Dill Family of Nova Scotia

Preface

David Dill, married to Jane Walker, and Mungo Dill, married to Rachel Frizzell, are the ancestors of a large family of Dill's in the Windsor area and Douglas Township of Hants County, Nova Scotia. Chapter 2 documents their descendants in Hants County and beyond. The old story is that David and Mungo were half-brothers, David being the older (see discussion in Chapter 1). Mungo and Rachel Dill are my 5 great-grandparents through their son George S. Dill, his son Joseph Dill, and his daughter Sarah Maria Dill (#107), married to George Fraser.

Robert Dill, married to Jane Denny, was "of Windsor" in 1777 but settled in Londonderry, Colchester County, and his descendants were centred in Great Village, Truro and Londonderry, Colchester County and Wallace and Pugwash area of Cumberland County. Their descendants are documented in Chapter 3. Robert might be a brother of David.

John Dill of Windsor, NS is discussed in Chapter 4. John may be a brother of David.

Various unconnected Dill's – families and individuals – are documented in Chapter 5.

My sources are listed below, I am indebted to the work that has come before me.

As with all family genealogies, they are never complete. I hope information presented herein is accurate but I will keep it updated whenever new information is obtained. Corrections or additions are always welcome!

Chapter 1

Historical Perspective: The Donegal Dill's, the American Dill's and the Nova Scotia Dill's

I begin this brief narrative with the Dill's of Donegal, Ireland, who were recognized as Ulster-Scots, or the Scots-Irish. From Burke's Landed Gentry of Ireland, "Dill of Stream Hill",

- John (1) Dill of Tullinidale (Tullynadall), Co. Donegal, md. ca 1635 -- Jordan, and had issue,
- David (2) Dill, of Glenalla (Dill's Byre), b. 1640 md. 1665 Catherine Sheridan, of Drogheda (a lady of great pride and courage, who reputedly killed the last wolf in Ireland), and had issue Joseph of Forthill, Aughadrenagh (md. Nancy McFarlane), Francis of Springfield (md. Kitty Anderson), Samuel of Aughadrenagh (see next), David (md. ___ Fullerton and Anne Moore; their son Francis "went to America, probably Ohio, 1779", Nancy Kinghan information), and three daus.,
- Samuel (3) Dill, of Aughadrenagh, md. Martha Hall, and had issue, Alexander (see next), William died young, and two daus.,
- Alexander (4) Dill, whose descendants went to America.

An old letter has surfaced written by Revd. Dr. E. M. Dill of Clonakilty and Cork, son of Rev. R. Dill, Knowhead (1769-1801), grandson of John Dill (1726-1804) and Susan McClure of Springfield, and great-grandson of Francis Dill of Aughadreenagh (1695-1783) md. Rebecca (Kitty) Anderson, Francis was the s/o David and Catherine Sheridan. In it he writes:

"I. David Dill (wife Catherine Sheridan or Jordan of an R.C. family, but herself a Protestant) came from Scotland - lived at Glenalla, at the time of the siege of Derry. Cattle driven off to James' army, but his wife followed and got them back - Then they moved to Magheradrummond bottom of Fannet. A wolf came to destroy his cattle but was driven back by an English bull. Then they moved to Aughadreenagh, a country there all wild - only 2 families besides in Fannet, one at Carrowkeel and one "between the waters". David Dill had 4 sons, Joseph, Francis (md. Kitty Anderson), Samuel (md Martha Hall) and David (who md 1st ___ Fullerton and 2nd Ann Moore) and 3 daughters Mary (the ancestress of the Cathers) another, probably Peggy (the ancestress of the Campbells) another name unknown (the ancestress of the Scotts).

II. John Dill was David's brother but the American Dill's could tell me nothing of him (note: see Moses Dill letter below).

Second Generation

III. Samuel (wife Martha Hall) lived in Aughadreenagh, had 2 sons Alexander and William and 2 daughters Peggy and Molly - nothing important about him!

(Moses Dill, whose father emigrated to Armstrong County (Pine Township) Pennsylvania in 1819, gave me most of this genealogy, sitting in my Uncle Frank's loghouse in America in 1849)."

The Genealogy of David Dill and his brother Francis (sons of David Dill and Catherine Sheridan) was written up in "The Dill Genealogical Tree" by Rev. Wm. James Young, The Manse, Milford, Co. Donegal, 1910-1931, assisted by Rev. W. J. McConnell and recopied by A. E. W. Rutherford, 1968.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

Another family genealogy of the Donegal Dills from Andrew Dill in Windsor, NS shows Francis and Kitty Anderson's sons as John (b. 1726, md. Susan McClure, the parents of Moses, below) and Marcus (Mark) (b. 1741, md. Mary McClure). The sons of Samuel (md. Martha Hall) were Alexander, who had sons Samuel and William; and William, dsp. David and Ann Moore had sons Samuel (b. 1745, md. Hannah Floyd), Moses (md. Jane Cresswell), Francis (md. Ann Dunlap, went to Warren Co., Ohio ca1779), William, David (md. Margaret Campbell, went to Indiana), John and George (md. Nancy Scott, went to Pine Twp., Armstrong Co., Pennsylvania).

In a letter by Moses Dill, a grandson of Francis Dill and Kitty Anderson, sent to his cousin Jane Gordon Dill sometime between 1848 and 1864 and now held at the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland, he describes John Dill as follows: "John Dill, David's brother, lived in Corry near Ballymastocker. Did not thrive there. Moved to the Laggan. Lived near Newtown Cunningham. A granddaughter of his married a Montgomery in the neighborhood. The Late Francis Dill lodged in Montgomery's whose mother was Dill. That family, the Dill, emigrated to America. A grandson of John Dill's came on a visit from America to see his relatives, the Montgomery's. The Rev. Fras Dill brought this young man, Caleb Dill, to Springfield to introduce him there to his friends. He became fond of Catherine Dill and settled that after going to America he would return at an appointed time get married. After that, he went to the West Indians then died of fever. His dead letter was sent to Catherine, Springfield."

There seems to be good records of the subsequent generations of Donegal Dill's descending from David Dill and Catherine Sheridan, but it seems that several other of the American Dill's claim descent from David's brother John.

The document "My Dill Ancestor's" by Mr. Ellis Harold Dill contains a good review of his direct line in Delaware. He descends from William Dill (ca1700-1760) of what is now Kent Co., Delaware, who may have been born either in County Donegal, Ireland, or in Kent Co., Delaware. He may have descended from the senior John Dill. What I find most interesting is that Ellis quotes from "The Dill Family History", by Thomas H. Dill, who was born 7 February 1839 in Kent County, Delaware, and died 9 March 1924 in Columbus, Ohio. His principal source was "Aunt Polly" Dill, widow of Abner Dill, with whom he spoke in 1865. She resided at that time on the old Dill farm in a house over two hundred years old. Following is some information as recorded by Thomas.

"The Dill family was of Scotch-Irish extraction. Three brothers William, Abner, and John were the first settlers. They were ship builders by trade and settled first in Nova Scotia, later moving to Delaware and Maryland. They came from Londonderry County, Ireland. The earliest land transfer on record for parts of the old Dill farm is dated 1705. William settled in Murderkill Neck, Kent County, Delaware, a few miles from Frederica. He married into the Barratt family."

This is the first and only reference I have seen to Nova Scotia amongst the American Dill histories. I will return to this reference to Nova Scotia subsequently in my narrative about John Dill of Windsor (Chapter 4), since I think it may be his sons she is referring to.

There are two other early notable Dill lines in America descended from the Donegal family. Matthew Dill was born in County Donegal ca1700 and came to America in 1735. He became a Captain in the Pennsylvania militia. Capt. Matthew Dill and his family are recognized as the founders of Dillsburg, PA.

Caleb Dill was born ca1700 in County Donegal and died in Burnside, Town of Hamptonburgh, Orange County (formerly Ulster County), New York in 1756. He came to America about 1730. He had sons David, John, Robert and Caleb. Robert married Catherine Hannah MacNeill and resided in Ulster County, New York (ch. John, David, Hannah, Caleb, James, Samuel and Robert). John married Elsie Houston and Caleb married Mary Neeley (they were the parents of young Caleb referred to in the letter by Moses Dill above). Caleb Sr.'s son David wrote a will in 1759, "I, David Dill, being in health, and having occasion to travel for some time, think it proper to order this my last will." Did he have occasion to travel to Nova Scotia, by any chance? Nothing seems to be known further of him but see the DNA link mentioned below between a descendant David Dill of Windsor NS and descendants of Caleb Dill of New York.

Now I will move on to the Hants County, Nova Scotia Dill's, the subjects of this genealogy.

Reference to the first Dills in N.S. from "Hand to the Plow", Century Farms, Publ. by the Hants County Rural Beautification Committee, 1967, written by Dill Cochran of Newport Station Hants Co. "This farm is called 'The Cinq Maisons' by the French settlers, as there were five Acadian houses here. After the expulsion it was included in a large grant received by Colonel Scott in 1759. He brought as tenants three Dill brothers, David, John and Mungo (a half-brother) from Ireland. David Dill settled at 'Georgefield', the name given to this farm at that time. The Manor House, the home of Colonel Scott, was built here. 'Georgefield' has remained in the Dill family. I am the sixth generation, being the great-great-great-grandson of David Dill. The Dill families lived in one of the French houses until 1906, when the house we live in was built by my great uncle, Seth Dill, the owner at that time."

This narrative was continued in "The Story of Cinq Maisons and Georgefield, Winckworth, Mantua and Reminiscences", by Pearl Cochran Brown, Dill Cochran's aunt and Seth's niece. The family of Mungo Dill by Maribelle Smiley also continues this narrative: the Windsor Dill settlers were David and John Dill and their half-brother Mungo Dill, from Ireland. I can't imagine that there is any earlier written history still extant that would differ from the above narrative, or they would have known it.

Robert Dill was also "of Windsor" in 1777 when he signed the marriage bond of Catherine Dill (sister?) to John Reagh Jr., and Robert, of whom more later, subsequently relocated to Londonderry, Colchester County. His gravestone said that he was a native of Donegal, Ireland. It could be easy to assume that Robert was another brother of David and John, hence placing them also as from Donegal. The problem with this narrative is that there is not a lot of evidence to support it.

Mr. Bob Dill of Clermont, FL, a descendant of David's, laid out very well the known records of David, John and Mungo in his 2004 history,

<http://freepages.rootsweb.com/~smartherbs/genealogy/dill.htm>

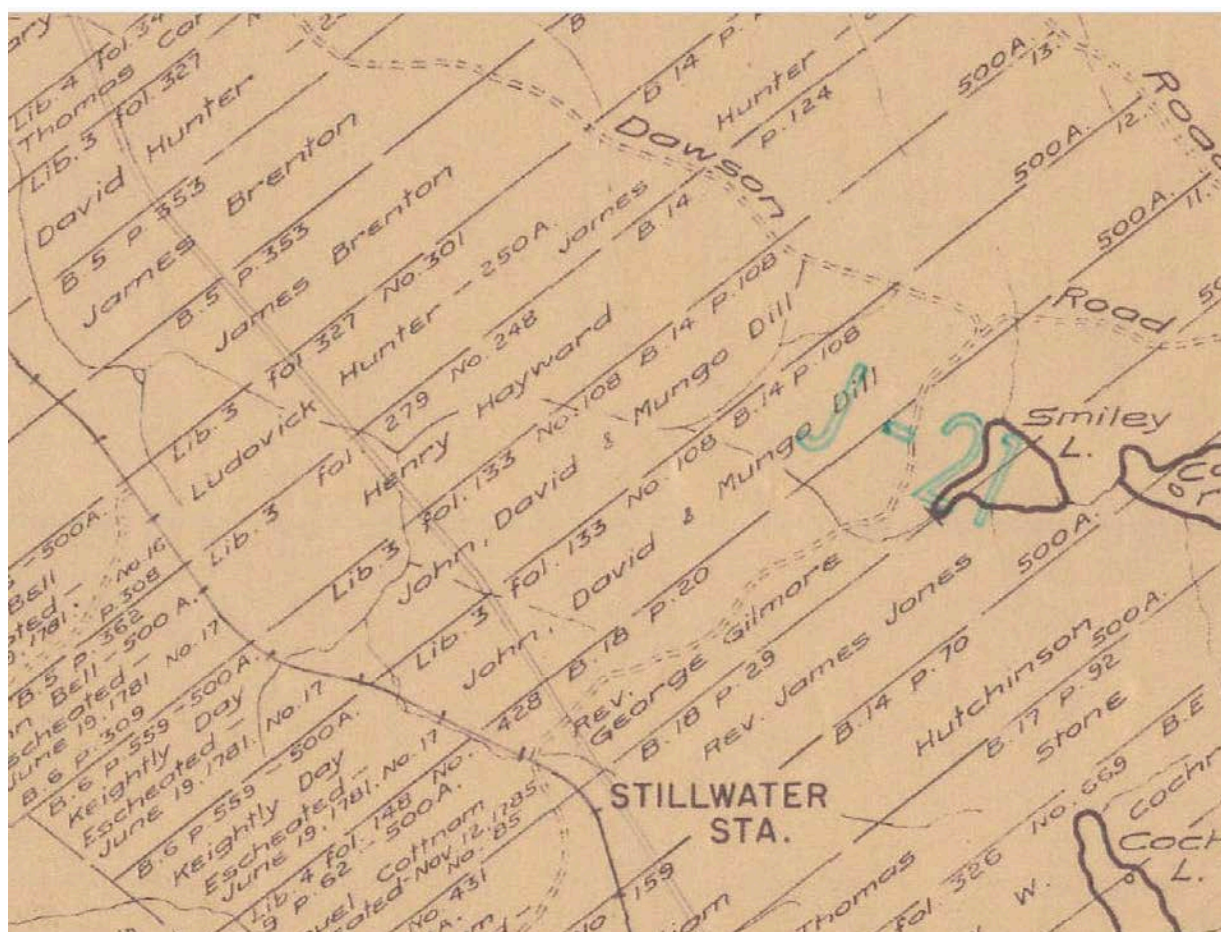

The earliest records are the marriage records. John Dill married Elizabeth Walker in Nova Scotia in 1773 (bonded 13 July, married 30 July, St. Paul's Anglican, by Reverend Neal). The marriage bond of David Dill, batch., and Jane Walker, spinster, was signed 3 Jan 1774 and guaranteed by James Finlay of Sackville, also guarantor for John Dill to Elizabeth Walker. They were married the same day at St. Paul's Anglican, also by Reverend Neal. It is not known if the Walker women were sisters. John Reagh of Cornwallis, farmer, and Robert Dill of Windsor, farmer, signed the marriage bond of John Reagh to Catherine Dill, 23 July 1777 Windsor. Mungo was bonded to Rachael Forswell (probably Frizzell) on 16 April 1779.

John, David and Mungo Dill became tenants on two 500 acre lots originally granted to Keightly Day on 12 October 1765, escheated on 19 June 1781 and granted to the Dills on 9 July 1784.

They were there for some time prior to July of 1784 when the bounds were recorded as starting at a stick and stones in front of John Dill's house. It appears that John and Mungo remained here when David moved to Cinq Maisons.

David, John and Mungo jointly purchased part of a property known as "Lot 57" in the town of St. Croix. The part they bought was 3/4 of a lot where the remaining part was owned by James Dill which he had purchased from James Riley on 6 Jan 1808. He may have been a son of John Dill. In a conveyance dated 3 November 1809, Mungo Dill of Falmouth, husbandman, and his wife Rachael sold his part and also his share of the 1000 acre grant to John Dill, Senr of Ardoise Hill, yeoman and David Dill, Senr of Georgefield. On 1 Jan 1810, John Dill, Senr of Ardoise Hill and his wife Elizabeth sold his share of Lot 57 to his son John Dill, Junr of the same place. One might guess from this that James and John Junr are brothers but we have no other evidence to show that. David and John Dill Junr sold 190 acres to George Johnson and on 14 Nov 1811, John Junr and James each sold to George Mosher, James selling 145 acres and John selling 23 acres, both transactions being recorded on the same page in the deed register. Can a common thread be woven from Donegal to the American and Nova Scotia Dill's? Likely, but it is elusive. GenealogyDNA has provided more evidence of the interconnectedness of these families, but it is beyond the scope of this summary narrative to speculate on it all. What's most interesting is that Andrew Dill of Windsor, NS, a descendant of David Dill, has strong DNA ties to the family of Caleb Dill of New York. Was David the son of Caleb who went missing in 1759? Another interesting fact is the reference to Nova Scotia in the narrative by old "Aunt Polly". If it was the Nova Scotia John's sons who were shipbuilders and moved from NS to be with their Delaware relatives, this suggests another strong connection.

I have chosen not to refer to David and John as brothers and Mungo as their half-brother, simply because I don't know and I don't have primary evidence. On the other hand, if the knowledge of Seth Dill, Pearl Brown and Dill Cochran was hand-me-down first-hand knowledge, it can't be readily dismissed.

Chapter 2

Descendants of David and Jane (Walker) Dill and Mungo and Rachel (Frizzell) Dill

Just exactly how David and Mungo are related is unclear, half-brothers or otherwise (see Chapter 1), however I have integrated these two families into the descendency report in this chapter since many generations remained in the Windsor area or in Douglas Township, Hants County.

First Generation

1. Mr. and Mrs. Dill. Unfortunately, the parents of David and Mungo have not been unequivocally identified. The historical suggestion is that they are half-brothers, but that has not been confirmed neither. See Chapter 1 for further discussion. Familysearch names the father of David, John and Mungo Dill in Nova Scotia as John Dill Sr. b. 1715 Donegal, d. 1751 Murderkill Hundred, Delaware, and the mother of John and David as Mary Linscott (the mother of Mungo is unnamed) but the source of this information is not referenced.

Second Generation

2. David Dill (Mr.¹). Born ca 1735. David died in Georgefield, N.S., on 20 Jan 1816; he was 81.

The marriage bond of David Dill, batch., and Jane Walker, spinster, was signed 3 Jan 1774 and guaranteed by James Finlay of Sackville, also guarantor for John Dill to Elizabeth Walker. 1817 census Windsor Township Dill David 1 Male above 50 1 male 16-50 1 boy 2 Woman 0 girls, total 5. 1 Irish, 4 Nova Scotian.

John, David and Mungo Dill received a land grant of 1000 acres near Ardoise in 1784 (see Chapter 1 for details).

David Dill rented the farm known as Cinq Maisons, later known as Georgefield, from Michael and Margaret Scott (the son and wife and heirs of Colonel Joseph Scott) for a period of 30 years beginning in 1802. "The Cinq Maisons", was so named by the French settlers, as there were five Acadian houses there. After the expulsion in 1755, it was included in a large land grant received by Colonel Scott in 1759. David's children John, William, Alexander and Joseph bought Cinq Maisons from the Scotts in 1811. The Manor House, home of Colonel Scott, was built there. Georgefield remained in the Dill family for at least six generations (Hand to the Plow, Century Farms, Hants Co. Rural Beautification Cmtee., 1967, Dill Cochran, Newport Station, great-great-great grandson of David Dill). Mungo and John were never part of Cinq Maisons but resided on their land grant.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

See the website of Robert C. (Bob) Dill-6th generation, Clermont, FL, formerly of Wayland, Mass. (David1, William2, John3, James Frederick4, Allan Frederick5) for a descendant report of the family of David Dill and Jane Walker.

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~smartherbs/David/HTML/fam011.html>
(last accessed April, 2020). Many of the notes here in the families of David come from Bob.

On 3 Jan 1774 when David was 39, he married Jane Walker in Halifax N.S. Born abt 1748 in Ireland. Jane died in Windsor, NS, on 22 Mar 1832; she was 84.

They had the following children:

| | iv. | Alexander . Born on 16 Dec 1782 in Windsor, NS. Alexander died in Windsor, NS, in 1851; he was 68. Buried in Old Parish Burying Ground, Windsor, NS. |

Alexander and Mary were childless but when his sister Elizabeth (Dill) Scott died in her early thirties, Alexander and Mary took in her eldest son David Scott and he became Alexander's heir. See Hants County Will Book 3, Page 109. Leaves bequests to his wife Mary R. Dill and gives his estate to nephew David Scott.

On 21 Mar 1821 when Alexander was 38, he married Mary Rysdale Smith, daughter of Nathaniel Smith (1747-12 Aug 1827) & Rachel Weighill (1752-1832). Born on 7 Apr 1783 in Cornwallis, Kings Co., NS. Mary Rysdale died in Windsor, NS, on 21 Oct 1851; she was 68.

3. Mungo Dill (Mr.¹). Born app 1755 in Ireland. Mungo died in Centre Rawdon, Hants Co., NS, on 8 May 1843; he was 88. Religion: Presbyterian.

Two books have been written on the descendants of Mungo Dill. Mrs. Maribelle Smiley's book contains information about Daniel and his son Newton, while Mrs. Robie (Tess) Dill's book focuses mostly on George S. and his son William Edward.

1817 census Windsor Township Dill Mungo 1 M >50, 2 boys, 2 women (16-50), 1 girl. 2 Irish, 4 Nova Scotian. Who are the two boys?

At some point, Mungo sold his Ardoise and Windsor lands and moved to Rawdon Township.

On 16 Apr 1779 when Mungo was 24, he married Rachael Frizzel in Nova Scotia.

Mungo was bonded to Rachael Forswell on 16 April 1779. A search of censuses and other records fails to reveal a

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

Forswell family in Nova Scotia and it seems generally accepted that the name Frizzel was meant and spelled improperly by the clerk. There were Frizzels in the area at the time. The bond was guaranteed by James McCormick, truckman of Halifax.

From Jane Wile, "a Daniel Frizzell, d. Mar. 28, 1797, Windsor, Hants, 1st wife unknown, 2nd wife Margaret Crowe (b. 1736, m. 1772, Windsor), d/o James Crowe, ch. Sarah, Jan. 7, 1775, Margaret, b. Apr. 19, 1779." A good candidate for Rachel's father?

From Bob Dill, A Daniel Frizzel had his will probated on 28 March 1797 and in it he mentions his daughter Eleanor Dill. Mungo married Rachel Frizzel but Daniel does not mention a Rachel in his will. Eleanor may have married a son of John Dill since all other male Dills seem to have been accounted for and Rachel's age makes her a candidate to be Daniel's sister.

From Tom Canning (2001), Don't have much on the early Frizzel's. My GGGG grandfather was one of the early Frizzell's, arriving about the time of Mungo Dill and his brothers, but don't have anything on him. John & Hugh Frizzell, b. about 1790, are buried in the Old Parish Burying Ground in Windsor. They could be siblings of Rachel. There were many Frizzells in and around Windsor over the years, but whether they are all from the same ancestors is not clear to me. The Frizzells from Ellershausen were one of the hardest hit families in the Halifax explosion in 1918.

They had the following children:

- | | | |
|----|------|--|
| 11 | i. | Mungo Jr. (1780-) |
| 12 | ii. | Daniel (1786-23 Mar 1862) |

| 14 | iv. | Nancy (25 Jan 1797-24 May 1867) |

Third Generation

Family of David Dill (2) & Jane Walker

4. John Dill (David², Mr.¹). Born on 20 Apr 1775. John died in Windsor, NS, on 10 Mar 1862; he was 86. Buried in Old Parish Burying Ground, Windsor, NS.

There was a probate action for John Dill listed as March 20, 1861 (docket number 775A) but the actual date is March 20, 1862. In John's will he gives all of his land to son William of Windsor. He leaves 50 pounds to son Timothy Smith Dill and makes a bequest of 25 pounds to daughter Mary Ann, wife of James Cochrane. There is no mention of sons John or Charles so they either didn't exist or they died previously.

On 18 Sep 1806 when John was 31, he married Rachel Smith, daughter of Nathaniel Smith (1747-12 Aug 1827) & Rachel Weighill (1752-1832), in Windsor, NS. Born in 1775 in Fort Lawrence, Cumberland Co., NS. Rachel died in Windsor, NS, on 7 Mar 1827; she was 52.

They had the following children:

- | | | |
|----|-----|--|
| 16 | i. | Timothy Smith (1809-3 Jan 1857) |
| 17 | ii. | Mary Ann (1811-28 Oct 1882) |

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

- 18 iii. John. Born on 10 Nov 1816. John died in 1831; he was 14.
 iv. William B. (12 Apr 1822-12 Aug 1867)
 v. Charles.
 vi. Elizabeth. Elizabeth died on 28 Sep 1827.

5. Jane Dill (David², Mr.¹). Born on 12 Apr 1777 in Windsor, NS. Jane died in Windsor, NS, on 9 Sep 1859; she was 82. Buried in Old Parish Burying Ground, Windsor, NS.

Pearl Brown in Cinq Maisons and Miribelle Smiley in The Dill Saga tell us there are no further records for Jane Dill but the Hants County Marriage Bonds show two Jane Dills, one marrying Nathaniel Smith and one marrying James Sterling. Sorting them is helped by her brother William's bequest in his will (Docket 555) to his niece, Margaret Smith. Even though she was Margaret Spence by that time, there is no other person who could be his niece Margaret other than Jane's daughter. Cinq Maisons covers Nathaniel Smith and his children but fails to provide him a wife.

Children of Nathaniel Smith and Jane Dill are:

1. Margaret Smith, b. abt. 1806, md Andrew Spence
2. Jane Smith, b. June 15, 1805, md James Hunter
3. Sussana Smith, b. April 20, 1812
4. William Smith, b. August 27, 1819
5. Patience Smith, b. September 30, 1809, md Timothy Smith Dill
6. Nathaniel David Smith, b. March 06, 1814, md Margaret MacDonald

On 17 Sep 1803 when Jane was 26, she married Nathaniel Smith, son of Nathaniel Smith (1747-12 Aug 1827) & Rachel Weighill (1752-1832), in Windsor, NS. Born on 28 Aug 1774 in Ft. Lawrence, NS. Nathaniel died in Windsor, NS, on 7 May 1846; he was 71.

Nathaniel apparently rented lands from Joseph Scott known as the Margaret Lands and the rent payments of 35 pounds a year went by an indenture dated 22 February, 1800 to Charlotte Cotnam. That indenture was abrogated in 1802 when Michael Scott the then owner wanted to sell the property to Nathaniel Smith which was accomplished by Michael Scott providing a 400 pound mortgage to Nathaniel on 23 October 1802. There were 1000 acres in the property. The rent from one half of "Five House" from David Dill was substituted for the annuity to Charlotte Cotnam.

