank MacPherson and had two children, a son, Lorne, and a daughter Jennie. One of Jennie's family, Darrel, was raised by Mary. He was a victim of polio as a youth.

They had the following children:

- i. Mary Eleanor. Born on 24 Feb 1854 in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia. Mary Eleanor died in Devon, Hfx. Co. Nova Scotia, on 27 Feb 1890; she was 36. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, NS. Mary lived at home in Goff's, no doubt with many of the responsibilities which go along with being the eldest sister to a large family, until she was married on Sept. 17, 1888 at age 34 to Alexander J. MacDougall, of Devon, Hfx. Co.

A gloom has been cast over this community by the sudden death of Mr. Alexander McDougall of Guysborough Road, which occurred at his fathers home on November 15th. Mr. McDougall had been ailing for some time but his illness was not thought to be serious until Nov. 3rd; he had been to consult his physician the previous evening and on the following day had driven some distance alone and on his return went to his parents home close by his own place; where he was stricken with paralysis. Drs. Densmore of Elmsdale and McLean and Haliday of Shubenacadie were called but all their efforts were unavailing. The remains were interred at Gays River, and 31 carriages containing relatives and other friends followed the body to its last resting place. Rev. A. B. Dickie conducted the funeral service. The deceased was born at Kempt, Hants County, 43 years ago, but removed with his parents when small, quite near his late home. He leaves a wife and one daughter, aged parents and four sisters to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, a devoted son, and a kind brother. The sisters surviving are Mrs. John E. Long of Richibucto, N.B., Mrs. George Slocumb of Malden, Mass., and Mrs. Miles D. Goff and Miss Bella McDougall of Guysborough Road. The bereaved ones feel deeply the kindness shown by their neighbours and friends in their affliction, during the painful illness friends were ready to help and sympathize with the family and the many acts of devotion proved the high esteem in which the deceased was held by those who knew him. Mr. A. Gladwin's consideration for all their wishes and his kind and sympathetic manner while performing the duties of Undertaker were appreciated by all the relatives. The pallbearers were James G. Kerr, James McMichael, John McMichael, Edwin Hirtle, Freeman Nelson, Clifford Goff." They had one child: i. Mary Victoria (24 Feb 1890-18 Aug 1960), md. Morris S. Moore.

Death Notes: 22 Jul 1912, The Charlottetown Guardian. Mrs. Henry C. Lowe, Charlottetown, received a telegram yesterday morning announcing the sad news that her brother Thomas P. Mortimer was killed the previous day at Portland, Maine. No particulars are given. The late Mr. Mortimer was 53 years of age. He was the son of William Mortimer of Charlottetown, and left here 35 years ago, going first to Newfoundland and subsequently to the New England States, where he has been engaged in building and contracting. He was married to a Nova Scotia lady, and leaves a widow and one son and daughter to mourn.

They had the following children: i. LeRoy Goff (7 Mar 1887-20 Jun 1977); ii. Elsie B. (2 Jun 1890-1921)

- v. William Miles Dickey "MD" (14 Jun 1862-10 Mar 1960). Born on 14 Jun 1862 in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia. William Miles Dickey "MD" died in Milford Station, Hants Co., NS, on 10 Mar 1960; he was 97. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, NS. Residence: Goffs, Milford Station. Religion: Presbyterian (1891), United Church Of Canada. Occupation: Shingle Mill Operator; Farmer. MD or "Uncle Dick" and Martha Jane McDougall were married in Milford Station, Hants Co., one day following the marriage of Mary Goff and Alexander McDougall. MD worked for his father's lumber business and ran a shingle factory. They lived for a short time immediately following their marriage in Oldham, Halifax Co., where their first son was born, and then in a house on the Guysborough Road, Hfx. Co., near William Goff's home, further east on the same side of the road, where their remaining two sons and one daughter were born.

In 1908, they purchased the Roland Ross farm property in Milford Station. In the 1911 census, Guy 21, John 18, and Alexander 17 are living with Miles 48 and Martha 48. Flora is boarding with a Noonan family in East Dover. They built a new house on the farm in 1916. After the death of Martha in 1925, John returned to the farm and married Hazel Wright, who came to the farm to live. John and Alex also purchased adjoining land from the Power family. They carried on a successful farm for 36 years. MD went to Saskatchewan for a summer some time after Martha had passed on. In 1944, M. D. sold the farm and moved with son John and family to a property in Milford Station next to the Milford United Church, a house which John built. He died in this house in 1960 at age 97. MD was a man of sterling character and was highly respected by all of the family members and the community at large.

"Miles Goff, 97, Dies at Milford, Milford Station, March 15 - The death of Miles D. Goff, 97, which occurred at his home on Thursday, March 10, brought to a close the life of one of Milford's oldest and highly esteemed residents. Mr. Goff, who was born on June 14, 1862, was the fifth in the family of eight children born to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Goff, of Goffs, Guysborough Road. For 20 years he carried on farming and lumbering in Goffs, selling out in 1908 and coming to Milford with his wife and family. Here he purchased the Ross farm which he successfully operated until his retirement in 1944. After retiring, he built a new home near the Milford church where he lived happily with his son John and Mrs. Goff. Four years ago he was called upon to bear the loss of his son John, who died very suddenly, but his Christian faith supported him and the excellent care given him by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Goff, helped to make life pleasant. Mr. Goff was a home-loving man and was happiest there with his family, and was always pleased to welcome his friends. He was a man of strong Christian principles and convictions, and until a year ago was in attendance at all services in the Milford United Church of which he was a member. Of late, when infirmities of age prevented active participation in church and community activities, he was, nevertheless, interested in and supported all church and community work. He lived a full and rewarding life and even in the face of failing health never complained, remaining cheerful until the last. The funeral, attended by relatives and friends from his old home in Goff's and friends from the nearby communities, was held from his late home on Saturday, March 12, and was conducted by his pastor the Rev. Russell MacLeod, who read comforting messages from the Psalms and the New Testament. He paid tribute to the Christian life of Mr. Goff and spoke of the Christian's hope in the life hereafter. The Milford Choir led in the singing of "Unto the Hills" and "O Life That Will Never Let Me Go". Burial took place in the Gays River Cemetery beside his wife who died in 1925. The many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which he was held. Sincere sympathy is extended to the surviving members of the family, the daughter Flora (Mrs. Chester Wardrope) of Ottawa, sons Alex of Milford and Guy of Gull Lake Saskatchewan, who was unable to be present but who telephoned the family on Thursday. Also surviving are a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren."

On 18 Sep 1888 when William Miles Dickey "MD" was 26, he married Martha Jane McDougall, daughter of Daniel McDougall (11 Apr 1831-1 Aug 1901) & Rachel McMullin (1 Jan 1833-26 Mar 1915), in Milford Station, N.S. Born on 23 Dec 1862 in Kempt, Hants Co., N.S. Martha Jane died in Milford Station, Hants Co., NS, on 19 Jun 1925; she was 62. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, NS. Religion: Methodist (1891 Census). "The Late Mrs. Dickie Goff. There passed away peacefully at her home in Milford on the evening of June 19, Mrs Dickie Goff, a highly respected citizen, and her passing is mourned by a large circle of relatives and friends. She was a sincere Christian; a peaceful loving character full of good will and charity for all humanity in the home and all around her. Her kindness will ever be remembered by all. Mrs. Goff, who attained the age of 62 years, was born at Cheverie, but had lived at Milford for the past 17 years. She leaves a sorrowing husband and two sons, John and Alex, at home, a daughter, Mrs. Chester Wardrope in the west, Carmichael, Saskatchewan, also one son in the west, Guy of Gull Lake, Saskatchewan. Also three sisters Mrs. Long of Richebucto, NB, and Mrs. Slocumb and Mrs. Prescott, both living in Massachusetts. Sympathy goes out to them all. The funeral, which was held on Sunday afternoon, was very largely attended and the collection of flowers sent by sorrowing friends was very beautiful. Services were held at the Milford Church and internment was made in Gays River. Rev. E. A. Kirker of Truro officiated at the Church and grave, in the absence of Rev. J. P. Falconer, the regular minister."

They had the following children: i. William "Guy" (10 Aug 1889-31 Oct 1967); ii. Flora Myrtle (19 Oct 1890-1 Nov 1971); iii. John Roy (11 Jun 1892-5 Jul 1956); iv. Alexander Mac (26 Oct 1893-1 Dec 1966).

His funeral was held from the home of his brother M.D. Goff in Milford Station. He was buried in Meaghers Grant near his mother and her family. His cabin was left to his niece Edna, Clifford's daughter, and was moved to Musquodoboit Harbour (East Petpeswick) where Edna lived for many years. The funeral took place on the 6th inst., the Rev. Edwin Smith officiating. Internment was beside her late husband in the family lot in the Upper Stewiacke Cemetery. Mr. C.F. Cox of this town attended the funeral; his first wife was a daughter of the lamented Mrs. Tupper. - (Truro Daily News Saturday June 7, 1902)

On 10 Aug 1855 when Elizabeth was 21, she married Eliakim Tupper, son of Benjamin Tupper (14 May 1799-6 Jan 1880) & Mary Dunlap (14 Jan 1803-28 Nov 1891). Born in 1829. Eliakim died on 18 Dec 1894; he was 65.

Warden Tupper's Death - Col. Eliakim Tupper, Warden of Colchester County, died this morning at the residence of his son-in-law, L.M. Ellis, Queen Street, Truro. The death of Col. Tupper has come upon us all with a shock. It was so sudden and to most of our citizens so unexpected. For some time the Warden had been suffering from severe pains from an injury to his abdomen, which latterly developed into an abscess on the wall of the abdomen, and which such serious symptoms that he left his home in Stewiacke and arrived in Truro on Monday the 10th inst., for medical treatment. There is no doubt but that the deceased contracted cold while journeying to Truro, and when he arrived here he was a very sick man. His physician, Dr. J. H. McKay, did all that medical skill could do, and had consultation with Dr. W.S. Muir on Sunday last. Both physicians agreed as to the nature of the disease and as to the very serious condition of the suffering man. Yesterday the Warden was about the same in his symptoms. He lingered through the night and this morning, as already stated, passed quietly away. The immediate cause of death was an abscess on the wall of the abdomen resulting in peritonitis and blood poisoning. Inflammation of the bowels had set in and was another complication that baffled all medical skill. By the death of Warden Tupper, Colchester County loses one of its ablest, shrewdest and most talented men. After the Municipal Incorporation Act was passed, Col. Tupper was the first Warden in Colchester. He at once showed his firm and lucid grasp of the new Act, and from his clear interpretation of its complicated provisions started the machinery running smoothly in the county. The deceased was born 66 years ago on the farm at South Branch, Upper Stewiacke, where he has ever resided, and to a community in which he has ever been universally respected. He was Warden of this County at the time of his death. The deceased has left a widow, one son Martin L., who resides on the homestead, and a daughter, Mrs. L.M. Ellis of this town. To them and other relatives the News extends heartfelt and sincere sympathy in their unexpected and sad bereavement. It is expected that the remains will leave here on Thursday for the Presbyterian church in Upper Stewiacke Village, where the funeral service and ceremonies will take place at about 2 o'clock on that day.

- (Truro Daily News - Tuesday Dec 18, 1894)

Warden Tupper's Funeral - An immense mass of people assembled at Upper Stewiacke Presbyterian Church, yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of the late Warden Tupper. There was an immense congregation of friends from all parts of the Stewiacke Valley, and other places in the country. Among those present were: Councillors H. H. Eaton, Salmon River; Bigelow, Lower Stewiacke; McGill Johnson, Upper Stewiacke Village; and Charles Creelman; James McCurdy, Clifton, License Inspector; Hugh McKenzie, Municipal Clerk; Geo. R Archibald, Lower Stewiacke; John Dickie, Middle Stewiacke; W.D. Dimock, Truro, and many others. The funeral services were very impressive, and were conducted by the Rev'ds A. G. Gunn, S. F. Fraser and John Robbins. Mr Gunn gave an admirable address and Rev. John Robbins supplemented his remarks by a most touching figure to the memory of the late Colonel Tupper. After the services were over, friends passed around the bier and gave the last look of love on him who has been so universally respected by all. The death of Colonel Tupper has left a blank in this county that will be very hard to fill. All spoke of him with the greatest respect, feeling that the district of Stewiacke has lost a most valuable member of society, and the County of Colchester one of its ablest men.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Saturday afternoon with a tea at the home of Mrs. LaDessa Nordale. The tea is being given by membership of the Soroptimist Club of Fairbanks which Miss Dickey organized in 1940 and served as first president. The honoree is well known throughout the territory through her long association with the Lathrop company. This began in 1931 shortly after graduation from the University of Washington when she became secretary to the late Austin E. Lathrop. (Fairbanks Daily News, Apr 14, 1953)

Midnight Sun Broadcasting Company, Anchorage Museum, "Miss Miriam Dickey is Secretary-Treasurer of the Midnight Sun Broadcasting Company, and is Capt. Austin Eugene Lathrop's "right hand man" in all his other widespread enterprises. It was her interest in radio and its application to an isolated Alaska in 1938 that brought about the application for a grant at Fairbanks. The station was begun in the summer of 1939, and began operating October 1st, 1939 with a power of 1,000 watts on 610 kilocycles. Power was increased to 5,000 watts in September of 1942, and to 10,000 watts in December of 1943, at this time the frequency being changed to 660 kilocycles, a very desirable clear channel. This F.C.C. special service authorization was the establishment of a precedent, since no other station under the jurisdiction of the F. C. C. had been allowed full unlimited time privileges sharing a 1-a clear channel. The dominant station is WEAJ (now WNBC) New York. The necessity for a clear [channel] was to avoid the interference caused [by] the 610 k.c. signal by KFRC in San Francisco. Coverage in the outlying areas, both from a military and civilian standpoint was, and still is, so important, interference, even though it is sporadic and only when transmission conditions are good, could not be tolerated."

A letter from June Mortimer, wife of LeRoy Goff Mortimer, states "Another of the Goff cousins whom Roy knew as Lexie (short for Alexandrina, which was also Roy's Mother's name) married Frank Todd. "Lexie Todd". Her daughter Florence, who married Clarence Tonks, was close to Roy and I all of our years together. She died in 1969, aged 96" .

Electie Dickey is mentioned as a daughter of Samuel and Hannah Swinburn Kent by Byron Jennings, Musquodoboit Pioneers. Flo Dickey had listed Electie, as md. to a Mr. Todd. However, Alexia Shaw md. Francis Hyslop Todd in Halifax, 21 Dec 1871. The dau. Florence Todd was b. 28 Nov. 1872 and Francis H. and Alexia Todd are found in the 1880 census of Malden, MA, with dau. Wayzata Cemetery.

Will was well known around Wayzata. His daughter, Eliza Dickey Manning stated he was the town character. He dressed the part; the worse he looked, the better he liked it. As he walked the streets of town, he sang; often combining lyrics of different songs to the tune of one. He was gruff but soft hearted, inviting people by the dozens to his house. Will operated a coal and wood business. When the automobile arrived, he opened Wayzata's first service station. He later sold petroleum products. He built many of the tennis courts on Lake Minnetonka estates, hiring men in the spring who became known as "Dickey's Robbins." William Dickey was active in civic affairs, he was a three-time mayor of the city, and for 30 years was a member of the school board. He was vice president of the Wayzata State Bank for several years and president for a brief period of time. He was a member of the Wayzata Masonic lodge. The Dickey house was the first to be wired for electricity and he had the first telephone. He and Nellie were married for 62 years. (Flo Dickey)

Will made a trip to Nova Scotia in the 1940's and visited with Miles Dickey Goff.

On 14 Dec 1892 when William Lydiard was 27, he married Nellie Bickford. Born on 28 Feb 1871. Nellie died on 16 Nov 1963; she was 92.

Harrison Gaslin Dickey was born at Parker's Lake, Minnesota. July 16, 1870 and grew up on a farm near Worthington and at Wayzata. Harrison, like his brothers, inherited his ancestors height, strength, handsome looks, compassion, integrity, and moral obligations to family, friends, and community.

As a young man of 15 years of age, his first job was with a construction crew building grain elevators. At 19 he became a grain sampler and office boy for the F.H. Peavey company in Minneapolis. Two years later he became a part-time bookkeeper and in 1893 assumed the job full time. Within three years (1894) he went onto the exchange trading floor as an assistant salesman. In the fall of 1909 he was named general manager of the company's terminal elevators and a member of the board of directors in 1911. He became a director of the Van Dusen Harrington Company, a division of the Peavey company in 1928. In 1933 he was elected president of the division and chairman of the board in 1946. Harrison G. Dickey was with the Peavey company for 69 years before he retired in 1959. Mr. Dickey's advice to the young men beginning their careers: "One should always work honestly giving all his attention to what he is doing. He should always try to be prepared for something better, for once qualified, there will always be need for him in a more responsible job."

Harrison G. Dickey was the 4th president of the Peavey Company. A silver tray given to him as outgoing President of the Minneapolis Grain Exchange inscribed "Presented to Harrison G. Dickey by his Associates in Business, 1933" and a hand wrought sterling silver pitcher that was inscribed and given to him upon his retirement were both stolen from our home in a burglary in 1985.