Nathaniel Smith petitioned the Legislative Assembly for damages due to a new road running across his property. He also ran a tavern which was also affected by the road.

6. David Dill (David², Mr.¹). Born on 29 Jun 1780 in Windsor, NS. David died in At Sea, in 1831; he was 50.

David was elected to the Legislative Assembly in 1826 and was a member until his death after 1831. He was returning from Grenada in the West Indies on October 22, 1831 with his son John and was never heard from again. His death was reported to the house on Feb 8, 1833. Probate actions (docket numbers 315A Adm, 9 Sept. 1832 and D160 HFX Inv., 22 Sept. 1832) do not include a will. David died intestate and his executors, his brothers John and Joseph had to appeal to the Governors Council for permission to sell some real estate to pay off some of his debts. (Deed Book 21, page 520). Docket 479A proved 5 January 1846 contains a will by his widow Rebecca naming three sons and two daughters as her heirs. The daughters are Jane (md William Hamilton) and Rebecca and the sons are James, David and William. The Dill family Bible gives dates for family events.

I have found David Dill's Bible at NSARM and it proves that the William and James found in Scotch Village in the 1871 census are not his children. (See 11. Mungo Jr.)

(Bob Dill)

On 24 Jun 1814 when David was 33, he married Rebecca McLatchy. Born in 1787. Rebecca died in Windsor, NS, on 28 Dec 1845; she was 58. Buried in Old Parish Burying Ground, Windsor, NS.

Rebecca's husband was missing having left Grenada on 22 October, 1831 and we don't know when he was presumed dead but while she must have been mourning him, her father died and his will was proved 13 March 1832. He left to Rebecca and her husband, David Dill, all of the land on the south side of the road leading from Windsor to

Winkworth which he purchased from Jim Campbell, 100 acres. He also left 1/2 of all of the quarries that he owned to David and Rebecca.

Rebecca's will was probated as docket 479A and will book Volume 3, page 43. noting the bequests were to be effective when the recipients reached 21 years of age. She had 7 parcels of land. Her estate was to equally divided among her three sons, William, James and David and daughter Rebecca.

They had the following children:

- i. John (Died as Child). Born on 10 Nov 1816. John died in At Sea, in 1831; he was 14.
- ii. Mary Jane. Born on 23 Nov 1818. Mary Jane died on 3 Dec 1886; she was 68.

On 27 Aug 1848 when Mary Jane was 29, she married Charles Coffman Hamilton, M.D. Born on 10 Oct 1812. Charles Coffman died on 23 Oct 1880; he was 68. Marriage recorded in the Acadian Recorder 2 Sep 1848.

Son of James Hamilton (1764-1843) and Nancy Rathbone Harris (1779-1854), married 10 Feb. 1796, Windsor. James was the son of Jonathan Hamilton, from Maine, died Hortonville, Kings 24 Feb 1776. Charles was first married to Henrietta Troop (1814-1846), married 20 May 1839. They had three children, she died in childbirth with the third.

8. Joseph Dill (David², Mr.¹). Born on 21 Mar 1789. Joseph died in Windsor, NS, on 24 May 1840; he was 51. Buried in Old Parish Burial Ground, Windsor NS.

Joseph ran for his brother David's vacant seat in the Legislative Assembly but lost the election on 26 February 1833 and the subsequent protest. He and Lewis Morris Wilkins had an equal number of votes; on 3 April 1833 Dill's election was "declared undue".

There is a probate record for Joseph dated 5 June, 1840, docket 504A, Windsor. He mentions wife Ann and daughter Annabel (now under 21) (md Ezekiel Caldwell) and two sons, James (md Susan DeWolf) and Alexander. The will was witnessed by William Metzler.

According to J. V. Duncanson's book on the history of Falmouth, James Dill, who married Susan DeWolf, had sisters Mary who md. Levi Curry and Isabel who md. Zekiel Caldwell of Kentville, NS. This, however, is incorrect. Mary was a sister of Susan, dau. of Isaac DeWolf. Mary Jane (DeWolf) Curry, widow of Levi Curry, died Nov. 7, 1909, Windsor, age 76 years, burial Maplewood Cemetery (NSHVS and familysearch).

On 28 Feb 1822, Joseph married Ann Christie. (Long, Heather, Marriages in Nova Scotia). Born ca 1797. Ann died on 21 Jun 1871; she was 74.

There was an Anne Dill, age 74 and living in alone in Windsor in the 1871 census. She is probably Joseph's widow because the age and location are right. There was a probate action dated 30 June 1871 for Ann Dill, docket number 979A in Windsor. She may have died right after the census was taken. In a her will she requests her son James to provide a tombstone for her deceased husband Joseph and the children now buried with him. She makes provision for Ann Maria and Kate Ida Caldwell, daughters of her daughter Ann Belle (Dill) Caldwell. She mentions Joseph Dill and Frederick, sons of her daughter Anna Belle Caldwell. She also makes a bequest to Charles, son of her son James. There are no Christies in the 1871 census for Hants County.

Elizabeth was only 41 when she died and her son David went to live with her brother Alexander.
(Bob Dill)

On 18 Jan 1822 when Elizabeth was 27, she married John Scott, son of David Scott (1775-14 Aug 1803) & Sarah "Jean" Dalgity (1766-1 Nov 1851), in Windsor, NS. Born in 1800 in Woolwich, England.

Son of Sgr. David Scott, of Forfar, Angus, in the Eastern Highlands of Scotland, who was stationed at and murdered at the Halifax Citadel, Aug. 14, 1803, and Sarah Jean Dalgity. The Canadian Department of Veterans Affairs agreed to install a veteran's headstone to mark Sgr. David Scott's grave in 2001 as replacement for the wooden marker which had disappeared with age, at Fort Massey cemetery in Halifax. His story remains unique as one of the few British soldiers killed in the line of duty defending the Halifax Citadel - a fortress that has never been attacked by enemy forces.

John who was born in Woolwich, UK in 1800, when the family was stationed at the Royal Artillery headquarters, married Elizabeth Dill of Hants County, Nova Scotia and had a family of five children with her. In 1823, John was age 23 and he purchased three acres with a house and barn at Ste. Croix Bridge, two weeks after his marriage. He eventually acquired other properties that included farmland and woodland. Ste. Croix was a community that had been home to his wife's Dill relatives since they first settled there in 1784. The area went by various names including Ste. Croix Bridge and Seven Mile Plain - as it is seven miles from Windsor - on the main post road connecting Windsor to Halifax. The French name, and the French spelling Ste. Croix has survived in the community as a reminder of the early settlements by Acadian farmers who diked the inter-tidal flats. The dikes remain a vital part of agriculture in the area today.

Over the next seven years John Scott acquired a variety of land and is listed as both a trader and farmer. The properties included a store in Ste. Croix. The transactions involved six different properties, including 300 acres on Ardoise Hill (likely still wooded) which he acquired between 1828 and 1829. The largest section was 200 acres which cost £56. For 128 acres including 5 acres of rich dyke land he paid £300 in 1828. Transactions indicate he also sold portions of the land and acquisitions were mortgaged through private loans in Halifax and England. An English loan from William Scarth Moorson was arranged through a local agent, and both Thomas Forrester in Halifax, and Rev. Francis Salt provided financing.

Transactions included details on the age of the bay horse (15 years old) and the red and white cows (age 5 with drooping horns and age 7 with straight horns) that came with the property. Red and white dairy cattle (Ayrshires), and red and white beef cattle (Herefords), were a ongoing feature on Scott property in Ste. Croix throughout most of the 20th century.

After Elizabeth's death at the age of 41 in 1835, John sold a small portion of his Ste. Croix property to his brother-in-law Alexander Dill in 1837 including the house at Ste. Croix Bridge. Alexander Dill operated a carding mill on the Ste. Croix River, and he and his wife had no children of their own. Following the death of his sister they adopted their nephew David Scott as their son and heir. A biography of son John Adams Scott (John Jr.) described the situation, "His mother dying when he was eight years old and the family being broken up, he lived till his fifteenth year on the farm of his father's only sister," It is unclear where others may have lived or what "family broken up" entailed but it appears that extended family may have assisted with the care of the children.

John Scott established a new mercantile operation 26 miles west in Wolfville by 1836, as census records of that year list John's occupation as a trader. Likely renting initially, to get established; in 1838 he purchased a store property from the estate of Henry Allison in Wolfville. The following year John married Catharine Ann DeWolf, the daughter of a prominent family. While the DeWolf family name was distinguished in the district, the community was technically known as Horton and had acquired a local name of Mud Creek which two of Catharine Ann's cousins decided was a less than distinguished name. Those two girls are credited as having convinced their Uncle Elisha DeWolf Jr. who was then postmaster to apply for renaming the community in recognition of the prominent role their DeWolf ancestors had played in developing the area. In 1830, the arrangements were finalized and the Post Master General for Nova Scotia recognized that Mud Creek was renamed Wolfville.

Living in the same eastern part of Wolfville, a short distance from where Catharine Ann grew up, John and Catharine's own corner became known as Scott's Corner, and is located near the intersections of Maple Ave. and Main St. at the entry of the town. The old post road from Halifax connected with Wolfville at this point and continued through the town to other communities in the Annapolis Valley. Records indicate that John Scott's store was located on the south side of Main Street at the corner and that the residence was on the north side of Main. Today the house is restored and is a much enlarged home which retains the original 1760's kitchen in the cellar with cast iron pots and period items. Today, it is numbered 114 Main St.

While living in Wolfville, John continued to acquire land in the town including a property from Elisha DeWolf Jr. (the post master) in 1840 for £250. The mortgage was held by John Anderson of Halifax and eventually he sold to the same John Anderson in 1846 another piece of property nearby for £245 - a piece which John Scott had paid £15 for six years before. Likely the property had been improved with buildings over the six years and the transaction was to settle the mortgage.

The store property was eventually sold for £27 in 1849 to his son-in-law James Sterling Jr. of Newport, Nova Scotia who the year before married his daughter Jane Scott. Store keeping also continued as an occupation among John descendants, with both a son (David Scott) and grandson (Alexander Dill Scott) starting their own stores in other locations.

Together Catharine Ann and John had two sons, but in 1845 at the age of 40, Catherine Ann Scott tragically died. She was buried in the historic Old Burying Ground on Wolfville's Main St. among her DeWolf ancestors. Records of shoe maker Lewis P. Godfrey, who had moved to Wolfville in the 1830's, from Windsor indicate that he did business with John in 1847. The final land transaction to sell the store, within the family was in 1849, and it appears the departure for Boston, was around then. Although a common name, we know that a John Scott booked passage to Pennsylvania in 1846, from Nova Scotia, and possibly this was the same individual on an exploratory trip to area where his brother had settled five years before. That same year son John Jr. moved to Boston. His youngest sons Daniel and Albert, are recorded as having travelled from NS to Boston in 1850 on the schooner Albatross and thus it appear that the family had permanently relocated in Boston by that date.

When John became a single parent in 1845, he had seven children aged of 2 to 22. As previously mentioned his eldest son, David Scott, was living in Ste. Croix as the adopted son of Uncle Alexander and Aunt Mary Dill. The Dills had no children of their own, and David inherited the 200 Alexander Dill property known as Elm Farm which remains in the Scott family today. David and his wife Jane Hunter Dill honoured his adopted parents in naming their first son, Alexander Dill Scott. The Dill name has continued to be used by succeeding generations of Scott descendants as a middle name. Alexander Dill Scott, or "Dill" - as he was known, moved along with some of his neighbours and relatives, to California in 1883. Dill is credited with naming the town of Novato, California in his role as the post master and general merchant in the community. The name was based on local Mexican terms with historic roots in the area. Dill was a founding director of a local bank, and a successful businessman.

In Nova Scotia, Dill's brother John Albert Scott would carry on his father's farm and become known in Nova Scotia for his leadership in temperance and church organizations. Of the six sisters that were were raised in the home with Dill and John A. only three would survive the scourge of Tuberculosis and then only one would marry, losing her only child at an early age. Despite these losses the family flourished, with a Boston Branch of the family, the California Branch as well as the Nova Scotia branch. Annie Elizabeth Scott and her sister Alice remained at Elm Farm and played a critical role in the education of their nephews Rev. John Redford Scott and Frederic C.G. Scott.

11. Mungo Dill Jr. (*Mungo*², *Mr.*¹). Born in 1780.

Children of Mungo Dill and Lavinia Kilcup are:

1. Leroy Dill 1805
 2. Ethel Dill 1808
 3. Mabelle Dill 1810
 4. George Dill 1813
- (The first four from Bob Dill, but no further information found).
5. Frances Amelia Dill 1816-1890
 6. Susan 1823-1864

James Dill, b. ca1807, might be a son. If so, then William, b. 1807 might be another son. They married Sanford sisters. William named two children Newton and Rachel and James named two children Daniel and George. They must fit in here somewhere. They are tentatively placed as sons of Mungo Dill Jr. This link is unconfirmed.

Joseph Dill b. 1822 Windsor, mother named on death record as "Melvina", could it be Lavinia? This link is unconfirmed.

On 19 Dec 1811, Mungo married Lavinia Kilcup, daughter of William Kilcup² (1739-) & Hannah Lutches. Marriage recorded in Long, Heather, Marriages in Nova Scotia. Born in 1784. Lavinia died on 13 May 1849; she was 65.

They had the following children:

12. Daniel Dill (*Mungo*², *Mr.*¹). Born in 1786. Daniel died on 23 Mar 1862 in Windsor (recorded in the Presbyterian Witness 26 Apr 1862); he was 76.

From Bob Dill, Mungo's son Daniel married Ruth Davidson and had, besides Newton, sons Nathaniel and Alexander and daus Elizabeth and Rebecca. Elizabeth married Joseph Martin, Rebecca married Joseph Cochrane, Nathaniel married Mary ? and Alexander married Catherine ?. Alexander pre-deceased him. Most of that from Daniel's will.

Daniel left a will in which he left his dwelling house to his wife Ruth and the balance of his estate he divided into five parts: one part each for his sons Newton and Nathaniel, daughters Rebecca Cochrane and Elizabeth Martin and one part to the children of his late son, Alexander. There is a Rebecca Cochrane, b abt 1820, wife of Joseph Cochrane and an Elizabeth Martin, b. abt 1827, the wife of Joseph Martin. Joseph and Rebecca Cochrane have children named George, Joseph, Daniel, Annibelle, Rebecca and Alice consistent with family names. Joseph and Elizabeth named their only child Ruth which fits with Elizabeth's mother, Ruth Davidson. There is confusion here because Newton named his daughters Rebecca and Elizabeth and Rebecca married James Cochrane but if we are to believe Daniel's will, he had the children stated above. See Hants County Probate Docket 777A dated 8 April 1862. See also Hants County Will Book Volume 4, page 63. Note that his tombstone bears the death date of 22 Mar 1863 (as recorded and Henry Youle Hind). Either that should be 1862 or the probate file should be 1863.

Daniel married Ruth Davison. Born in 1785 in Cornwallis, Kings Co., NS. Ruth died on 18 Apr 1864; she was 79. Buried in Old Parish Burying Ground, Windsor.

Daughter of Nathaniel and Ruth (Sheffield) Davison.

They had the following children:

David Scott / Jane, only d/o William Dill, both of Windsor (Acadian Recorder 5 Nov 1853).

They lived in Ste. Croix where David had inherited the 200 acre farm Dill property known as Elm Farm. He also inherited a carding mill on the Ste. Croix River which he operated until it was sold to Charles E. Stanfield a young miller from Prince Edward Island who had operated Tryon Woolen Mills in 1856 before relocating to Nova Scotia. Stanfield went on to build establish even large milling and manufacturing operations in Bible Hill, and eventually Truro N.S. in 1882. Relatives of his by the name of Dawson of operated the Ste. Croix facility and eventually became owners.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

Besides operating Elm Farm, David was Justice of the Peace in 1861. In 1878-1879, he moved his family to Halifax where he operated a store called Ste. Croix House and was listed as a grocer at 20 Sackville St. with his residence at 22 Sackville St. with both the store and residence being within one wooden structure and covered by the same insurance policy. The Nova Scotia shipping industry was in decline along with a worldwide recession and his purchase of the failing business was ill-timed leaving him stuck with a losing venture. After major losses he returned to Ste. Croix but was determined to try again, returning to Halifax again having mortgaged his farm heavily. Again the business continued to fail and he returned to his farm and the three mortgages he had acquired. He opened a store, likely with stock he had in Halifax on his farm property. The moss covered foundation stones of the store remain intact behind the current garage/workshop which began life as the "apple house" for storage of apples. The farm included sheep he imported, and apple orchards he developed. A newspaper article credits him with being the first person to introduce merino sheep into the province. Eventually his son John Albert Scott would repay the mortgages and operate a mixed farm with eggs, hogs, cream, beef and apples being the main commercial products, as well as being fairly self-sufficient in vegetables. By the 1960's it was a mainly a dairy farm.

David Scott / Jane, only d/o William Dill, both of Windsor (Acadian Recorder 5 Nov 1853).

They lived in Ste. Croix where David had inherited the 200 acre farm Dill property known as Elm Farm. He also inherited a carding mill on the Ste. Croix River which he operated until it was sold to Charles E. Stanfield a young miller from Prince Edward Island who had operated Tryon Woolen Mills in 1856 before relocating to Nova Scotia. Stanfield went on to build establish even large milling and manufacturing operations in Bible Hill, and eventually Truro N.S. in 1882. Relatives of his by the name of Dawson of operated the Ste. Croix facility and eventually became owners.

Besides operating Elm Farm, David was Justice of the Peace in 1861. In 1878-1879, he moved his family to Halifax where he operated a store called Ste. Croix House and was listed as a grocer at 20 Sackville St. with his residence at 22 Sackville St. with both the store and residence being within one wooden structure and covered by the same insurance policy. The Nova Scotia shipping industry was in decline along with a worldwide recession and his purchase of the failing business was ill-timed leaving him stuck with a losing venture. After major losses he returned to Ste. Croix but was determined to try again, returning to Halifax again having mortgaged his farm heavily. Again the business continued to fail and he returned to his farm and the three mortgages he had acquired. He opened a store, likely with stock he had in Halifax on his farm property. The moss covered foundation stones of the store remain intact behind the current garage/workshop which began life as the "apple house" for storage of apples. The farm included sheep he imported, and apple orchards he developed. A newspaper article credits him with being the first person to introduce merino sheep into the province. Eventually his son John Albert Scott would repay the mortgages and operate a mixed farm with eggs, hogs, cream, beef and apples being the main commercial products, as well as being fairly self-sufficient in vegetables. By the 1960's it was a mainly a dairy farm.

David married Jane Hunter Dill (22), daughter of 7. William Dill (16 Jan 1787-8 Nov 1853) & Margaret Ann Hunter (1792-28 Jul 1877). Born on 3 Nov 1828. Jane Hunter died in St. Croix, Hants Co., N.S., on 10 Feb 1907; she was 78.

27. John Adams Scott (Elizabeth Dill³, David², Mr.¹). Born on 20 Oct 1827 in Windsor, Hants Co., NS. John Adams died in Boston, Mass., on 28 Sep 1903; he was 75.

"John Adams Scott of John A. Scott & Son carriage builders, Boston, is a native of Nova Scotia; born in Windsor, Hants County, October 20, 1827; son of John and Elizabeth Dill Scott. His father was a native of Halifax and his mother of Windsor, and his grandparents on both sides were of Edinburgh, Scotland. He was reared on farms and educated for the most part in the district school. His mother dying when he was eight years old and the family being broken up, he lived till his fifteenth year on the farm of his father's only sister, attending school during the winter months and upon her death he went to work upon another farm employing his earnings for two years to the cost of finishing his education. In April, 1846, he came to Boston working his passage on a sailing vessel and apprenticed himself to Aaron E. Whittemore of Roxbury, whose shop was on the corner of Warren and Dudley Street where the Hotel Dartmouth now stands, to learn the carriage smith's trade and spring making. Here he remained for two years employing his evenings in the study of book keeping, arithmetic and writing. His employer failing in business he spent the next two years working as a journeyman in Roxbury and Dorchester. Then in October 1851, he entered business for himself in the same shop in which he learned his trade and he has continued on the same street and near the site of the old shop ever since. His works have been repeatedly enlarged and he has for some time been a leading member of the trade. He was president of the National Carriage Builders Association in 1891, and is now (1894) president of the National Carriage Exchange... He was married September 17, 1848, to Miss Sarah Sargent Long of Chester, N.H. They have had three daughters and two sons; Mary Elizabeth, Mildred Orne, Jessie Fremont, John Franklin and William Jackson Scott. The eldest daughter Mary died in September 1874, and Mrs. Scott died December 24 1889."

34. Susan Dill (*Mungo*³, *Mungo*², *Mr.*¹). Born in 1823. Susan died in Boston, Mass., on 6 Jul 1864; she was 41. Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Boston, MA.

The daughter of Mungo and Lavinia Dill, Susan was a Nova Scotian immigrant who married Morris Newhall, the son of John and Martha, on May 23, 1848 at Boston. They were the parents of Mary E., born in 1849; Hannah, born in 1851; John B., born in 1855; Lewis M., born in 1858 and died in 1860; and Joseph H., born in 1860.

Susan was widowed in February 1862 when her husband Morris, a Bootmaker, died of Tuberculosis. She met her own end two years later when she succumbed to Phrenitis, a viral infection of the brain, at age 41, at her home on Third St., South Boston.

Susan married Morris B. Newhall. Born in Jan 1822. Morris B. died on 12 Feb 1862; he was 40.

The son of John and Martha Newhall, his father was born at Lynn, MA and mother at Attleboro, MA. Morris married Susan Dill, an immigrant from Nova Scotia, on May 23, 1848 at Boston. They were the parents of Mary E., born in 1849; Hannah, born in 1851; John B., born in 1855; Lewis M., born in 1858 and died in 1860; and Joseph H., born in 1860. Morris was a 40-year-old Bookmaker residing with his family at Wright Ct. when he died of Phthisis (Tuberculosis).

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

36. Alexander Dill (Daniel³, Mungo², Mr.¹).

Children of Alexander Dill and Catherine are:

1. Laura Dill, b. 1854
2. Rebecca Dill, b. 1853

Alexander died intestate and his case was probated on 27 October 1853, Hants County docket number 574A. He left a wife and five minor children. The microfilm of the probate listing of his children could not be read beyond the names Rebecca and Laura. Rebecca could not be found in the 1871 census; there is a Laura, age 17, living with James and Sarah Shand. His wife, Catherine Ann signed the document in the presence of Joseph and James Cochrane. Presumably this is Joseph, son-in-law of Daniel and his brother James, who was md. to Mary Ann Dill, d/o John² (s/o David¹). Interestingly, the family of George Cochran and Mary Caldwell, parents of Joseph and James, shows a Laura Cochran md. to Alexander Dill. They had a dau. Laura. So it could be Laura rather than Catherine, or that Laura was confused for the dau. of Catherine. Regardless, it may be that the wife of Alexander Dill was a sister of Joseph and James Cochran, dau. of George Cochran and Mary Caldwell. It would be logical that she signed the document in the presence of her brothers.

(Bob Dill)

Rebecca Dill, b. Aug 22, 1853, Windsor, dau. of George Dill and Rebecca Cochran. Joseph Alex. Gullan, Springhill, son. Jan 24, 1930 (late registration of birth, NSHVS). There is a Rebecca Dill 24, b. Windsor, d/o E. and Catherine, married 12 Aug 1876 in Hantsport to Daniel Gullan 34 widower of Hantsport, Ship's carpenter, b. River John. They had twins, a son Joseph Alexander and a dau. Jessie F., b. 3 Jun 1877 in Hantsport. Despite the differences in names in the records (George Dill and Rebecca Cochran, Alexander Dill and Catherine Cochran, E. and Catherine Dill), this is the best guess for Rebecca Gullan.

Capt. Daniel Dill was born in Windsor, NS around 1841. He died on March 16, 1877 at the age of 36 years (PW 31 Mar 1877, Capt. Daniel Dill, of consumption at St. Martins, NB, in his 37th year). His memorial stone is located in the St. Martins Community Cemetery, NB. He was a master mariner who commanded the barque "Ida E" and the barque "Oliver Emery".

I don't know whether this might be related or not, but I came across a George Cochran, b. Windsor, d. St. Martin's,

<https://www.chignecto.org/getperson.php?personID=I83&tree=Main>

His brother Joseph married Rebecca Dill of Windsor, d/o Daniel Dill. Daniel had a son Alexander who md. Catherine Cochran. Alexander died young. They had 5 children of whom I only know two. I haven't followed all the Cochran's but the St. Martin's connection is interesting. Is Capt. Daniel Dill the s/o of Alexander and grandson of Daniel and did he get to St. Martin's via the Cochran connection? It's possible.

Alexander married Catherine Cochran.

the Cochrans in the 1871 census. When Rebecca's brother, Alexander died in 1853, Joseph Cochrane was one of the witnesses to Alexander's widow's signature. When her father died, she, Mrs. Joseph Cochrane was appointed executrix. The children are those living with Joseph and Rebecca and are presumed to be their children.

Rebecca Dill, b. ~1819. She married Joseph Cochran, Capt., b. abt 1807, (son of George Cochran and Mary Caldwell), resided in Ste Croix, Hants, NS, Can, occupation Mariner / Farmer.

There is an inconsistency in familysearch. They show Joseph Cochran, b. 1801, s/o George Cochran and Mary Caldwell, md. to Jane King. However, the same Joseph is cross-listed as also being the s/o James Cochrane and Isabel Elizabeth Clarke. They show James Cochran, md. to Mary Ann Dill, as also the s/o James Cochrane and Isabel Elizabeth Clarke.

Joseph and Mary Dill named their first daughter Sarah Maria, presumably from her grandmother's, Sarah Wood and Henrietta Maria Kilcup.

In correspondence in 1996 with Terri Cornell in Texas, a descendant of Caleb's son Charles, she said "I have no written proof that Caleb's daughter Mary Burgess married Joseph Dill, only my grandmother's word for it. She died in 1985 at the age of 95, sharp until the end. She was very close to her Burgess grandparents, Charles and Hannah, just as I was very close to her. Hearing my grandmother speak often and fondly of her own grandparents made them seem closer than my great-great-grandparents. She remembered that Mary's daughter was the mother of Dr. Fred Sims (dentist) of Belmont, Mass." Sarah is in the 1901 census with Peter Tulloch, husband, and sons Joseph, Harding and George and grandson Ross and in the 1911 census with sons George, Joseph and grandson Ross.

“Mrs. Peter Tulloch. There passed away at Elmsdale, on Tuesday May 15th, one of the most highly respected citizens of that community in the person of Mrs. Peter Tulloch aged 77 years.

Deceased was formerly Miss Sara Dill of Centre Rawdon. She was twice married; her first husband being the late James Fraser of the Gore who passed away about 20 years ago. Her second husband the late Peter Tulloch predeceased her over two years ago. Four children, one daughter and three sons by her first husband, survive. They are Frances, Mrs George Wright, Joseph, James and George Fraser. Two sisters are left to mourn, Mrs John B Wallace of West Gore, recently moved to Vancouver, and Mrs Simm in Waverley, Mass.

There are few people who enjoyed more the universal love and respect of her family and friends than did the deceased lady. She was a woman of exceptional strength of character, a Christian woman in the truest sense.

The passing of Mrs. Tulloch will leave in the hearts of her children a blank, which nothing can fill and she will be greatly mourned by a wide circle of friends. The funeral was largely attended.”

In 1857 when Sarah Maria was 21, she first married George Fraser, son of James Fraser⁹ (16 Sep 1799-1874) & Christiana (Christie Ann) McPhee¹⁰ (24 Aug 1805-). Dill, Geo. E. md. 26th ult. (of Gore, Hants Co.); Mary Ann Temple of Nine Mile River, by Rev. James McLean. PW 3 Mar 1866.

Note, there is confusion with the George Otis Dill (Uncle) and Mary Ann (Withrow) Dill family. They cannot be the same family, as Mary (Withrow) Dill was still living in the 1881 census with her family whereas Mary (Temple) Dill died in 1872. Ethel Dill (d/o Mary Ann Withrow) was b. 26 Apr 1869 and Mary Ann Dill (d/o Mary Ann Temple) was b. 27 Jul 1869.

NSHVS: Averd Stanley Dill, b. 8 Nov 1867 Gore, s/o George E. Dill and Mary Ann Temple. Mary Ann Dill b. 27 Jul 1869 d/o Geo. E. Dill, farmer, and Mary Ann Temple, married Nine Mile River. George Nelson Dill, b. 8 Jun 1871, Gore, s/o George Dill, farmer, Gore, and Mary Ann Temple (md. Nine Mile River).

George E. Dill, 32, married, b. Rawdon, s/o Joseph and Susan, died 5 Dec. 1870 of consumption, Lower Rawdon. I think this is the son of Joseph and Mary (Burgess) Dill), so nephew of George Otis Dill.

Averd Stanley died young but there are good records for George Nelson Dill (s/o George E. Dill and Mary Ann Temple). He had a son Harold Temple Dill. No further records yet of Mary Ann Dill, the d/o Mary Ann Temple.

On 26 Feb 1866, George E. married Mary Ann Temple in Nine Mile River, Hants, NS. Born in 1840. Mary Ann died in Gore, Douglas, Hants Co., NS, on 26 Aug 1872; she was 32.

Sabra Ann married a George Maitland Innes (who had emigrated to Canada at some point that I'm still trying to find out, and who, as far as I can tell, was the grandson of Sir William Beechey a famous portrait artist of the late 18th/early 19th century) and moved to New Brunswick. After having 2 children there they emigrated back to England and settled in London, where George grew up. They went on to have a total of 15 children, many of whom did not survive childhood. Their 12th child, Harold, was my great, grandfather who I remember from when I was a very young child.

Best wishes,

"Graeme Smith"

- i. Howard William. Born on 22 Jul 1934. Howard William died in Windsor, Hants Co., NS, on 20 May 2008; he was 73. Buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Windsor, NS.

WINDSOR, N.S. – Howard Dill, whose prize-winning giant pumpkins took many trophies, has lost his battle with liver cancer. He was 73.

Dill was diagnosed with inoperable liver cancer last fall and was admitted to hospital shortly after Christmas.

As far as the pumpkin-growing world goes, Howard Dill is considered by many to be king. Seeds for his personal variety – aptly named Dill's Atlantic Giant – are sold to competitive growers around the world, and his enormous gourds are a staple at the pumpkin regatta, an annual event in which competitors row across a lake in hollowed-out, decorated pumpkins. Dill made a name for himself in 1979 when one of his early creations took the top prize in the International Pumpkin Association's annual weigh-off, tipping the scales at 437 pounds. He went on to rule the competition for the next three years, and his wins were chronicled in editions of the Ripley's Believe It or Not books.

Howard William married Hilda Pearl Levy. Born on 1 Sep 1941 in Windsor, Hants Co., NS. Hilda Pearl died on 27 Nov 2009; she was 68.

Born on September 1, 1941, in Windsor, Hants Co., she was the daughter of the late Percy and Mildred (Rafuse) Levy. Hilda was a loving, respected individual by all who knew her. She always had a positive attitude and strong will no matter what crisis she was faced with. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend. Hilda had a heart, bigger than any pumpkin ever grown, and was the biggest support system her husband or children ever needed. Hilda spent her working years enjoying her passion for cooking. She worked at the Masonic Home, Old Orchard Inn, and Kingsway Inn where she ran the food operations for 17 years. When she retired from cooking, Hilda became the administrator for the Gladys Manning Retirement Community from 1992-2000. After retirement, Hilda continued to volunteer her time to the residents. Her spare time was devoted to her children in their early years. She was a "hockey Mom", a "figure skating Mom", and an active member of the Avon Pony Club. For over 40 years, Hilda was devoted to her husband's lifelong passion for growing, showing and promoting his giant pumpkins around the world. In her later years, she devoted her time to being "Nanny" to her grandchildren. Her interests were baking, reading, knitting, Saturday night suppers with Lionel and Susan, Christmas shopping and her kitty cats, Grayboy and Cally. She is survived by sons, Eddy (Crystal) Levy, Lower Vaughans; Danny (Carol) Dill, Andrew (Tanya) Dill; daughters, Maureen Dill, Diana (Scott) MacDonald, all of Windsor; grandchildren, Jamie (Lindsay) Levy; Jordan Levy; Alex and Larah Anctil; Michael and Alison Dill, Nathan and Raylynn Dill; great granddaughter, Jade Levy; brother, Gordon (Karen) Levy, Lower Vaughans; special cousin, Peggy Wells, Windsor; numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her husband of 46 years, Howard "Howie" Dill; sister, Doris Davidson.

- ii. Winnifred Maxine. W. Maxine Trinacty-Pelletier (Dill) ~ With broken hearts we announce the passing of Maxine Pelletier on Thursday, April 29, 2021, at her home in Windsor. She was a beloved sister, mother of five, grandmother of eight, great grandmother of two, aunt and a friend to many. She was born in Windsor, on September 15, 1930, to the late William "Dick" Dill and the late Gladys Parker. She grew up on the Three Elm Farm in Windsor, home of the giant pumpkins and the birthplace of hockey. She reflected that life was quiet on the farm. She, Margaret and Howard entertained themselves before radio and TV and there was no family car. As young girls she and Margaret often tantalized the boys at Kings College School, next door. She was anxious to leave the farm for the city life of Halifax where she finished business school, got a job and soon met and married a sailor, Ed Trinacty. They did a brief posting in Ontario but as the family grew they moved back to Windsor for a posting in Shearwater and to raise their children. She attended many hockey games, baseball games, figure skating events, school events and cooked many meals for her children and their friends. She eventually returned to work at Evangeline Savings in Windsor and later Dominion of Canada in Halifax. Maxine had many hobbies. She was into refinishing antiques, Scottish dance, making dolls and teddy bears, knitting, crafts and ukulele. Most of all she was a prolific painter. She met Sam Pelletier in Florida and in November 1993 she married Sam, moved to Niagara Falls and wintered in St Pete's, Florida. She moved back to Windsor in 2010, where she and Sam took up residency at the Gladys Manning Memorial Retirement Home which, so fittingly, was on the former lands of the Sunny Slope Farm, next to the Three Elm Farm where she grew up. She was so happy to be living next to the farm, to be closer to her family and to become part of life at the 'Manning Place'. She and Sam embraced connecting with family and old friends, making new friends and participating in community life. She could now enjoy her grandchildren even more. And of course, everyone loved having Mom (often referred to as "Mother"), Nanny and Max around. When Sam passed in October 2013, she embraced family and the Manning Place even more. She began sitting each day in the sun, at the table in the common room at what soon came to be known as 'Maxine's office'. She greeted everyone going by, shared stories with them and soon became part of everyone's life and they hers. Her paintings, plants and decorations adorned the second floor and she loved the regular entertainment. Her outings to church and family functions were her highlights but she was also content to sit and knit, listen to Dan O'Donnell, save any newspaper article she thought relevant to a family member or friend and, more recently, scanning and sharing on Facebook. She was a collector and lived surrounded by her dolls, teddy bears, paintings, pottery and ornaments. She loved to connect with people and converse with her family and friends. She will be greatly missed as she leaves a large whole in many peoples' lives. She was predeceased by her brother, Howard Dill and husband, Sam Pelletier. She is survived by her sister, Margaret Curry; her children, Mike Trinacty (Brenda), David (Bunk) Trinacty, Patti Trinacty (Kenny Rippey), John Trinacty, and Tina Trinacty (John Forbes); her grandchildren, Melanie Trinacty, Dr Jill Trinacty, Sophie Trinacty, William Trinacty, Natalie Rippey, Alisha Bowes-Trinacty, Kaeligh Hancock and Jaden Hancock; great grandchildren, Oaklynn Tracey and Charlee Tracey; nieces, Linda Skelhorn, Maureen Dill, and Diana MacDonald; nephews, Scott Annand, Danny and Andrew Dill; step grandson, Joey Pelletier. Her wish was to be cremated and her remains to be interred in Maplewood Cemetery.

iii. Margaret Jean.

160. Dorothy Jane Dill (*James Frederick*⁵, *John*⁴, *William*³, *David*², *Mr.*¹). Born on 19 Nov 1898 in Windsor, Hants Co., NS. Dorothy Jane died in Alliston, ON, on 2 Oct 1976; she was 77.

Robert Allan Dill Obituary. There once was a man from Springfield....He was a lover of

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

Irish limericks and would get a kick out of someone writing one about him! It is with great sadness that we announce the death of Robert (Bob) Allan Dill (Clermont, Florida), born in Springfield, Massachusetts, who passed away on October 28, 2022, leaving to mourn family and friends. Bob was a devoted husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. Bob a diehard Boston sports fan. He spent his youth listening to the Red Sox on a tabletop radio and was able to fulfill his lifelong dream of seeing the Red Sox win the World Series when Boston won the championship in 2004 by sweeping the St. Louis Cardinals. He was also an avid New England Patriots fan, travelling to New Orleans for their Superbowl in 1986 when they were trounced by the Chicago Bears. He never gave up, though and was elated when they went on to become a powerhouse during Tom Brady's career. He was a happy man. Bob and Dotty Learned Dill (who passed away in 2020) were married on August 15, 1953 and spent the majority of their life in Wayland, MA where he worked for Raytheon. They moved to Clermont, FL in 1997 and soon were followed by family. He and Dotty were involved with Pastfinders Genealogy and the Cooper Memorial Library. They travelled extensively researching genealogy all over the world. Genealogy was a shared passion for them. He was never happier, though, than when he was with his family. He was a proud father to Steven Dill and his wife Laurie Nelson Dill along with their 2 sons, Christopher Dill and Eric Dill and his wife Camila of Bellingham, MA. He is also survived by his daughter, Terry Nelson and her husband Steven Nelson of Clermont, FL, their children, Brian Nelson and his wife Abby Nelson of Maitland, FL and Heather Tomassian and her husband, Clifford Tomassian of Leesburg, FL. His great grandchildren who were the light of his life, Jacquelyn and Amy Tomassian and Dagny and Blake Nelson. We will all miss his amazing sense of humor and his love for family.

On 15 Aug 1953 when Robert Allan was 22, he married Dorothy Learned in Springfield, MA. Dorothy died in Clermont, FL on 1 Feb 2020.

Dorothy (Dotty) Jane (Learned) Dill passed away on February 1, 2020 after a brief stay at Cornerstone Hospice, Mike Connelly House following a brief illness. Dotty is survived by her husband of 66 years, Robert A. Dill, her children Steven Dill and his wife Laurie of Bellingham, MA, Terry Nelson and her husband Steven Nelson of Clermont, FL. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Brian Nelson and his wife Abby Nelson of Maitland, FL, Heather Tomassian and her husband Clifford Tomassian of Leesburg, FL, Christopher Dill of Milford, MA, and Eric Dill of Bellingham, MA. She was blessed to be a big part of the lives of her great grandchildren, Jacquelyn, Dagny, Amy and Blake. Dotty was predeceased by her daughter, Jacquelyn Dill Grindell in 1998. Dotty grew up primarily in Aruba. She graduated from Lago High School, Aruba and moved to Florida to study at Florida Southern. She left school to marry Bob, who she met when visiting her aunt in Springfield, MA over the summers. She and Bob travelled over the years, camping throughout the US, cruising to Alaska and trekking through the British Isles staying at bed and breakfasts to avoid the "touristy" things and meet the locals. Along the way, they researched genealogy, a passion for both of them. After raising their children in Wayland, MA, they moved to Clermont, FL in 1997. Dotty became involved with the Garden Club, Cornerstone Hospice and Pastfinders Genealogy. She was also a proud member of the DAR. She remained busy with Pastfinders and DAR until her illness late last year. She was well known at Cooper Memorial Library. Dotty was thrilled to have spent Christmas in Aruba with her great grandchildren in 2018. Her kids surprised her with the trip and she fulfilled a dream to show them where she grew up. She and Bob had been able to share Aruba with all 4 of their grandchildren when they were younger, was able to complete the circle with this trip with her great grandchildren.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

On 28 Jul 1937 when Allan Frederick was 34, he second married Margaret Estelle Clarkson in Wolfville, NS. Born in 1904 in Clifton, N.J. Margaret died 29 Jun 1988 in Ithaca, NY.

Margaret Estelle Clarkson Dill. Trumansburg, New York. Margaret C. Dill, 84, of 38 East Main St., Trumansburg, died Wed. June 29, 1988 at Tompkins Community Hospital following a short illness. She was born in Clifton, NJ. She was employed as an English teacher at Fairleigh Dickinson School in New Jersey and moved to Trumansburg 10 years ago. She was the widow of Allan F. Dill and is survived by one daughter Deborah Dill Zampino of Dover, NJ; a son, James Dill of Lansing, NY; one granddaughter; and several nieces and nephews.

They had the following children:

- i. Deborah. Born on 1 Mar 1946 in Beaver Lake, NJ. Deborah died in Dover, NJ, on 3 May 2019; she was 73.

Dover - Deborah Katherine Dill, 73, of Dover, NJ, passed away with her beloved husband and brother at her side, on May 3, 2019 at Morristown Medical Center, NJ. Debbie was the loving wife of Anthony Zampino, Jr. for 44 years. She leaves behind her brother, James Dill and his late wife, Margaret F. Dill. She is also survived by her niece, Emily Dill, Emily's husband, Matt Noble, and their children, Elise and Griffin Noble, as well as many treasured extended family members across North America. Born at Beaver Lake, NJ on March 1, 1946, Debbie is the daughter of the late Margaret C. Dill and Allan F. Dill. She graduated from Goucher College, in Baltimore, MD in 1968 with a B.A. in Art History. She also took a variety of classes later in life, including classes in art, horticulture, and flower arranging. Multi-talented, Debbie worked as, among other things, an executive secretary, a greenhouse horticulturalist, and a volunteer teacher of English as a second language. One of Debbie's greatest sources of pride and enjoyment was her role as a foster parent, along with her husband Tony, to three wonderful women. Debbie's time with Nicole Saganice of London, Melissa Young of New Jersey, and Susan Jernsted of Arizona was a brilliant and enriching part of her life. Debbie will be missed as a fantastic connector and communicator. She maintained a vast network of family and friends, writing frequent letters and emails, and never missing an occasion worthy of a greeting card. Debbie loved reading poetry and fiction. She appreciated all kinds of art, and was herself an artist, creating beautiful oil and watercolor paintings. An avid gardener, she could identify nearly every flower and plant native to the Northeast. Debbie was a wonderful cook and amassed and mastered a large and eclectic recipe collection. A music enthusiast, she attended many festivals and concerts with Tony, enjoyed folk and traditional music, and had an absolutely amazing memory for song lyrics. Debbie loved animals, especially her beloved dogs, Wimpy, Arlo, Georgia, and Molly. And Debbie adored Beaver Lake, NJ, where many of her life's passions came together at the family cottage.

Deborah married Anthony Zampino. Born on 15 Feb 1945 in Brooklyn, NY. Anthony died on 29 Jan 2025; he was 79.

Anthony Zampino, Jr., 79, of Dover, NJ, passed away peacefully after a brief illness on Jan. 29, 2025. Tony was predeceased by his beloved wife of 44 years, Deborah Dill. He leaves behind many friends and a large extended family, including his sister Ann Zampino Gaffney; nieces Emily Dill, Dr. Camille Zampino, and Lorraine; nephews Larry and Mark Zampino; great niece Gianna Arrindell; great nephew Joseph Pellegrino; Tony Pellegrino, husband of his recently deceased niece, Doris; as well as his brother-in-law, James Dill. Tony and Debbie were foster parents to three wonderful women: Nicole Saganice, Melissa Young, and Susan Jernstedt. Born in Brooklyn, NY on February 15, 1945, Tony was the youngest of six children born to Antonio and Concetta Zampino. He is predeceased by brothers Joseph, John, Sal, and sister Marge. His sister Ann says of Tony "He was the youngest and we were all grown when he was born. He was truly our baby and dearly loved. He was gifted. He could do so many things and would always help if he could." Tony spent his youth in Brooklyn and attended New York City public schools and the New York School of Printing. He joined the Navy in 1964 and served as an electrician on a destroyer, the USS Rich, achieving the rank of second-class petty officer. After completing his service in 1968, Tony returned to attend Vaughn College in Queens, NY, becoming an electrical engineer. He then found work at ITT Avionics in Nutley, NJ where he spent a long, successful, and interesting career. Tony was a true Renaissance man, with many interests and passions. He was a skilled acoustic guitarist, and he loved all music, but especially folk and opera. He was an excellent cook. He perfected the art of baking homemade bread, and made delicious lamb on the grill or a simple spaghetti aglio e olio (of course ensuring the pasta was perfectly al dente or, as he would say, "to the tooth"). Tony was an avid gardener, regularly producing more vegetables than he knew what to do with. He leaves behind a fridge full of homemade pesto and pasta sauce, and you knew you were in Tony's good graces if he gifted you one of his special George Boyle Tomato plants grown from seed every year. Tony could fix anything. There was no one you'd rather have with you when facing an appliance on the fritz, a motor that wouldn't start, or even a sewage emergency. An engineer to his core, Tony could often be found disassembling even the most complex objects, deducing how they functioned, and reassembling them so that they worked even better than before, often with an improvement or two. A constant in Tony and Debbie's life was their time at Beaver Lake, a family lake cottage in Franklin, NJ where they spent summers hiking, cooking, entertaining, fishing, napping, card playing, singing, and enjoying nature. Tony and Debbie were dedicated dog owners, including companions Wimpy, Arlo, Georgia, and Molly.

ii. James Clarkson.

James Clarkson married Margaret Ferretti. Margaret died in Lansing, New York on 27 Mar 2019.

Margaret Ferretti Dill, 72, of Lansing, NY passed away at home with her husband by her side on March 27, 2019. Margie was the loving wife of James Dill for 48 years and leaves behind her daughter, Emily, son in-law Matt, and her beloved grandchildren, Elise and Griffin of Needham, MA. Born in Boston, MA, Margie is the daughter of the late Rita (Woods) and Leonard Ferretti. She graduated from St. Thomas Aquinas High School in 1964, Boston State College in 1968, and earned her Master's in Education from Elmira College in 1979. Margie was politically active in the protest movements of the late 1960s, during which time she met her husband Jim. The couple moved to Montour Falls, NY in 1971, where they ran a farm for 13 years, raising pigs and grain, until moving to Lansing in 1984. Margie's career revolved around her passion for children and social services, beginning with her time as a teacher and then Executive Director at Schuyler Head Start. She went on to play various leadership roles in child advocacy, including serving as President of the NY State Child Care Development Council and working as the long-time Executive Director of the Human Services Coalition of Tompkins County until her retirement in the early 2000s. Margie was known for her big heart and generous spirit. Among her great loves were reading and books, pigs (she owned more than 300 pig figurines), telling stories, Patsy Cline, talking to strangers, her dog Rocky, her friends and family, and above all her two grandchildren. Margie was one of seven siblings. She is survived by Lenny Ferretti Jr. and his wife Peggy of Miami, FL, Kathy Sheedy and her husband David of East Bridgewater, MA, Dotti Gibson and her husband Brian of Norfolk, MA, Mary Ellen Chalmers of Rockland, MA, and Jimmy Ferretti of Halifax, MA, as well as many beloved nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by her brother, vii. Madelyn "Ruth". Born on 14 Dec 1933 in Windsor, Hants Co., N.S. Madelyn "Ruth" died in Windsor Elms, Falmouth, Hants County, on 12 Jan 2020; she was 86.

Madelyn "Ruth" Davis, age 86, of Windsor, Hants County, passed away peacefully with her family by her side, on Sunday, January 12, 2020, at Windsor Elms Village, Falmouth, where she resided for the last year. Born on December 14, 1933, in Windsor, Nova Scotia, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Annie (Hayes) Dill. Ruth worked in the Laboratory, at the Payzant Memorial Hospital and the Hants Community Hospital, Windsor, for about 40 years. Mom liked to go camping and to the beach with her family and spent many happy weekends around the Maritimes. She had many hobbies including knitting, sewing and especially loved painting and gardening. Mom always baked with love for family and friends. She had many shopping trips and lunch in the city with her family. Mom enjoyed reading and could often be found outside, sitting on the swinging chair made for her by Dad, enjoying the sunshine with her cat "Blackie" snuggled beside her.

viii. David. Born on 3 Nov 1935 in Windsor, Hants Co., NS. David died in Windsor, Hants Co., NS, on 5 Oct 2015; he was 79.

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of David D. Dill on October 5, 2015. He died peacefully in the Hants Community Hospital with his wife by his side. Born on November 3, 1935 in Windsor, he was the son of the late Joseph and Annie (Hayes) Dill. After his school years at Kings College School and Windsor Academy, David enlisted with the RCAF in 1953 at the age of 17. Throughout his military career as an Electrical Avionics Technician, he progressed through the ranks retiring in 1991 as a Chief Warrant Officer after 38 years of service. During his years with the military, he was stationed at various locations throughout Canada and abroad. It was with great pride and dedication that David devoted his life to the military and serving his country. One of his greatest passions was hockey. Not only did he love to play and watch the game but his greatest joy came from behind the bench. For 10 years he coached minor hockey in Greenwood, N.S. and served as Vice President and President of the league. David was also a member of the Nova Scotia Hockey Association and served as Vice President for several years. He loved the great outdoors spending much of his leisure time in the garden, on the river banks fishing or just sitting around an open bon fire with family and friends. In his later years he found pleasure passing the time building jigsaw puzzles and the daily visits with his close friend Fred. But above all, David was a devoted family man; his greatest joy came from quality time spent with his family. He was a man of great integrity and instilled strong family values, respect, love and loyalty in his children by the way he lived his life. He exemplified great personal strength, determination, hard work, and dedication throughout all aspects of his life. David leaves behind his wife of 56 years, the former Marie Sexton, his sons, Ernest, Craig (Sabine); his daughters, Donna (Jack) Enserink, 170. Isaac James Morton Dill (Daniel⁵, James⁴, Mungo³, Mungo², Mr.¹). Born in 1864. Isaac James Morton died in Lawrence, Mass., in 1946; he was 82. Buried in Ridgewood Cemetery, North Andover, Mass.

From the 1871, 1881 and 1891 census, I guessed he was "Isaac Morton". He was named James Morton Dill, son of Daniel and Emeline, first marriage, when he married Ida Walsh (Mass marriages).

James Henry Dill, b. 1886, married Elsie Keddy, residence Canning, Kings Co. He named his parents "Morton and Lydia" on his marriage certificate, but he also named himself as James Jr. on his CEF Attestation, 1917. He also claimed to be born in Windsor, but one of his son's claimed his father's birthplace as Scotch Village. So could his father be James Morton Dill? One issue is that James Morton named a son James H., b. 1896 Mass.

From Mary Lucinda Woodley (nee Dill). I am the namesake of Mary Lucinda Crowell, my paternal grandmother. Because I was named after her, I inherited the family Bible which I had restored and subsequently gave to my daughter. The Bible contains birth records and some death records. My father was Stanley DeWinton Dill. I do not know the date of his birth - the entry in the Bible was altered and he never told anyone his age. He drowned while on a fishing trip in the Bay of Fundy in September of 1957.

TWO DROWN AT NOVA SCOTIA

Hantsport, N. S., Sept. 17 - Police and volunteers hunted today for the bodies of two men, one an American who drowned yesterday when their dory capsized about a mile offshore. Royal Canadian Mounted Police said Stanley Dill, 71, of Mansfield, Mass., and Amos Earl Schurmann, 43, of Mount Denson, N. S., apparently were swept away by a heavy tide off Fundy Bay.