Harry Dickey was a member of the Heron Hunting Club, where he was a crack shot, the Minikahda club, Minneapolis club, Zuhrah Shrine, Masonic groups and the Knights Templar. He spent his boyhood helping his father around the farm and later in his father's store, he would run errands. It was during his boyhood that he developed a love for the outdoors-for fishing and hunting. He remained an avid sportsman all his life.

H.G. Dickey married Gena "Jeanette" Olsen Jewett in Minneapolis on the 26 day of November 1898. Jeanette was from a pioneer Minnesota family and a school teacher prior to their marriage. They had three sons, Livingston, Harrison Gaslin II (Tom), and Charles Lonsdale and one daughter Corinne. In 1948 they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a party given by family and friends. A gold washed sterling silver tray was presented to them, inscribed with their initials and date of marriage.

Jeanette Olson Jewett was born December 8, 1872 in Windom, Minnesota and raised on the Prairie in southern Minnesota near the Ingells of "Little House on the Prairie." (See Norwegian Section). Grandma Dickey loved to play cards and would make a wager now and then. When she traveled across the country to visit Tom in the hospital, she would manage to take a train that would stop in Las Vegas. She then called Grandpa Dickey to tell him of the train's lay over in Vegas.

H.G. and Jeanette Dickey had a summer log cabin on Crooked Lake, in Crow Wing County, near Bay Lake, Minnesota. It was not an ordinary Minnesota log cabin. It was built by Louis Piper out of golden cedar logs from Oregon. Louis Piper lived in a tent on the property (60 acres) while he built the cabin. He furnished it with antiques and collectibles, including two cigar store wooden indians, black bear and polar bear rugs. Sailfish and Marlin hung on the walls along with Alaskan trophy heads. Navajo rugs on the floors, spinning wheels, and many other treasures. The cabin, boat house, crow's nest, servants quarters, barn, hen house, ice house, tool house, and several outhouses were completed in two years. Louis Piper rented the cabin to Harry Dickey for two years and he bought it in 1925, completely furnished. To protect his lake view from unsightly "shacks" he purchased 3/4 of a mile of shoreline across the lake (110 acres) which, for the rest of his life remained in its pristine state. The cabin had the last virgin stand of white pine in Minnesota. The white pine shared the woods with the stately Norway Pines. Jeanette Dickey always referred to the cabin as White Pine Camp. Every summer she had red geraniums blooming in the window boxes on the long porch overlooking the lake.

All the children and grandchildren spent their summers at the cabin, relaxing, fishing, playing golf, riding horseback, playing cards, charades, and swimming. There was also, toiling in the vegetable garden, feeding the ducks, canoeing, selling the chickens in Brainard, bingo, and movies.

Harrison G. Dickey was a generous, kind and loving man to his family and friends. He was active in the civic affairs of the community. Grampa Dickey died Jan. 18, 1960 at the age of 90 in Minneapolis and Gramma Dickey died eight years later in Wayzata, Minnesota.

Harrison Gaslin Dickey, Jr. (Tom) born October 3, 1904 in Minneapolis. Tom (and Livingston) graduated from Shattuck Military School at Fairbault, Minnesota in 1921. He spent two years at Williams College where he studied chemistry and then worked two years in Duluth as a chemist for the Peavey Company, before developing sinus and respiratory trouble. He moved to Phoenix, Arizona as a young man and then purchased a dude ranch in Wickenburg, Arizona with Bob White. The dry climate in Arizona seemed to help Tom's sinus and asthma problems. Sometime around 1931, he married a woman named "Red." It was about three months later that Tom's mental symptoms developed. This marriage was annulled in 1932 in Phoenix. Tom became ill and was hospitalized for 17 years, first in California and then at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. In 1949 he had what has been described as a grade 3 bilateral prefrontal lobotomy. Amazingly Tom recovered completely, but had no recollection of events during the 17 years. After being released from the hospital, he made a rapid adjustment. He became a very good golf player and spent most of his time traveling from tournament to tournament. At the time of his death in 1985, at age 81, he was carrying a 178 bowling average.

ACCIDENTAL SHOT FATAL TO MRS. N. DICKEY

Mrs Norman DICKEY of this city died Tuesday morning at a local hospital from injuries received about 3 o'clock that morning when a bullet accidentally discharged from a high-powered rifle shattered her right thigh, loss of blood and shock being contributing factors in her death three or four hours later. Mrs. DICKEY was one of an automobile party of four, having gone to the river flats southwest of Trenton shortly after midnight. A coroner's jury has made repeated attempts to arrive at the facts concerning the exact cause and details of the accident, but the testimony of her companions has been so contradictory that no verdict has been arrived at and the case is still pending. Alfred Hammel, A. T. Hurah and Henry Miller, occupants of the car, and several others were questioned at the hearings. It is said that car trouble developed and that one of the members of the party opened a door of the car to remedy the trouble and that as he did so the rifle slid out and was discharged. Mrs. DICKEY'S companions improvised a tourniquet and took her to Trenton from which point they called Dr. J. P. Craven, who hurried to meet them, and took her to the hospital, where she died some two hours later. The members of the jury who, with Coroner Thomas and State's Attorney Lake are investigating the case, and M. J. Borden, Alex Strom and D. J. Beakey.

CARELESS WITH RIFLE, SAYS CORONER'S JURY

The coroner's jury to investigate the death of Mrs. Norman DICKEY concluded its deliberations this week and filed its formal report to the effect "that the said Ethel DICKEY came to her death through the accidental discharge of a 30-30 Winchester rifle while riding in an automobile on the highway in the vicinity of Trenton, North Dakota. It is the opinion of this jury," concludes the report, "that the occupants of the car were very careless in handling a loaded firearm."

Lottie May Wright. Death of Mrs. Wright--Although the very serious illness of Mrs. R. L. Wright for some weeks past had to some extent prepared this community for the announcement of her death, still the announcement when it came was considerable of a shock, as all had hoped she might yet recover. The death occurred at the present family residence, on the Joyce place, Johnson Creek valley, on April 4, 1907, at 6 p.m. The funeral services were held at the Central School House, Pogue Prairie, at 12 o'clock, Sunday, April 7th, a very touching sermon being preached by Rev. C. J. Boppell, of the Presbyterian church, of which deceased was a member. Interment was made at the Riverside cemetery. One of the largest funeral corteges ever seen in the county evidenced the esteem in which deceased was held and the warm sympathy of the community toward the bereaved relatives. Lottie May Dickie was born at Wayzata, Hennepin county, Minn., October 8th, 1874, where she continued to live until and after her marriage to R. L. Wright, July 9th, 1906. - i. Arthur William Daulph. Born on 9 Mar 1923 in Bremerton, Kitsap County, Washington. Arthur William died in Okanogan, Washington, on 20 Jul 2000; he was 77. Married 3 July 1948 Wenatchee, Benton County, Washington to Patricia Ann Thompson (1923-2010). There is a "shared" grave marker at Omak Memorial Cemetery, but that is a Cenotaph for him — he is interred at Washington State Veterans Cemetery.

Patricia Ann (Thompson) Daulph passed away Thursday, Dec. 9, 2010 at North Valley Extended Care in Tonasket. Pat was born May 25, 1923 in Odessa, Wash. to Dr. Lunsford and Annette Thompson. The family moved to Cashmere in 1931, where they owned and lived in an apartment building which also housed Dr. Thompson's medical offices. Pat was valedictorian of the Cashmere High School class of 1941. She attended Whitman College for two years, where she joined Delta Gamma sorority. She graduated from Stanford University in 1946. After that she worked for the Girl Scouts in Seattle, and later worked for her father in Cashmere. It was there that Pat was "set up" with the love of her life, Arthur William (Bill) Daulph. One of Bill's fraternity brothers from the University of Washington had brought him home to attend the Leavenworth ski jump competition. Pat and Bill were married in 1948, and daughter Judie was born in November of that year while Bill finished his studies at UW. In 1949, the new family moved to Omak to open Daulph Bros. Men's and Boys' Wear in partnership with Bill's family. Son Michael was born in 1951. Pat was a homemaker while raising her family, and worked for Washington State Employment Security after the kids were grown. The family enjoyed many wonderful summers at the cabin at Lake Osoyoos with Bill commuting from there to Omak. A few years after they sold the clothing business to Marv Jones in 1970, they bought an apple orchard with old friends Jim and Janet Edson of Seattle. Pat retired in 1985, and Bill a few years later. Pat enjoyed swimming throughout her life, growing her own tomatoes, feasting on anything chocolate, visiting family and friends, and attending local music events. Bill converted her to a Husky football fan from the get-go and they travelled to Seattle to attend many Husky games over the years, as well as a couple of Rose Bowl games in California. Pat and Bill loved to dance, and belonged to a dinner dance group for many years, with couples from around the county. She rarely missed a performance by the Okanogan Valley Orchestra and Chorus at the Omak PAC. From the mid 1990's until her health prevented it, Pat's favorite local excursion was going up to dinner at Campo Marina in Osoyoos for family birthdays and other special occasions. One of the highlights was when Judie threw her a surprise 80th birthday party there. Owners Mike and Gemma Oran not only gave her a fabulous chocolate birthday cake — they arranged for one of their customers to give Pat her first and only ride on a Harley Davidson. In recent years, Pat's health slowed her down a bit, but she was thrilled to be able to see her favorite singing group, Il Divo in Kelowna, B.C., on her 86th birthday. In her last year, she was able to enjoy attending performances at the PAC, Taco Tuesdays, dinners at the Okanogan Eagles, and Judie's wedding to Dave Sakala last summer. Pat was a member of Our Lady of the Valley Catholic Church (formerly Christ the King) and Nellie E Scott Children's Hospital guild for over 60 years, and the Okanogan Eagles and Omak Elks auxiliaries. She was a Cub Scout den mother for several years and had been formerly active in Rotary Anns, the American Association of University Women, Pioneer Club, the Community Concert board, Omak Visitor Center and the Okanogan County election board. Pat was preceded in death by her husband Bill, her son Michael, her parents, and her sister, Phyllis Covey. She is survived by daughter and son-in-law Judie and Dave Sakala of Omak; niece Marcia Zirbel (Bill) of La Mesa, Calif., and Anacortes, Wash.; nephew Mark Covey (Norma) of Woodinville, Wash.; and several grand nieces and nephews.

They married in 1949 and moved to Omak where first daughter Drew was born on Father's Day, 1950. The families enjoyed many summers at Magnolia Beach on Vashon Island. Jim and Donna moved to Bellingham in 1976 where Jim had a successful career in Real Estate and Property Management in Whatcom County. Jim was devoted to his family and to taking care of himself and those around him, emotionally and physically. He was a gentle soul and a good man who will be greatly missed.

As general manager and later President of the Soundview Pulp Company, U.M. Dickey brought to his position an extremely varied background, with business experience in several other industries. A Minnesota native, Dickey left for Alaska in 1897 as part of the Klondike Gold Rush. His first enterprise was hauling supplies from Skagway over White Pass and up the Yukon River to Dawson, and he then founded the Dominion Commercial Company. By 1908 he had moved to Seattle where he joined Agen and Company, one of the city's most important distributors of butter, eggs and other dairy products. An innovator in that business, Dickey then organized the Consolidated Dairy Products Company, which was a cooperative agency that assisted dairy farmers with marketing. In 1930 he sold the company to the farmers who had been his customers, and it became a subsidiary of the United Dairymen's Association. He remained as president and was made an honorary life director of the cooperative on his retirement. Because of his interest in agriculture, he also purchased Marymoor Farm in Redmond and maintained an active dairy operation on the property, which later became a large public park. With no other known experience in the pulp and paper industry, Dickey became an early investor and board member of the Puget Sound Pulp and Timber Company. When Soundview Pulp Company was organized in 1932, he was initially named vice president of the Board and later became its president. He served in that position until 1951, when the company merged with Scott Paper Company, and he became a vice president and senior director of the West Coast division. Dickey also served as a director of other prominent West Coast companies including Puget Sound Power and Light, Pacific American Fisheries and several banks. (findagrave biography)

- v. Harold Morton. Born on 30 Dec 1939 in Meaghers Grant, Halifax Co., NS. Harold Morton died in Porters Lake, NS, on 10 Oct 2023; he was 83.

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of our beloved father Harold Morton Dickie, known to family and friends simply as 'Hal', 83, of Porters Lake, NS. He passed away peacefully the evening of October 10th, 2023 at the Admiral LTC home in Dartmouth, NS. with his daughter, Michelle, sitting vigil. In lieu of writing the typical staid resume style accounting of my fathers life's achievements and accomplishments, of which there were many and varied, I'm opting instead to share a bit about the man we knew and were all so privileged to call beloved father, brother, husband and friend. Born in Meaghers Grant, NS to Margaret Jane (Hurley) and Harry Eleazer Dickie on Dec 30th, 1939, Hal was well liked by everyone he ever met. Be it for his oft times offbeat sense of humor, kind nature, honest and hard work ethic or willingness to always lend a hand. If you were in a pickle and needed help he didn't hesitate to do whatever he could for you. He was like that with everyone and helped many. Be it a stranger or someone he knew. He had a fun loving, easy going manner to him and was a man who genuinely loved life. To him it all seemed a grand adventure. He retired as a Chief Master Sergeant after 35 years in the Canadian Forces REME trade (Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers) to live out his days with his wife of 62 years, Lucy, in their lakeside cottage. They'd met early on in their military careers and not long after married, had three children and enjoyed many subsequent years together, full of laughter and love. He spent his retirement volunteering at the Seniors Club, attending the local Legion, to which he was president for a time, and traveling to Bluegrass festivals. He was a Nova Scotian born and bred, would give you the shirt off his back and if he met you once you'd be invited for a stay and always welcome. He enjoyed playing the guitar and singing, albeit a tad off key but always with heart. You would oftentimes hear his late brother Murray shouting out the correct musical cord to him. "Hal, g. Geeeeee!!!" He loved a good kitchen party. Spending many a night together with brothers and friends, in someone's kitchen, to play their guitars, fiddles and banjos. Sharing some beers, telling tall tales, laughs and enjoying a plate of food. I swear there wasn't a food that man wouldn't eat. He'd put together anything into a pot and call it dinner. I chuckle thinking back on a memory I have of when Mom was away visiting her family in Shawinigan leaving Dad in charge of cooking for us. We sat down to kraft dinner and peas. He mustn't have known you need to drain the water out of it before serving. My brothers and I looked down at our bowls of over cooked noodles swimming in orangish, soupy water, looked at each other, then back up at him. Someone with more bravery than brains chanced to say "Ummm, this isn't how Mom makes it". With one stern look at the offender who would dare to critique his culinary skills he promptly added the peas to it and handed us spoons. We silently dug in. To Dad food was food and he would eat and enjoy whatever you put in front of him. Throughout his multiple postings, in Canada and abroad, he always sought out new and fun things to see, do and places to explore. We may not have had a lot of money growing up but he left us all the richer with an abundance of priceless memories. From taking us camping in Switzerland, afternoons spent exploring the ruins of castles in Germany, hiking up to Della Falls BC, clam digging in PEI, salmon fishing off the coast of Vancouver Island. Too many adventures to recount. Dad loved the outdoors and was active for the majority of his life. You name an activity, he wasn't afraid to 'give it a go'. In 1982, at the age of 43, he took the Airborne parachute jump course with men half his age. Coincidentally completing the course just as his eldest son, Larry, was commencing it. He loved us kids and was an exceptional father. Often volunteering to come along on school or summer vacation camping/away trips with our friends. Coached his boys junior hockey, baseball teams etc. If we faltered he was there to pick us up. Always with an encouraging word. He and Mom opened their home to a few foster kids and Dad was always sure to treat them as one of his own. Giving them a sense of security and love for the short time they were with us. A memory that stands out for his eldest son Larry is of when they were both in Texas on a Desert Warfare course, Dad came over one night to chat with him and asked him if he was getting along with everyone. To which Larry replied "Of course, no problems". He remembers to this day exactly what Dad told him "The great thing about being out in the field with your unit, is that no one cares how big your house is, what type of car you drive, or how much money you have. They only care about how hard you work, and help each other. The only thing you can bring to the field is your personality". His son Don has fond memories of days spent fishing with Dad. One in which he took Don and Larry to catch trout so that Don could earn his Cub Scout badge. Another in particular that stands out for him was when they caught a giant salmon. If memory serves, it weighed something around 53lbs! And he says they caught it using a crazy rock in a sock rig Dad used. When they got it home Dad asked Don to hold it up so he could get a photo. Unfortunately when Don tried to hold it up by the gills it was so heavy the body fell off. We enjoyed salmon steaks and canned salmon for weeks! Dad also had a great love and compassion for animals. A time or two bringing home a stray cat to add to the family. Miss Fluffy deserves an honorable mention. His favorite though, without question, being dogs. Two who stood out were Nibby a heinz 57 of questionable parentage and a quirky underbite we had in Comox BC and he used to take along fishing with him. And Dusty a neighbor's Nova Scotia Duck Toller here whom he befriended by giving her a treat, or two, or three, every time she came by. So much so, she started showing up daily on his back porch to sit patiently for the days treat. He'd regale us with tales of their adventures, of the miles upon miles of walks they took together. They'd often be seen together driving around town, her riding co-pilot when he was doing errands. Their bond was such that her passing affected him deeply. Mom told me once that when Dusty got old and could no longer walk very far, she watched Dad, not wanting to go on his walk without her, gently place her in a wheelbarrow so he could take her with him and off they went. Him pushing the wheelbarrow and her enjoying the view. Dad had a great sense of humor and never forgot a joke. He could recite the longest joke verbatim and when he laughed his eyes would sparkle. He'd get a crinkle at the corner of his eyes, elbow you, and you just knew there was a joke coming. No matter how absurd the joke, you couldn't help but laugh along with him. He could get into some hijinx with his brothers and laughingly once told me about a time he and some of them accidentally 'put' a backhoe in the lake. Where others would be upset about the damage to the backhoe, he thought it was just hilarious. As his daughter he was my hero and I loved him fiercely. He loved us all equally but he and I had a close bond only fathers and daughters can share. A favorite story of his he'd like to retell time and again was how once when I was little, while he was carrying me on his shoulder, someone asked me what my name was and without missing a beat I blurted out "Sweetie!" As that was his nickname for me. Whenever I needed help he wouldn't hesitate to drop whatever he was doing and be there for me. I was thanking him once for all he'd done for me throughout the years. His reply was "When I'm old and gray you can feed me milk and cookies". And so I did. Rest easy now Dad. We'll miss you terribly. We love you to the moon and back. Hal is predeceased by his parents, Margaret and Harry. Siblings Jean, Willis, Everett, Murray and Margie. Survived by his wife, Lucille (Lucy Lavergn) and children. Sons Lawrence (aka Larry, and wife Michelle), Donald (aka Don, and wife Barbara). And his daughter, Michelle (aka 'Sweetie' and husband Joe). Siblings, Walter and Ella (husband Gordon). Sister-in-law Vickie. I'd also like to include a heartfelt thank you to their long-time friend and neighbor, Louise Crawford who so generously and devotedly watched over and cared for Dad in his final years spent in the house before going into LTC. Your compassion and friendship are valued beyond measure. Cremation has taken place, and as per his wishes there will be no funeral service.

1921 census, R M of Arborfield, Price Albert District, SK: Raymond Dickie 34 Josie 18.

James "Raymond" married Josie Everson. Born on 9 Feb 1903 in Presho, South Dakota. Josie died in Chilliwack, BC, on 18 Dec 1987; she was 84.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Josie was born February 9th, 1903 in Presho, Lyman County, South Dakota, the sixth of eleven children born to Anna Johnson and Halvor K. "Harry" Everson. She was the only one of her siblings born in South Dakota—her mother's birthplace. The rest were born in Wisconsin (her father's birthplace), which is where she was raised. All four of Josie's grandparents were born in Norway, immigrated to the United States, and settled in Wisconsin. Josie's siblings were Mabel A., Ora Christina, Carl Robert, Ella Mathilda, Howard Adolph, Rande Oletha, Rose Alyda, Engvold "Elmer" Herald, Selmar Marvin, and Alvin. Dane County, Wisconsin, is where Josie spent her early years, before her family emigrated to Canada when she was 13. When Josie's family moved to Canada in 1916, all but the two eldest daughters came with them. They settled in Arborfield, Saskatchewan, a tiny town of a few hundred people where Halvor farmed his own land. In 1921, Halvor and Anna became naturalized citizens of Canada and the census shows their children as naturalized as well. Arborfield is known as the "Gateway to the Pasquia Hills"—a gorgeous area on the border of Saskatchewan and Manitoba. In Spring 1921, Josie married James Raymond Dickie at the Presbyterian church in Rosetown, several hundred miles west of Arborfield, and by the end of the year their first child was born. Jean Mae would become the eldest of five daughters born to the couple within seven years. Jean was followed by Bessie Anna, Lois Verna, Marjorie Irene, and the youngest—and wife to Calvin Eugene Young—Norma Eunice. The family remained in small communities between Arborfield and Rosetown, such as Melfort and Beatty during this time, and records show Josie listed as a housewife—with five baby girls, she would have been kept quite busy one imagines! Eventually, Josie and James moved west. This may have been to be closer to children (and thus grandchildren) who were also living in British Columbia. Jean and Marjorie lived in BC, Lois and Norma lived in Oregon, and Bessie was still in Melfort at this point. In 1961 James passed away in Vancouver, BC, and Josie's obituary says she lived in the Chilliwack, BC area starting in 1973. Eventually, Josie married John Ralph Bohn, a widower from Beatty, whose wife had passed away in 1962. John preceded her in death in 1971. Josie died December 18th, 1989 at the local hospital and was survived by her five daughters and sons-in-law Jean Zant of Chilliwack, Bessie and Alfie Hamblin of Melfort, Sask., Lois and Bud Pierce of Newport, Ore., Marjorie and Joe Taphorn of Vancouver, Norma Young of McMinnville, Ore., sixteen grandchildren, and seventeen great-grandchildren, sister Olive Tayson of Prince Albert, Sask., and by her brothers Alvin Everson of Tisdale, Sask. and Bud Everson of Winnipeg. She was predeceased by her first husband James Raymond Dickie, and by her second husband John Bohn. She is buried in Valley View, cemetery Surrey, BC.

Ella and Josie Everson's family were very poor when they were small due to the fact that they were then living in the "dust bowl" area of Montana. Ella had no schooling and Frank taught his wife to read and write after they were married. Also Frank and Ray were both jailed for a short time for the active support of the establishment of a school in Beatty. The school was established and all their children received an education.

Frank and Ray Dickie of the Connell Creek District purchased the livery and feed barn in Beatty from Norman Flett. They sold the livery barn to Carson Eastmand and in later years it was moved out to the Barry farm in the Thatch Creek District.

Ray and Frank moved their families out to their farms in the East Bend District. Ray moved out in 1929 and Frank came later. Land owned by Ray Dickie was SW15-46-20. Land owned by Frank Dickie was SE10-46-20.

All children of the Dickie brothers were born while the families were living in Beatty.

Ray retired from farming in 1947, moved to Vancouver, BC where he lived until his death in 1961. Frank retired from farming in 1934 and moved to Vancouver where he lived until his death in 1943.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Mary Thelin Dickie

I was born in Cardston, Alberta, Canada on 6 November 1903. We moved to Orton, Alberta in 1904. We lived in a Sod house just east of Philip Hornberger's home.

While living in the Sod home, I pulled a Kettle of boiling water over me, when I was about a year or two. I was burned from my head to my toes. My Mother took good care of me. She carried me around on a pillow for a month or two. What a time my Mother must have had, to care for me. I survived with just one bad scar on my neck. I always wore high neck clothes to cover it up.

I went to school in Orton a small School which had 12 grades in it. Then I went to School at Parkerville for a year. While we were living at the Dairy. It was three miles from Fort Macleod.

My father John Victor Thelin had a Shoe shop in Fort Macleod. I used to visit him there. We moved into the Sod house one mile west of Orton. All our family were raised there. I will remember the good times we had. My brother Reuben slept on sacks of wheat we had stored. Mother always had a soup pot on the stove. She would feed anyone who came by Indians Etc.

Edward Owen Dickie came over from Nova Scotia to visit his brother David Dickie. I met him there. We were married December 3, 1923. We went to Nova Scotia for our Honeymoon. We stayed there three months. We came back and made our home in Carmangay, Alberta, Canada. Our first two daughters were born there. Gloria and Joy. We moved back to Fort Macleod in 1926. We bought a home and 40 acres of land three miles East of Fort Macleod, Mary Lou and Betty, Linda, Edward and Andrew were born while living there. We also adopted a lovely baby girl with red hair, named her Dallene. This made us eight children. I loved the Gospel of Jesus Christ and taught my children the Gospel.

special friends whose friendships she maintained over the years. Mabel cherished her family and returned home yearly to visit family and classmates. One may say she needed fresh Nova Scotia air to fortify herself for another year of living in the west. Mabel left home at an early age to begin a career with the Bank of Nova Scotia. She transferred to many places including Montreal, New Glasgow, Dawson Creek and finally to the Jasper Place Branch in Edmonton. She loved her work and treated clients with fairness and respect. Mabel had an adventurous spirit that took her canoeing in the Yukon and driving dune buggies in Arizona. With her passion for traveling she visited many countries and holidayed whenever something new caught her attention. She enjoyed skiing, curling, golfing, card playing and sharing a good joke. Throughout her later life she fought with great determination the various blood related diseases that challenged her.

Thelma Joyce Dickie of Halifax, passed away peacefully on August 21, 2020 having lived a long and full life. Thelma was born in Elmsdale, on July 26, 1919, the youngest daughter of James Densmore and Goretta Jane (Jennie) Hines. She had a happy childhood growing up on a dairy farm on the banks of the Shubenacadie River. Some of her favourite memories were of running barefoot to take the cows to their summer pasture, riding horseback and of floating on the river in a boat while reading a book or gazing at the wonders beneath the surface of the water. Thelma attended school in the two-room Elmsdale school from school age through to grade 11. As grade 12 was not offered in Elmsdale, she travelled daily by train to Halifax to attend the Halifax Academy to complete her high school education. In the spring of 1938 she was graduated from the Provincial Normal College in Truro but had to wait until her mid summer birthday to be old enough to receive her teaching license. The first six years of her teaching career were spent in one and two-room schools in the communities of Lakeside, Windsor Junction and Elmsdale. Thinking that the male soldiers returning from the WWII would take the available teaching positions, she decided to train as an obstetrical nurse. In the spring of 1946, at the Grace Maternity Hospital's graduation exercises, she was awarded the school's proficiency prize. On July 20, 1941 Thelma had married her soldier, William Earle Dickie of Stewiacke. Shortly after their marriage he sailed for England with the Canadian army and four years of war. The accompanying photo was the one Bill carried in his map case from England to the beaches of Normandy and on to the Netherlands. Thelma and Bill were blessed to celebrate 67 years of marriage before Bill's death in 2009. While raising a family of four children in Fairview, Thelma substituted in the area schools. When her children grew older she accepted a teaching position at Sir Frederick Fraser School for the Blind where she remained until her retirement at the age of 65. To better understand the work of her blind students she completed the Grade 2 Braille course given by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. Following retirement she travelled extensively in North America and Europe. When she and her husband were not travelling she took courses at Mount Saint Vincent University where she was granted a Bachelor of

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Arts degree at the age of 79. Thelma was a long-time member of Fairview United Church. She was an Elder, a Sunday school teacher, a Messenger leader and a Life Member of the United Church Women (UCW). She was a Canadian Girls in Training (CGIT) leader and a member of a group of former CGIT leaders until her death. She loved the United Church Camp in Berwick, from the first time she attended in 1942. She spent many happy family times under the camp hemlocks with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was a loving, fun, amazing grandmother who was adored by her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Thelma was an avid reader and an exceptional cook known for her delicious apple pie and creamy brown sugar fudge. She especially enjoyed time spent with her dear friend, Lynne Fiske on adventures such as beach days with their nine children. Many happy memories involved time spent with the players and spouses of the Fairview Aces Volleyball team on which team her husband, Bill, was a player. In her youth she played second base on the Elmsdale ladies softball team travelling to games in the neighbouring villages in the open back of a milk truck. Playing on that team led to an enduring love of ball playing and cheering for her favourite team, the Toronto Blue Jays. Thelma is survived by her children, Judy Rondeau, John (Lee) Dickie, Stephen Dickie and Christine (Norman) Williams; grandchildren, Mark (Rose) Rondeau, Jeffrey Rondeau, Suzanne (Paul) Burke, Joshua (Monica Pearson) Williams, Zachary Williams, Jessica (Brandon Averill) and Benjamin Williams; great-grandchildren, Timothy Burke, Jacob Burke, Seleucia Williams, Percival Williams and Charlie Averill; sisters-in-law, Evelyn Hines, Ann Poser and Avis Tufts; brothers-in-law, Don Montrose and Hugh Heasler; many nieces and nephews, including special niece, Jane Parker; and her good friend Shirley Singer. She was predeceased by her husband, Bill; siblings, Clementine (Charles) Forbes, Madeleine (Ross) Fraser, Jennie (Donald) Barkhouse and James Hines; sisters-in-law, Sarah (Craig) Taylor, Celia Heasler, Jean (Menzie) Stewart and Joan Montrose; brothers-in-law, Howard (Gwen) Dickie and Harry Dickie. A family service will be held at a later date in Pine Grove Cemetery, Stewiacke East.

- iii. Celia. Born in 1924 in Stewiacke, NS. Celia died in Kingston, ON, on 16 Apr 2019; she was 95. Buried in Cataraqui Cemetery.

Heasler, Celia (nee Dickie) 1924-2019. Celia was born in Stewiacke, N.S in 1924 to her late parents Albert and Edna Dickie. She lived at home until the age of 17 when she joined the Woman's Army Core and became a dental assistant. After working in the Army Core, she worked as a dental assistant to Dr. Layton in Truro, N.S until 1951 when she joined the Air Force where she continued to work as a dental assistant until she met and married her husband Hugh, on January 27, 1955. Celia stayed special friends to "Skip" Depever who she met at CFB Cold Lake, AB and she still had kept in contact with in Kingston. One of Celia's favourite memories was her children as babies and growing up. She also loved travelling and had a few trips that really built great long-lasting memories from. France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Italy and Switzerland. It was always nice to return home to Stewiacke and Halifax to visit with family and friends. Celia often said her favourite things to talk about were "babies, babies and babies!! I love babies". Celia loved long walks and her soap opera "As the World Turns". The Heasler house was always filled with family for Celia's cooking and dinners. She loved to host the family and friends and cook for everyone. Celia however only had two real dislikes in life; when people swear and camping! Camping was not fun for Celia after a long trip that had rained for 8 of the 10 days in British Columbia as the children were young. Celia will be missed by many and remembered by all who she had met and crossed paths with. Celia passed away peacefully on the evening of Tuesday April 16, 2019 at Trillium Care Community. Loving wife to Hugh of 64 years, her two daughters Jane (Bob) Dumbleton and Sherri (Brian) Fenlon. Daddy had an interesting life with many different jobs. He panned for gold in Alaska. He sprayed for gypsy moths in Vt.-including the town where my mother lived, although they never met. She was 13 years younger than he, and he was a young man at that time. He ran a logging crew in the backwoods.

Harriet's parents, Lovell and Harriet Whitney, began driving a postal route in rural Vermont in the early '30's, which grew into a bus company, the Whitney Bus Service, soon afterward. It ran out of Peterboro, NH at that time, but by the early '50's my family relocated the business (and themselves) to West Main Street in Hillsboro, NH. My parents purchased the company and ran main line, charter and school buses for many years. In the late '60's they primarily had the local school contract and did charter busing for local camps during the summer months. My Father drove the main line Concord to Peterboro route for many years, as did my Mother.