MULHALL, Ruth Enid. The family announces the passing of Ruth Enid (Cochran) Stephens Mulhall of Hantsport and Windsor on Wednesday, October 19, 2016. She was born February 22, 1920 in St. Croix, the daughter of the late Claude W. and Blanche (Sanford) Cochran. At an early age Ruth moved with her family to Windsor, where she spent the greater part of her life. Following graduation from Windsor Academy, Ruth's family moved to the Stanley Airport during the Second World War. Ruth worked in the Chief Engineers Office. Ruth also worked in Halifax in the office at Stadacona. Following the end of the war, Ruth's family returned to the family farm in Sweet's Corner. Following Ruth's marriage to Allistair W. Stephens, they made their home in Windsor and spent many wonderful summers at their cottage at Pigott Lake. For many years Ruth was a member of the Hon. H.E. Kendall IODE and held various offices in the organization. She served as President of the Hants County Cancer Society and two terms on the board of the Hants County Family and Children's Service. Ruth was a member of the U.C.W. of Windsor United Church, and a member of Windsor Hospital Auxiliary. Ruth was fortunate to spend 14 years in Hantsport with her second husband, Bill. Many wonderful friends were made there. Ruth is survived by her daughter, Thersa Stephens, Mount Uniacke; grandchildren, Adrienne (Derek) McAlpine, Kingston and Barrett Smith, Vancouver, BC; great-grandchildren, Blake Smith and Emma McAlpine; nephews, Richard (Anne); Edmund; nieces, Elizabeth; Kathryn Cochran; sister-in-law, Helene (Stephens) Smith; and brother-in-law, Eric (Karen) Stephens. Besides her parents, Ruth was predeceased by her husband, Allistair William Stephens; second husband, William F. Mulhall; brother, Dill Sanford Cochran; and infant sister, Mae Elizabeth.

- ii. Margaret. Born on 19 Sep 1920 in Union Corner, Hants Co., NS. Margaret died in Windsor, Hants Co., NS, on 29 May 2018; she was 97.

FAULKNER - Margaret Blanche (nee Salter), age 97, of Cheverie, passed away on May 29, 2018 at Haliburton Place, Windsor. Born in Union Corner, Hants County on September 19, 1920 to the late Herbert and May (Murphy) Salter, Margaret was raised on the Salter family farm on Red Bank Road. After completing studies at the NS Normal College in Truro, she went on to make a difference in the lives of generations of children from Cheverie and the surrounding communities, first at the Cheverie School, and later at the Kempt School and Dr. Arthur Hines School in a career spanning four decades. “Mrs. Faulkner” was particularly gifted in helping children face challenges and develop their reading and literacy skills, imparting her infectious love for books. Margaret dearly loved and was sincerely interested in her nieces and nephews and was a good listener and conversationalist. Margaret and Earl enjoyed a diverse network of friends through camping, winters in Florida, Eastern Star and the Masonic Lodge. Margaret was an informed and ardent follower of politics. She was a person of faith who rarely missed a Sunday service at Cheverie United Church. An avid reader, Margie was frustrated by visual impairment later in life. Neither macular degeneration nor Alzheimer’s could extinguish her love of family and appreciation of beauty around her. Margaret is survived by her sister, Greta King; sister-in-law, Doris Warner; brother-in-law, Clifford Brison; and three generations of nieces and nephews. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, Earl; infant son, Mark; brothers, Avard Salter and Logan Salter; and sisters Verna Brison and Helen Lunn.

- v. Helen. Born on 13 Mar 1931 in Centre Burlington, NS. Helen died in Windsor, Hants Co., NS, on 10 Mar 2014; she was 82. Buried in Ste.-Croix Cemetery.

Helen Jean Lunn, 82 (1931 - 2014) of Brooklyn, Hants County, passed away on the evening of Monday, March 10, at the Hants Community Hospital, Windsor, after a long and courageous battle with cancer. So dearly loved, she will be tremendously missed by son, Keith; daughter, Catherine; her treasured grandsons, Devon and Jordan; sisters, Margaret and Greta; and all her nieces and nephews who faithfully visited her in hospital during her illness. Born on March 13, 1931 in Centre Burlington, Hants County, Nova Scotia, she was a daughter of the late Clarence and Lillian (Murphy) Salter. Born in Burlington, Hants County to a family of six siblings, she obtained her schooling there with grade twelve, and then went on to business school, graduating with a diploma from the K. Anslow School of Business. Following graduation she started her career with her first employment with Avon Valley, where she did the accounting and bookkeeping for the company until her marriage in 1953. For the next decade she worked tirelessly at home, dedicated to her family on a busy farm homestead. In the 60s she returned to the workforce and took employment as a bookkeeper at Texaco (her brother's business) and later at Etter's Lumber Company. Following that she took employment at the Windsor Home Hardware where, after approximately 30 years of doing the company's accounting and bookkeeping, she retired at the amazing age of 76. Helen loved her bookkeeping and thought of the Home Hardware staff as her extended family. She took pride in her work and was commended successively over her career by auditors from the Canada Revenue Agency for her extraordinary and meticulous bookkeeping. She loved to cook for her family and we have the fondest memories of her Sunday and holiday dinners where she always put on a 'spread' for her family. She will always be remembered for her awesome apple pie and strawberry jam. She was a very generous and compassionate lady who dearly loved, and was dedicated to her family; who was first and foremost, always. Surviving are son, Keith Lunn, Maryland, USA; daughter, Catherine Lunn, Dartmouth; grandsons, Jordan MacCarthy and Devon MacCarthy; sisters, Margaret Faulkner, Cheverie; Greta King, Nictaux; nieces and nephews, Joan Salter, Diane Burns, Carol Salter, Rose Salter, Brenda MacKenzie, Mitchell Salter, Wanda MacKenzie, Donna Lynch, Tanya Sanford, Frances Brison, Phillip Brison, Mitchell Brison, Scott Brison, Danny King and Cynthia Moore. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by brothers, Avard and Logan Salter; sister, Verna Brison.

Occupation: Carpenter, Farmer, Justice of the Peace. Religion: Baptist - United Church Of Canada. Residence: Weston, MA (At Time Of Marriage); Elmsdale (Belnan), NS.

George was born in Clementsvale, and grew up there (nicknamed “Port” Wright). As a very young man, however, he displeased his father by leaving a gate open and letting some cattle go free. His father had a bad temper and was a hard disciplinarian, so George packed his things, kissed his mother goodbye and left for the USA. He worked there for several years, mostly on farms. It was there that he met and courted his future wife, Fanny Fraser, also from Nova Scotia, who was working there also. When they decided to be married, they came back to be married in Fanny's church in West Gore. The first winter, they spent with George's parents in Clementsvalle. His father quite approved of his new daughter-in-law, as she was a baptist and a liberal! In the spring, they went back to Fanny's home, to be near her mother. He bought a farm from Adams, and while Fanny stayed with her mother, George went back to the USA - Maine - to make enough money to pay for the farm. He built a new house on the property, when he came back, and he cleared the land. The barn - one of the tallest around - he built when his youngest son was about four years old. He also worked for many years in a grocery store, first in Oldham, then in Elmsdale, owned by Evan Thompson. He was a valued employee, as he had a very keen memory, and was quick at arithmetic. As his family grew he often travelled on the train to Halifax, where he worked on many of the buildings there, including the Nova Scotian Hotel and St. Matthews Church, as a building foreman. At one time, he was given the job of building highway bridges, in the county. He was made Justice of the Peace, and his law books and legal documents were still in his desk, when a fire destroyed the home, many years after his death. He was still a fairly young man, when after working too long in the rain, he took a serious inflammation, and infection of the prostate gland. He was operated on, but the poison had spread and he died. He had worked hard all his life to support his family in an affluent style. He was interested in politics, and worked diligently for his party, had a strong community spirit and was much involved with the church and other community affairs, a highly respected man. As a young man, in his home area, he was known as Port Wright, rather than George, from his second name Davenport. He was always a fearless man, ready to tackle anything. As a boy, one night he had been visiting his uncle, and as the evening wore on, the grown ups had been telling ghost stories. It was late and dark, when little Port started for home, thinking about the tales he had been told. Suddenly in the dark field, he spied something large and white and he immediately decided it must be one of those ghosts. Instead of doing the usual thing - running for his life - Port decided to attack the ghost! He made for the white shape and was going to hit it with a stick, when the ghostly appearing shape leaped to its feet and ran away -- an old white horse! In later years his home was known as a place where a hungry traveller could find a meal or a bed for the night. He was always ready to help a neighbour and although he was far from his own relatives and saw them seldom, he was always good to Fanny's relatives and made them his own (contributed by Beulah Wright).

An examination of the creation of the Wrentham State School and its first Superintendent, George Loney Wallace: As an innovative leader in the field for the study of the feeble-minded, George Wallace utilized his position and prestige to influence national associations and the local community to promote the interests of the Wrentham State School. Specifically, he revolutionized the role of the institution in the parole of its inmates, retuning them to the community once properly educated, and influenced the Massachusetts Legislature to classify and care for a new feeble-minded category: the defective delinquent.

The Massachusetts State Legislature created the Wrentham State School for the Feeble-minded under chapter 508 of the Acts of 1906 as a farm colony and educational facility for children deemed feeble-minded. With the widespread use of the Binet-Simon test as the sole apparatus used to identify and classify feeble-minded children, the number of feeble-minded children believed to be living in the United States increased dramatically in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century. Due to overcrowding at the state's first institution for the feeble-minded, the Massachusetts School for the Feeble-Minded at Waverly, the legislature was forced to allocate funds for a second institution. The Board of Trustees chose Wrentham because of its close proximity to Boston and Providence with the added benefit of large tracts of land available to build the new farm colony. The dual role of the facility was based on the research of the care and treatment of the feeble-minded from the leading experts at the time. Superintendents across the country were convinced that the incorporation of sensory training, through demonstrations of gymnastics, military procedures, and farming techniques was an excellent way to "emphasize that which is of greater value, namely, the self-reliance and manliness gained by the boys in doing this [farm] work." Additionally, the farming community allowed the institution to be self-reliant and therefore less expensive to the taxpayer, producing its own fruit, vegetables, eggs, milk, poultry and beef.

The state legislature believed that the appointment of a strong intelligent superintendent increased the efficiency of the institution. Dr. George Loney Wallace was selected as Wrentham's first superintendent in 1906. He was highly qualified; he attended Baltimore Medical School in Maryland and had ample experience with the feeble-minded community as the assistant physician to Walter E. Fernald, the longstanding and well-respected superintendent at Waverly. Wallace settled in nicely to his role as the new superintendent. Like many superintendents for the feeble-minded at the time, Wallace was a member of the American Association for the Feeble-minded (AAFM), Massachusetts Psychiatric Society (MPS) and the National Committee for Mental Hygiene. He attended annual conferences, presented scholarly papers on the subject of feeble-mindedness, and published case studies of his institution. He was an active and respected member of the academic community for the feeble-minded and on more than one occasion Wallace was elected president of the AAFM and the MPS. As an elite member of several associations for the study of the feeble-minded, Wallace had the unique opportunity to promote his own agenda: to run a well-organized and properly supervised institution. Consequently, over the course of his career as the superintendent of the Wrentham State School, George Wallace revolutionized the role of the institution in the parole of its inmates, retuning them to the community once properly educated and trained to perform a functional occupation. Additionally, he was able to influence the Massachusetts Legislature to classify and care for a new feeble-minded category: the defective delinquent.

The original campus was built out of nine converted family farm houses on 500 acres of land. Dr. George L. Wallace, the original Superintendent, accepted 10 boys who were transferred from Fernald to the new land in Wrentham in January of 1907. He proposed to have a total of 60 boys there by that summer. Wallace, like many other Massachusetts mental health physicians at the time, followed the teachings of Dr. Samuel G. Howe of Boston. Howe believed in teaching and training of the mentally disabled, and preparing them for integration into society, rather than segregating them from the general population. In the early years of the facility, able bodied young men with developmental disabilities were brought to the school to do farm work, and to learn skills of manual labor.

To gain public support for the Wrentham State School, as well as the study of the feeble-minded throughout the United States, George Wallace utilized his position and prestige as superintendent to influence the larger national associations and the local community to promote the interests of the Wrentham State School. Until his death on July 3, 1930, Wallace collaborated with members of the American Association for the Study of the Feeble-minded to create a practical approach to the management of a feeble-minded institution; he began the parole system to clear space on the waiting list for feeble-minded children, he advocated for the reclassification of the defective delinquent to ease the burden of the institution staff and he used his prestige to garner community support for his institution.

transport industry, and in shipping/receiving at Yould's Limited, and later self-employed as a carpenter. He was a dedicated community member and a founding member of the North River Fire Brigade. He was a Cub Leader with the Boy Scouts of Canada, and held several titles within the Welsh Pony and Cobb Society of Canada. His ponies occupied most of his time during his later years, both showing and judging. Ralph was a family man through and through. He was a devoted husband to his wife Jean and had been her primary care giver for the past 10 plus years since her stroke. Ralph loved being involved and helping his children and grandchildren with anything they needed and was always interested in what was going on in their lives. Ralph is survived by his loving wife of 64 years, Frances Jean (Carter) Hamilton; daughter, Donna Curtis, Valley; sons, Roger, North River, and Neil (Roxanne), Crowes Mills. He is also survived by his brother, Cyril (Ailene); sister, Georgina; grandchildren, Stacy (Abdullah), Ryan (April), Ashley (Kyle), Chantal (Alan), Gabrielle (Ryan), Riley (Emily); great grandchildren, Kyla, Ryan, Lucas, Jackson, Zain, Ivy and Amelia; brother-in-law, Victor (Myrtle) Carter; sisters-in-law, Irene (Patt) Dunphy, and Marie (Neal) Bowers; many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by sister-in-law, Betty Hamilton; brother-in-law, Don Brown; son-in-law, David Curtis; and infant brother, Edgar Prescott.

Elinor Gordon MacNicoll Adams, on headstone with her parents. Born in 1933. Elinor Gordon died in 2007; she was 74. Buried in Moose Brook (Minasville), NS.

MACNICOLL, JAMES (JIM) WOODWORTH, 84, of Minasville, Hants Co died on July 25th in the Colchester East Hants Health Centre after suffering a heart attack. Thanks to the kind and compassionate nurses in the ICU, family was there with him through his passing. Jim was born in Hamilton, Ontario, son of the late Abbie Hamilton MacNicoll and Dr. Wilfred MacNicoll. He moved back to Nova Scotia with his sister and parents when he was a baby. His father, a doctor, and his mother, an RN, worked throughout Nova Scotia and Newfoundland during Jim's early years. In 1945 the family returned to his mother's home in Minasville and Jim raised chickens and milked cows while attending school. He completed Grade 11 and 12 at Moncton High School and did one year of university before enlisting in the Air Force. During his 5 years in the RCAF, Jim was trained in radar technology and stationed in Churchill, Manitoba. It clearly gave him a taste for the North and its open spaces as he went on to have a career as an electronics technician on the DEW line, working on many of the radar stations spread across what is now Nunavut and the North West Territories. He also worked in Denang, Vietnam for several years before returning to northern Canada. He built a home in Minasville and every summer drove thousands of miles because he loved to travel the backroads of the province, often with nephew David, as companion. He married Stella (White Singer) in 1977 and made a home for her and her 2 boys, Stacey and Casey, while continuing to work up north. He retired early in order to be home for Stella after she became ill with cancer. Jim was exceptionally athletic, a limber man, who played ball and hockey, and loved to swim. He hiked and rode his bicycle long distances and snow shod in the winter. He loved to fish, and each year would take a trip with Stella's brothers. The walls of Jim's house were lined with the many hooked rugs that he worked during the summers when he was home and during the long hours of darkness of northern winters.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

He was also an inveterate tinkerer, who devised homemade solutions to many problems, often not elegant but usually effective. And when it came to electronics, he could fix most things though sometimes it seemed like he took things apart just for the fun of putting them back together again. For most of the past 30 years, Jim has lived alone. He was a quiet, soft spoken man who liked to keep busy, developing a passion for grafting, especially apple trees, and for gardening. He grew berries and tended roses; he made jams and jellies and filled his freezers with his home grown produce. He still loved to drive and would often zip around the Cabot Trail in a day, with a kind of stamina that his younger family members could not match. He and brother Francis toured Newfoundland together, a trip he talked about long afterwards. Arthritic knees slowed him down and prevented him from doing many things he loved and then a Parkinson's diagnosis was made this winter. The past few years were difficult ones for someone who had been so independent and active. Jim was predeceased by his wife, Stella Mae, his parents, Abbie and Wilfred, his brother, Francis Hamilton, and his sister, Elinor Adams. He is survived by Stella's sons, Stacey (Krista) and Casey (Shelly) Singer and granddaughter, Sidney; by his nephew David (Shelda) Hamilton, grandniece, Raylaine (Christian) and their children, Dillon and Kayla Miller; by his brother-in-law, Robert Adams and his nephews, Peter and John Adams, and his niece Leslie Adams and grandnieces, Olivia and Claire Doyle. And a slew of cousins scattered about the country. There will be a graveside service at the Moosebrook Cemetery.

- xiii. Phyllis Mae. Born in 1924 in Minasville, Hants Co., NS. Phyllis Mae died in St. Peters, Richmond Co., NS, on 29 Mar 2019; she was 95.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

We, the children of Phyllis May Dixon, want to express our gratitude for the life of our mother, who passed away Friday, March 29, 2019 age 94, at Richmond Villa, St. Peter's. Born in Minasville, she was the second youngest child of George F. and A. Florence (Woodworth) Hamilton, and last remaining member of her immediate family. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, Lloyd Adam Dixon, siblings, Edward, Abbie, Esther, Marion, Leslie, Isabel, Alberta, Grace, Clara, Sarah, Margaret, Francis, and Shirley, and son-in-law, Keith Jonas. Mom is survived by her children, Michele Jonas, Grand Greve; Timothy (Dawn), Calgary; Alan (Alison), Calgary; Patricia (Ken) Minasville; and Carol (Daniel), Grand Greve. Also surviving her are grandchildren, Meredith, Bond, Jesse (Josy), Luke (Mariena), Matthew (Krysten), Joel, Adam, Eric, Abbie, Reid, and Olivia, great-grandchildren, Adrien, Lauren, Myla, Ellianna, Mikaela, great-great-grandchild, Daniel, and many nieces and nephews. Mom left Minasville to train as a stenographer in Amherst, and on completion, signed up with the Royal Canadian Air Force to help with the war effort. She was stationed at Rockcliffe, St. Hubert, Lethbridge, and ended her service at Gorsebrook in Halifax. She had the time of her life, and always cherished those years. When the war ended, she worked at TCA (Air Canada), Halifax, then transferred to Moncton, where she met, and married our father, Lloyd. Five children later, Mom returned to the work world, first at Eaton's, then for 17 years in the Treasury Dept. at City Hall, Moncton, where she made friendships she retained her entire life. She had many other work experiences, most notably at Gallery One, a job she truly loved. Throughout her busy work life, while raising 5 children, Mom somehow found time for volunteer work. Active in Home and School, she participated on the local, provincial, and federal levels and was awarded a NB lifetime membership. Mom loved her church, Mountain View United and was active with United Church Women until age 84, when she moved to Grand Greve. She taught English to new immigrants with MAGMA, volunteered at the SPCA, canvassed for the Heart and Stroke Fund, volunteered with Parkinson's Canada, and was an active participant in the Terry Fox Run for 20 years, because she had such admiration for that young man. Mom provided her children with a model of community service. She was a doer, helping out wherever she saw a need. Our mother was a dreamer. She loved music, and was a prolific reader. Books transported her throughout her life, and she instilled the love of reading in her children. She travelled throughout Canada, to England, Scotland and Burkina Faso, West Africa with her sister Shirley, to the home of son Alan and his family. Mom was an amazing woman, generous, kind, and a dedicated friend, who provided us with an example of how to live in the world. For that we will be forever grateful. Her last years have been tough ones, as Alzheimer's robbed her of her ability to enjoy the things she loved best. We would like to extend our sincere thanks for the love and care Mom received from her home care workers and the nurses and caregivers at Richmond Villa in St. Peter's. A special thank you to Marilyn Davison for her care, humour, and ongoing support to our family. There will be a celebration of Mom's life in August, in Minasville, her heart's home.

Phyllis Mae married Lloyd Adam Dixon. Born in 1922. Lloyd Adam died in 2005; he was 83. Buried in Burntcoat, Hants Co., NS.

xiv. Shirley. Born on 29 Dec 1927 in Minasville, Hants Co., NS. Shirley died in Bear River, Digby Co., NS, on 18 Aug 2013; she was 85.

WOOLAVER (Hamilton), Shirley J., died at her home in Bear River, as she had wished on Sunday August 18, 2013. For the past several months she was joined in her battle with cancer by her sister Phyllis, her children and her grandchildren, as well as many of her devoted nieces and nephews. The gathering of family and friends, so important to the Hamiltons and the Woolavers, continued to the last moments. She felt truly blessed. She leaves to mourn her sister, Phyllis; her children, Pearl, Lance (Martha), Max (Ellen) and

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

George (Andrea); also her grandchildren, Lance Jr. (Rina), Jonathan, Aran (Krista), Sara (Mark), Leslie (Jonathan), Young Shirley (Richard), Georgia, Nathaniel, Hannah and Alex; great-grandchildren, Jony, Elias, Jacques, Lauren, Abbie, Clara, Glen, Jeremy, Elie and Kathryn. Mum remained close to her many Hamilton and Woolaver nieces and nephews and she was always in close contact with them; her sisters-in-law, Geraldine, Marie and Brenda and dear friend, Annie and her family. Shirley Johnson Hamilton was born in Minasville on December 29, 1927, the last child of George F. Hamilton and Abbie Florence Woodworth. She was predeceased by sisters Abbie, Esther, Marion, Isabel, Alberta, Grace, Clara, Sarah and Margaret and brothers Edward, Leslie and Francis. She was also predeceased by her husband, Phillip R. Woolaver, QC and infant sons, James and Nathan. Mum moved to Digby to finish high school, where she met and married Dad who had just returned from serving overseas in the war. The Woolaver family was almost as large as her family of birth. After his graduation from law school they moved back to Digby and set up our home on King St. and then on Second Avenue. Mum blossomed in her role of wife, mother and friend. Our home was full of their friends, the children's friends and family members of all ages. It was an exciting time. Mum was President of the Ladies Auxiliary, Digby Legion as well as Chairman of the local school board. She was an active volunteer in her community, working and playing, with a great group of strong female friends. They knew how to work and have fun doing it ... a great example to her children. Mum was a fantastic cook and superb knitter, often without a pattern. In the 1970s she entered Mount. St. Vincent University taking two degrees in French while continuing in her roles of wife and mother. Although most of her fellow students were much younger, she was still in close contact with many of them. Once again setting a great example for her growing family. Mum loved to travel, visiting Europe many times but also Trinidad, the Canadian North, Russia, Africa as well as many trip across Canada and the United States often on her own. There were frequent trip to visit with children and grandchildren wherever they roamed. Mum's funeral was held Saturday, August 24 at Grace United Church, Digby. Many thanks to all the family and friends who attended. It was especially heartwarming to be surrounded by so many Hamiltons and Woolavers. The family wishes to express their deep gratitude to Gladys and Cameron Johnson for the countless hearty home-cooked meals delivered so affectionately through the spring and summer. And to Lisa and Ivan Wong for the wonderful Chinese banquet which brightened the evening of the funeral. Also thanks to Charlie Haliburton for his great assistance with the funeral arrangements. "We will be forever grateful for her love and enthusiasm for every project we dreamed up."

McLELLAN - Hazel Geraldine, age 86, passed away peacefully with her family at her side on June 24, 2017 at Vimy Court Nursing Home, Bible Hill. Born in East Noel on July 30, 1930, she was the only child of the late Chesley Roy Densmore and Selina Elizabeth Densmore, and remained in East Noel where she raised her family of eight children. Hazel was a loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She enjoyed time riding her horse “Bonnie”, and in later years spent time talking to her precious cat, “Bimino”. Hazel stayed strong in her faith to the end. She is survived by her children, Erma (Willis) White, Avis (Bill) Colpitts, Terry (Val) McLellan, Archie (Patti) McLellan, Joy (Charlie) White, and Pam (Randy) Starratt; daughters-in-law, Joan McLellan, Kathy McPherson, and Bonnie McLellan; 15 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, and 3 step great-grandchildren. Besides her parents, Hazel was predeceased by her husband, Delbert; sons Leroy and Wilfred; and grandchildren Charlene, Gordie, and Brandon.