Ruth Ann Nay received a call on December 22, 2019, a call with an offer she couldn't refuse, to be reunited with her loved ones. Ruth began her journey on January 26, 1930 in Monarch, Wyoming, just shy of ninety years ago. She was the third of four siblings born to Ed and May Schreibeis. Ruth was a Wyoming girl through and through and her love for this beautiful state was evident in her passion for her life here. She graduated from Ranchester High School. During her adolescent years she participated in 4-H and was very proud of her accomplishments including a trip to 4-H Congress in Chicago. On November 8, 1950, Ruth married her first love, Ralph Blaney. They spent 35 years working side by side on ranches and raising two children, Barbara Ann and Irving Carl. Ruth enjoyed her years working at Carl's IGA and she especially loved her time as the bookkeeper for Kings Saddlery for over 20 years. In 1980, Ralph was called to his heavenly home. Ruth hit the adventure trail with her good friend Willa Loomis and the two of them had many adventures. In 1987, her single days came to an end when she met George Nay. The two of them spent several years camping and fishing her beloved Big Horn Mountains and traveling with friends to Arizona to escape the frigid Wyoming winters. Ruth was blessed to have her family circle extended with the addition of George's three daughters Judy, Jan, and Sue as well as their families. Ruth served the Lord through her lifelong work at Immanuel Lutheran Church where she enjoyed being in the choir as well as serving on the Alter Guild. Ruth enjoyed being active in the Kelly Schreibeis Foundation. Ruth could often be heard singing and playing the organ as she had a passion for music. Funeral services will be January 4, 2020 at 10:00 am at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sheridan with the Reverend Paul Cain officiating. A luncheon will follow the service. Arrangements have been entrusted to Kane Funeral Home. The family respectfully requests that in lieu of flowers, memorials in Ruth's honor be made to Martin Luther Grammar School in Sheridan. Ruth is survived by her daughter Barbara Blaney, brother David (Judy) Shreibeis, Judy Joy, (Ross Besson), Jan (Bob) Winkler, Sue (Richard) Spencer, many grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends. Community Portrait: MILES M. DICKY. Chilliwack's recent blizzard held no worries for Miles M. Dickey. He has braved storms back in Alberta so intense that only his horse's unerring sense got him home safely. "I remember once during a terrific snow storm not knowing where I was until the horse stopped with his breast pressing against the gate at home," Mr. Dickey recalled. "Any horse with any sense (I didn't keep them otherwise) will take you home in the worst blizzard in the world if you give him free rein." Mr. Dickey recalled one winter in the '30's when the thermometer never got above 35 degrees below zero for 30 days. The low was 05 below but most times the temperature hovered around 40 to 50 below. Miles M. Dickey was born in Sheridan, Wyo., 70 years ago, come March 22. His middle name, McInnis, was bestowed on him by his Scots parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dickey, for no particular reason except that they were Scotsmen. In 1903, when he was 11 years old, the family moved to Lacombe, Alta., half way between Calgary and Edmonton and 100 miles from a railway. When this was finally built the family moved to Donalda which was near the railway and where, for the first time, they were near a school. By this time Miles Dickey was 18 years old and much too old, in a teenager's way of thinking, to at last enroll in a school. If he had, he might not now be handicapped by a leg he broke when he 19. His horse shied and threw him against the corner post of the railway fence. In all his experiences in rodeos, he had never been hurt seriously . . . nor when he broke horses for everyone from his own district to as far away as Brandon, Man. Mr. Dickey was a rancher in Alberta until it was impossible to find reliable help. Coupled with the severe winters they were experiencing, he finally decided to part company with the ranch and move to Chilliwack. "Ranching on the prairies now is immensely different in handling cattle," Mr. Dickey remarked. "Then they roamed the range, now they are pastured." On October 1, 1921, he married Evelyn Blackmore, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Blackmore. From Truro, N.S., the family lived for a few years in Donalda but returned to Nova Scotia. Mr. and Mrs. Dickey have two sons. Verne has three sons and one daughter. Miles B. has three sons. "When Miles was a young boy we could never get him to say 'Miles.' He would always say 'no, me Bee' and he is now better known as 'Bee' then Miles. When I lived in Alberta I was called Mike for some reason or other," chuckled Mr. Dickey. The Dickey family lived on Brinks road, Fairfield Island, for a number of years. About 15 years ago Mr. Dickey sold the cattle and rented the farm, maintaining just the house. In 1952 Mr. and Mrs. Dickey moved to 102 Charles street. After living on his ranch without electricity it was a wonderful luxury to Mr. Dickey to have it available when he moved to Chilliwack. Although he had never received any formal schooling he had brains enough to realize the wonderful advantages of the utility and its future. He started to study electricity at home at night. He now owns a large building at the corner of Victoria and Fletcher with two stores facing Victoria. A self-educated and self-made business man, Mr. Dickey has provided a livelihood for his sons who work with him and to make it a family affair, Mrs. Dickey Sr., works in the office. "We really face Fletcher street but as a business we want our mail delivered twice a day so instead of a Fletcher street address we maintain a victoria avenue one. Our customers and friends find us. I guess it doesn't make too much difference," chuckled Mr. Dickey. Mr. Dickey was recently installed president of the Fraser Valley Shrine club at a ceremony in the Empress hotel. Although he was never worshipful master of his Masonic lodge, he progressed through various positions of his lodge in Donalda until he was in line for that high position. He declined this honor because, honest as he is, he wasn't sure he could always get in to the meetings during the winter months and so felt he would not be fulfilling his obligations. He is now a member of Mount Zion Lodge No. 120, A.F. & A.M., Chilliwack. Mr. Dickey is very modest about being elected president of the local Shrine club and yet there is no one more deserving. He has worked project repairing broken toys and dolls to be sold to children out of his own pocket. Now crippled children of any religion, color or creed can be admitted as patients after an application has been sent by a Shriner to head office for approval. "The only children barred are the children of wealthy parents. And that doesn't mean you have to be destitute either. If you just can't afford to pay for medical attention, you are eligible," Mr. Dickey commented. There have been 23 children from this district who have received assistance through the Fraser Valley Shrine club since the club was formed in 1951. More than 250 children from all over B.C. received assistance last year. The local Shriners work all during the year repairing toys in a room in Miles Dickey's warehouse. This room was built by him to save his "bad" leg while he did small electrical repair work. For many years, when the club was small, Mr. Dickey paid for the repair expenses out of his own pocket. (Chilliwack Progress, Feb. 2, 1962).

Shirley and Ted were high school sweethearts from the 9th grade. Shirley found time to further her education in cosmetology and worked in Lynden until Ted completed his tour of duty with the US Navy. On 9 Dec 1927 when Mabel was 23, she married Otto Paulson. Born on 23 Sep 1900. Otto died on 14 Mar 1999; he was 98. Buried in Spruce Coulee Cemetery, Donalda, AB.

They had one child:

- i. Mary Alleen. Born on 13 Jul 1932 in Donalda, AB. Mary Alleen died in Camrose, AB, on 22 Oct 2010; she was 78. Buried in Red Willow Cemetery, Wainwright.

Mary Alleen Awe of Donalda, Alberta passed away on Friday, October 22, 2010 at the age of 78 years after a brief illness at St. Mary's Hospital in Camrose, Alberta. Alleen was born to Otto and Mabel Paulson on July 13, 1932 in the district of Spruce Coulee, east of Donalda. Alleen took all of her schooling at Spruce Coulee School and then completed it in Donalda. While still at home, Alleen learned how to be a caring and loving person. The Paulson home was a welcome place for many neighbours and friends and relatives. Alleen carried on this "welcoming" tradition in her own home in the many years to come. After school was completed, Alleen worked for a while in Donalda at the village post office. It was while working here that she met Herb and they were married on August 10, 1963 and moved to the farm where they still reside. Alleen was very fond of the "view" on the hill. After having lived in the coulees for so long, the hilltop view to the east was "awesome". Alleen was fond of gardening, baking, canning and cooking. She worked very hard along side Herb on the family farm—milking cows, feeding pigs, feeding calves, raising ducks, geese, chickens and turkeys as well as any number of cats and, of course, a dog or two along the way. The family was blessed in 1968 with the arrival of daughter, Maureen Helen Awe. If Alleen thought she was busy before, this little bundle kept both of them hopping. Alleen was active all her life in various community organizations—first of all as a 4-H member, fondly speaking of Young People's Week in Olds, helping out with the Donalda 4-H Dairy Club, and then driving to Bashaw when the Donald Club shut down. Alleen was a long time member of the Donalda Ag Society helping to organize and run the indoor rodeo for 23 years, a long time member of the Red Willow Cemetery Club – acting as the club treasurer for many years, a member of Lyncot Ladies Group, and along with Judy Swaren helped organize and run the Donalda Bench Fair for many, many years. Alleen was an avid curler for many years and up until a couple of years ago was still active in bowling until she was unable to participate due to diminishing eye sight. Alleen was especially fond of traveling. She was a collector of salt and pepper shakers, blue willow china, small oil lamps, spoons and was very fond of hunting for arrow heads. She was always busy. Alleen was predeceased by her parents Otto and Mabel Paulson and very tragically by daughter Maureen in February 2009. She is survived by her loving husband Herb, precious grandchildren Jesse and Amber Standage, sister-in-law Anna Shirreff, nephew Ernest Shirreff and family and niece Elaine Shirreff and family; brother-in-law George and Mary Anne Awe and nephew James Awe and family and nephew Clay Awe and family; sister-in-law Gladys and Henry Dahl and niece Teresa and Neil Stephens and family, nephew Duane and Kayleen Dahl and family, nephew Brad and Penny Dahl and family and nephew Brian Dahl; sister-in-law Dianne McEwing and niece Heather McEwing and family and nephew Kirk McEwing; Aunt Minnie Montgomery and her family, cousin Lloyd and Lois Paulson and their families; and by her very large extended family and many, many friends.

On 10 Aug 1963 when Mary Alleen was 31, she married Herbert William Awe. Born on 9 Apr 1928. Herbert William died on 8 Oct 2017; he was 89.

Herbert William Awe passed away peacefully at Heritage House in Stettler, Alberta on October 8, 2017. Herb was born on April 9, 1928 to Herbert and Emma (Steinhoff) Awe on the family farm near Red Willow, Alberta. Herb married Alleen (Paulson) on August 10, 1963 and they began their love, hard work and farming. After a few years passed, they decided to start a family and were gifted with a beautiful daughter they named Maureen Helen Awe; she brought so much light into their world. In the 1990s their family began to grow even more when both their grandchildren were born, Jesse and Amber. Herb always loved the farm and admired his family and of course his herd of cows, he was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. Herb was an avid fisherman, hunter and handyman. All of Herb's time was spent outdoors; doing chores, maintaining the yard, fixing things, in the field or spending quality time with his family. Herb was an active member of the Red Willow Cemetery Club, Donalda Museum, Senior Citizen Society, Agricultural Society and volunteered at many events in Red Willow and Donalda. Herb will be dearly missed and always remembered for his kindness, sense of humor, determination and the love he had for his family and friends. Herb is survived by his loving family: grandchildren Jesse Standage (Madison Hall) and Amber Standage (Derrick Neufeld); sisters: Anna Shirreff, Gladys Dahl and Dianne McEwing; sister-in-law Mary Anne Awe; nieces, nephews; numerous other family members and many dear friends. Herb was predeceased by his parents Emma and Herbert Awe; parents in law Mabel and Otto Paulson; wife Alleen Awe; daughter Maureen Awe; brother George Awe and brothers-in-law Dave Shirreff and Johnny McEwing.

They had the following children:

- i. Samuel Curtis. Born on 26 Sep 1918 in Lawrence, South Dakota. Samuel Curtis died in Redwoods, CA, on 27 Feb 2011; he was 92.

Samuel Curtis Dickey, Jr. September 26, 1918 - February 27, 2011 Samuel Curtis Dickey, Jr. (Sam), a resident of Redlands since 1943, was born in Hill City, South Dakota in 1918. At the age of five years, his parents moved with the children to Gillette, Wyoming. In his early years, and while attending Camel County High School in Gillette, Sam worked for his father at a general merchandise store. He and his younger siblings- Doris, Lois, and Don- grew up roaming the Black Hills. Sam commented that their rural neighborhood "was a fun kind of old mining ghost town," being near the place that his immigrant grandparents had selected when they came to the US from Norway in the 1860's. His childhood home had no electricity or inside plumbing, and the family had to carry water, and use kerosene and candles for light until young Sam was about ten years. He recalls returning to his grandmother's home in Galina, South Dakota every summer to visit and to relieve his mother's hay fever attacks. Sam also fondly remembers going gold-mining with a pan up near Ruby Gulch. He became well-acquainted with an older miner, who took Sam and a hammer, drill, and blasts, to help the young boy arrive at the best gold. Sam enjoyed a gift from his father of a single shot 22 rifle, which he used to hunt squirrels and packrats. In high school, Sam played sports, especially excelled at football and basketball. After graduation, Sam attended Black Hills Teachers College, then returned to Gillette to work in a lumber yard. It was there he met the of his life, Ruth, who was teaching in his hometown. Ruth taught in Gillette for about a year, then moved west to join her mother in Long Beach, California. Sam followed, and finally secured a job at Lockheed Aircraft business in Burbank, where he was hired as a template maker. Soon, the industrious Sam was transferred to an experimental unit and he worked on projects the company was developing Among these experiments was the 3-tailed plane, which Sam really enjoyed working on because it was so new and unusual! While in Long Beach, Sam and Ruth were married at the Hilton Hotel on October 4, 1940. They traveled across the water to Catalina Island for their honeymoon, and were married for nearly 59 years until Ruth's death in May 1999. Sam appreciated their good marriage and referred to Ruth as "a jewel." They gave birth to two sons, Jim and Don who were both born at Redlands Community Hospital, and much later, also enjoyed their four grandchildren, Corey and Bailey, Joshua and Alexander, and four great-grandchildren.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

After working for 3 years at Lockheed, Sam enlisted in the US Navy, where he began his service in electronics and soon switched to being a storekeeper who tracked and ordered supplies. He served stateside, in Chicago, IL; Monterey, CA; Samson, NY; Jacksonville, FL; and eventually in San Diego, CA. Just before deployment overseas, the man signing the deployment papers asked Sam directly if he really wanted to go overseas, and Sam quickly responded in the negative, so he was only sent a few miles north to the base at Kearney Mesa! Sam recalls that it was while he and Ruth were in San Diego that they would travel to Redlands on weekends to visit Sam's sister who taught at the University of Redlands in the theater department. After just a few visits, the young couple decided that Redlands would be their home. In Redlands, Sam went to work loading trucks for Creston Knudsen in the citrus business and eventually became office manager. His boss was a very religious man, who spent a lot of time around the Congregational Church, and who introduced the Dickeys to church life. Sam worked for Creston for about two years, and then enrolled in the geology department at the University of Redlands, and following the lead of both Ruth and her sister who were teachers, Sam meandered into elementary education. Public education would become his life's beloved career! After securing a temporary teaching certificate, Sam taught for three years, at Central School District in Cucamonga, followed by one year of teaching at Highland and five years in Colton, where he was also a teaching principal. He then transferred to Bloomington for two years as business manager for the district office. However, on his first day on the job, the district needed a bus driver, so eager Sam became a school bus driver! Later, Sam was hired to work as a district liaison with a school district in Orange, and from there, was hired by San Bernardino County Superintendent Roy C. Hill to serve as a consultant to school districts throughout the large county. As Sam once commented, "It was a peach of a job where I spent 29 years in the county office and loved every bit of it!" Sam's expertise was in the finance area, and he traveled countless miles to help struggling districts, to work with the California State Department of Education, to write manuals on finance, and to assist elementary, secondary, and even community colleges throughout the county. "It was just a fun job!" said Dickey, "I don't think anyone could have written any better job for me!" Meanwhile, Ruth continued teaching until her retirement in 1970, helping hundreds of elementary children in both Redlands and Yucaipa. After retirement, she did a bit of substitute teaching. When their boys were young, Sam and Ruth enjoyed many driving trips around the Western United States. In retirement, the couple ventured back to Wyoming to visit Sam's parents and New England to visit their older son and family; they took longer trips to Spain, Portugal, Morocco; and enjoyed a trip across the ocean and through the Panama Canal on an ocean liner. They were among the earliest groups of Americans allowed into Czechoslovakia for a short tour, and also took trips to Hawaii and later to Canada, where they basked in the beauty of Lake Louise, Banff, and Jasper National Park. The couple also took a trip to the Caribbean, with different stops along the way. One of their final trips together was to New York City for the national convention of the Elks Lodge. Continuing the joy of travel, Sam and his son, Don and grandson Corey recently traveled to South Dakota, where they visited people Sam had known in his childhood, and saw a 1-room schoolhouse (now being restored as a museum) still standing behind the location of Dickey's former homestead. In addition to his impressive employment and extended travels, Sam Dickey gave himself in a variety of charitable volunteer work, including statewide education committee work, the Redlands Congregational Church (as Sunday School Superintendent and Moderator), the Redlands Elks Lodge (Exalted Ruler, District Deputy of the Southeast District, and later volunteer secretary), the Redlands United Church of Christ (Trustee, Usher, and longtime treasurer for the annual Art, For Heaven Sake), and the Redlands Symphony Orchestra (board member and Controller). When reviewing his long and industrious life, Sam commented with a twinkle in his eye, "I didn't accomplish much! But I know I enjoyed it all!"

November 20, 1931 - April 4, 2019

Donald Henry "Don" Dickey, 87, died Thursday, April 4, 2019 in Gillette. Don was born in Deadwood, South Dakota to Samuel Curtis Dickey and Bertha Beatrice (Halvorsen) Dickey on Nov. 20, 1931. He was a lifelong resident of Gillette and was well-known and well-loved throughout the community. The most important thing about Don was his relationship with Jesus Christ. He was baptized at the age of 13 and continued to walk with the Lord throughout his entire life. Don served his Savior faithfully in many ways, but one of the greatest impacts of his faith is the example he set for his family of a God-honoring life. After graduating from Campbell County High School, Don served in the military with the Air Force from 1952 to 1956. He served at various bases throughout the United States and Japan. He was stationed at Osan Air Base in Korea during the Korean War. On Sept. 18, 1955, Don married Louise Bundy (1934-1997) of Gillette. Together they raised five children: Cynthia (Doug) Rigsby of Gillette, Marie (Mark) Ammann of Wall, South Dakota, Donna Dickey of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Robert (Tina) Dickey of Gillette, and Richard (Kris) Dickey of Gillette. After his time in the Air Force, Don attended the University of Wyoming and Chadron State College. As a young person, Don enjoyed spending time in the countryside, working for various local ranches. Don loved sports. He played basketball, football, and baseball, and he was recently inducted into the American Legion Hall of Fame for the Gillette chapter. emphysema. Her family provided the following life sketch. Alberta was born Sept. 24, 1924, in Gillette, Wyo. Her parents were Albert Dickey and Irene Sutherland Dickey. Her father was a talented musician and could play several instruments. Albert died shortly before Alberta was born. Alberta always regretted not being able to know her father. She was raised by a large, extended family that included her mother, grandmother and numerous aunts and uncles. Within this family was great love and acceptance toward her, and this had a positive influence on her life. In this group Alberta often was the center of attention. As a youngster, Alberta spent summers in Newcastle, Wyo., and Spearfish, S.D., as well as on family ranches in the Gillette area. Uncle Glen Fitch registered a brand for Alberta, bought calves for her, and insured the calves' survival. Alberta's family homesteaded in the Gillette area and was very industrious. They owned and operated Campbell County Supply, a plumbing and sheet-metal shop, and also rented out rooms in the family home. Her mother, Irene, was employed at Campbell County Supply as a book-keeper. Other aunts and uncles worked outside the family businesses, and her aunt Vivian taught school. Her grandfather pulled wells and did sheet-metal work. Times were tough. Because this was during the Depression, much of the work wasn't always rewarded with payment. Alberta remembered the Depression and the tough times, but often commented that she considered her family well off. Alberta graduated in 1941 from Campbell County High School in Gillette. She then attended Cottey College in Nevada, Mo. After graduation, she moved to Jackson and worked in St. John's Hospital as a lab technician. She often reminisced about this period of her life and recalled it as great fun. She roomed with Connie Bartek, and they became lifelong friends. In 1950, Alberta met and married Thomas Wesley Watsabaugh. The couple had five sons: Thomas Wesley Jr., Robert Byron, William Dee, John Dickey and Joseph Allen. Alberta was dedicated to her sons. She was known to kick off her shoes and join a football game while wearing her nylons. She was deeply devoted to her sons and then, as they arrived, to her grandchildren. Alberta worked much of the time she was raising her family but tried never to let her work interfere with the activities of her sons. She enjoyed watching her sons mature and was quite proud of their athletic accomplishments. She delighted in attending basketball and football games and Intermountain ski races. Being a mother to so many boys always presented challenges. She endured the end-of-summer camping trips to the Big Sandy desert to hunt sage chickens. It was always cold early in the morning and not much fun for a person who didn't really like guns, but it was the best of times for both her husband and her sons, so she went and cooked and made it easier for everyone. In later years, this love and devotion was turned to her grandchildren. Alberta worked at St. John's Hospital, the old Wrangler Cafe, the U.S. Forest Service, the National Elk Refuge, and finally at Boyer's. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and a charter member of the Davy Jackson chapter of the NSDAR. She was a longtime member of the First Baptist Church in Jackson and served her church in many capacities. Alberta is survived by her husband, Tom; sons Rob, Bill, John and Joe; and 11 grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, Albert Dickey and Irene Sutherland Dickey, and one son, Thomas Wesley Watsabaugh Jr. who died tragically in 1954.

Dorothy Mcvay, 90, Didn't Let Conventions Stand In Her Way
Nov 11, 1993, Seattle Times

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Give Dorothy McVay a hunting rifle, a trowel, a pair of skis or a paintbrush, and she'd skillfully put them to use. But give her a spatula and frying pan, and that was another matter all together.

"That's the one thing you could say Mom didn't do well," said Dorothy Anderson, Mrs. McVay's youngest daughter. Still, the soft-spoken, shy but fastidious woman impressed her children with all that she could do, whether it was raising delicate orchids or landing a feisty fish. Mrs. McVay died Nov. 6. She was 90.

Although Mrs. McVay wasn't a "women's libber," she never let conventions stand in her way, said her daughter. While fly fishing and duck hunting are typically male-dominated sports, she mastered them both.

She also helped popularize skiing in the Northwest in the 1930s, traveling with friends to Mount Rainier, as they hiked a mile up the mountain and skied down.

"You're talking about people who really wanted to ski," said Anderson, recalling that there were no chairlifts or tow ropes.

Well known for her love of gardening, Mrs. McVay taught herself botany and raised many different plants. But she had a special preference for native flowers and would sometimes hike the Cascade mountains searching for Northwest plants.

"She was a very accomplished gardener. She knew all the plants by their Latin names," said Walter "Pete" Phelps, her oldest child. "She enjoyed the challenge of learning things."

Born in 1903 in the Yukon Territory, Mrs. McVay moved with her family to Seattle five years later. She attended the University of Washington for two years, where she became a member of the Delta Gamma Sorority, and left the school when she married her first husband, Walter Phelps, in 1923.

The two settled in Seattle, but also spent some time out at Mrs. McVay's father's house - Willowmoor Farm, located in what is now known as Marymoor Park.

She and Mr. Phelps had four children. The couple divorced in 1951.

In 1954, she married Dr. John McVay. A member of the Seattle Garden Club, Mrs. McVay also chaired the building committee which was responsible for constructing Children's Hospital and Medical Center hospital in Laurelhurst.

Her husband, a daughter and a great grandson preceded her in death.

Survivors also include a son, Stanley Phelps, of Taos, N.M.; 21 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. She also is survived by two stepdaughters, Jane McVay Eagle and Marilyn McVay Richards, both of Mercer Island.

On 14 Jun 1926 when Dorothy Merson was 22, she first married Walter Vernon Randolph Phelps in King Co., Washington. Born on 9 Feb 1904 in Baltimore, Maryland. Walter Vernon Randolph died in Monterrey, California, on 8 May 1975; he was 71.

Pete was quiet by nature, and was known for his honesty, integrity and fairness. He was also known for his hobbies, including flying, painting, computer programming and photography. Allen, Ruth Frances, Halifax. We are sad to announce the death of Ruth "Franna" Allen, but are comforted to share that her last days were on her own terms and surrounded by family -- just how she lived her life. She died August 3rd in her own home. Ruth looked back fondly on a childhood in Meagher's Grant with her sisters, spending the warmer months outdoors, and evenings and cold days playing cards to the sounds of CBC Radio. She spent decades working in the Physics Department Office at Dalhousie University where she forged many lasting friendships. She also had a keen love for politics and social justice, and to the end of her days enjoyed nothing more than a good debate. Ruth wanted to express her gratitude for everyone who came into her life through work, family, and friends, who provided so much joy and love. Anyone who was fortunate enough to meet "Franna" -- likely over a meal, a glass of wine, or a cup of coffee-- knows that love was returned tenfold. Ruth is survived by her husband of 58 years Cameron Allen, Halifax; the "nearest thing to a brother", Robert McCabe, Meagher's Grant; her children Jennifer (Douglas Barron), Halifax; Jane (Rochelle Owen), Halifax; Andrew, Pickering ON; Ian (Jennifer), Souris PE; grandchildren Sophie, Eloise, Grant, Lily, and Olivia. Family of Marion Violet Dickey (295) & Anton Emmanuel Berg

370. Malcolm David “Mike” Berg (*Marion Violet Dickey*⁸, *Franklin Whitney*⁷, *Charles Anderson “Andy”*⁶, *Samuel*⁵, *David*⁴, *David*³, *David*², *Adam*¹). Born on 8 Apr 1937 in Kinistino, Saskatchewan. Died 21 Nov 2014.

It is with sorrow that we announce Malcolm (Mike) David Berg passed away Friday, November 21, 2014 in Nelson at the age of 77. Known as Mickey in his younger years, Mike was born to Marion Violet Dickie and Anton Emmanuel Berg in Kinistino, Saskatchewan on April 8, 1937. His time on the Prairies was short-lived, however, as at the age of six weeks, his family migrated west to British Columbia. His father, frustrated at scraping out a living as a farmer in the “Dirty 30’s”, literally threw down the plow one day and announced, “We’re moving!” Mike loved to tell the story of how, when the family went back to Saskatchewan to visit a number of years later, that plow was in the exact same spot. Growing up in the 1940s was often a challenge of hardship and sorrow for many families, Mike’s included. Those early days would cement in Mike a work ethic and a deep gratitude of his later blessings. Mike was a man of integrity and deep moral convictions. Mike loved his career as a chartered accountant; the majority of his career was spent as a partner with Kitto Berg & Company, later named Berg & Naqvi. Upon his retirement on December 31, 1999, Mike remarked that he had been blessed to have a job that he really loved, and a business partner that he trusted like a brother. He truly enjoyed going to work every day; even the long days during tax season every year. He was deeply honoured to be awarded a Fellowship in the Institute of Chartered Accountants of B.C. When Mike was 20 years old, he made a move that would impact the rest of his life. He relocated to Kitimat, BC, to begin his six-year CA articling. There, at a square-dance club, he was captivated by a vibrant young woman named Marie Gofers. Their first date was to the movies, and they soon became a couple. On May 30, 1959, surrounded by family and friends, they started a life together as husband and wife. This past May, Mike & Marie celebrated their 55th anniversary. Mike may have had the mind of an accountant, but he had the soul of a poet. He wrote beautiful cards and letters to Marie, calling her the love of his life and the source of his inspiration. He felt profoundly blessed throughout his marriage, and he taught his children how to cherish their own partners in life. Together, Mike and Marie gave their three children an amazing childhood. Lance, Craig, and Teresa all carry memories of huckleberry picking, swimming and boating at Queen’s Bay, skiing at Silver King and Whitewater, and traveling as a family. His wish for his children, and later his grand-children, was that they be respectful, hard-working, kind, and generous. He was proud of all their accomplishments, large and small, and would always make sure they knew how proud he was and how much they were loved. Mike was a proud father of three children, a grand-father of ten children, and quite recently, a great-grandfather of one child. Mike’s was a life of service. He believed that we all have an obligation to give of our time and talents to our community and beyond. From his early days in Nelson, he was an active member of the United Church. As a core part of the rebuilding team after a fire destroyed the church in 1967, Mike always had a personal connection to the church and its members. He also served his community in many other ways. Mike was a school trustee for ten years, including a year as the president of the BC School Trustees’ Association. He was one of a group of local individuals who stepped in to keep Whitewater Ski Hill for Nelson, believing it was too valuable to lose. After his retirement, he served on the Columbia Basin Trust for a number of years. A long-time Rotarian, Mike strived to live by the Four-Way test. He served in many capacities with Rotary, including a memorable year as Governor for District 5080. Mike was a passionate traveler and would pour over magazines planning and thinking about the next adventure. He and Marie enjoyed exploring many parts of the world together and had a cruise to Shanghai planned for 2015. When at his “home away from home” in the Bahamas, he loved to bask in the sun for hours and take long walks along the beach. Mike was predeceased by his parents, Emmanuel and Marion Berg, his brother Terrence Berg, and his grandson Tyler Berg. Mike leaves to grieve his loving wife, Marie; Lance and Sheila Berg of Ramona, CA, and their children Sean, Cameron, Keelan, and Zachary; Craig and Lois Berg of Nelson, BC, and their children Rachel and Adam; and Teresa and Brent Kisilevich of Vernon, BC, their children Ali, Jace, and Jordyn, and his great-granddaughter Fallyn. Mike used to say that no one was ever truly gone as long as someone remembered him. His was a life well-lived, and he will not be forgotten.

On 30 May 1959 when Malcolm David “Mike” was 22, he married Maria Gerarda Gofers. Born on 20 Nov 1937

Dickey, George Scott, age 86, Middle Stewiacke

It is with great sadness the family announces our father's passing on Dec. 18, 2014 after a long struggle with diabetes. Born in Middle Stewiacke in 1928, "Junior" was the son of the late George Sr. and Jennie (Brenton) Dickey. Dad attended Mount Allison University and N.S. Tech (civil '51). After meeting our mother, Christine, during his first job in St. John's, they moved to Montreal where Dad was a partner in Cadconex Enterprises, a successful general contracting firm for many years. He was a member of the Order of Engineers of Quebec. Dad eventually retired and moved back to Middle Stewiacke where he did a wonderful job restoring his childhood home. He was a member of the St. Anne's Curling Club in Montreal and the Truro Curling Club as well as the Truro Golf Club. Dad enjoyed weekend family trailer trips to many destinations and further travel as the children moved away. He especially loved being followed around while doing chores by his grandchildren Jonathan and Jocie as well as following grandsons Scott and Brett around the country to cheer at their canoe-kayak competitions. George is survived by his sons, George (Lorrie), Waverley, N.S., David (Isabelle), Hammonds Plains, N.S.; daughter Susan (Darrel) Pyke, Fredericton, N.B.; sisters Marnie Ross, Naples, Florida, and Jean Burwell, Mississauga, Ontario as well as special friend Barbara Fowlie. Appendix 2 (Index, p. 391)

1. Matthew Dickie. Born in 1728. Matthew died on 20 Jan 1803; he was 75. Buried in Chipman Corner Cemetery, Kings Co., NS. Residence: Londonderry, Ireland; Cumberland Co., 1765; Cornwallis, Kings, NS.

Chipman Corner Cemetery:

Matthew Dickie, died 20 Jan 1803 in his 75th year.

"The founder of the Dickie family in Nova Scotia was Matthew Dickie, a linen merchant of Londonderry, Ireland, who with his family, about 1765, though intending to come to some one of the colonies now the United States, came instead to Cumberland county in this province. His wife was Janet (Nisbet), who belonged to the brave old race of Covenanters. In the same ship with the Dickies came the Creelmans and others who also settled in Nova Scotia. The sons of Matthew and Janet Dickie were all born in Ireland except John who was born in Cumberland, soon after the family came. Precisely how long the Dickie family remained in Cumberland county we do not know, but in a short time they crossed the Minas Basin and settled permanently in Cornwallis. There Matthew Dickie bought land paying for it the sum of 600 pounds. Many of the early members of the family are buried at Chipman's Corner. From the first the family was prosperous, and in each generation since the earliest, some members of it have been prominent in the legislature, and in other official positions."

This is from Nan Harvey at the Colchester Archives -

According to the Cemetery Listing Riverside Cemetery, Upper Stewiacke, it is Oct. 7, 1837

This is what it says:

Abraham Newcomb, who fell asleep Oct. 7, 1837 age 67 yrs. He was a native of Cornwallis and 33 years a resident of Stewiacke for sometime Deacon of the Presbyterian (church) and subsequently of the Baptist Church. He was a consistent well informed Christian, a pillar in the church and ardent lover of the truth and a believer in its final triumph.

Here lies the body of Ann wife of A. Newcomb who having adorned her profession and with a hope that supported her in affection fell asleep Jan. 18, 1840 age 88 yrs.

I received this after querying her age at death -

Nova Scotia Vital Stats from Newspapers 1840-1843 by Jean Holder

Sat.25 Jan 1840, Colonial Pearl Newspaper - on Friday 22 Jan. [22 Jan was Wednesday] at Upper Stewiacke: Ann, 80, widow of Abraham Newcomb.

She would have been 58 having her youngest child - seems old but guess it could happen. That still makes her 10 years older than her husband. From the Township Books of Kings Co. NS - Cornwallis Township - Births compiled by Ross and Ruth Burgess I found the following birth dates for the early kids.

Mary Tupper Newcomb b. 11 Sept. 1795

Matthew Dickie Newcomb b. 29 Oct 1797

Janet Newcomb b. 9 Feb 1800

Elizabeth Newcomb 1 June 1801

9. Lt. Col. Robert McGowan Dickie (William², Matthew¹) Born on 17 Sep 1784 in Amherst, Cumberland Co., NS. Robert McGowan died in Goose River, Cumb. Co., on 14 Jan 1854; he was 69. Occupation: MPP, Represented Cumberland In The Legislature For 15 Years.

Robert McGowan married Eleanor Salisbury Chapman. Born on 29 Nov 1790. Eleanor Salisbury died on 3 Mar 1848; she was 57.

They had one child:

- i. Hon. Robert Barry. Born on 10 Nov 1811 in Amherst, Cumberland Co., NS. Robert Barry died on 14 Jul 1903; he was 91. Occupation: Lawyer, Senator of The Dominion Parliament, Father of Confederation.

"Robert Dickey was born in Amherst, Nova Scotia, November 10, 1811, eleven years after his fellow-townsmen and confederation colleague, Edward Chandler, and ten years before another fellow-townsmen and colleague, Charles Tupper. He was educated at Windsor Academy and began his law practice in 1834. Chandler had moved out of Amherst, but three years later another "father", Jonathan McCully, moved in. The young Dr. Tupper returned from Edinburgh University and set up his medical practice there in 1846 and became a close friend of Dickey. The town of Amherst had quite a bit to do with confederation!

Dickey was not particularly interested in the hurly-burly of political life, but accepted readily an appointment to the legislative council, possibly on the suggestion of his good friend, Tupper, who had become provincial secretary.

When in 1864 maritime union was being considered, Dickey was picked by Tupper as the conservative delegate to Charlottetown and later to Quebec. McCully was the liberal representative. Dickey was the most outspoken Nova Scotian critic of the Quebec plan. He agreed with Coles of Prince Edward Island and Chandler of New Brunswick that too much power was given to the federal government. He was in favour of the general principle of union and supported Tupper's resolution for a final conference in London.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

When the federal elections were held, Dickey did not seek a seat in the commons, but accepted an appointment to the senate. A somewhat reluctant politician, he took a decreasing part in public affairs. He was rated a wealthy man and an influential citizen and possibly considered law his real career.

He died July 14, 1903, in his ninety-second year."

Five children: James Alexander, C.E., lived in Halifax; Arthur, barrister at Amherst, MP for Cumberland in the Dominion House of Commons, and late Minister of Justice for Canada; Frank Stewart, educated at Kings College, Windsor, d. young; Mary, m. to Henry E. Subject: Feb 2013 register report The Dickey/Dickie family

Date: October 31, 2014

Greetings from the UK!

I found your report online – very comprehensive. My mother was a Dickie, daughter of Arthur Dickie of Bonnie View farm, Lower Truro (his father was Samuel Dickie, whose father was John Barnhill Dickie), but although the family lived in Colchester Co for generations, they do not seem to be in your historical document. I assume they might have been another branch of the family?