COLPITTS, Avis Geraldine, 64 of Lower Truro, passed away June 10, 2019 at the Colchester East Hants Health Centre, Truro, Nova Scotia. She was born in East Noel on August 29, 1954. She was the daughter of the late Delbert McLellan and Hazel McLellan (Densmore). Avis was a very loving and kind woman. She loved spending quality time with her husband, their 3 children and 4 grandchildren. Over the years Avis enjoyed having a hand in raising neighbourhood children in her home after school hours. She was strong in her faith, compassionate, generous, warm and friendly. She loved fishing and walks in the woods with her husband, gardening, cake decorating, chatting to friends and family on the phone, visiting with her sisters and brothers and sitting around the fire with her family during warm summer nights. Above all, Avis believed that: "Life is a gift, respect it." She is survived by her husband of 46 years, William "Bill" Colpitts, her children, Maurice (Amanda Bent) Colpitts, grandchild Cynara Phillips, Jolene (Mark) Brown, grandchildren Mia and Brysen Brown, Scottie (Heather MacLean) Colpitts, grandchildren, Harley and soon to be Baby-Colpitts. She is also survived by her siblings, Erma White, Terry (Valerie) McLellan, Archie (Patricia) McLellan, Joy (Charlie) White, Pam (Randy) Starratt, sisters-in-law Joan McLellan, Kathy Dornadick and Bonnie McLellan. Predeceased by brother Leroy McLellan, Wilfred McLellan and brother-in-law Willis White.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

- i. Maxine. Born in 1930.
- ii. Glynn Murray. Born in 1934. It is with profound sadness that the family of Glynn Murray Salter, beloved husband and best friend to Marie (Black) Salter, announces his passing which occurred on Thursday, September 12, 2024 at Hospice House Fredericton. Glynn was born in Hantsport, Nova Scotia, on October 28, 1934, the son of the late Willam Salter and Pauline (Dill) Faulkner. In addition to his parents and stepfather, Everett Faulkner, Glynn was predeceased by his sister, Maxine Tucker; brother, Carl Salter, brother-in-law, Laurie Black; nephews, Michael Tucker and David Salter. He will be lovingly remembered by his children, Ken Salter, Rick (Joan) Salter, Heather (Peppi) Sylvester and Lori (Jim) Mersereau; grandchildren, Lindsay (Justin) Dow, Michael (Melanie) Mersereau, Chris Sylvester, Jennifer (Steven) Hoffner, Morgan (Becca) Langille, Ryan, Aaron, Taylor, and Autumn Salter; great-grandchildren: Madelyn, Everly, Mackenley and Ethan; brother, Barrie (Rita) Salter; as well as many wonderful friends, nieces, nephews and extended family. Glynn was a dedicated and hardworking individual who took great pride in his 44-year career with Cummins Diesel, working in both Nova Scotia and Ontario before settling in Fredericton, NB to continue his career and raise his family. After retirement, he and Marie owned and managed apartment buildings. He was an active member of several organizations, including the Capital Winter Club, Fredericton Golf and Country Club, Fredericton Model Railway Club and The Golden Club. He also served on the executive committee of the Perfect Circle Chapter, was a life member of Canadian Professional Sales Association and a member of the Independent Order of Foresters. Glynn had a passion for life; enjoying travels with Marie, they frequently travelled to the southern United States, during their snowbird years. He found joy in bowling, attending model train shows, fishing, and embracing new technology. Above all, Glynn valued time spent with family and friends, creating lasting friendships throughout his life.
- iii. Carl William. Born in 1936. Obituary of Carl William Salter. Age 87, of Windsor Elms Village, Falmouth, formerly of Hantsport, passed away peacefully Sunday, July 2, 2023 at home. Born April 28, 1936 in Hantsport, he was a son of the late William and Doris "Pauline" (Dill) Salter. Carl was a proud 27-year veteran firefighter of Hantsport Fire Department. He loved snowmobiling, Thursday night bowling league in New Minas, horses and attending exhibitions. Carl spent 22 years at CKF Inc., followed by 20 years as a Postal Clerk in Hantsport. His favourite day of the year was Hantsport's Canada Day celebrations. He is survived by his sons, Fred (Gloria) and James (Charmaine); brothers, Glynn (Marie) and Barrie (Rita); grandchildren, Carrie and Carmen Salter, Andrew Salter, Jaimie (Josh) Nelson, Macey (Joey) Rolfe, Katrina (Radwin) Zagala and Kailee Salter; 13 great grandchildren; as well as special cousin, Burton (Flo) Smith; many nieces and nephews. Besides his parents, Carl was predeceased by his first wife, the former Nancy Swan; son, David; sister, Maxine (George) Tucker; granddaughter, Allison (Salter) Holthoff and second wife, Maureen. Interment in Riverbank Cemetery, Hantsport.

On Saturday, December 7, 2019 we, the family of Maureen Lee Salter of Hantsport, lovingly said goodbye to an incredible wife, mother, grandmother, friend, neighbor and community volunteer. She meant the world to us and in turn, she cared so deeply for each of us that her greatest gift was helping us cope with letting her go. Maureen (nee Browne) was the cherished wife of Carl Salter, devoted and loving mother to Darren Bishop, Amherst; Phillip Bishop, Alberta; Krista (Wayne) Myles, Lockhartville and Scott Bishop (Angie Schofield), Amherst. She will also be greatly missed by her stepsons, Fred (Gloria) Salter, Lockhartville and Jim (Charmaine) Salter, Bishopville. She was the precious grandmother to her granddaughters, Jenna Lee and Lindsay Gail Myles; grandsons, Cameron and Colin Bishop, Ontario and step-grandchildren, Carrie-Lou and Carmen Salter, Macey (Joey) Rolfe, Katrina (Radwin) Zagala, Kailee (Chris) Turnbull, Alison (Günta) Holthoff, Jaimie (Josh) Nelson, Andrew (Chelsea) Salter. She will be missed by her 3 great-grandchildren and 14 step-great-grandchildren. Maureen was also predeceased by her brother, Thomas Wayne Browne and by Carl's son, Dave Salter. Our Mum had so many wonderful qualities. She was born in Windsor and raised in Falmouth, being the only daughter of Thomas and Margaret (Akin) Browne. She was very proud of her Irish heritage. Her father immigrated from Islandmagee, Northern Ireland. She was a graduate of Windsor Academy and Windsor School of Business. As a young woman she worked for Vic Cleyle's clothing store and later in life, Tatum's Fashion and Bridal. She enjoyed lifelong friendships with Mary and Tatum. Mum was definitely a people person and often behind still chatting while Carl waited patiently in the car for her. Over the years, Mum enjoyed volunteering at the Windsor Elms, Hantsport Food Bank, Hantsport Memorial Community Centre, Hantsport Hospital Auxiliary and the Hantsport Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary. She was active in the Lockhartville United Baptist Church as a deacon and faithful member. She was also involved in and valued organizing the Apple Blossom Festival teas and the royal party visits to Hantsport. She enjoyed being a member of the Crown Jewels (Red Hatters). We were gifted with a wonderful, caring supportive mother who was our biggest fan cheering us on at sports, school events, pageants and in life. She never hesitated to volunteer to drive, chaperone, organize or fundraise for our activities. She wanted only the best for us and for us to be our best. She gave selflessly, not only to us but also to her extended family members, being a caregiver to several over the years. She was a huge fan of Canadian figure skating, especially Kurt Browning and was thrilled to attend skating competitions and ice shows meeting the skaters. She was a keen follower of the British Royal Family and their fashion sense. Mum loved the music of Rita MacNeil and Anne Murray and the opportunities she had to meet them in person. She not only loved people but also adored her Sheltie dogs. She had a very special place in her heart for a certain Schnauzer named Martini. Thank you to all of Mum's friends and her neighbors from Evangeline Drive and Pleasant Street. Your support, stories and laughter shared brought much comfort. Thank you especially to Fred, Beth and Martini Martin, Mary Ruffell, Tatum Smiley, Marilyn Bishop, Lynda and Rick King, Cathy and Tom Wiclawski, Donnie and Janet Caldwell, Ben and Bobby Jo Johnson. Special people sometimes come into our lives during those times when we need someone the most. Darcy Miner was that person for Mum and for us. Thank you "Trouble" for being such a tremendous support to our Mum during these last difficult weeks. She "hired" you for many roles but you were best at being her guardian teddy bear.

Family of Melda Agnes Caldwell (153) & Samuel Harris Clarke

256. Barbara Sheldon Clarke (Melda Agnes Caldwell⁶, Margaret Dill⁵, William Smith⁴, William³, David², Mr.¹). Born on 12 Mar 1930 in St. Croix, NS. Barbara Sheldon died in Riverview Heights, Albert Co., NB, on 17 Mar 2021; she was 91.

Barbara S. (Clark) Swinamer, age 91, of Riverview, NB and most recently of Monarch Hall. Born March 12, 1930 in St. Croix, NS. She was raised in Hants County, enjoying visiting her cousins in Sweets Corner and Walton. After their marriage, Barb and Ed lived in Halifax, Dartmouth, Lakeburn, NB and Goose Bay Labrador before settling in Riverview Heights, spending 62 years, where they raised their children and contributed to the growing of the village to town status. Barbara was a member of St. Paul's United Church, Riverview and a life member of the UCW, a former member and past-president of the Riverview Lionettes and former board member of YWCA Moncton where she was on the organizing committee of the Greater Moncton Quilt Fairs. Barb was also involved with the Girl Guides of Canada with her daughters. Most often, Barbara could be found gardening, instructing her sons to pull this weed, dig that hole, plant that bulb and trim that tree. Her grandchildren and great grandchildren call her Nanny and they knew her facial expressions, the scrunched-up-nose and a giggle! (Affectionately known as the "Barb Face"). This loving wife, mother and Nanny enjoyed travelling the world with her husband and cruising with her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed needlework with friends in the craft guild and especially enjoyed playing the card game Bridge, at which she could be quite competitive. Each year, Barbara would spend time in her beloved Nova Scotia with family, visiting relatives or just relaxing at their summer home. In addition to her parents, Samuel H. Clark of Walton, NS and Melda A. Caldwell of Sweets Corner, NS, she was predeceased by her sisters, Enid Claire in infancy, Verna M. Mollins (late John), E. Rae Clark and Margaret A. Clark; her husband, Edward M. A. Swinamer (2006) and her son, Wayne E. C. Swinamer (2020). Surviving Barbara are her children, Jenneth Swinamer, Middleton, NS, Cheryl MacLaggan (Byron), Moncton, Margaret Samson (Dave), Calgary, David Swinamer, Riverview and daughter-in-law, Lori Rogers, Riverview. Her grandchildren, Erin MacLaggan (Christian Doiron), Riverview, Allison MacLaggan (Silvain Gagnon), Riverview, Stephanie Swinamer (Lukas Nasiadka), Toronto, Jessica Swinamer, Riverview, Andrew Swinamer, Toronto, Christopher MacBurnie, Alexander MacBurnie and Benjamin MacBurnie, all of Calgary. Her great grandchildren, Ella, Olivia, Daphne, Noah, Isla and Lily. Barb had a heart warming friendship with long-time family friend, Marita Seggewiss; her cousin, Bobbie Currie and her many Riverview friends. She never said Good-Bye - it was always "Bye for now!" The family wish to express many thanks and much appreciation for the kindness and thoughtful care given to Barb while at Parkland Shannex. (Mar 19, 2021, Saint John Telegraph Journal)

Barbara Sheldon married Edward Moyle Artemus Swinamer. Edward Moyle Artemus died in Riverview, NB in 2006.

They had the following children:

- i. Jenneth Sheldon. Born on 1 May 1950.
- ii. Cheryl Melda.
- iii. Wayne Edward Clark. Born on 13 Oct 1954 in Riverview Heights, Albert Co., NB. Wayne Edward Clark died in Riverview, NB, on 26 Feb 2020; he was 65.

Wayne Swinamer was born on October 31, 1954 to Barbara (Clark) and Edward Swinamer (d. 2006). Growing up in Riverview, Wayne was always ready for an adventure - from building forts in the saw dust pile to hunting and trapping with his buddies in the swamp to jumping on a moving freight train just for fun! He was free spirited, had an immense love for life and family and a wicked sense of humour. There were never any problems for Wayne, he always had a solution and found a way to make things happen. Wayne's beaming smile would light up any room and he was our source of all random knowledge and facts. He will be dearly missed by the love of his life, and wife of 30 years, Lori Rogers and his proudest accomplishments, his children, Stephanie (Lukasz), Andrew, and Jessica. He was a loving "Waynopa" to Noah and Isla and cherished by his siblings Jenneth, Cheryl (Byron), Margaret Ann (Dave), David, sister in law Jane and long time family friend Marita. He will be fondly remembered by several nieces, nephews and cousins. Wayne enjoyed fishing, playing the guitar, listening to music and cooking a feast for others. You could find him outside tending to his secret garden, driving around town in his beamer, or puttering around the family farm in Walton, N.S. A celebration of Wayne's life will take place at a later date. In the meantime, everyone who knew Wayne is asked to raise a glass of their favourite drink in

On 9 Aug 1969 when Gary Ronald James was 23, he married Patricia Ann Ward in Windsor, Hants Co., NS.

On 31 Jul 1953 when Elizabeth Florence was 31, she second married Leslie Ainsworth Corkum. Born in 1923. Leslie Ainsworth died on 1 Apr 2020; he was 97.

Son of Edward and Gladys Burdette (Wentzell) Corkum of Chester, NS.

It is with great sadness we announce Leslie A. Corkum, age 97 of Falmouth, passed peacefully in his sleep at home on the evening of April 1, 2020, in the accompaniment of loved ones. He is survived by his children, Gail Manning (Malcolm), Gary Miller (Patricia) and Heather Pick (Eric); six grandchildren and nine great grandchildren; special friend and caregiver, Paulette (Roddie) Wallace and his brother, Ivan (Clara) Corkum. He was predeceased by his wife Betty (Elizabeth F. Dill /Miller); and siblings, Ray Corkum and Jean Jess. Storyteller supreme, his adventures were countless, his advice and opinion priceless, his humour and wit combined with that twinkle in his eye when he had you, unmatched. Sometimes referred to the "King of the Forest", he was caretaker of the woods with a background in forest protection working with Lands and Forests, both in Shubenacadie and Windsor. WW2 Air Force Vet, antique collector, Christmas tree grower and card shark, he wore so many hats over his lifetime and touched so many people.

They had one child:

- i. Heather Jean, married Eric Pick.

Family of Isaac James Morton Dill (170) & Lydia

260. James Henry Dill (*Isaac James Morton*⁶, *Daniel*⁵, *James*⁴, *Mungo*³, *Mungo*², *Mr.*¹). Born on 27 Dec 1886 in Windsor, Hants Co., NS. James Henry died in Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax, NS, on 31 Dec 1938; he was 52. Buried in Canning, Kings Co., NS. Residence: Canning, Kings Co.

That James Henry Dill (260) is a son of Isaac James Morton Dill (170) is unconfirmed.

s/o "Morton and Lydia" on Marriage register (NSHVS). James Dill, witness to marriage.
Parents "unknown" on death certificate.

On his 29 Jul 1916 CEF Attestation paper he signed his name as James Dill Jr. of Canning, Kings Co., NS, b. 27 Dec 1886 Windsor, Hants Co., Elsie May Dill, wife, next of kin.

No record of James. H. Dill of this age in 1891 or 1901 census.

1911 census Canning Dill James b. Dec 1885 boarder

1921 census Sheffield Mills, Kings Co. Dill James Head 35 (b. NS father b. NS mother b. NS) Elsie wife 35 Frank son 13 John son 10 Herbert son 8 Walter son 6 Lewis son 1 Estella dau 5.

James Morton Dill, son of Daniel and Emeline. Is James Morton a possibility for James Henry's father? James H. named his parents "Morton and Lydia" on his marriage certificate, but he also named himself as James Jr. on his CEF Attestation, 1917. He also claimed to be born in Windsor, but one of his son's claimed his father's birthplace as Scotch Village. James Morton appears to be single, living with his parents in 1891 census. He then removed to Mass. One issue is that James Morton named a son James H., b. 1896 Mass.

An Ancestry family tree has James. H. Dill as the son of James Moreland Dill, from Scotland, living in Saskatchewan, bur. Estavan, Sask., but James Moreland had a son James, and there is no evidence they lived in Nova Scotia.

On 21 Nov 1911 when James Henry was 24, he married Elsie Mae Keddy in Kentville, NS. Born in 1886 in New Ross, Lunenburg Co., NS.

d/o Urias and Emma Ophelia (McDow) Keddy.

There is an Elsie Dill b. Dec 14 1886, d. Jul 3, 1955, bur. Empress, Hanna Census Division, Alberta.

Born on December 16, 1948, he was the son of the late Charles and Helena (Clarke) Dill of Upper Burlington. He worked as a bricklayer for over forty years, mostly with Diaden Masonry, where he was always known as Farmer. Eldon loved spending many hours in the woods at his camp, hunting and most of all cutting and splitting his own firewood. He was proud of the good supply of wood he always had in his yard. One of his favorite pastimes was telling his grandchildren stories about his childhood, even the mischievous ones. Eldon is survived by his wife of 47 years, Sharon (Salter); son Les (Annette), of Souris, PEI, and their children Alexa, Courtney, and Tyler; son Andy (Heather), of Summerville, and their children Nikki (Dustin), Bradley, and Johnathan; daughter Bev (Michael) Payzant, of Falmouth, and their children Hunter, Ayden, and Taylor; sisters Ethel (David) Halbgewachs and Reta (Graham) Zwicker; brother Warren (Hazel) Dill; mother-in-law Shirley (Carmen) Crowell; brother-in-law Malcolm (Marlene) Salter; and several nieces and nephews. DILL, Radford Franklin

Of Beaver Bank, closed his beautiful blue eyes for the last time and passed away peacefully after a courageous battle with liver disease. He died in the loving arms of his sister on Thursday, January 14, 2016 at the age of 53. Radford was the beloved father of Rebecca and Grace; devoted grandfather of Cohen; loving brother of Rhonda (Glenn Pike), dear brother of Randy; caring uncle of Ryan (Tammy) and great-uncle of Richie. Radford will be deeply missed by his cousins, extended family and close friends. Predeceased by his parents Thomas Dill and Faye Hankey; grandparents Seymour Hankey, Viola Hamilton, John Dill and Rita Meriggi Dill. Radford was an employee of Bell Aliant for over 28 years, he was an avid hockey player, he loved baseball and floor hockey, and he loved to race cars, especially his 1932 Deuce Coupe. He also loved to play the drums with his friends. Most of all he loved his family, and living with his sister Rhonda brought him great joy and he appreciated the care and compassion given to him by Rhonda and Glenn.

Family of Lillian "Mae" Murphy (200) & Clarence "Herbert" Salter

270. Verna Salter (Lillian "Mae" Murphy⁶, Jessie Laura Dill⁵, Newton⁴, Daniel³, Mungo², Mr.¹). Born on 14 Jun 1929 in Centre Burlington, NS. Verna died on 19 Nov 2013; she was 84.

Brison, Verna Patricia . Age 84, of Cheverie, passed away peacefully at home November 19, after a long, valiant battle with Alzheimer's Disease. Born in Centre Burlington, Hants County, NS, on June 14, 1929, she was the daughter of the late C. Herbert Salter and May (Murphy) Salter. Verna taught school in Cheverie and Bramber until marrying Clifford in 1948. She became a valued and essential business partner in their grocery store until 1969. She worked extraordinarily hard throughout her life to support her husband and family. She ran her home with the same efficiency, thrift, and perfectionism that had made her a smart, successful businessperson and merchant. Verna instilled in her children a strong work ethic, a commitment to family and community, and a deep sense of fairness. Over time, Alzheimer's took its toll on Verna. However with the loving support of a wonderful caregiving team led by husband, Clifford, and daughter Frances, Verna was enabled to preserve her dignity to the end. She passed away, as per her wishes, in the home that she and Clifford had built 45 years ago. Some have observed that while Verna taught Clifford a few things about how to run a store, he taught her something just as important, how to dance. She enjoyed many Saturday nights at old time dances all along the Hants Shore from Noel to Burlington. Verna was fiercely proud of her family. She will be remembered fondly by her husband of 65 years, Clifford, and their children Frances Brison, Wolfville, Phil Brison (Brenda), Upper Burlington, Mitchell Brison (Anna), Falmouth, Scott Brison (Maxime St-Pierre), Cheverie; grandchildren Jennifer Nicholls, John-Devon Nicholls, Kara Brison, Jocelyn Brison, Hannah Brison, Matthew Brison, Seth Brison and great grandson, Sam Nicholls; sisters, Margaret Faulkner, Cheverie, Helen Lunn, Brooklyn and Greta King, Nictaux and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her brothers Avard Salter, Brooklyn and Logan Salter, Centre Burlington.

Verna married Clifford Brison. Born on 8 Oct 1923. Clifford died on 6 Jan 2020; he was 96. Buried in Cheverie, Hants Co., NS.

BRISON - Clifford Raymond, age 96, Cheverie, passed away peacefully with his family by his side on January 6, 2020 at Haliburton Place, Windsor, where he had resided and received excellent care for three years. Born in Cheverie on October 8, 1923, he was the son of the late Frederick and Margaret (Weatherbee) Brison. One of ten children, growing up in the Great Depression instilled in him a lifelong appreciation of hard work and a love of family and community; both were constant throughout Dad's life. His work life spanned from 1938 to 2006, working at his father's pulpwood business, then for CIBC, before running C. R. Brison General Merchants with his hard-working wife Verna by his side, selling everything from fresh meat to the first televisions on the Shore until the store's sale in 1969 due to Dad's health issues. Upon his recovery, he began a new career as a stock broker with investment firms including Burns Fry, J.D. Mack, and Acadian Securities. He was loved by clients and colleagues who stayed in touch even beyond his retirement at age 82. He loved children, dogs, horses, baseball, hockey (especially the Montreal Canadiens), boxing, politics, classic country music, and dancing - hot polkas were his favorite. His love of young people and passion for sports led him to coach and sponsor the Cheverie Cardinals and the Shore Maroons. A proud Mason and member of the Shore Lodge for over 60 years, Dad was also an enthusiastic and effective fundraiser for the Cheverie United Church, and in 2012 was awarded the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal for his volunteer work and community contributions on the Shore. After retiring at 82, Dad took on the greatest vocation of his life as Mom's caregiver when she was stricken with Alzheimer's. Dad never lost his optimism, facing challenges in health and business fearlessly, happily, and without complaint, always maintaining his sense of humour and fun. We were lucky to have him in our lives. He will be dearly missed by his children, Frances Brison, Wolfville, Phil Brison (Brenda), Upper Burlington, Mitchell Brison (Anna), Falmouth, Scott Brison (Maxime St-Pierre), Cheverie; grandchildren, Jennifer Nicholls (Jeremy Higgins), John-Devon Nicholls, Kara Brison, Jocelyn Brison, Hannah Brison, Matthew Brison, Seth Brison, Claire Brison-St. Pierre, and Rose Brison-St. Pierre; great-grandson Sam Nicholls; sister Maudie, and many nieces and nephews. Besides his parents, Clifford was predeceased by his loving wife of 66 years, Verna (Salter); sisters, Elsie, Lucy, Edith, Beatrice, and Jean; and brothers, George, Laurence, and Wesley.

They had the following children:

- i. Scott. Occupation: Liberal MP.

Scott A. Brison, PC, MP (born May 10, 1967) is a Canadian politician. He is a senior Liberal Party spokesperson on economic issues and currently serves as the Finance Critic for the Official Opposition in the House of Commons. He is also a member of the Trilateral Commission and has been named by the World Economic Forum (WEF) of Davos, Switzerland, as one of its "Young Global Leaders." Previously, he served as the Minister of Public Works and Government Services from 2004 until 2006 in the Paul Martin government. Brison represents the Nova Scotia riding of Kings—Hants as a Liberal Member of Parliament.

Brison was born in Windsor, Nova Scotia. He obtained a Bachelor of Commerce from Dalhousie University. While there, he started and operated a successful business renting small fridges – he has jokingly referred to himself as a "fridge magnate". Brison then worked in corporate sales for ten years.

Politics

He entered politics as a Progressive Conservative candidate in the Nova Scotia riding of Kings—Hants in the 1997 election. Brison was one of a handful of new PC "Young Turk" MPs (along with John Herron, André Bachand and Peter MacKay) who were considered the future youthful leadership material that would restore the ailing Tories to their glory days.

In July 2000, Brison resigned his seat so that PC leader Joe Clark could enter the House of Commons. In the interim, Brison was appointed co-chair of the Tories' Election Policy Platform Committee, and became vice-president of investment banking at Yorkton Securities in Toronto.

When the 2000 election was called in October, Clark stood for election in a Calgary, Alberta riding. Brison returned as the PC candidate in Kings—Hants, and was returned to Parliament. In 2001, he served as the party's Finance and Industry critic, and was vice-chairman of the House of Commons Finance committee. Brison came out as gay in 2002, saying that he is "not a gay politician, but a politician who happens to be gay." He became the fourth sitting Member of Parliament to do so after Svend Robinson, Réal Ménard and Libby Davies. As well, he was the first openly gay MP to sit as a member of the Progressive Conservative Party.

Progressive Conservative leadership bid

In 2003, following Clark's retirement, Brison ran for the leadership of the Progressive Conservatives on a platform of "new ideas", that consisted of Employment Insurance reform, more private involvement in health care, integrated defense strategy with the US, and socially liberal policies. At the leadership convention, his campaign was dealt a crucial blow by John Herron who defected to the MacKay camp. Despite gaining votes on the second ballot, Brison was eliminated by a mere three votes and threw his support to Jim Prentice. Prentice lost on the final ballot to MacKay (who won with the support of David Orchard). He fought publicly with other members of his party, particularly Elsie Wayne, over their opposition to same-sex marriage.

Crossing the floor

On December 10, 2003, four days after Brison voted in favour of the PCs merging with the Canadian Alliance to form the new Conservative Party of Canada, Brison announced that he would cross the floor and sit as a Liberal MP. He stated that he had reservations about the perceived dominance of former members of the more socially conservative Canadian Alliance in the new party. Brison was criticized for this move, however, especially because he had actively supported the merger when it was first proposed. Others had also pointed out that as Finance Critic, he had been outspoken in his attacks on Paul Martin who was Finance Minister; Brison was criticized as an opportunist for switching parties and accepting a position as parliamentary secretary. Brison claimed his enthusiasm for the merger had become discernibly lukewarm in the final weeks before the vote. He indicated that he would honour his prior commitment to support the proposal, but said that he would reconsider his allegiance once the results were announced.

Cabinet Minister

On December 12, he was appointed as a parliamentary secretary to the Prime Minister with special emphasis on Canada-U.S. Relations and sworn into the Queen's Privy Council for Canada. In the 2004 election, Brison was re-elected, his first victory as a Liberal. On July 20, 2004, Brison was named to cabinet as Minister of Public Works in Martin's post-election shuffle. In doing so, he became Canada's first openly gay cabinet minister.

As the youngest member of cabinet, Brison also served on three cabinet committees – Treasury Board, Domestic Affairs, and Expenditure Review. Previously, he had served as Vice-Chairman of the Standing Committee on Finance, been a member of the Standing Committee on Industry, the Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs and International Trade, and the Standing Committee on Government Operations and Estimates.

He is also a member of the Canada-U.S. Inter-Parliamentary Group and has served as the vice-president of the Canadian group of the Inter-Parliamentary Union where he took part in conferences in Moscow and New York. He was also part of the Canadian delegation sent to two annual meetings of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development in London.

Liberal leadership bid

On April 22, 2006, Brison entered the race for the leadership of the Liberal Party of Canada. His Liberal leadership platform emphasised both environmentalism and economic reform calling for a "green" platform that called for personal and corporate tax cuts to prompt business growth and curb pollution. Brison won 4.0% of the vote on the first ballot with 192 delegates, leaving him in 6th place out of eight candidates. He dropped out and threw his support behind Bob Rae. When Bob Rae dropped out on the third ballot and released his delegates, Scott Brison opted to support the politically similar Michael Ignatieff. The final winner of the leadership convention was Stéphane Dion.