Kind regards,

Nan Millette

DICKIE, JOHN BARNHILL, teacher, farmer, shipbuilder, and politician; b. 30 March 1829 at Cornwallis, N.S., eldest son of Isaac Patton Dickie and Rebecca Barnhill; m. first on 7 Oct. 1850 Ellen Putnam, and they had three children; m. secondly in 1858 Harriet Dickson, and they had eight children; d. 5 June 1886 at Truro, N.S. John Barnhill Dickie's ancestors had come from Londonderry (Northern Ireland) to Cumberland County, N.S., about 1763. John was educated at Canard and Wolfville, N.S., then from 1847 to 1851 at the Mount Allison Wesleyan Academy in Sackville, N.B., and finally at the Halifax Free Church College. While attending the Wesleyan academy, Dickie taught in a comfortable schoolhouse at Middle Stewiacke, N.S., giving instruction in book-keeping, surveying, mensuration, algebra, and Latin to an average of 30 students. He also ran a farm in Middle Stewiacke. Later he taught mathematics at the Halifax Academy.

In 1854 Dickie was appointed coroner for Colchester County. By 1856 he had moved to Onslow where he operated both a farm and a store. He served from 1858 to 1859 as treasurer for the poor in the district of Onslow, became a justice of the peace in 1861, and for a short time in 1863 was a militia major. In 1866 he was the founder and first president of the Onslow Agricultural Society, and was appointed custos rotulorum of Colchester and a trustee of school lands in Onslow in 1868. In 1871 Dickie moved to Truro where he had been named manager of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, the first financial institution in that village. Between 1872 and his death he also owned shares in six vessels built along the Minas Basin shore; one, the Colchester, was reputed to have been the fastest vessel ever launched in the Bay of Fundy. He formed the Truro Marine Insurance Company in 1872 to protect his investments.

In December 1874 Dickie was elected to the assembly as an independent member for Colchester County, although his political sympathies had generally been with the Liberals. The results of the election made it uncertain whether the Liberal government of William Annand could still command a majority in the assembly, and when on 11 March 1875 Dickie accepted Annand's offer of the speakership a furore resulted. For Annand, the appointment of Dickie eliminated a potential negative vote, and rumours persisted that Dickie had sold his principles for money, prestige, or the promise of a seat in the Legislative Council. One newspaper praised Dickie at this time as "sagacious, clear-headed and able," but another described his acceptance as corrupt and treacherous. His Colchester colleague, William Albert Patterson, who left the house rather than vote against his friend, was later to refer to "the sale of the Speakership," and when Dickie was appointed to the Legislative Council three years later, the Colchester Sun labelled the appointment "The Last Act."

Dickie lacked the parliamentary training essential to rule over an almost equally divided house. In trying to satisfy all, he satisfied none. On at least three occasions his actions or rulings caused violent controversy. When, on 30 April 1875, he broke a tie vote on an amendment to a railway bill, the opposition's frustration exploded. For the first and only time in Canadian parliamentary history a resolution was carried by a vote of 20–12 requesting the speaker to resign, which he did the following day. “He had to listen to certain whereases, impeaching him of the high crimes of ignorance and incompetence, of drawing a salary under false pretences and filling a position given him as the price of treachery.” His inexperience condemned him: a correct ruling would have been that the fatal motion required 48 hours notice. The Toronto Mail observed that the incident was “peculiar to Nova Scotian politics which are indeed inscrutable and past finding out.”

Dickie retained his seat in the assembly until 1878, and from that year until his death sat in the Legislative Council. A quiet man, he never publicly commented upon the humiliating experience of 1875, and from his correspondence with his brother James there emerges a serene individual. An active Presbyterian, in his last years Dickie concentrated on his business and when he died of intestinal cancer in 1886 he left an estate in excess of $61,000. - iii. Stewart. Born on 26 Jun 1877. Dickey, Gordon Everett – Age 81 of Upper Musquodoboit. It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Gordon Everett Dickey. He passed peacefully on August 23, 2017, surrounded by his family. Gordon was a son of the late Harry and Janie (Bowden) Dickey of Parrsboro. He is survived by the love of his life of 59 years, Shirley (Lamb); and their children, Lola Hill, Eva (Kenneth) Deal, Arthur (Edna), John (Teena), and Martha (Kirby) Brown. Gordon and Shirley had 13 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren. He loved them deeply. He is also survived by his brother, Ralph (Judy); his sister, Helen Hutt; and his sister-in-law, Thelma Dickey; as well as many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his brother, Lloyd; brother-in-law, Lawson Hutt; and son-in-law, Robin Hill. Gordon was a man with quiet strength, who worked his whole life in the forest industry, beginning his career as a canterman in Wyvern, taking his team of horses to the woods in the winter sledding logs. He began his sawing career at C.E. Harrison and Sons under the tutelage of his friend and mentor, Wylie Gallagher. Gordon moved his family to the Musquodoboit Valley in 1966, sawing for Gilroy Brothers and then McCully and Soy for 18 years in Upper Musquodoboit. In the mid-80's through the mid-90's, Gordon's talent and drive led him to sawing for George Cooley in Thorburn, B.A. Fraser in Margaree, Clint Dixon Sawmill in Thorburn, Julimar Lumber in Brookfield, Hefler Forest Products in Sackville, retiring from Groupe Savoie in West River. He was happy to pass on his knowledge to all young men interested in sawing. In retirement, he pursued his love of wood and woodworking, which he inherited from his father and grandfather, through the many exceptionally beautiful pieces of furniture that can be found in his home and the homes of his children. He was a devoted member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, first joining the Ivanhoe IOOF Lodge in Parrsboro in 1953. He transferred to Craigmyle IOOF in Middle Musquodoboit and upon its closing, he then transferred to Phoenix IOOF in Truro. He recently received his 60 Year Jewel. Gordon lived the three tenets of the IOOF: Friendship, Love and Truth, every day of his life. Gordon was a member of the Canadian Paperworkers Union, and was President of the Local in Upper Musquodoboit for several years. He believed in volunteering and giving back to his community. He and Shirley enjoyed square dancing, ATV trips, their cottage, Sunday drives, good food, many very good friends and good music, especially the fiddle. The family extends a deep and heartfelt thank you to Dr. Barry Giffin for his exceptional care over many years. Gordon was very grateful. Also, a special thank you to the Continuing Care Nursing Services staff for their kind assistance. Cremation has taken place. Visitation will be on Sunday from 6-8 p.m., and a service to celebrate Gordon's life will be on Monday at 2 p.m., both in St. James United Church, Upper Musquodoboit, Rev. Michael Henderson officiating. By request, family flowers only. Donations in Gordon's memory may be made to the Lung Association Nova Scotia or a charity of your choice. 32. Alfred Dickie (James Edward⁴, Isaac Patton³, James², Matthew¹) Born on 28 Mar 1860 in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Alfred died in Halifax, Nova Scotia, on 6 Sep 1929; he was 69. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Stewiacke East.

Dr. W. R. Dickie, 95 South Park Street, Halifax, son.

DICKIE, ALFRED, lumberman, politician, and office holder; b. 28 March 1860 in Upper Stewiacke, N.S., son of James Edward Dickie, a merchant, and Harriet Tupper; m. 1886 Alice Amelia Dickie of Cornwallis, N.S., and they had three sons and two daughters; d. 6 Sept. 1929 in Halifax.

Alfred Dickie was educated in the public schools of Upper Stewiacke and at Dalhousie University in Halifax (B.A. 1879, M.A. 1883). He started his lumbering career in Stewiacke in 1890 in partnership with Avard Black, whom he bought out after six months, forming the Alfred Dickie Lumber Company. In 1896 he acquired a property and sawmill at Tusket in Yarmouth County, where T. N. McGrath, his assistant at Stewiacke, moved as manager and half owner. The following year he purchased properties at Ship Harbour and Liscomb, and in 1904 an area on the Sherbrooke River. By 1897 his firms constituted the leading lumber exporter in Nova Scotia next to the operations of Thomas Gotobed McMullen of Truro; Dickie and McGrath held 18,000 acres in the western part of the province and Alfred Dickie Lumber had 65,000 in Colchester, Pictou, Halifax, and Guysborough counties. The produce of Dickie's Stewiacke mill was transported on the Intercolonial Railway to Halifax; lumber from the Tusket mill was sent by steamship – he owned several – and later by the Halifax and South Western Railway. In 1900 Dickie formed, and became president of, the Grand River Pulp and Lumber Company, which cut pulpwood in Labrador and held 500 square miles of timber limits around Hamilton Inlet. It was these lands that sparked the ownership dispute over Labrador between Quebec and Newfoundland, with Quebec officials intervening by stamping Dickie's pulpwood as crown wood belonging to their province.

Beneath the veneer of prosperity, however, Dickie's business ventures suffered from the natural calamities that often struck forest and sawmilling operations and from the uncertain and volatile business cycles that plagued the lumber industry. His steam mills were seriously affected by fires; by 1897 Dickie had endured at least four that destroyed or damaged his facilities. Forest operations were heavily dependent on manpower, horses, and water and snow conditions. A dearth of water or an over-abundance or lack of snow could prove disastrous. With the rapid expansion of his business, these problems clearly contributed to Dickie overextending himself. By 1904 the manager of the Royal Bank of Canada in Nova Scotia, who financed his operations, was "taken severely to task" by his superior in Montreal for allowing Dickie's loans to reach the "enormous" figure of $634,040.39 without security. Dickie himself was criticized for not having incorporated his business and for carrying too little insurance on his stationary mills and none on his lumber shipments. Two years later all Dickie's assets were transferred to the Royal Bank, though he did retain one share to qualify as a director. He was appointed manager at a salary of $833 per month.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

From 1904 Dickie continued to act as a prominent Nova Scotian lumber baron. He posed as an owner, continued to manage his old properties, and was the frontman in seeking to sell them. In the prospectus of sale, it was stated that, according to conservative estimates, his properties were capable of producing and exporting 50–60 million board feet per year, and that the extent of his forest lands in Nova Scotia was between 350,000 and 400,000 acres. In 1904 Dickie was instrumental, with other Nova Scotian lumbermen and the provincial government, in sponsoring a report on Nova Scotia's pulpwood lands by Robert Mason of New York and Joseph Bureau of Quebec. Two years later his Nova Scotia and Labrador properties were offered for sale by the Forest Exploration and Lumber Company of Montreal, the latter at the price of $1,000,000. On 30–31 May 1907 Dickie and McGrath played a leading role in the annual meeting in Yarmouth of the Lumbermen's Association of Western Nova Scotia; the whole group was photographed during a visit to their mill in Tusket. In 1908 there were prospects of selling the Nova Scotia properties to the Traubridge Syndicate of London, England, and Dickie requested that the Royal Bank underwrite the bonds or stocks of the syndicate to the extent of $100,000. In the end, however, the effort failed.

In October 1911 Dickie and McGrath Limited had to cancel orders because their logs had been stranded all summer as a result of drought and the cold season was about to set in. The following year Dickie lost an entire winter's output of logs in Labrador. Then, in 1913, he and the Royal Bank finally managed to dispose of most of his forest lands. An American firm, the S. D. Warren Company, purchased the Tusket lands. Archibald Fraser, of the Fraser Pulp and Lumber Company Limited in Plaster Rock, N.B., bought 247,815 acres of Dickie's remaining lands. Dickie nonetheless managed to reconstitute Dickie Lumber as the Canadian Lumber Company Limited in Stewiacke. Although he retired and moved to Halifax in 1912, he continued to serve as president of this company and have an interest in it until his death. His son Rufus Edward, a one-time president of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association, was its general manager. Despite his crash, Alfred Dickie succeeded in building up his holdings once more. He certainly thought highly of his part in Nova Scotia's lumber industry. In testimony in Halifax before the federal royal commission on pulpwood in 1923, he confidently stated that "my operations and experience, I think, are larger . . . than any other individual ever has had in Canada." At the time, he held 25,000 acres of forest lands in Nova Scotia and considerable lands in Labrador, and both tracts were for sale. In 1914 he negotiated with Walker Brothers in Boston and William Whitmer and Sons in Philadelphia for the sale of his Nova Scotia holdings but the deliberations came to naught. In the 1920s he continued to pay $160 to Newfoundland's minister of agriculture and mines for the lease of 80 square miles of timber limits in Labrador.

Throughout his career Dickie was heavily involved in public affairs. In the provincial elections of 1894 and 1897 he unsuccessfully contested the riding of Colchester, in which Stewiacke was located. He was a school commissioner for Colchester, the first mayor of the town of Stewiacke from 1906 to 1911, the president of the local branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and an elder in his Presbyterian church. In Halifax he served as school commissioner in 1921–23, and president of the North British Society. He was involved there as well in the Halifax Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, and was an elder of Fort Massey Presbyterian (United) Church.

After being confined by ill health to his home on South Park Street for two months, he passed away on 6 Sept. 1929 and was buried in the family plot at Stewiacke. Despite the ups and downs of his ventures, he died a wealthy man, with an estate valued at $315,000 plus life insurance. (Dictionary of Canadian Biography)

DICKIE, Edwin James (Ted), BSc, PEng; 88 Dartmouth, formerly of Stewiacke. A good and honest man died August 27th, 2010 on what would have been his 61st Anniversary. Ted was born at home in Stewiacke on January 5, 1922 to Nellie (Gould) and Rufus Dickie. His childhood was full of adventure with his 3 brothers, 2 sisters, a pet bear named Billy, and a team of great Dane dogs whose leader Danny would haul Dad and his siblings around town in a sleigh. His playground was the "Canadian Lumber Co." which was one of the biggest logging operations in N.S. at the time. His growing-up years spanned the Great Depression, the tail end of the Age of Iron Men and Wooden ships and the space between two World Wars. Dad was greatly influenced by all three events and had many stories of the exploits and strengths of the company loggers who still used taxes, buck saws and horses to get the logs out. Much time was spent at Clam Harbour, at the family cottage, where he met the love of his life at the age of 13 - Florence MacKinnon - and promptly married her in a mock wedding on the beach. Many events would transpire before their real wedding in 1949, including getting his pilot's license on his 17th birthday, finishing school and earning a BSc at Mount Allison University, where he narrowly escaped death when his residence burned down. He was a 2nd Lieutenant in the Cadet Officers Training Corp there. He later graduated from McGill University as a Mechanical Engineer and began work in the Canadian Lumber Company, first in Stewiacke, then in mill sites at Barney's River, Glenelg, NS and Gillis Dale. Ted and Flo had three children, Paul (Maxine), Mark, and Jan (Fred Watkins). When Paul was of school age, they moved from the mill camps to Stewiacke. In 1955, Ted left the lumber business and began exporting wild Christmas Trees to the States. In Stewiacke, he was a member of the United Church, a Gyros leader and a member of the school board at various times. He eventually took a job with the Voluntary Economic Planning Board and then with the NS Department of Development in Halifax. The family moved to Dartmouth in 1963. Dad is survived by his sister Lois (McMillan) and was predeceased by wife Florence, brothers Donald, Harold and his sister Alice (Hampton). He is fondly remembered by his children and grandchildren- Heather, Michael and Allison Watkins and Chelsea and Ryan Dickie. Interment at Pine Grove Cemetery in East Stewiacke.

- Lois Ellen. Born on 24 Aug 1925 in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Lois Ellen died in Bethesda, Maryland, on 4 Dec 2018; she was 93. Lois Ellen married Dr. Gardner Craddock McMillan. Born on 10 Nov 1918 in Lachine, Quebec. Gardner Craddock died in Bethesda, Maryland, on 8 Apr 2004; he was 85.

She graduated from Mount Allison University, Sackville, New Brunswick, Canada in 1946. While there, she was Secretary of the Women's Council and Vice President of the Student Union. Following school, she moved to Montreal and worked at the Pathological Institute of McGill University, where she met and married Dr Gardner Craddock McMillan in 1948. They moved to Switzerland for a year for her husband's studies, then moved to Lachine, Quebec, Canada to raise their family. They moved to Bethesda, MD in 1967 where her husband worked at the National Institutes of Health (NIH). She participated in art shows sponsored by the Welcome to Washington International Club, showing her water color paintings. She was predeceased by her parents, Rufus Edward Dickie and Ellen Fletcher Gould Dickie; her husband of 56 years, Gardner Craddock McMillan; and her son, William Edward 'Ted' Dickie McMillan (1950-2016). She was survived two daughters and their spouses; a son; two daughters-in-law; five granddaughters; three grandsons; two great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law; and a cousin.

He graduated with a degree in medicine from McGill University in Montreal, Canada in 1944, having won the John Munro Elder Prize for Honors studies in anatomy. He received his Masters degree in 1946 and a PhD degree in 1948. He was a Markel Scholar in Medical Science and began his research career with investigations of human and experimental atherosclerosis. Among his early work was the paradoxical observation that experimental diabetes, induced by alloxan, inhibited the atherosclerosis resulting from feeding cholesterol to a rabbit. As a result of this fundamental research, it became known that some lipoprotein particles are atherogenic whereas others are not, and it likely caused the speculation that the cause of atherosclerosis was far more complicated than being solely caused by too much cholesterol in the blood. He also studied the effects of undernutrition and of cortisone on cholesterol-induced atherosclerosis. He served as Strathcona Professor of Pathology and became Chairman of the Department of Pathology at McGill University. He was also chief of Pathology at the Royal Victoria Hospital in 1957, and a consulting pathologist, through 1966, to the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital, the Montreal Neurological Institute, the Montreal Children's Hospital, the Montreal General Hospital, and the Jewish Hospital of Hope. He became a fellow of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada (Pathology) in 1964. He continued to study human and experimental atherosclerosis, reporting on the effects of saturated, unsaturated, and trans-fatty acids in cholesterol-fed rabbits and on amino acid deficiencies. He received the AHA Citation for Distinguished Service to Research in 1965. He joined the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in 1966, first as a consultant and then as special assistant to the Director of the Heart Institute (1968), as Chief of the Arteriosclerosis Diseases Branch, and, between 1972 and 1991, as Director of the Arteriosclerosis, Hypertension, and Lipid Metabolism Program at the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute. Through his efforts, the NIH pioneered research programs on nutrition, lesion dynamics, and the relationship of hemodynamics to atherogenesis, which led to the establishment of nonhuman primate resources. He retired in 1991. He was survived by his wife, Lois Ellen Dickie McMillan; two sons and their spouses; two daughters and their spouses; and eight grandchildren.

Appendix 3: A Brief Ancestry of Alexanderina MacInnes⁷

First Generation

1 Alexanderina MacInnes. Born on 8 Aug 1798 in Lower Meaghers Grant, NS. Alexanderina died in Glenmore, Musquodoboit, NS, in 1841; she was 42. Buried in Meagher's Grant, NS. Ca 1823 when Alexanderina was 24, she married Samuel Dickey.

Second Generation

2 Miles MacInnes⁸. Born ca 1754 in Camucross, Sleat, Isle of Skye, Scotland. Miles died in Meaghers Grant, NS, in 1818; he was 64. Residence: North Carolina (1774), Halifax (1784).

Lieut. Miles MacInnes, by Flo Dickey, Tucson, AZ.

Miles MacInnes departed from the Isle of Skye, Scotland to North Carolina in 1774. It has been said that he was born at Camucross, Sleat, Isle of Skye. It is also possible that he was born at North Uist. It is very possible that he was a son or close relative of John MacInnes (MacGinnis) who was the boatman for Flora MacDonald and Bonnie Prince Charlie, but I have not found any documentation to prove any of the above as yet.

Miles arrived in North Carolina in 1774 with enough money to purchase livestock and operate a plantation of 1800 acres in Anson County, North Carolina. He grew apples, peaches, wheat, corn, rye, and oats. He raised cattle, horses, sheep, and hogs. The nearest villages were Cross Creek and Campbelltown (which were merged about 1778 under the name of Campbell- town was then changed to Fayetteville in 1783). Miles probably purchased goods from this village. It was a thriving trade center with mills, pharmacy, courthouse, hotel, and general store.

Miles was appointed a lieutenant by his regiment leader Colonel Hector McNeil. He served under Captain Allen MacDonald who was commander of the Anson Battalion that was in the battle of Moore's Creek Bridge. Miles future father-in-law, Captain Angus MacDonald and Angus's son, Angus, also served in this battalion.

When the North Carolina governor called up the Highland settlers of his Province, he expected that they would march about one hundred miles to the sea-coast where British ships would arrive to transport them to Nova Scotia and they would be given training and arms in order to defend their country against rebels. But this was not the case. Before the Highlanders reached the coast of North Carolina they met a smaller and much better armed body of Yankee rebels. Unfortunately for these Highlanders, less than half were armed and those classed as "armed" had nothing other than swords. The battle took place at Moore's Creek Bridge February 27, 1776. In the brief battle

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Highlanders were outmaneuvered by the highly skilled Americans. A few were killed and more than 800 taken prisoners. Included among the prisoners were Allen MacDonald of Kingsburgh and his two sons, our Capt. Angus MacDonald, and our Lieut. Miles MacInnes. Since there were so many prisoners and not nearly enough Yankees to guard them, the younger men were released. They were told to go home and think about joining the Yankee cause. Some of the Highland prisoners escaped.

Miles MacInnes was among those captured. He was carried to the Cross Creek jail where he was "loaded with irons and suffered many cruelties." When word came of the approach of a large British force, the rebels removed his chains and he made his escape to the British Army.

Miles MacInnes continue to serve as a lieutenant in the British forces under Colonel Ray. He served on active duty in the Carolinas, Georgia, and Florida, until 1783. For the last few months of his military service he was in St. Augustine, Florida.

Miles' property was confiscated. After the war he went to London to present his claims for losses suffered in North Carolina arriving December 9, 1783. He had excellent references and letters of recommendation from high officials, but things moved slowly. In late summer 1784, (nearly a year later) he was awarded about 45% of his losses and given permission to emigrate to Nova Scotia, where he had friends and connections. His old unit and the 84th Royal Highland Emigrant Regiment had been sent there a few years earlier and mustered out at Windsor, Nova Scotia at the end of the war. The soldiers were given land in Nova Scotia provided they stayed.

After the deportation of the French Acadians, the British offered free land and vacant farms in Nova Scotia to anyone willing to settle. Many New Englanders, including our Dickey's and other groups from Scotland, the British Isles, and German states along the Rhine came to settle. Two hundred Scots settled at Pictou, Nova Scotia in 1773 from the ship Hector. They were the first of a vast wave of Highlanders who crossed the Atlantic seeking a better life. These Highlanders settled mainly on Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island.

In 1775, when the Revolution broke out in America, it seemed likely that Nova Scotia would join the other thirteen colonies. This did not happen. It remained a Crown Colony and thus Nova Scotia became one of the main receiving points for the flood of Loyalists who fled the new United States after the war. In all, about 30,000 people settled in Nova Scotia mainly along the Atlantic Coast. The arrival of so many people, some of them very influential, transformed Nova Scotia into a busy Crown Colony.

Megher's Grant was a grant of land comprising about 9000 acres near Halifax. For the purpose of colonization, this land was granted to "Bachelor Meagher" a Major in the British Army in 1765. One of these Loyalist colonists was our Miles MacInnes.

Miles MacInnes was a single man when he arrived in Halifax, Nova Scotia in the autumn of 1784. He was awarded 200 pounds sterling for his property losses in North Carolina and he received "half-pay" for one year, and a pension of 20 pounds per annum from 1783 to 1790, when the amount was reduced to 16 pounds sterling per annum. The Pension Rolls show that he was paid until 1818 and from that date the pension was paid to his widow, Christiana MacDonald MacInnes.

Miles was promised 200 acres on the Musquodoboit River as soon as it could be surveyed, but he had to wait until December 1785 before that was done. Miles and another loyalist named Daniel Blue and Andrew Murphy, were the first three white settlers on that part of the Musquodoboit River. This area is located above the rapids (falls) that are located about two and a half miles from the mouth of the river, which is a few miles north east of Halifax.

A settlement had been started in 1784 on the headwaters of the Musquodoboit River by men from Truro and Onslow by way of the Stewiacke River and that settlement extended downstream.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

The Dickeys were in this group of settlers and married into the MacInnes family. But Miles and his companions were the first white settlers to come into the Musquodoboit Valley from the Atlantic Coast and extend the settlement northward.

This settlement on the Musquodoboit River, Halifax county, was made up of Scottish North Carolinians. It was a nucleus of ten men, four women, and two children who settled there as early as May of 1784. Most of the men had served in the Militia and were from Cumberland and Anson county, North Carolina. Miles MacInnes was one of these Musquodoboit settlers.

The grant of land which Miles was to settle was stony, uncultivated, and full of underbrush, but fertile. When they first went in, they had to cut roads around three waterfalls. Miles and his party missed the distribution of food and tools which the provincial government made to the loyalists and during the first year they had to eat their seed potatoes. By the time they got more from Halifax the following year the season was too far advanced for a successful crop. Miles said the only communication with Halifax was by water and that was hazardous most of the year.

Even though Miles built a log house on this land, he found the land unsuitable for farming and tried to obtain another grant of land farther up the river. Unfortunately all the good land had been already granted to others, particularly a large area granted to Martin Meagher.

This district is now called Meagher's Grant, named for "Bachelor Meagher." This grant of land was comprised of some 9000 acres. It is documented that Ranald MacDonald, one of the first settlers came from the United States. Ranald was born on the Isle of Skye, a loyalist and believed to be the son of Flora MacDonald. Archibald Crawford, another early settler, married Mary MacDonald, daughter of Angus MacDonald and sister of Christiana who married Miles MacInnes. Another early settler was John Dunbrack, a Scotchman, who married Catherine MacDougall and her brother, Alexander MacDougall married Catherine MacDonald, another sister of Christiana MacDonald.

About 1790, Miles purchased some land a few miles up stream from where he first settled on a farm known as the Parker Place (owned in 1980 by Fulton Dunbrack) and a few years later moved to a farm where he resided for the remainder of his life. Miles son, Malcolm remained in the home and raised a family of sixteen. It was eventually sold to Wellington Kent, then to a Dr. Wilson, and in 1980 to Robert Misiner. It is on Lay Lake Road and just west of where the Lower Meagher's Grant school was located in 1987. His neighbors included Angus MacDonald, Archibald Crawford, Jacob Bayer (Byer), a son of George Bayer, Sr. formerly of Frankfort on-the-Main, Germany, James Cruickshank, and John Dunbrack to name a few.

The first time Miles MacInnes saw his wife was when he and some other officers were on a trip to McNabb's Island and unexpectedly came on the three MacDonald girls while bathing.

On September 19, 1789, Miles MacInnes married Christiana in St. Paul's Church in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Two of Christiana's sisters were married to neighbors of Miles; her sister Mary became the wife of Archibald Crawford and her sister Alexandrina, better known as "Lexy," became the wife of Jacob Bayer. A third sister Catherine married Alexander MacDougall.

In 1810, Miles MacInnes signed as a witness to the Will of Alexander Mackenzie, Lake Egmont, Halifax County, N.S. The other witness was to the Will were Ranald MacDonald and James MacDonald.

Miles MacInnes was instrumental in getting a road from Meagher's Grant to Halifax. He became a Justice of the Peace and was a prominent citizen of the district. In 1814, he and Archibald Crawford applied for Crown Land on West River St. Mary's, where they hoped to raise cattle. Each was to receive a grant of 500 acres, but before the land could be granted, Miles MacInnes died and the land reverted to the government.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Miles died in 1818 and Christiana died in 1853 at the age of 84. Miles MacInnes apparently died without a Will. For no stated reason, the estate was not settled until about 1834, when part of his land at Meagher's Grant was conveyed by a deed to his son Malcolm. The deed was signed by the other heirs. Other nearby land was conveyed to his son Angus. The names of the female heirs were:

Ann McDougal (no mention of name of husband)
Jennet Logan, wife of Robert A. Logan.
Mary Cruickshanks, wife of James Cruickshanks.
Alexandrina Dickey, wife of Samuel Dickey.
Christiana Cruickshanks, wife of Alexander Cruickshanks.
Elisa Ann McInnes,
(a daughter born 1816)

Miles MacInnes and Christiana MacDonald MacInnes had 9 children who produced at least 60 grandchildren all whom lived to be adults and had large families. Their descendants are now widely scattered over Canada and the United States and have included men and women who became lawyers, doctors, educators, bankers, engineers, explorers, publishers, military officers, nurses and writers.

* In all documents signed by Miles MacInnes the surname is spelled MacInnes. In deeds signed by his heirs in 1834 the name appears as MacInness. In a map of Halifax County showing names of householders about 1860 the name appears as McGinnes and as McGinness. In some books, such as "Historical and Genealogical Record of the First Settlers of Colchester County" by Thomas Miller, the name appears as McInnis.

* In a story about the early settlers of Meagher's Grant by A.B. Lay, he stated that when ever you hear the name MacInnes you will find carpenters. It has been said of Malcolm MacInnes that he could build a mill with a square, saw and broad axe."

More on Miles MacInnes can be found in "Highlanders from Skye, in North Carolina and in Nova Scotia: 1771-1818", By Robert Archibald Logan, Scottish genealogist, 1966, Vol. 12(4): 92-108.

1853; she was 84. Residence: North Carolina (1773), Halifax (1778).

Christiana was the daughter of Angus MacDonald the VIII of Griminish, North Uist and Catherine MacLeod, the daughter of the Rev. Donald MacLeod of Skye and Ann MacLean of Boreray. Christiana was born on the Isle of Skye in 1769. She was about five years old when she went with her family to North Carolina in 1773.

After the American Revolution the family settled in Nova Scotia and on September 19, 1789 Christiana married Lieut. Miles MacInnes in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Christiana's father, Captain Angus R. MacDonald the VIII of Griminish was a descendant of Hugh (Uisduin) Alexander, First of Sleat and his third wife, the daughter of MacLeod of Harris. Christiana's mother, Catherine MacLeod was born about 1731 in Skye and died 1813 in Nova Scotia. Christiana's lineage goes back to Somerled through John, First Lord of the Isles and both of his wives, Amy MacRuari and Princess Margaret Ross Stewart.

The first time Miles MacInnes saw his wife was when he and some other officers were on a trip to McNabb's Island and unexpectedly came on the three MacDonald girls while bathing. Christiana and Miles were married in Halifax, Nova Scotia on September 19, 1789. Miles MacInnes died in 1818 and Christiana died in 1853 at the age of 84. From the Nova Scotian, a newspaper clipping said:

"At Musquodoboit, aged 84 years, Mrs. MacInnes, widow of Mr. MacInnes, an officer of the British Navy. She was born on the Isle of Skye, and arrived in America before the war of independence. After the Revolution she came to Nova Scotia and married, and has left behind her a numerous family of children, grandchildren and great grand children...."

Miles MacInnes and Christiana MacDonald MacInnes had 9 children who produced at least 60 grand-children all whom lived to be adults and had large families. Their descendants are now widely scattered over Canada and the United States and have included men and women who became lawyers, doctors, educators, bankers, engineers, explorers, publishers, military officers, nurses and writers.

All of the ancestry of Christiana MacDonald, which includes Kings of both Scotland and England and many Barons and Knights, has come from Flo Dickey, the Burkes and Scots Peerages, and the Clan website genealogies for Clan MacDonald, Clan MacLean, Clan MacLeod and Clan MacFarlane.

Third Generation

6 Angus (VIII) MacDonald. Born in Griminish, North Uist, Scotland. Angus (VIII) died in 1802 in Meaghers Grant, NS.

Angus MacDonald, VIII of Griminish of Scotland, North Carolina & Nova Scotia
by Flo Dickey, Tucson, AZ

Angus and his brother Archibald, the sons of John MacDonald, VII of Griminish and Ann MacDonald of Balivqueen, appear about the same time as 'on record as of Griminish and Scolpig'.

Tradition tells that Angus of Griminish, evidently on his succeeding his father, was hoodwinked into a scheme of emigration by several of the North Uist gentlemen, who pretended that they were to cross the seas to America.

Angus is said to have been masterful and domineering and his neighbors devised this somewhat dubious plan to get him out of the country. Be this as it may, Angus alone made genuine preparations for the voyage to America while the others kept up the deception to the very end by sending packing cases laden with peats and other similar contents to the port of embarkation.

At first, Angus was taken in by this ruse; but afterwards, when it was too late he sailed for the new world. Angus, having given up the tenure of Griminish for the new world, his brother Archibald came into possession as tacksman of Griminish.

A poem by John MacCodum, the North Uist poet, bemoans the emigration. But the poem states that Angus was a man of considerable wealth, nobility and much stature in North Uist.

Angus was living in Griminish prior to his father's death in 1765 and was then on record as Angus of Griminish. One could assume that Angus went to America after his father's death in 1765. It is said he did not find a congenial home in the new world and returned to Scotland before 1769. However circumstances change and he returned to America and settled in North Carolina with his wife and some of his children in December 1773. Angus was married when he went to America the first time and his wife, Catherine stayed with her parent's family on the Isle of Skye during his absence as three of their daughters were born on the Isle of Skye; Mary born 1767 and Christiania "Christy" born 1769 and Catherine born 1773.

In the later part of 1773, Angus and his family set sail for North Carolina and arrived in December of 1773. Also on the same voyage in 1773 were three young neighbors and cousins of Angus' from Knockline in North Uist. They were Marion, Janet, and Angus, children of Donald MacDonald. These young people came over as servants to pay for their passage. They were just a few of the many Highlanders that left their homeland for the new world. The following story relates the reasons for this move.

In 1746, following the Battle of Culloden, the Parliament of Britain passed some harsh laws to abolish the Highland Clans. The use of the tartans and the wearing of kilts were prohibited. These measures were endorsed by the occupying army. Local government thereafter was to be by Government appointed officials. No Highlander was allowed to own any arms. All this meant was that the clan chief would have no further use for the tacksmen except as tenants. A clan could survive only so long as the chief adhered to the ancient principles and they all had a perfectly valid legal right to lay those principles aside and rent the land for the best price it would bring. Sooner or later every clan chief adopted the new order of things. The tacksmen did not like it. They were as equally determined to emigrate rather than accept the new law.