Personal life

It was announced in October 2005 that he and his partner, Maxime Saint-Pierre, intended to marry. They were married on August 18, 2007 in Brison's riding.

Hazel worked in Boston for a few years as a young woman (after 1911 census, when she was at home), then returned to Elmsdale, working as a telephone operator, until marriage in 1926 at which time she moved in with John and his father at the farm. In her later years, she suffered terribly from arthritis and was confined to a wheelchair. She died in 1966 at the home of her brother Harding Wright in Brookfield, N.S., with whom she had lived since Sept. 15 1963 after she could no longer manage in her own home.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

On 12 Jul 1926 when Sarah "Hazel" was 36, she married John Roy Goff, son of William Miles Dickey "MD" Goff (14 Jun 1862-10 Mar 1960) & Martha Jane McDougall (23 Dec 1862-19 Jun 1925), in Halifax, N.S. Born on 11 Jun 1892 in Goffs, Halifax Co., Nova Scotia. John Roy died in Milford Station, Hants Co., NS, on 5 Jul 1956; he was 64. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, Col. Co., NS. Occupation: Farmer, Auctioneer. Residence: Goffs, Milford Station. Religion: United Church of Canada.

John grew up in Goffs and moved with his family to Milford Station at age 16 (1908). John went for harvest in Mair, Sask. in 1912 and 1913 and made lifelong friends with the Endicott's, with whom he worked. Some of their grandsons were in the military in W.W.2, and were stationed at Debert before going overseas. They found John R. very quickly and spent several 'leaves' at the Goff farm.

John was farming with his father in Milford Station until 1944 at which time he built a new house in Milford Station next to the Milford United Church and began to drive for Imperial Oil in a business with his brother Alex. He was also an active Auctioneer and was registered at this for over 25 years. He died suddenly while at work at the Imperial Oil refinery in Dartmouth, NS.

"John R. Goff, Auctioneer, Dies. Milford Station, July 10. There passed away suddenly while at work July 5 Mr. John R. Goff of Milford Station. Born at Goffs, Halifax County 64 years ago, he moved to Milford Station in 1908. His earlier years were spent farming but for the past ten years he has been employed at the Imperial Oil Agency at Milford. He was well known throughout Central Nova Scotia as an auctioneer having conducted numerous auction sales in the area. He had taken an active part in community affairs being a member of Milford United Church, also the Independent Order of Odd-fellows. At the time of his passing he was recording secretary of Maple Leaf Lodge, an office which he held for several years. He was also a charter member of Sincerity Rebekah Lodge. He had been presented with a 40-year service jewel from Maple Leaf Lodge earlier this year. Surviving besides his wife, the former Hazel Wright of Elmsdale, are one son Everill of Truro; his aged father at home; one sister Mrs. Flora Wardrope of Ottawa; two brothers Alex of Milford and Guy of Gull Lake Saskatchewan. One daughter Helen predeceased him 15 years ago. Funeral services were conducted from his late residence on Saturday with Rev. E. R. MacVicar of Shubenacadie officiating. The high esteem of which the deceased was held was shown by an overflow attendance of friends many of whom were accommodated in the nearby United Church where a public address system had been installed. Hymns sung by the members of Milford Church Choir were 'Nearer My God to Thee' and 'What a Friend We Have in Jesus', both being favourites of the deceased. Pallbearers were Gordon Ettinger, Frank Geddes, Murray Rankin, Ralph Taylor, Harry Turple and Roger Wardrope, all members of Maple Leaf Lodge. Internment was at Gays River Cemetery where the I.O.O.F. conducted service."

They had the following children:

- i. Helen Martha. Born on 24 Jun 1927 in Milford Station, Hants Co., NS. Helen Martha died in Milford Station, Hants Co., NS, on 16 Mar 1941; she was 13. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, NS.
- 336 ii. Helen Martha had a congenital heart disease and lived a very sheltered life at home.

274. Florence Jean Wright (*Frances Ann Fraser*⁶, *Sarah Maria Dill*⁵, *Joseph*⁴, *George S.*³, *Mungo*², *Mr.*¹). Born on 24 Aug 1891 in Elmsdale, NS. Florence Jean died in Halifax, NS, on 21 Oct 1941; she was 50. Buried in Elmsdale Cemetery. Occupation: School Teacher. Education: Normal College, Truro, NS.

"Mrs. Gordon Casey. Elmsdale. News of the passing of Mrs. Gordon Casey at her home in Halifax, on Tuesday, Oct. 21, will occasion a deep sense of loss among a wide circle of friends and relatives by whom she will ever be remembered for her warm hospitality, kindly disposition and natural charm. Her illness of some seven months duration was patiently borne, with a marked cheerfulness that served as an inspiration to all around her. Maintaining to the last the same keen interest in the activities of her family group. The funeral service of the late Mrs. Casey was held at the United Church Elmsdale, the place of her birth. Conducted by Rev. C. H. McLaren, of that church. The address was given by Rev. D. M. McIntosh of St. John's Church, Halifax, assisted by Rev. D. I. McIntosh of Milford United Church. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. There were numerous cards, letters and telegrams. Very deep and sincere sympathy goes out to the husband and members of the immediate family; also the aged mother, sister and brothers."

On 12 Sep 1912 when Florence Jean was 21, she married Gordon Davis Casey, son of James Casey (5 Aug 1856-2 Aug 1902) & Mabel Scott (1864-4 Jul 1898), in Elmsdale, NS. Born on 8 Nov 1891 in Stewiacke, NS. Gordon Davis died in Halifax, NS, on 30 Mar 1962; he was 70. Occupation: Merchant, Hydrostone Market, Halifax. Residence: Hunter St., Halifax.

"Funeral for G. D. Casey on Monday. Funeral services for Gordon Davis Casey, well-known North end businessman who died at his home, 2369 Hunter Street Friday, will be held Monday at 2PM from the Halifax Funeral Home, Quinpool Road, Rev. Lloyd Archer officiating. Born in Stewiacke in 1890, he was the son of the late James and Mabel (Scott) Casey. He had been ill five months. Mr. Casey resided at Rawdon Hants Co. and later Elmsdale where he operated his own farm. On coming to Halifax in 1920 he conducted a milk business and for the past 30 years owned and operated the Hydrostone Market in the city's North end. He attended United Memorial Church and was a member of Acadia Lodge, Masonic Order No. 14. He leaves to mourn his wife the former Dorthy Buckler. His first wife, the former Florence Wright, predeceased him in 1941. From that union there were five children, sons Russell J., Halifax; Maurice Clifford, associated with his father in the grocery business; Austin Davis, Amhest; daughters Frances (Mrs. Hubert O'Brien), Truro, and Phyllis (Mrs. Joseph Landry), Dartmouth; fourteen grandchildren and two step-children, George W. Buckler and Pearl (Mrs. Wm. Hanrahan), both of Hamilton, Ontario. A brother Frederick Casey, Toronto, passed away earlier this month. The remains are resting at Halifax Funeral Home, Quinpool Road. Internment at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens."

276. Keith Francis Wright (Frances Ann Fraser⁶, Sarah Maria Dill⁵, Joseph⁴, George S.³, Mungo², Mr.¹). Born on 15 Dec 1906 in Elmsdale, NS. Keith Francis died in Pictou, NS, on 5 Mar 1991; he was 84. Buried in Hamilton Cemetery, River John. Occupation: Farmer, Woodworker.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

Keith Wright completed his education in Belnan school, with grade twelve. He trained for a railway station agent, but did not like it, so left before he wrote the examination. For several years he operated a meat business, buying cattle throughout Hants County, butchering and then delivering the meat by truck on a regular basis through Elmsdale, Lantz, Enfield, Milford, and surrounding area. His brother, Harding, was partner in the business first, later he operated the business himself. As well, he farmed with his father, a dairy farm, then took over at his father's death. The family farm was "Hillside", one hundred acres in Belnan, Hants County. In 1949, he sold the farm and moved to Pictou County, buying a farm in Hedgeville, which he operated with his children until his health forced him to retire. During those years he cut pulp wood on his own lot, using a swede saw and hauling the pulp from the woods with a single horse. He loved horses, and oxen; attended the Bridgewater exhibition to watch the oxpulls whenever he was able, and any other exhibition where oxen were featured. He read and saved every story about oxen and had scrapbooks full of clippings and postcards. He always worked hard, to provide for his large family, never had many of the luxuries of life, but enjoyed his family and doing things with them. His wife, Della, always worked on the farm with him, making hay, gardening and cutting wood. As his children grew, they were always with him. He loved walking through the woods, to the river, and in later years when he was able to afford a car, he loved driving the back roads and exploring the countryside. Unfortunately, the last seven years of his life, he suffered from severe ill health. He had become badly crippled with arthritis, then took diabetes, which caused neuritis and he lost the use and feeling of his right side. A series of small strokes added to the incapacitation and he was confined to his chair for the remainder of his life. He minded that terribly, but when the families came to visit, when the grandchildren were playing around him and when the boys were playing their guitars and everyone was singing, he was happy. He died in the Sutherland Harris hospital in Pictou on the morning of March 5th, 1991, with Della, six of his children, his son-in-law and two of his daughters-in-law beside him. He is buried in the Hamilton cemetery in River John. He was proud of his heritage, loved his family, and raised them to respect the principles in which he believed (contributed by daughter Beulah Wright).

Mar 22, 1950, moved to River John.

Nov 2, 1964, fire destroyed home.

On 15 Oct 1938 when Keith Francis was 31, he married Della Elizabeth Fraser, daughter of Charles Fraser (24 Jun 1885-15 May 1967) & Ida Beatrice Miller (20 Jun 1889-12 Dec 1968), in Elmsdale, NS. Born on 11 Jul 1915 in Upper Nine Mile River, NS. Della Elizabeth died in River John, Pictou Co., NS, on 4 May 2003; she was 87. Residence: River John, NS. Religion: United Church.

WRIGHT, Della Elizabeth - It is with great sadness we announce the passing of Della Elizabeth, River John, at the age of 87 years, in Aberdeen Hospital, New Glasgow, Sunday, May 4, 2003, surrounded by her family. Born in Upper Nine Mile River, she was a daughter of the late Charlie and Ida (Miller) Fraser. In 1938, she married Keith Wright of Elmsdale and in 1950, they moved with their family to River John, where she was residing at the time of her death. She was an adherent of Salem United Church, River John. She enjoyed gardening, various collections, and most of all she enjoyed having her family around her and will be deeply missed by them all. She is survived by daughters, Beulah, River John; Jean (Russel Maclean), Pictou; sons, Leigh, River John; George (Marie), Piedmont; Lewis (Sandra), River John; Dexter, New Glasgow; Benson (Lorraine), Merigomish; grandchildren, Gavin, Nicholas and Maria Maclean, Devon (Jennifer), Jo-anne (Clarke) and Erin (Frank) Wright, Lisa (Jeff McLean), Amanda (Jim Fulton) and Wendy Wright, Amy, Charlie and Elizabeth Wright; stepgrandchildren, Mae MacGregor, Donna (Craig Corbett, Terry Lyn (Kevin Hughes), and their families, Glen, Holly, Robert and Katelyn Thompson; great-grandchildren, Logan and Jaiden McLean and Chandler Fulton; sister, Olive Johnston, Truro; sister-in-law, Della Fraser, London, Ont. She was predeceased by her husband, Keith Francis Wright; brother, Ross Fraser.

They had the following children:

- i. Beulah Jane. Born on 6 Feb 1940 in Elmsdale, NS. Occupation: Vocational Instructor. Religion: United Church Of Canada. Residence: River John, NS. She was never married.
- ii. Leigh Keith. Born on 11 Mar 1943 in Elmsdale, NS. Leigh Keith died in River John, NS, on 21 Jul 2010; he was 67.

WRIGHT, Leigh Keith — It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Leigh Keith Wright, 67, July 21, 2010, in Aberdeen Hospital. Born in Elmsdale, Hants Co., ... 1943, Leigh was a son of the late Keith and Della (Fraser) Wright. Leigh moved with his family to River John in 1950 where he lived all his life. Leigh was a “special” person in more ways than one. Although limited in some aspects, he brought great pleasure to his family. He so enjoyed the outdoors, family gatherings, drives in the car, Christmas, and all the children. Leigh is survived by sisters Beulah Wright, River John; Jeannie (Russel Maclean), Pictou; brothers George (Marie), Piedmont, Lewis (Sandra), River John; Dexter, New Glasgow; and Benson (Lorraine), Merigomish; and many nieces and nephews and grandnieces and nephews. Funereal service to be held at 1PM Saturday, July 24 at Salem United Church, River John.

Leigh was mentally handicapped and lived a very sheltered life at home. Unfortunately, he died by choking on food.

Daughter Edith Entwistle (obituary).

They had the following children:

- i. George. Born in 1926 in Arlington, Mass.
- ii. Edith F. Born in 1930 in Arlington, Mass. Edith F. died in Peabody, Mass., on 7 May 2020; she was 90.

Edith F. Entwistle, a resident of Burlington for 61 years, passed away at Pilgrim Rehab and Nursing Facility, Peabody MA , on the 7th of May 2020. She was predeceased by her husband of 53 years, Channing L. Entwistle. She was 90 years old. Edith was born in Arlington, MA . She was the daughter of the late George W. and Florence E. Saunders and sister of the late George Saunders, Jr. She and her brother were raised and educated in Arlington, MA except when her father's job took them to Sandusky, Ohio, for several years. Edith was a member of the Arlington Girl Scouts, Rainbow Girls, and Eastern Star. Upon graduation from Arlington High School, Edith went on to Tufts University and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Sociology in 1951. Edith met her husband when she moved to Martha's Vineyard to teach school. They were introduced by her landlady who held a tea party in her home. It turns out her landlady was Channing's aunt. They were married on December 26, 1953 in Arlington, MA. The newly married couple returned to Martha's Vineyard and lived in Vineyard Haven until 1958, when they moved off island. In 1959 the couple made their permanent home in Burlington, MA. While on the Vineyard she assisted in forming an Eastern Star Chapter. Edith was a teacher at heart and, with the help of several friends, formed the Burlington Cooperative Kindergarten School. She was the Director of the Co-Op until public schools introduced a formal kindergarten program. When the Co-Op closed, she worked for Mitre for several years. She returned to teaching at the elementary school level first at Pine Glen then at Fox Hill schools in Burlington. At the Fox Hill School she was the Title 1 Specialist where she taught many children reading and math. Often she would run into one of her former students in town who would profusely thank her for not giving up on them and teaching them how to read. Upon retirement from public school teaching, Edith taught real estate sales and broker classes. She was also very active in town. She served for over 20 years as a library trustee. She was also a member of the Burlington Garden Club. She belonged to the Senior Center and helped to organize the jazz band concerts and refreshments. Family and friends were very important to her. As a family they had many adventures together camping up and down the eastern seaboard and in Maine. She continued to camp with her family as recently as last July. She loved to play games, especially dominoes and bingo. She was always up for an adventure and fun and more than once was referred to as the life of the party. Edith was the beloved wife of the late Channing L. Entwistle. She was the loving mother of Leslie-Anne of Beverly and her friend Paulette, and the late Martha Cecchini. She is the Nana of Robert C. Cecchini IV & his wife Kathleen of Burlington, MA. She is the great-Nana of Kara and Samantha Cecchini of Burlington. She is survived by several nieces and nephews and their families.

Edith F. married Channing L. Entwistle.

Channing L. Entwistle, a resident of Burlington for 47 years, passed away at the Lahey Clinic Medical Center on Saturday evening, January 27, 2007. He is the husband of 53 years of Edith F. (Saunders) Entwistle. He was 82 year old. Mr. Entwistle was born in Oak Bluffs on Martha's Vineyard. He was the son of the late John and Jetta Entwistle. He was raised and educated on Martha's Vineyard. He was a graduate of Admiral Billard Academy. He went on to further his education in Hotel Management. While living on the Vineyard he worked with his Aunt running the Ahoma Inn. Mr. Entwistle a veteran of 302. Murray Clayton Dill (Morris Jessup⁶, Samuel David⁵, William Edward⁴, George S.³, Mungo², Mr.¹). Born on 14 Dec 1923 in Newhall, CA.

On 1 Sep 1951 when Murray Clayton was 27, he married Elsie Jane Garin in Carmel, CA. Born on 27 May 1930 in Oakland, CA. Elsie Jane died on 10 Apr 2020; she was 89.

Elsie Jane Dill. May 27, 1930 - April 10, 2020. Salinas. Elsie Jane Dill died at the age of 89 on Good Friday, April 10, 2020, in the peace of her own home surrounded by family. Two days prior to her passing, on the evening of April 8th, she called her family together to have a champagne toast. Her family gathered, physically or by Facetime, by her bedside to celebrate her: sharing their thoughts, and memories together. Two days later Elsie passed peacefully, joining her family members in Heaven. Elsie was a native Californian, born in Oakland, and went to school in the Bay Area at Notre Dame Belmont. She then attended San Jose State, where she met her soon to be husband of 68 years, Murray Dill. After their marriage they made their home in King City, and later moved to their home in Salinas where they lived until Elsie's death. Elsie grew up in an agricultural family. Her father, H.P. Garin started farming in the Salinas Valley in the 1920s. Upon his death, Elsie and her brothers, Hank Garin, William Garin and Bob Garin, continued the family business, which eventually became known as The Garin Company. During her lifetime, Elsie served on the Board of Directors for The Garin Company and was part owner of the Monterey Mercantile for over 20 years. In addition to the family business, Elsie was the mother to five children. She was actively engaged in her children's educational communities, and a devoted supporter of Sacred Heart, Palma, and Notre Dame Schools. Furthermore, her service to the community extended to her involvement in the Native Daughters of the Golden West, Entre Nous Club, Steinbeck House, and St Joseph's Catholic Church in Spreckels. Somehow between all of her commitments, she found time to pursue becoming an artist. She began her art career in oil painting, and with further instruction by established artists around the country, she broadened her scope of the arts. As an accomplished multi-media artist Elsie worked with oils, collage, watercolors, ink, pencil, batik, weaving, and basketry. She was a member of numerous art groups, and a founding member of the Valley Art Gallery in Old Town Salinas. Her artwork was exhibited in many galleries throughout California. In Salinas, some of her better-known works include a collage at the Grower Shippers Association in Salinas, a large batik in the Community Center, and a Venetian glass mosaic mural on the facade of Palma High School. In 2008, she was awarded the Champion of the Arts by the Arts Council for Monterey County, and was inducted into Who's Who of American Women, and Women in the Arts. Elsie was well known throughout the community for her art work, friendship, generosity and thoughtfulness. For many, it wasn't Christmas until you got Elsie's Christmas Card. Elsie was preceded in her death by her father, H.P. Garin and mother, Elsie Jane Garin, brothers, Hank Garin, William Garin, and Robert Garin, and Grandson, Jonathan Dill. She is survived by husband, Murray C. Dill, sons, George R. Dill (Rhoda), Gordon W. Dill (Carol), and Henry E. Dill (Lisa) and daughters, Kathy M. Bourne (Mike) and Cynthia J. McGonigle (Jim). She has 13 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

They had the following children:

- i. George Richard.
- ii. Gordon.
- iii. Henry.
- iv. Katherine.
- v. Cynthia.

303. Dora Gertrude Dill (Morris Jessup⁶, Samuel David⁵, William Edward⁴, George S.³, Mungo², Mr.¹). Born on

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

30 Mar 1929 in Newhall, CA.

On 3 Sep 1950 when Dora Gertrude was 21, she married Alan Griffin Boomer in Chowchilla, California. Born on 8 Sep 1929 in Chowchilla, California. Alan Griffin died on 15 Jul 2020; he was 90.

Alan Griffin Boomer (Sept. 8, 1929 – July 15, 2020) passed peacefully at home, surrounded by his family and loved ones July 15. He was 90 years old. He had battled Parkinson's Disease for many years. Alan served the community of Turlock and the agriculture industry of the Central Valley for 60 years as General Manager of Federal Land Bank Association of Turlock and as an independent appraiser. Many people also knew him as "the Banjo Man", because he lived his passion for music as the banjo player and singer in several Dixieland Jazz bands, most recently the Creole Jazz Kings. Alan genuinely loved people. Through his eyes no one was ever a stranger and, in his heart, he was the embodiment of inclusivity, joy, love and kindness. A true gift to his family and community, he was an honorable and self-less man. Alan lived a long and illustrious life, born in Chowchilla and raised on a dairy, he was the youngest of 4 boys and no stranger to hard work. A self-made man, he put himself through Modesto Junior College and then on to UC Davis where he earned his degree in Agriculture. He married his high school sweetheart and love-of-his-life, Dora Gertrude Dill, in 1950. They would have celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary in September this year. Alan served his country in the US Air Force during the Korean conflict where he and Dora lived in Okinawa for a time. Eventually settling in Turlock, Alan and Dora loved the community and were deeply involved with the Presbyterian Church, activities at the High School, Alan served on the School Board, was a member of Lions Club, etc. As an avid tennis player Alan enjoyed competing and playing with the local tennis community. After retirement Alan had the opportunity to serve a larger agriculture community as a liaison for the U.S. Government providing grants for farmers to countries such as Jamaica. Al and Dora lived in Jamaica for a year where they had a glorious 'working vacation'. He is survived by his wife Dora Boomer, eldest son, Greg Boomer of Susanville, CA; his daughter Jacquie Boomer Adams of Monterey, CA; and his son Roger Boomer of Coronado, CA. He has 7 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren whose pictures cover the refrigerator and every wall of their Turlock home.

They had the following children:

- i. Gregory Alan.
- ii. Jacqueline Jean.
- iii. Roger Eric.

304. William "Robert" Dill (*Morris Jessup*⁶, *Samuel David*⁵, *William Edward*⁴, *George S.*³, *Mungo*², *Mr.*¹). Born on 14 Oct 1930 in Los Angeles, CA.

On 24 Jun 1950 when William "Robert" was 19, he married Lorraine Campodonica in Reno, NV. Born on 15 Jan 1930 in Merced, CA. Lorraine died on 29 Nov 2015; she was 85.

Our sweet loving wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother passed away on November 29, 2015 after a short illness. Lorraine was born on January 15, 1930 in Merced, CA to Frank and Orpha Campodonica. She was the third of six children. As a child she became known as "Cappy", a name her friends knew and loved her by. She attended and graduated from Merced schools. Being a sports enthusiast she became an avid softball player. Cappy met her husband, Bob on a blind date in Merced. They were married in 1950. Bob and Cappy made their first home in the El Nido area for a few years and then moved to the Alamo area where Bob farmed with his father. Cappy quickly became not just a daughter-in-law but a daughter and sister to the whole Dill family. They soon started their own family and had three sons of their own. She loved her family with all of her heart and they were the most important things in her life. She was preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Orpha Campodonica; stepmother, Florence Campodonica; loving son, Rodney and three of her brothers, Carlston, Denny and Bobby, Cappy leaves behind her loving husband, Bob; sons, Robert and Russell; daughter-in-law, Lori; granddaughter, Cassie (Eddie) Gomes and great grandchildren, Eddie, Dillia and Ellie; granddaughter, Julie (Silas) Rossow; great grandchildren, Dillon, Abigail and Maggie; sister, Elaine Dalton; brother, Donnie Campodonica and many nieces, nephews, family and dear friends, She will be remembered for her kind heart and never knowing a stranger.

They had the following children:

- i. Robert Damon.
- ii. Rodney Duane. Born on 30 Dec 1952 in Merced, CA. Rodney Duane died in Chowchilla, California, on 2 Jan 1970; he was 17.
- iii. Russell Allan.

305. Barbara “Jeanie” Dill (Morris Jessup⁶, Samuel David⁵, William Edward⁴, George S.³, Mungo², Mr.¹). Born on 29 Mar 1934 in Los Angeles, CA.

On 2 Jul 1955 when Barbara “Jeanie” was 21, she married Philip Wilson in Chowchilla, California. Born on 13 Aug 1932. Philip died in Merced, CA, on 3 Jul 2019; he was 86.

Phil Wilson was born at home in Tulare California on August 13, 1932 to Louisa Katherine Sinwell Wilson and Harold Edward Wilson. He attended schools in Tulare, Visalia, Hanford, Porterville, and graduated from Porterville High School in 1950. Phil always said he had the ideal childhood growing up in small towns during World War II, riding his bicycle everywhere, going to the plunge every day in the summer, and playing tennis on school teams and in community tournaments. Phil attended San Jose State where he sang in the SAE fraternity chorus. During college summers, he worked for Southern California Edison at Huntington and Florence Lakes, performing maintenance on dams and serving as a courier for the mountain offices. After graduation from San Jose State, Phil traveled to Europe by freighter. He toured Central Europe and Italy by bicycle and train, building memories he would reminisce about the rest of his life. Phil entered the US Army upon return from Europe. He served in the Counter Intelligence Corps in Washington DC, an assignment that never required him to wear a uniform. During his enlistment he married Barbara Jean Dill. Upon completion of his service obligation, Phil and Barbara Jean returned to California. Before their marriage ended, they had 3 children: Karen, David, and Maureen.