This is what happened in the case of our Skye and Uist MacDonalds. In 1746 Sir Alexander of Sleat, the Chief, died the same year of the new laws. His oldest son, James, was a minor. Old Kingsburg was his tutor. James was given a good education, and when he took over the reins, he had not the remotest idea of doing differently from the long established custom. Every clansmen loved him and it was reciprocal. But Sir James died in 1766 at the age of 26 and unmarried. The next in line to inherit the chiefship was the next brother, Alexander. He had been educated in London, and perhaps no thought had been given to the possibility that he might some day be chief. He began to rent his land for the best price he could get regardless of kinship. As rapidly as leases expired the tacksmen were to pay higher rents or leave and leave they did. There was propaganda widely circulated that greatly hurt the pride of the tacksmen, to the effect that they were robbing the chiefs with one hand and the poor people with the other. Dr. Johnson discusses this at length in "The Tour of the Hebrides."

In 1759 a regiment was raised on the estates of Sir James MacDonald, and led by Montgomery, a brother of the mother of Sir James. In order to enlist the Highlanders, Prime Minister William Pitt decided to allow them to organize pure Highland regiments and permit them to wear kilts and be led by their own officers. Fourteen hundred men volunteered and officers were commissioned. They first saw action in New York and Pennsylvania and by 1761 a report came in that the Cherokees were molesting the western Carolinas. Montgomery, with 700 of these men, went to the Carolinas for about a year. Returning north they were discharged at the end of the French and Indian War of 1763. They were offered free land if they wanted to settle in America, or passage if they wanted to go home. But this group of MacDonald men returned to Skye and Uist. Naturally these men would learn a lot about the country during their stay in the Carolinas and tell about it back in Skye.

In 1771, James MacDonald of Heisker, Hugh "One-eye" MacDonald of Armadale, and several other MacDonalds applied for a grant of 40,000 acres of public land in North Carolina for themselves and their families.

In 1772, Hugh was back in North Carolina and bought land on Mountain Creek and returned to Skye and was there in October 1773 to ferry Johnson and Boswell to Mull and returned to North Carolina in 1774 to build a grist mill for the new settlers. In other words the clan was about to move its place of abode, and as Johnson expresses it, carry along their kindred, their customs, their language, etc. and "change nothing but their place of abode and of that they see the advantage."

In December 1773, Angus, his wife Catherine and five children arrived in North Carolina and settled immediately on land transferred to him by Alexander MacDonald, 5th of Cuidreach. In the later part of 1774, arrivals from Skye included Flora MacDonald and her husband, Alan MacDonald of Kingsburgh, their sons, Alexander, and James and their daughter Anne and her husband, Alexander MacLeod of Dunvegan, Isle of Skye; also Donald MacDonald son of Alexander MacDonald, 5th of Cuidreach and Miles MacInnes. Three young neighbors of Angus, from Knockline in North Uist came on the same passage with Angus to America in 1773. They were Marion and Janet daughters of Angus MacDonald and their cousin Angus, son of Donald MacDonald a relative. These young people came over as servants to pay for their passage.

Angus MacDonald had purchased several other tracts of land and by the time the Highlanders were mobilized at Cross Creek in February, 1776, he owned a total of 1861 acres. He received a commission as Captain from the governor of North Carolina and was in command of his company when taken prisoner at Moore's Creek Bridge, February 27, 1776.

Miles MacInnes, Flora MacDonald, her husband Allen of Kingsburgh, their sons Alexander and James, a daughter Ann and son in law Alexander MacLeod, Donald MacDonald (son of Alexander 5th of Cuidreach) all arrived in Anson County in 1774, most likely on the ship "Cato" arrived from Scotland carrying 312 Highlanders, in December of 1774, all from the Isle of Skye (Port of Brunswick Record Book). They settled in the Cape Fear basin where their relatives had settled a year earlier.

The nearest villages were Cross Creek and Campbelltown, which were merged about 1778 under the name of Campbelltown which was changed to Fayetteville in 1783.

Soon after their arrival trouble began in New England between the British and the American colonies. Two Scottish officers of the British Army were sent to North Carolina to organize a regiment of Highlanders to help support the British cause. They were Major Donald MacDonald and Captain Donald MacLeod, cousins of our descendants in North Carolina.

Many of the Scottish settlers in North Carolina were born in America or had become Americanized and favored the Yankee cause. Some wanted to remain neutral as they knew the treatment they or their parents had received from the English troops in Scotland when they had gone against the English government in the Rising of 1745. Those who arrived only a few years before 1775 were not free to make a choice as they had taken an oath of loyalty prior to their arrival in America. These newly arrived Scots, our ancestors, had lost so much in Scotland, they did not want to risk losing all their possessions in this new homeland. Most of the newcomers still had family back in Skye and feared reprisals if they supported the Yankee cause.

The British Government was well aware of this and tried to round up all the Highland men and transport them to known loyal territory as soon as possible, before they could be persuaded to join the Yankees. It was for this reason that Major Donald MacDonald and Captain Donald MacLeod were sent to North Carolina. Flora MacDonald, having gone against the British before in helping Bonnie Prince Charles, knew exactly what the repercussions would be. Consequently she was very willing to support the British and help persuade her family and friends to do so as well. Soon Major MacDonald, Captain MacLeod and about 1500 men began marching to the sea coast where they expected to be taken by ship to Halifax, Nova Scotia for training and arms, then return to Anson County to fight the Yankees. They joined the Highland Emigrant Regiment and they wore their tartans and kilts with pride. Unfortunately for these Highlanders, less than half were armed and those classed as "armed" had nothing other than swords. They were met by a smaller but well armed force of Yankees at a place known as Moore's Creek Bridge February 27, 1776. In the brief battle, Highlanders were outmaneuvered by the highly skilled Americans. Some were killed, including Captain Angus's son, and more than half taken prisoner. Included among the prisoners were Allen MacDonald of Kingsburgh and his two sons, Captain Angus MacDonald, and Lieut. Miles MacInnes. Since there were so many prisoners and not nearly enough Yankees to guard them, the younger men were released. They were told to go home and think about joining the Yankee cause. Some of the Highland prisoners escaped.

On October 28, 1785, in London, England, Captain Angus MacDonald submitted his claim to the Commission appointed by the British Government to settle claims of American Loyalists.

His claim stated that he had resided in North Carolina from December, 1773, until he was taken prisoner by the enemy in February of 1776. He took an active part in the uprising of Highlanders at Cross Creek and was taken prisoner February 27, 1776. He remained a prisoner over two years. After being released he rejoined the British forces and served until "the Peace.." He submitted a "Schedule" of property losses in North Carolina; lost when his possessions were taken or destroyed by the Americans. Angus claimed the loss of 5 tracts of land, each of which was operated as a plantation complete with buildings, horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, tools, and equipment. Two of the plantations were equipped with grist mills. The land areas were all in Cumberland County, in the vicinity of Cranes Creek, which is northwest of Fayetteville. The different tracts had areas of 400, 300, 250, 256, and 655 acres, for a total area of 1861 acres. Angus also claimed the loss of 94 sheep, 10 horses, 70 hogs, and 39 cattle. Several of his plantation were rented to tenants.

On October 28, 1785 his case was heard in London. In sworn testimony, he stated that he arrived in North Carolina in December, 1773 and settled at Cranes Creek in February of 1774. After being captured he was kept in close confinement for a year and was then let out on parole. After his release, he joined the British Army in Philadelphia in 1777. He obtained a lieutenancy in the PIONEERS AND GUIDES in 1778. He was at the siege of Charleston, and later Captain in the NORTH CAROLINA HIGHLANDERS and continued with them until the peace. He went from New York to North Carolina to rescue his wife and five children, who had lived on his home estate until they were forced to flee, without any possessions, in 1781.

From North Carolina, Angus took his family to Nova Scotia, where they lived until he started his voyage to England to try to recover his losses. Angus arrived in London a few days before the hearings, October 20, 1785. The evidence of the hearings shows that he produced a conveyance, dated 1 April 1774, for four tracts of land totaling 400 acres purchased from Alexander MacDonald. Alexander MacDonald of Cuidreach, on the Isle of Skye, was married to a half sister of Flora MacDonald. She was a daughter of Flora's mother and her second husband, Captain "One-eyed" Hugh MacDonald. Angus stated that when he arrived in North Carolina he carried over 300 guineas, a draft for 1340 guineas, and goods and possessions having a total value of about 700 pounds sterling. He could not produce deeds for the other tracts of land because they had been left in "the office" in North Carolina but he gave the following information;

300 acre tract purchased from a man named Cameron, 1774

250 acre tract purchased from a man named Gilmore, March or April of 1775

256 acre tract purchased from a man named Matthews, May 1775.

655 acre tract purchased from a man named Bowie.

He claimed loss of crops totalling 1000 bushels of indian-corn and 150 bushels of wheat. In 1781, his wife and children were forced to leave home without even a "second shift."

A supporting witness to these claims was Captain Alexander Morrison who had known both Captain Alexander and

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Captain Angus MacDonald in Scotland and North Carolina. He lived eight or nine miles from Angus, in North Carolina. He was with them when they made the bargain for the land at Cranes Creek. He said that Angus MacDonald was a man of good character and had brought property into the country.

Another witness, Donald Shaw (son in law of Morrison), had known Angus in America and before, and spoke highly of him.

There is nothing in the file to show when a decision was made about the property losses, but there is a document showing the following:

Captain Angus MacDonald waited in London for four months without receiving payment. Angus had given his tenure of Griminish to his brother Archibald before leaving for America. Some time during his the waiting period in London, Angus returned to his native Uist. However, he did not go back to his ancestors in Griminish, but resided at Balranald, then occupied by his kinsman, Donald MacDonald.

He presented another claim on or soon after, February 17, 1786 asking that some form of aid or temporary support be given him until he "might receive compensation for his lost property," and he gave the following reasons;

He had served in the rebellion in America and his wife and family had been forced to remain in the hands of the enemy who plundered them of their effects and confiscated all his estate.

Before the evacuation of New York (November, 1783) he returned to North Carolina for his family and took them to Nova Scotia "where they are now" and with whom he had remained until he came to England to have his claim heard. Since his arrival in England, he had been examined by the Commissioners for the Loyalist Claims, his claim "amounting in Carolina currency to 3393-17 pounds, equal in Sterling to about 1936-6-4." He had to refurnish his family with clothing, household furniture, and equipment; to purchase tools for farming; "to build a house in the wilderness" and, this, exhausted all his finances and involved him greatly in debt, he having no resources other than his half-pay, and "what is still a greater sting to his feelings as a husband, and a father, that for want of means, he is unable to go back to his family."

Josiah Martin, who had been governor of North Carolina when Angus lived there, was then in London. He wrote a letter, dated 17 February 1786, supporting the Memorial and recommending that "a temporary aid, or subsistence, be awarded to Captain Angus MacDonald to enable him to return to his family in Nova Scotia."

Captain Angus was called for a hearing on February 25, 1786. In the record of that hearing, the following information can be found:

He went to North Carolina, December 1773.

He raised a company of 250 men and joined Major Donald MacDonald's forces by order of Governor Josiah Martin. He had two commissions of Captain; one from Governor Martin and one from Lord Cornwallis. He had half pay as Captain.

After the peace, he went to Nova Scotia with his wife and children.

He came to England in October 1785.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

His case was heard October 28, 1785, Loss of 1939 pounds Sterling, Intends to return to Nova Scotia at first opportunity.

The Commissioners evidently thought it better to send him back home to Nova Scotia than to pay his support in London until his claim was paid. The decision was to pay him 25 pounds "to defray the expense of his return to Nova Scotia."

It is assumed that he returned as soon as possible and that the compensation for property losses was paid to him after his return to Nova Scotia. Of all the American loyalists named MacDonald who submitted claims to the British government for property losses in North Carolina, Captain Angus MacDonald was the one who received the largest amount of compensation. With all his land, he probably had slaves but, unlike some of his neighboring claimants, he did not submit any claim to the British government for the loss of slaves. It is probable that when he went back to North Carolina, to rescue his wife and children, he also rescued some of his slaves and took them to Nova Scotia, with the family. This would explain the story in Nova Scotia that he brought his wife and family, and slaves to that country.

Angus and his family settled in Kennetcook, Hants County, Nova Scotia. For some reason they spent a lot of time on MacNabb's Island, according to an article written, August 10, 1901, by J.D. Bayer, a great grand son of Angus. Bayer states that his great grandfather Angus came to Nova Scotia from Florida, where he had a plantation of some size and a dozen slaves. That they originally came from the Isle of Skye and his great grandmother was married after the celebrated Flora MacDonald who was married to Allan MacDonald of Kingsburg.

*One must remember that a lot of people in Nova Scotia thought of the eastern sea coast of the United States as one giant Florida and then Miles was in Florida prior to Nova Scotia may be the source of this statement. Flora married Alan of Kingsburg Nov.6, 1750, did Bayer mean that his great grand parents married after that date?

Captain Angus MacDonald married Catherine MacLeod, the daughter of the Rev. Donald MacLeod III of Greshornish (1698-1759), Skye and Ann MacLean, the daughter of the Rev. John Maclean the second son of John MacLean, 8th of Boreray. The Rev. Donald MacLeod III of Greshornish served as a missionary to the Island of Benbecula, in 1736 to North Uist and 1754 to Duirinish on Skye. He spent most of his ministry in the outer Hebrides.

Captain Angus MacDonald and Catherine MacLeod had several children;

1. Donald, born in North Uist (c.1750), was alive in 1795 and living in North Uist at that time.
2. Angus, born in North Uist, married Margaret Buchanan. He died in the Battle of Moore's Creek Bridge or shortly thereafter of wounds.
3. Alexander, born in North Uist, died in Nova Scotia.
4. Mary, born about 1767 on the Isle of Skye, married Archibald Crawford of Nova Scotia.
5. CHRISTIANA "Christy" born about 1769 on the Isle of Skye, married MILES MacINNES of Skye, North Carolina and Nova Scotia. (Bayer said he remembered hearing that the first time Captain Miles MacInnes saw his wife was when he and some other officers were on a trip to MacNabb's Island and unexpectedly came upon the three MacDonald girls bathing.)
6. Alexanderina "Lexy" married Jacob Bayer, Nova Scotia.
7. Catherine born ca. 1773, married Alexander MacDougal, Nova Scotia.

After the marriage of Christy to Miles MacInnes, Captain Angus MacDonald moved to Meagher's Grant. The old cellar of his house could be seen in 1910. Each of the MacDonald girls received two slaves. Tom Wade of Windsor Junction is a son of one of the girls given to Christy MacInnes, Black Charlotte. The other one also named Charlotte, married a former southern slave named Dennis McGruda.

Dickey/Dickie Family Register Report

Charlotte lived in a small log cabin on the MacInnes' farm, and one night when Dennis came a courting, the MacInnes boys crept up to the shanty to listen. Dennis first knelt down and said a long prayer after which he managed to pop the momentous question, and in a very short time Mr. MacInnes, who was a Justice of the Peace, had to perform the marriage ceremony for the happy couple.

Dennis McGruda got to Nova Scotia by guiding the British to a Yankee stronghold in the war of 1812. The British found him at work for his master and compelled him to show them where the enemy was by promising him his freedom. They were good as their word, and that's how Dennis McGruda got to Nova Scotia.

Captain Angus MacDonald received half pay of Captain till 1813.

From Moore County Court Minutes of February 22, 1785:

"Thomas Matthews came into court and on oath returned the following articles of the estate of Angus MacDonald liable for confiscation to wit: 200 acres of land, 9 pounds and 15 shillings, one surveyors chain, 2 head of cattle and one horse in the hands of Thomas Collins."

* Moore County Court Minutes of August 21, 1792:

"A Letter of Attorney from Anguish McDaniel to Ferquard Campbell was duly proved before Samuel Ashe, Esq. one of the judges of the Superior Court and Ordered to be registered."

It would therefore appear that Captain Angus MacDonald, then in Nova Scotia, had some hopes of recovering at least a part of his property. The foregoing claim is quite different in form from those filed by others of the Highlanders. Whereas other claims are submitted with certificates from officers who were captured at Moore's Creek, Capt. MacDonald produced only two, one from Dr. Morrison; the other from Donald Shaw, (Dr. Morrison's son in law) and these only mildly certified to his loyalty and scarcely at all to his property. The entire claim is confused and one can hardly tell just how much property he lost. The 400 acre tract referred to was sold to him by Alexander MacDonald of Mt. Pleasant, North Carolina, and the deed is recorded in Fayetteville. The other deeds referred to as having been left "in the office" are not of record. The 400 acres mentioned lay on, and is believed to include the mouth of Little Crane's Creek where it enters Big Crane's Creek, just below the railroad between Cameron and Vass. The mill mentioned was originally built by Thomas Gilmore, and at one time known as the Keith, Muckle and Stokes's Mill. In the early days of the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line, this place was a flag-stop, and was known as Walnut Grove. A few of these trees still grow in the vicinity.

Ca 1750 Angus (VIII) married Catherine MacLeod in Isle Of Skye.

They had the following children:

7 Catherine MacLeod. Born in 1731 in Isle Of Skye, Scotland. Catherine died in Meaghers Grant, NS, in 1813; she was 82.

Catherine's grandparents were the Rev. Her other set of grandparents were Alexander MacLeod III of Greshornish, Skye the son of Norman MacLeod, 2nd of Greshornish and Catherine MacLean of Coll.