Phil accepted a teaching position with the Merced Union High School District. He was among the first teachers at the original El Capitan High School. In 1963, Phil was hired at the newly founded Merced College. He spent the rest of his career there as an English teacher and academic advisor. Phil was the first tennis coach, the first yearbook advisor, and the first drama club advisor. He was known for his high academic standards, his dry sense of humor and quick wit, his great clothes and his even better looks. He played tennis in the community and spent many happy hours playing in singles and doubles events at the tennis courts at Applegate Park and Merced College. Single in the 1980s, Phil fell in love with and courted Susan Walsh, the college librarian. Across the next thirty-three years Phil and Susan shared an amazing romance, a charmed marriage, a life filled with love, literature, laughter, gardening, adventure, travel, tears and joy. Together they traveled to dozens of national parks, towns, and cities across the United States. They returned again and again to the Asilomar Beach where their love first took hold. Toward the end of his teaching career and during retirement, Phil fully developed his passion for gardening. When he moved to a new home in Merced, he landscaped every inch of the yard. His flower garden bloomed with as many as 40 different varieties, represented by more than 500 plants. He particularly loved Double Delight and Mr. Lincoln roses and lavender and orange lantana. He developed a succulent and cactus garden in the shade of the back-yard birch trees, a garden that continues to flourish. He shared his plants and talents and hundreds of bouquets with neighbors and friends. Phil passed quietly in the comfort of his home, holding the hand of his beloved wife Susan and surrounded by caring friends. He was pre-deceased by his mother and father Harold and Louisa Wilson; his dear aunt and uncle Catherine and Clancy Cassell; and the mother of his children, Barbara Jean Wilson. His loving pet and best dog Susie had already made the journey across the rainbow bridge and was waiting for him. He is survived by his wife Susan; by his daughter Karen and husband Jeff Reed, children Megan and Brandon; his son David, wife Suzanne Wilson and children Montana and Beck and step-children Nicolas and Jesse; his daughter Maureen, husband Jay Hensler and children Jonah and Jordan. In addition, he is survived by half-brother John Armstrong; cousins Tina Small and Matt Cassell; best friends Mike and Cathy McMillan; college friend Randall Hill; dear friends and caregivers Darlene Nelson and Stephanie Nelson; dogs Sammy, Fisher, and Shaq; and cat Charlie.

- xi. Franklyn Joseph. Born in 1947 in Kentville, NS. Franklyn Joseph died in Canning, Kings Co., NS, on 5 Oct 2020; he was 73.

Franklyn “Sanky” Joseph Dill, 73 of Canning, (1947-2020) passed away peacefully on October 5, 2020 in his home with his loved ones by his side. Born in Kentville, his was the son of the late Frank and Effie (Lenihan) Dill. Growing up in a small farming community, a strong love for the land was instilled in him at an early age. Kind and caring at the same time strong and hard-working. Always kind to animals. He had a love for the outdoors and all creatures it contained. Dogs were close to heart and he was never without a beagle by his side. He passed along to his kids and grandchildren the love for the land and how important it was to maintain the enjoyment it all had to offer. Nature was very important to him but secondary to the most important thing, his family. No matter how busy life had gotten or how much pain he was in, Grampy always had time for his grandchildren. Sankie had such a huge impact on his children, his memory will always live on. “We, the family will be eternally grateful for his time with us, we are the better for his kindness, his laughter, and his endless determination. Dad, Grampy... we will always love you, and you will never be forgotten.” Franklyn is survived by his loving wife, Margaret “Peggy”; sons Mark, Matthew (Tammy); grandsons Lucas, Evan, Jarod and Dylan; granddaughters Hailey and Destiny; brothers Ronnie, Walter, Ernie and Allen. Besides his parents, Franklyn was predeceased by sisters Marguerite, Elsie, Francis and Bessie; brothers Carl, Charles, Donald, Cecil, Johnny and Harvey.

Victoria, BC, Dec. 1, 2015. McFARLAND, Harold Melville (Lt Col retired) CD, BSc, MDCM, LMCC It is with profound sadness that we share the news of the passing of our dear dear husband, father, and grandfather. Married to Betty for 59 years, sons David and Richard, granddaughters Allison, Elizabeth and Lindsey and sister Carolyn (Maxwell) Patterson. Mel left us peacefully after a two year courageous struggle with cancer. Born in Montreal, he graduated in Medicine from McGill in 1955. Mel practiced medicine in the Canadian Armed Forces for 26 years and retired at CFB Esquimalt as the Base Surgeon, Commanding Officer of the Base Hospital and Fleet Surgeon. He attained the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. Mel rounded out his medical career assisting on the Heart Team at the Royal Jubilee Hospital and later assisting in Orthopedic and General Surgery at the Victoria General Hospital. Over the years he loved fishing, curling and snowmobiling but his biggest love was world travelling & taking photos of his journeys, especially during the two Safaris, Kenya and South Africa. How he loved to see the animals in the wild and recording them on his camera.

Born in Elmsdale, Nova Scotia, Fran was the daughter of the late Gordon and Florence Casey. Fran grew up in Halifax and spent her summers between the farm in Elmsdale and the cottage in Shad Bay. She was an independent young woman who worked as an executive assistant in the legal field and travelled throughout Europe, Canada and the US. Fran enjoyed spending time at the Northwest Arm Club and on the south shore where she enjoyed the Saturday night dances at the Shore Club. She was a member of the badminton club at Stadacona and won many championships. After marrying Hubert, Fran lived in Truro for a few years before moving to Dartmouth, where she raised her family. Active in the Woodlawn United Church, she was a long-serving member of the UCW and many other committees. Fran was very social and enjoyed meeting people. One of her favorite pastimes was playing bridge where she made lasting friendships. Fran spent most of her last years living with her daughter and son-in-law in Waverley, Nova Scotia. Fran was predeceased by her husband, James Hubert O'Brien, brothers, Russ Casey, Maurice Casey, Austin Casey, stepbrother, George Buckler, and sister, Phyllis Landry (Casey). It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of our mother, Barbara Joan Pratt who passed away peacefully at home on November 15, 2021. She came from a very large family and was predeceased by many brothers and sisters, and her parents Leslie and Gladys Hennigar. Barb was born in Maple Grove, on January 12, 1940, and married Gordon Lewis Pratt, together they raised three children who were the center of their world. She had a long and rewarding career as a care worker at Fairview Villa Nursing Home where she forged meaningful relationships with the staff and residents. Can't forget the part time jobs Mom held while waiting for us kids to be older like waitress at House of Mei Mei, school crossing guard on Kearney Lake Road just to name a few. Mom had a passion for puzzles, cheering on the Toronto Blue Jays, Pittsburg Penguins (especially Crosby), feeding and watching raccoons from her deck and baking. She sweetened every family gathering with her famous butter tarts, lemon squares, pies, strawberry shortcake and baked beans. She is survived by her husband, Gordon; her children, Shawna (Pete), Lisa (Glen), Mark (Nancy); and her brother, Jerry; and the loves of her life, her grandchildren, Sierra, Liv, Cambden and Harlow. Her grandchildren fondly remember Grandma's Kraft Dinner and how it was always special.

In Loving Memory of Florence Shute, of Waterloo Lunenburg Co. also known to many as Flowie or Floss passed away May 23, 2013 at the South Shore Regional Hospital in Bridgewater N.S. after a 2 year battle with Lung Cancer at the age of 67. Florence was born May 31, 1946 in Halifax N.S and was the proud daughter of the late Maurice and Meta Casey. Florence was raised in The Hydrostones with her 3 siblings where together they created many stories and great memories living and working at the family owned business The Hydrostone Market in Halifax. Florence was married in Halifax on September 16 1967 to Robert (Bob) Shute and they soon began one of her greatest achievements in her life, working on her lifelong career as a mom, grandmother and a Great Grandmother. Colby Village became home for her and her family and over the years many more lifelong friendships were found and maintained until her passing. Florence and Bob moved to Bridgewater NS in 2009 and made that home. Florence was known to everyone for her kind, caring and gentle spirit who focused her life on her family and friends. She has a huge "Cape Breton family" who she cherished and loved so very dearly and it was important to her to make sure you knew you were always in her thoughts and conversations until the end of her time. Florence is survived by her loving and caring husband Robert Shute who was there by her side every step of the way. Children Gary Shute; Kathy Madore and husband (Graham); Granddaughter Kathleen Madore and Great Grandson Kayo Petty, sister Heather Penny, who has always been by her side; brothers Gordon and Brian Casey along with many nieces, nephews and cousins. In accordance to Florence's wishes cremation has taken place and there be no visitation or service. A private family interment will take place at a later date. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to Sweeney's Funeral Home, Bridgewater. As many of us are aware Florence was also battling Huntington disease and it was her wish that everyone take some time and make themselves aware of this disease. Information can be found at www.huntingtonsociety.ca and in lieu of flowers donations can be made to The Huntington Society of Canada. A very special mention needs to be said to Rosie Gillis who always brought fun and laughter to her life as well as the odd rum and coke! Thank you to Dick and Bev Miller for your special friendship and the daily hot chocolate and hospital visit. Thank you so much to all the nurses and doctors on the 4th floor who so lovingly cared for her during her final days at the hospital and most importantly our father Bob who took such great care of her during her battle with cancer and Huntington disease it was never an easy journey and your strength and love for her is an inspiration and will never be forgotten.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

On 16 Sep 1967 when Florence Sharon was 21, she married Robert Shute in Halifax, N.S.

They had the following children:

- i. Gary.
 - ii. Katherine Sharon
- 384

366. Gordon Ernest Casey (*Maurice Clifford*⁸, *Florence Jean Wright*⁷, *Frances Ann Fraser*⁶, *Sarah Maria Dill*⁵, *Joseph*⁴, *George S.*³, *Mungo*², *Mr.*¹). Born on 21 Oct 1947 in Halifax, N.S. Gordon Ernest died in Halifax, NS, on 9 Dec 2021; he was 74.

Gordon "Gordie" Ernest Casey 74 of Halifax passed on December 9th with family by his side at Whitehills Long Term Care Centre. He is survived by his wife, Judy Coreen Margarite Casey (Forsyth), two son's, Sean Casey (Tracy), Stephen Casey, grandchildren Emma Casey & Carter Casey, and brother Brian Casey. Gordie also leaves behind many nieces & nephews (some of whom were his god-children), brother-in-laws & sister-in-laws, and all of their children and grandchildren. Gordie was predeceased by his father, Maurice Casey, mother, Meta Casey (Hillier), sister's, Heather Penney (Laurice), and Florence Shute (Bobby) and survived & predeceased by many close friends. Gordon was born and raised in the North End of Halifax. At a young age he worked by delivering groceries at his grandfather's grocery store, "Hydrostone Market". In 1967 he started his career at Farmer's Dairy and worked with them for almost 40 years until 2007. Gordie was a dedicated employee and respected by all of his co-workers and store merchants. When he went to the grocery store with his family you would find him in the dairy sections checking stock and merchandising the Farmer's Dairy products - his dedication and hard work never went unnoticed. He also enjoyed his time with Farmer's as a member of their "Farmer's Dairy Bowling League". In 1963 Gordie met his loving wife, Judy, and they were married in 1970. Soon after they started their own family and spent 51 beautiful years together. Gordie cherished family vacations both as a child and as a husband & father. Growing up he went on plenty of spur-of-the-moment trips to Cape Breton with his parents and siblings and kept the tradition alive with his own family. He took his wife and son's on many car rides to Montreal, Florida, South Carolina, Myrtle Beach, New Orleans, and most recently taking trips to the Caribbean to enjoy the perks of "All Inclusive" resorts. When his son's were younger Gordie loved going to their baseball, basketball, and hockey games and watching his favorite sports teams on T.V. In his free time Gordie loved having a glass of Captain and playing cards with anyone who was willing to lose. His favorites were Rummoli, Cribbage, Yahtzee, Solitaire, and dice. He also enjoyed playing games on the computer and did so right up until the day before his passing.

Chapter 3

Descendants of Robert and Jane (Denny) Dill

Just exactly how Robert Dill is related to David and Mungo Dill is unclear (see Chapter 1). Since Robert's family was mostly in the Londonderry, Great Village and Truro areas of Colchester County and the Wallace and Pugwash area of Cumberland County, I have kept his descendants separated from those of David and Mungo.

First Generation

1. Robert Dill. Born ca 1740 in Donegal, Ireland. Robert died in Folly Village (Glenholme), NS, on 9 May 1812; he was 72. Buried in Folly Village Cemetery.

Robert was "of Windsor" in 1777, arriving from Ireland in 1775 with his wife Jane (Denny) Dill (Leonard Smith Jr., Nova Scotia Immigrants to 1867, Vol. II, 1964, Ships and Immigration Lists) but removed to Colchester County sometime thereafter (Bob Dill). Robert may have been a brother of David and half-brother of Mungo.

Robert Dill's grave marker in the Folly Village cemetery stated that he was b. 1740 in Donegal, Ireland.

There is a marriage bond for JOHN REAGH, Jr., of Cornwallis, farmer, to CATHERINE DILL dated July 23 1777 in Windsor, Hants, NS, signed by Robert Dill "of Windsor, farmer" (NSHVS). In 1778 John Reagh, Jr. sells his fathers 1000 acres Grant at Little Bass River to Thomas Stoddard of Cornwallis, NS, who in 1781 sells this same property to Robert Dill and Peter McClelan of "the Town of Londonderry in Cobequid" [it is possible that Stoddard was a brother-in-law of John Reagh, Jr] (Andrew Dill)

Children from Familysearch, son George's family from Miller. Robert Coates' family tree (sent to me in handwriting Feb. 2022) also includes daughters Rebecca and Nancy.

Folly Village Cemetery on a single headstone, "In memory of Rebecca Dill, died July 16, 1854, ae. 76 y's, Nancy Dill, died June 16, 1854, ae. 63 y's." Must be two more unmarried daughters of Robert and Jane.

Other unknown Londonderry Dill's, from Andrew Dill:

JOHN DILL, Jr., b. 17__, d. 1817 in Londonderry Township, Colchester, NS, Can (Administrators of his Estate were MARY DILL, JAMES FLEMMING, JAMES DILL as per Acadian Recorder of September 1 1817). See note under John Sr.

ROBERT DILL, b. 17__. He married ELEANOR MARSH, Nov 10 1814 in Londonderry Township, Colchester, NS, Can, (by Rev. John Brown). (Wm. T. Hill collection) {#6iv, Robert, s/o Robert, md. Mary Ann Peers in 1817, he was 30. Is this a 1st marriage to Eleanor Marsh?}

MARGARET DILL, b. 17__. She married ROBERT ROGERS, Jun 27 1816 in Londonderry, Colchester, NS, Can, (by Rev. John Brown). {Margaret, d/o Robert, md. James B. Peers in 1818. Is this a 1st marriage to Robert Rogers

in 1816?}

MARY DILL. She married JOHN McKEEN, 6 Nov 15 1821 in Londonderry Township, Colchester, NS, Can, 6 (by Rev. John Brown, Rev. John Brown of Londonderry Township, Nova Scotia, Canada, Marriage register kept by Rev. Brown (Colchester Historical Museum Archives, Truro, NS, Canada)). {Mary, d/o Robert, md. Thomas McKim. He died 1816. Is this a 2nd marriage to John McKeen?}

ROBERT DILL, b. abt 1833, d. Nov 8 1860. He married RACHEL HAMILTON, Feb 18 1857, b. Dec 21 1835 in Onslow, Colchester, NS, Can, (daughter of DANIEL EATON HAMILTON and ELEANOR MILLER), d. Nov 27 1865 in Onslow, Colchester, NS, Can. {See Robert, s/o Robert, of Robert?}

In 1773 when Robert was 33, he married Jane Denny, daughter of John Denny (1730-20 Jul 1792) & Rebecca Mitchell (1735-), in Londonderry, Col. Co., NS. Born in 1753 in Donegal, Ireland. Jane died in Jun 1823; she was 70.

They had the following children:

- | | | |
|---|------|------------------------------------|
| 2 | i. | Mary (ca 1774-13 Jun 1851) |
| 3 | ii. | George (1777-4 Jan 1854) |
| 4 | iii. | John (Jan 1784-6 Feb 1867) |
| 5 | iv. | Jane (Aug 1786-2 Dec 1864) |
| 6 | v. | Robert (15 Nov 1787-1849) |
| 7 | vi. | Margaret (1794-30 Oct 1823) |

Second Generation

3. George Dill (Robert¹). Born in 1777. George died on 4 Jan 1854; he was 77. Buried in Robie St. Cemetery, Truro, NS. Occupation: School teacher, Registrar of Deeds, Supreme Court. Residence: Londonderry, NS, Truro, NS.

Mr. Dill removed to Truro, and purchased James Wright's front wood lot, and built his house on the hill where Mr. Richard Upham now resides. Here he spent the remainder of his life. He was the school teacher of the Village for about twenty-five years. Afterwards he was Registrar of Deeds and Prothonotary of the Supreme Court. These offices he held until a short time before his death. (Thomas Miller)

Ancestry has George as a son of Robert Dill and Jane Denny.

On 3 May 1804 when George was 27, he first married Rachel Archibald, daughter of Thomas Archibald (1733-27 Jun 1796) & Janet Orr (1733-13 Mar 1784). Born on 10 Jun 1777 in Truro, Colchester Co., NS. Rachel died in Truro, Colchester Co., NS, on 7 May 1811; she was 33.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

was 25.

He started to go to Boston for the benefit of his health and was lost in the ill-fated brigantine "Enterprise".

"It may here be observed that this James Loughhead, Junr., and his brother William, built a brigantine called the "Enterprise," in the years 1842 and 1843. In May, 1844, this vessel was loaded with plaster at Pitchbrook, on the east side of the Shubenacadie River. She had twenty persons on board ; James Loughhead, Junr., aged 46 years, his daughter Elizabeth, aged 21 years, William Loughhead's wife and child, Maria, daughter of James Loughhead, Senr., aged 23 years, James Noble, son of Robert and Eleanor Loughhead, aged 14 years. Captain Allan, Mr. Atkins, first mate, Joseph Tidmon, second mate, Thomas Green, son of the late James Green, aged about 45 years. He (Thomas Green) left a wife and family. Matthew and William Green, sons of the late William Green, Matthew Green left a wife and three daughters ; Joseph Forbes, Thomas Keef, David Messenger, Mr. Blackwood, son of the Rev. Robert Blackwood, of Tatamagouche, Charles Tucker, Junr., of Truro, aged 18 years, William Hill Dill, second son of the late George Dill of Truro. He was a young lawyer about 25 years old ; Mahew, son of Eliakim Tupper, of New Glasgow, aged 23 years, and Alexander, youngest son of Alexander L. and Mary Archibald, aged 19 years. This vessel sailed from Spencer's Point, on the north side of the Bay, on May 22nd, 1844, and has not been heard from since, thus leaving a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn their loss." (Miller, page 283)

- iv. Mary. Born on 17 Jul 1820 in Truro, Colchester Co., NS.

They had five sons and eight daughters (Miller).

On 22 Nov 1838 when Mary was 18, she married William McCallum, son of Thomas McCollum (20 Apr 1778-Apr 1859) & Janet Logan (19 Mar 1776-Dec 1864).

Lost at Sea - a Family Tragedy <http://braggandfamily.blogspot.com/2013/09/lost-at-sea-family-tragedy.html?m=0>
The Dill Family of Londonderry Township, Colchester County, Nova Scotia descended from a line of Ulster Scots that came from Northern Ireland in the 1760s. Robert Dill and Jane Denny raised 8 children on their grant near Great Village. Of their three sons, George became a school teacher, John became a farmer and Robert learned the ship building trade. Both of John's sons Robert and John followed their uncle into the seafaring life. Robert Dill sailed the seas in his brig "Phoebe Ellen" and he also served his community as Justice of the Peace and Collector of Customs and then later as village postmaster. In 1841 he married Mary Ann Peers, granddaughter of United Empire Loyalist Alexander Peers. The two had a family of 4 girls and 5 boys including another John and his brother David Robert. This is the story of John and David Dill and William Henry McLellan and their tragic deaths in the Bay of Fundy. The brig "Phoebe Ellen" was a two masted vessel, square rigged on both masts and had been built by Captain Robert Dill (father of John and David) in the 1860s near Great Village. On January 8, 1872 the ship was loaded with goods bound for Cuba. John Dill had just taken command of the ship and his younger brother, David, had left his position as school master to come on the voyage. It was his first time as a crew member and he worked well with his cousin William McLellan. William Henry McLellan was the son of another sea captain, Capt. William McLellan and his wife Nancy Agnes Perry. He was 22 years old at the time of this event. As the ship neared Toney's Cove near Digby, all sails were furled and the crew was on deck. Everything looked ship-shape. Inexplicably, in a freak northwesterly gale and thick fog the vessel was drive aground and lost. The weather was extremely cold. The question then became: "Why did the Captain not take measures to prevent this grounding?" Of the many things he could have done to prevent the wreck, he did nothing. An investigation showed that the accident took place on a Sunday and being a staunch Presbyterian, Captain John Dill practiced what he preached - and that included not working on the Sabbath. Unfortunately, this left the ship in peril when the weather turned on them. The young Dill brothers were laid to rest together in the Folly Village Cemetery. William Henry McLellan was buried at the Portauisque Beach Cemetery just down the road.

THE MYSTERY OF THE BRIG PHOEBE ALLEN

Captain Charles A Morrison Tells Why That Vessel Stood Still While Winds Blew
Captain Was Strict Sabbath-crian and Would Not Work Ship on Sunday
The Sad Fate of the Ship and Crew

"Notice in the Halifax Herald of March 12th inst., someone asking for information concerning a clipping taken from a Halifax paper dated Nov 27th, 1871, about a vessel that was reported, called the "Phoebe Ellen" of Windsor, N.S., 45 miles W.N.N. from Seal Island, with sails furled, to the yards and rolling about, and with a full sail breeze blowing, and the crew all on deck, and everything apparently all right. But the report did not give her rig, or anything else, and as she was not otherwise reported, it looked like a mystery of the sea and asked for information from any one concerning this vessel.

Now, for the information of your correspondent or anybody else, I can give quite a history, as I have a very good reason to remember the "Phoebe Ellen". It was on this ill-fated vessel that my wife lost her brother, William Henry

McLellan, of Portauquique, NS, also leaving two other sisters, Mrs. John McLellan and Mrs. Paul Fraser, of Halifax, and an aged father, the late William McLellan, as this vessel was driven ashore in northwesterly gale and thick vapor and extremely cold weather, at Young's Cove, Annapolis County, N.S. on Jan. 8th, 1872.

The captain and his brother were both lost, McLellan and David Dill were frozen to death, lashed to the deck. The captain's body was found on the shore, cut in two by the ice pressure as he was trying to reach the shore for aid and _____. The mate, by the name of Thompson, and two other members _____ by the name of Lank from Colchester County, NS were saved. Mate Thompson died a few years after having never recovered from the exposure. But the Lank boys are still living.

Now for some ancient history. The "Phoebe Ellen" was a full rigged brig, that is a two masted vessel, square rigged on both masts and was built by Capt. John Dill, a resident of Great Village, NS, somewhere in the 60's and was of a capacity of about four hundred tons burden. Capt. Dill sailed this brig himself for several years, trading to Europe, South America, and the West Indies, and other places making successful voyages, and was a very capable and careful navigator. But Capt. Dill [*see note below] retired from the sea that very trip that Capt. Colby reported him and gave his oldest son John Dill, Jr. command. Also, his son David, was one of the crew, his first voyage to sea, as he was a school master. I went to school to him at Portauquique in 1870. The "Phoebe Ellen" loaded box shooks at St John, NB, for a port on the north side of Cuba, and was bound there, having sailed from St John, NB, the day before she met her fate.

Now to clear up the mystery about Capt. Colby finding this vessel with all her sails furled to the yards, and a full sail breeze blowing, and her crew all on deck, and everything apparently in ship shape, would certainly cause any mariner to speculate and wonder what it all meant. Now you will note it was Sunday, Nov 26, 1871, and it was Capt Dill's religion principle to keep the Sabbath day holy on land or sea. Being a staunch Presbyterian, he practiced what he preached and did no work on that day if possible and would shorten sail and snug up for Sunday if in a safe position to do so and devote the Sabbath to worship. And there were other Christian mariners of that day who would do likewise. So you see that is the probable reason for finding the "Phoebe Ellen" in that safe position by the captain of the steamer "Charlotta". It would be a mystery indeed as well as a miracle, if any master mariner at this date, 1920, would come across a vessel in that position, through religious principles.

Capt. John Dill, Sr. was a man of the highest character (as I knew him from my boyhood); respected by everybody and after this sad event, he settled down at his home in Great Village, becoming the post master, which position he retained until he died. (Written by Capt Chas. A Morrison) *Capt. Robert Dill was the father of the John Dill, Jr. who died on this ship; Capt. Robert Dill had a brother Capt. John Dill; obviously some confusion in the names.

The 'Globe' on Saturday gave some further particulars of the loss of the "Phoebe Ellen" at Young's Cove, N.S. on 7th inst. The vessel, it appears was caught in a squall off Point Lepreaux on the day following her departure. A cook, losing his footing, fell overboard and was drowned. The mast afterwards snapped off and the schooner drifted helplessly about until midnight when she was driven ashore at Young's Cove. Capt. DILL, observing that all must perish unless assistance were procured, attempted to gain shore, but while in the act was struck by a sea and drowned. The crew could render no assistance. The wreck was observed by people on the shore about 9 o'clock on the following morn, but on account of the heavy sea, could not be boarded until two hours after. It was that the bodies of George DILL, brother of the captain and two seamen named McLELLAN and JOHNSTON were frozen stiff. G. THOMPSON, George LARKS and Alfred LARKS were alive, but in critical condition, not having eaten food for two days. The vessel was sold to E. LANTELUM of (St. John) city. Obituary: - H. Marion Dill - 1921-2019. It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Helen Marion Dill, 98, of Springhill, on Sunday June 30, 2019 at the Cumberland Regional Health Care Centre. Born in Springhill, Marion was a daughter of the late William and Greta (Tower) Reiley. Marion had worked at MacAloney's Nursing Home before running Dill's Electric with her husband David. Before retirement, Marion operated her own flower shop in Springhill. She was an active member of St. David's Presbyterian Church, and a member of the Presbyterian Ladies Guild. She was an active participant of the Nova Scotia Progressive Conservative Women's Association, as well as having sat on the executive for the Cumberland South Progressive Conservative Association. Marion was Past President of the Springhill Lioness Society, a member of the Springhill Duplicate Bridge Club, and delivered for Meals On Wheels well into her eighties. Marion was a devoted mother and grandmother; her grandchildren were the light of her life. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, David Dill; sisters, Phyllis LeBlanc, and Alfretta "Pat" Tristram; brother William Reiley, and grandsons Dwight Pashkoski, and William Black.

BLANCHE AMELIA MILLEN (nee DILL) 1919-2009. It is with deep sadness that we announce the death of Blanche Millen on Thursday, May 28th, 2009 at the age of 89 years at Deer Lodge Centre with her family by her side. Blanche is survived by her son John (Josephine); grandchildren Alia (Eric), Faye, and Tessa; her daughter, Julie (Manasie) and granddaughter Laura. She was predeceased by her husband, Kelvin Millen, 2003, and by her grandson, Kelvin, 2005. Blanche was born in Millvale, Nova Scotia in 1919 to parents Frank and Clara Dill. She grew up in Springhill, Nova Scotia, with five sisters, four brothers, and life-long friend, Eleanor Fox (Fraser). With the start of the war, Blanche decided to enter Nursing and she trained at the Glace Bay General Hospital in Cape Breton. She graduated as a registered nurse in 1943 and immediately joined the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps. She travelled to Europe with the 24 General Hospital, serving in England and in Belgium. She returned to Canada at the end of the war and continued her nursing career. She married Kelvin, New Year's Eve, 1949. Blanche raised her family in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. She was a great mum to her children. In Nova Scotia, Dill enjoyed playing Bridge. Bridge clubs brought her together with her closest friends. Together they shared life and laughter. Also, many nurses she worked with became her lifelong friends. Blanche and her husband moved to Winnipeg in 1999 to be nearer family. Blanche loved her family and she was a wonderful home maker. She had a talent for home cooking, loved good jokes, read each morning paper and completed the crossword puzzle, and she always made time each day to check in with her family and friends. She moved into Deer Lodge Centre earlier this year. We would like to thank the staff of Tower 5 for the kindness and care they gave to our mother and family. Mum, you will always be remembered. Dill, Dr. John Robert - Bible Hill, NS died peacefully, surrounded by his loving family at the Palliative Care unit in the Colchester East Hants Health Centre, Truro. John was the son of the late Robert and Marjorie (Height) Dill, born in New York City and raised in Chicago. He returned to Nova Scotia to complete Medical School at Dalhousie University. There he met his wife, Beverly Dill (Smith) who was a nurse at that time. This remarkable team progressed through residency, graduate school into professional practice and raised an amazing family. John's medical education took them to London, England and Toronto and many family stories are fondly recounted of those special times. Staff physician positions in Halifax, teaching at Dalhousie Medical School and as a Respiriologist and Intensivist in Sydney, Cape Breton followed. John is remembered as a "gentle giant" in the Nova Scotia medical community and was deeply respected by his medical colleagues and loved by his many patients. Given his numerous professional accomplishments, John was most proud of his enduring relationship with the love of his life, Bev and his two children, Jen (Brent) Nicholson and Jim (Michelle) Dill. He was better known as Poppy to his grandchildren; John Theodore Nicholson, Matthew Nicholson, Lily Nicholson, Grace Dill and those closest to him in later life. One of John's favorite pastimes was at the wheel of his sailboat, travelling across the Bras D'Or lakes near Baddeck, Nova Scotia. He was a lifelong learner and took university courses after his retirement in areas of personal interest. To have a conversation about politics, economics or world events with John was one to bring your "A" game. Informed, erudite, but also kind and willing to listen, you left every conversation the better for it. Also a lifelong lover of music, he took up piano and completed the Royal Conservatory of CHELMSFORD; Mildred D. (Webb) MacDonald, age 81, a resident of Chelmsford for 37 years, died Friday, December 14, 2007 at the Fairhaven Nursing Home in Lowell. She was the wife of Robert F. MacDonald, with whom she celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on July 26th. Born in Melrose on May 6, 1926, she was the daughter of the late Ernest and Rebecca (Whidden) Webb. Mrs. MacDonald was raised in Wakefield and attended Wakefield schools. Prior to moving to Chelmsford in 1970, she lived in Billerica. She dedicated her life to caring for her family. In her early years, she worked for the Lewis Candy Company of Malden. She also spent over 25 years as a loving daycare provider to small children of several families. Mrs. MacDonald was past president of the Tewksbury V.F.W. Post # 8164 Ladies Auxiliary. According to her family, during the Vietnam War she was a dedicated volunteer at the Chelsea Naval Hospital and the Edith Nourse Rogers V.A. Hospital in Bedford. In addition, she received a letter of appreciation from Bob Hope for her support of the troops. She enjoyed many activities especially knitting and flower gardening. In addition to her husband, she is survived by one son, Robert MacDonald and his wife Rachel of Dracut; two daughters, Dorothy Barbieri of Litchfield, ME and Sandra Morrissey and her husband Kevin of Tewksbury; eleven grandchildren, Jeffrey, Steven, Donald, Kenneth, Samantha and Amanda Morris, Richard Morrissey, Kathryn Perry, Robb, Chelsea and Stephanie MacDonald; 13 great grandchildren; many nieces and nephews.

Mrs. MacDonald was the sister of the late Barbara Sheppard, Melvin, William and Kenneth Webb.

- iv. On 26 Jul 1947 when Mildred Dorothy was 21, she married Robert F. MacDonald.
Barbara Louise. Born on 25 Apr 1928 in Melrose, MA. Barbara Louise died in Boston, MA, on 5 Jul 2007; she was 79. Buried in Oakdale Cemetery, Sanford, Maine.

Mom was born in Melrose, MA to Ernest T. and Rebecca M. (Whidden) Webb. She was one of five children: Kenneth, Melvin, William and Mildred. Mom was married November 16, 1956 to my Dad, Arthur A. Sheppard. They lived in MA, and Dad helped to raise my eldest sister Linda and my brother Ron (from Mom's first marriage to Carl Young). They had three daughters while living in MA: Donna, Susan and Bonnie (me). Mom and Dad moved their family to Wells, ME in 1964, and Dad commuted back and forth to MA to work. In 1966 they welcomed their youngest daughter, Pam. They have 14 loving grandchildren: Mary, Mark, Sandra, Sean, Jason, James, Jesse, Sara, Michael, Michelle, Matthew, Stephanie, Samantha & Ricky. Joining the family over the years were great-grands: David, Hailey, Tyler, Joshua, Bryan, Nathaniel, Sarah, Laci & Rashonda (since Mom passed have been Hunter, Jamey, Travis, Harlee & Alexander). Dad became ill in the '70s and had to retire. His disability opened up some interesting doors for my parents. It gave them the opportunity to open an antique shop, and it became a passion of theirs to go to flea markets and yard sales to find treasures to buy and re-sell. Their shop was quite successful until Dad's health began to decline, and they had to move to a smaller home in 1976-77. They lived there for 9 years, raising their family, welcoming grandchildren, and enjoying camping and other activities as Dad's health would allow. In 1985 they moved to Sanford, ME, and they lived there together until October 4, 2005 when Dad passed away. Mom continued to live there, although going on visits to her children's homes on occasion. Mom passed away in Boston, MA from an aneurism, just below her heart. It was an unexpected and tragic event. life was a shining example of what a loving wife and mother, grandmother and great-grandmother she was, as well as a beloved Auntie, sister and friend. We will miss her always.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

Barbara Louise first married Carl Chesley Young.

Barbara Louise second married Arthur Archibald Sheppard. Born on 12 Jun 1925 in Suffolk, MA. Arthur Archibald died in Sanford, Maine, on 4 Oct 2005; he was 80.

Dad was known by many names. Among them were Art, Arch, Shep, and Don. (Where Don came from, I don't know, but he answered to it). I think the ones he was the most proud of were "Daddy" and "Grampa". Dad loved his family and enjoyed spending time with all of us. He was married to his beloved wife Barbara (known to him affectionately as "Kitty") for 48 years. They had 6 children: Linda, Ron, Donna, Susan, Bonnie & Pamela; 14 grandchildren: Mary, Mark, Sandra, Sean, Jason, James, Jesse, Michael, Sara, Michelle, Matthew, Stephanie, Samantha & Ricky; and 10 great-grandchildren: Davey, Hailey, Tyler, Joshua, Bryan, Nathaniel, Laci, Sarah, (born since he passed are Rashonda, Hunter, Jamey, Travis, Harlee & Alexander). Dad was one of the first patients at Mass General hospital to undergo open heart surgery for a mitral valve replacement. The doctors at that time were unsure of Dad's life expectancy after such an operation, and gave him an estimate of 7 years. He lived many times over that from the time of the operation in 1962. Daddy I love and miss you. I hope you were watching over the celebration of your life. We wanted this time to reflect our love and affection for you and to show the fabulous people you and Mom have raised us to be. You showed us how to love, how to not let things get us down, and how to make the most of every single day. Thank you for your love, your guidance and your patience. Thank you for being our Daddy. We love you, and miss you greatly.

- v. Kenneth Arnold. Kenneth Arnold died in Saipan, Northern Mariana Islands on 16 Jun 1944.

My uncle, PFC Webb was killed at Saipan one day into the battle. He was 19 years old (I am working on getting documentation of his exact date of birth). My mother was 16 years old when her brother was killed. He was not married and had no children, but he was loved by his parents, Ernest & Rebecca Webb; his brothers, Melvin & William; and his sisters, Mildred & Barbara and is remembered by his hometown of Wakefield, MA as a WWII hero.

Debert man battles rare nervous system disorder, Truro Daily News, 6 Jan 2018, BY LYNN CURWIN lynn.curwin@trurodaily.com

Brett Dill

A couple of years ago Brett Dill was a musician playing with symphony orchestras.

Today, the pain he's in causes him to struggle to get through his daily chores.

Dill has neurosarcoidosis, a rare, incurable, life-changing condition that affects the central nervous system. He uses a cane to walk, can only stand for short periods of time and is unable to get the breath he would need to play oboe and English horn full time again.

"I can't get a full breath and push to support air as much so it's ended my career as a musician," he said, on the verge of tears. "As a musician, your job isn't just what you do, it's who you are. It's part of you. For now, that part of me has died."

The pain began in May 2016, when an injury resulted in a herniated disc and slipped discs. Dill had moved back to Nova Scotia to care for his mother, and was doing some work that involved lifting. He tried to work through much of the pain but by mid-August his knees felt spongy and he felt as if he were bouncing when he walked. Some parts of his body were experiencing numbness.

He had a CT scan but nothing was detected. A second trip to emergency resulted in a referral to a neurologist (many months into the future). Sensations of numbness and electric shock were affecting him from the neck down when he saw a doctor again. He was sent for MRIS. More tests followed, including painful lumbar punctures. There was so much swelling around his spine that it was beginning to affect his brain stem, so he was placed on IV steroids and several specialists showed up.

"The doctors were still mystified," he said. "That was lucky in a way, because I received amazing attention."

After two weeks in the Halifax Infirmary, Dill was taken to a private area and told he had lymphoma and only had days to live. That same day he also had a PET scan and the diagnosis the next day had changed. After a biopsy a couple of days later, it was confirmed. He had a rare condition known as neurosarcoidosis.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

He was placed on medication, advised to take certain supplements, and went through some physical rehabilitation.

"I may get back to almost normal but I may not," he said. "This remains in the body, and can lie dormant or repeatedly attack.

"Nerves are damaged and sending the wrong message to the brain. It feels like electricity non-stop and there's a lot of pain if I have to engage my core. It's like there's a claw constantly squeezing my torso and a team of little guys jackhammering inside my body."

Along with the physical stress, he faces mental stress, struggling to live on a disability allowance while caring for his mother and having the necessary repairs done to her home.

"Canada needs to pull up its socks in helping people unable to work because of their health," he said. "I moved from Toronto to care for my mother. If I wasn't with her I would be homeless."

"I do feel lucky in that I had the best of health care once admitted to hospital though, and I'm bound I'm coming out of this stronger."

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

of WW2 she was employed at the Canada Car war plant in Amherst, assembling and repairing Spitfire and Hurricane fighter aircraft and Hudson bombers. Olive married John James Dill of Springhill, NS in 1942, and they had just a few hours to celebrate before John shipped off to England with the Canadian Army. During this period of separation Olive filled her free hours indulging her passion for sports, especially skating and softball, and was pitcher on the Nova Scotia Women's Championship Softball team in 1944. When John returned at the end of the war, the couple set up a household in Springhill. In 1956 Olive, John and son moved to Dartmouth where she was employed for over 25 years by the Nova Scotia Light and Power Company and later, Nova Scotia Power Commission. After retirement Olive enjoyed entertaining her friends, family, and especially her grandchildren, at her cottage in Wentworth, NS. In later years Olive discovered a love for bridge and until last year had played weekly with a number of bridge clubs in Dartmouth. Olive will be greatly missed by her son, Greg and daughter-in-law Donna, grandsons Ryan (Monica) and Gavin (Tara) and great-grandchildren Brooke McCormick and Koda Dill, brother Kenneth Stone, and sister Illa Mailman, numerous nieces and nephews, and her many friends. Olive was predeceased by her brother Layton Stone and sisters, Leona MacDonald and Ethel Elmers.

They had one child:

- i. John "Gregory". Born on 8 Oct 1946 in Amherst, Cumberland Co., NS. John "Gregory" died in Dartmouth, N.S., on 30 Aug 2015; he was 68.

John Gregory had provided his genealogy to Bob Dill (9 May 2002) as follows: John, David, samuel, Alexander, Robert (all b. Ireland), (john - missing?), Capt. John W., Robert Alexander, Frank Hague, John James and John Gregory.

Dill, John Gregory, age 68 of Dartmouth, NS.- In sorrow and with a overwhelming sense of loss we the family announce the sudden and unexpected passing of Greg on August 30, 2015 at home in the presence of his wife, Donna. Much loved husband, father, grandfather and so much more, Greg was born in Amherst, NS on. October 8, 1946, the son of the late John and Olive (Stone) Dill. A graduate of Dalhousie University BSc program, those who knew Greg knew him to be a wealth of knowledge and man of many talents. This was evidenced by his varied careers which included underwater weapons technician at Bedford Magazine, research assistant at Dal, Cardiac perfusionist at Ottawa Civic Hospital, private pilot, aerial photographer, and most recently author of nautical history. Greg's latest passion was integrating renewable energy into his lifestyle, and especially enjoying his Leaf electric car. Donna, the love of his life walked into his grade 10 classroom and he knew the moment he saw her that she was the woman he would marry- and 7 years later he did. He was a most supportive husband and best friend for the next 46 too short years. Among his proudest accomplishments he first counted his 2 wonderful sons, Ryan and Gavin. Early in their life he took time away from his career to be a stay at home Dad, a choice ahead of its time but which proved beneficial to his family. As adults, his sons confided in his infinite wisdom knowing they would get the best answers. Greg was equally proud of his 4 beautiful grandchildren - Brooke McCormick and Koda Dill, Hazen and Skyler Dill, who could always be counted on to bring a smile to his face and pride to his voice. Greg is mourned deeply by his wife Donna, son Ryan and Monica (Drummond) Dill, Hazen and Skyler, Truro; son Gavin and Tara (Dodds), Brooke and Koda, Salmon River. Besides immediate family, others left to mourn are mother-in-law Rhettta Mattinson; sister-in-law Gilleen Mattinson, Lauren (Wendell) Williams, brother-in-laws Avery Mattinson, Harry and Debbie (McCann) Mattinson, uncle Ken Stone, numerous nieces and nephews and his many friends.

Family of Jeannie Ness Dill (26) & Charles Elmore Coates

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

32. Robert Elmore Coates (Jeannie Ness Dill⁵, James Peers⁴, Robert³, John², Robert¹). Born on 2 Apr 1925. Robert Elmore died in Nanaimo, BC, on 24 Apr 2022; he was 97.

Mr. Bob Coates of Nanaimo, BC, sent me this information on his family in February, 2022.

August 27, 1925 – April 24, 2022

In Loving Memory ~ Bob/Dad/Grandpa/Papa passed away peacefully from natural causes on April 24, four months shy of his 97th birthday. Robert Elmore Coates came into this world on August 27, 1925 and spent his formative years in Vancouver. He answered the call to serve during WWII and upon his return from the Navy, enrolled at UBC where his studies guided him towards a career in education. Marriage to Gwen, three children, and a life well lived on Vancouver Island followed in quick succession. Commitment to service was a constant calling card of Bob's many fine qualities. Raising his family in Qualicum Beach, Bob took every opportunity to support his community: as an Alderman, a Mason, a founding member of the curling club, the long-time Vice Principal of Qualicum Beach Secondary School, and as the coach or manager of numerous youth sports teams. Bob was always on board – no question! But his legacy is so much more than his life of service. He was a gentleman with a kind, warm and inclusive nature, willing to listen, debate, laugh and comfort – always with a smile and often with a sly wink. His knowledge and guidance was the foundation of his family. Bob provided a level of optimism that was honest and heartfelt, and carried over into all that he did. He was the sort of person who drew people in and made many friends along the way. Travel, gardening and fishing were his passions – at the age of 92 he landed a hefty 21lb spring salmon on a fishing retreat to Nootka Sound. His 50-year-old boat is still in the family and continues to ride the waves. Bob always managed to enthrall his audience, eager to hear his tales of the catch, but his true legacy is that of a listener; he had an acute understanding of every situation and made everyone feel like they belonged. Whether it was family, friends or former students, Bob always had time for an engaging chat. He had an enlightened way of looking at the world and his core values of reason and compassion continue to inspire those who knew him as Bob/Dad/Grandpa/Papa...as well as the many who called him Vice Principal Coates. Bob was predeceased by his wife Gwen in 2013 and is survived by his daughters Kerry (Rob) and Tracy (Larry) and son Brad (Barbara), as well as many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Sue Webber, the special friend who brightened his final years, joins the family in mourning his loss.

Robert Elmore married Gwenyth Mary Homewood. Born in 1920. Gwenyth Mary died in 2013; she was 93.

They had the following children:

- i. Kerry Jane. Kerry Jane Coates married Robert John Carruthers.
- ii. Tracy Diane. Tracy Diane Coates married Lawrence Bruce Robinson.
- iii. Bradley Robert. Bradley Robert Coates married Barbara Lindner.

Chapter 4

John Dill

John Dill was married in Halifax on 30 Jul 1773 to Elizabeth Walker. The marriage bond was guaranteed by James Finlay of Halifax, signed 13 July 1773 (NSHVS). James Finlay, of Sackville, was also the guarantor for David Dill marriage bond to Jane Walker, 3 Jan 1774 (NSHVS). John was named on the joint Stillwater Station land grant with David Dill and Mungo Dill in 1784 (see Chapter 2). Pearl Brown and Mirabelle Smiley in their histories of the Dill family suggest he was a brother of David and half-brother of Mungo, but please see further discussion in Chapter 1.

John was living in 1810 in Windsor (see land transfer below), if he was born 1740s, he was >60 at the time.

The family of John Dill and Elizabeth Walker is unknown, but there are some interactions with the Londonderry (Colchester County) Dill's (Robert's family, Chapter 3). It is thought that John's family largely moved to the United States.

John Dill, Robert's son, married Elizabeth Dill and they named a son John Walker Dill. It is possible that Elizabeth Dill is a daughter of John Dill and Elizabeth Walker, and this has been suggested in some of the public family trees but I have not seen any documented evidence so the link remains unconfirmed.

Jane Dill married James Sterling 1806 Halifax (he was b. 4 Jan 1780). John Bond was a witness (John Bond Esq. lived in Rawdon). Jane Dill may be another daughter of John Dill and Elizabeth Walker.

David, John and Mungo jointly purchased part of a property known as "Lot 57" in the town of St. Croix. The part they bought was 3/4 of a lot where the remaining part was owned by James Dill which he had purchased from James Riley on 6 Jan 1808. He may have been a son of John Dill. In a conveyance dated 3 November 1809, Mungo Dill of Falmouth, husbandman, and his wife Rachael sold his part and also his share of the 1000 acre grant to John Dill, Senr of Ardoise Hill, yeoman and David Dill, Senr of Georgefield. On 1 Jan 1810, John Dill, Senr of Ardoise Hill and his wife Elizabeth sold his share of Lot 57 to his son John Dill, Junr of the same place. One might guess from this that James and John Junr are sons of John but we have no other evidence to show that. David and John Dill Junr sold 190 acres to George Johnson and on 14 Nov 1811, John Junr and James each sold to George Mosher, James selling 145 acres and John selling 23 acres, both transactions being recorded on the same page in the deed register. (Bob Dill)

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

Land transfers from 1812 have been found between Timothy Johnson and Adam Johnson of Londonderry, on the one part, and John Dill and James Dill of Windsor, on the other part.

The most logical son for John Dill and Elizabeth Walker would seem to be John Dill, Jr., b. 1780, and if this is the John above, then it would also appear that he had a brother James.

John Dill married Sophia Beckwith (note: it is not Barker), marriage bond dated 16 Feb 1805 Halifax County, Daniel McCra witness. Based on the information below, it would appear that they went to Maryland sometime between 1820 and 1824 and on to Ohio before 1836.

Edward Dill b. 10 Apr 1814 Nova Scotia d. 31 Jan 1893 Blendon, Franklin, Ohio
William Dill b. 1817 Nova Scotia died 17 Oct 1895 Pak Mills, Franklin, Ohio

It would seem that all of the above - Daniel, David, John, Augustus, George, Edward* and William - are all sons of John Dill Jr. and Sophia Beckwith.

There is a story in the book "A Centennial Biographical History of the City of Columbus and Franklin County Ohio" about an outstanding citizen named Frank Dill of Blendon Township. Frank's grandfather was John, Jr. John and his wife (not named) were natives of Nova Scotia. John was a seafaring man who got enough money to buy his own boat but it was lost at sea so he lost all that he had acquired. He moved to Baltimore but on the way down, one of his two children died and was buried at sea. John took on the task of building an underground race for a mill and finished but his partner ripped him off. He built a mill and carried on a business. His commission men who handled his flour failed when heavily in debt to him and he suffered a great loss. He had saved enough to buy 100 acres in Mifflin Township, Franklin County, Ohio. He devoted all of his energy to agriculture and at his death he had $90,000. He had a son, Edward* who was born in Baltimore (Halifax, NS) about 1820 who married Jane Cooper. They were the parents of Frank.

Three more potential sons of John Dill and Elizabeth Walker are James, Alexander and Daniel.

There is a James Dill died 28 May 1867 in Aylesford, Kings Co. age 85 b. Ireland (1782). John and James Dill were involved in joint land transfers as above. Is this the right James?

Alexander Dill b. 1788 Nova Scotia Immigration Boston 1848, departing from Windsor, NS.
Alexander Dill b. 17 Jan 1788 d. 8 Sep 1877, bur Rose Hill Cemetery, Mason, Warren Co., Ohio.
Wife Julia Phillips 1807-1884. I'm not sure if this is the same Alexander, but the same birth year as the Nova Scotia Alexander, and the residence in Ohio would perhaps be clues.

Daniel C. Dill, b. Nova Scotia s/o Daniel and Ellen, died 1 Apr 1860 Boston aged 48, widowed, shipkeeper, bur. Cambridge, Mass.

Marriage Mar 12, 1840 Boston Daniel C. Dill to Sarah A. Holley

1855 census Boston Dill Daniel C. 41 (b. Nova Scotia) Sarah 40 b. NS, Mary 10 John 7

Nathaniel 5 Catherine 5 (all ch. b. Mass.)

1850 US census Boston Daniel 37 Sarah 36 Daniel 8, Mary 5 John 2

Daniel Dill b. 1842 d. 17 Jul 1851, s/o Daniel and Sarah

Nathaniel D. died 2 Jan 1872 age 19, s/o Daniel C. and Sarah A. Dill

So, Daniel Sr. would have been born at least 20 years before 1812, so of the same age as John Jr., James and Alexander above.

In Chapter 1, I referred to "The Dill Family History", by Thomas H. Dill, who was born 7 February 1839 in Kent County, Delaware, and died 9 March 1924 in Columbus, Ohio. His principal source was "Aunt Polly" Dill, widow of Abner Dill, with whom he spoke in 1865. She resided at that time on the old Dill farm in a house over two hundred years old. Following is some information as recorded by Thomas.

"The Dill family was of Scotch-Irish extraction. Three brothers William, Abner, and John were the first settlers. They were ship builders by trade and settled first in Nova Scotia, later moving to Delaware and Maryland. They came from Londonderry County, Ireland. The earliest land transfer on record for parts of the old Dill farm is dated 1705. William settled in Murderkill Neck, Kent County, Delaware, a few miles from Frederica. He married into the Barratt family."

Since John Jr. seems to have moved to Maryland and on to Ohio and likewise Alexander above moved to Ohio and Daniel above was referred to as a shipkeeper, is it possible in Aunt Polly's memory that these Dill's did come from Nova Scotia and were nearby to their Delaware relatives?

Finally, this is curious:

John Dill Jr in 1817 in the Acadian Recorder... JOHN DILL, Jr., d. 1817 in Londonderry Township, Colchester, NS, Can (Administrators of his Estate were MARY DILL, JAMES FLEMMING, JAMES DILL as per Acadian Recorder of September 1 1817).

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

Is this John Dill Sr. who married Elizabeth Walker? Why is he referred to as Jr.? Were his parents in fact John Dill and Mary Linscott? Is James Dill his son? And who is Mary Dill?

John Dill married Mary Lawrence 23 Feb 1814 Londonderry, NS (Long, Heather. Marriages in Nova Scotia). Is this John Sr. 2nd marriage after Elizabeth Walker died? If so, did he die three years later and his son James and 2nd wife Mary were executors?

From Allen Marble's "Deaths, Burials and Probate in Nova Scotia", Dill, John farmer d. 4 Jul 1815 Londonderry, kin Mary. Dill, John Jr. d 1 Sep 1817 Londonderry (as above).

Chapter 5

Miscellany

There are a number of Dill's in the Hants County records that are not yet placed into the families above. They may or may not be of the same family. I have documented them in this chapter, starting with the family of William Dill who married Catherine Brown. Other unconnected individuals follow after William's family.

HOWARD, Barbara Blanche (Morison) 1924 - 2012 On November 20, 2012, Barbara Howard passed away in the same manner as she lived her life - with smiles, strength, dignity, and surrounded by her loving family. Barbara was predeceased by her caring husband, Robert (Bob) Howard in 2010 and she is survived by her four daughters: Ann, Kathy, Susan and Janet. She is remembered by her sons-in-laws as well as her cherished grandchildren, great grandchildren, nephews, nieces and many valued friends. She is also remembered by her siblings, Jack Morison, Bruce Morison (Francis), sister Helen Wilcox (Jim) all of Windsor Nova Scotia and sister, Peggy Darroch in Petaluma, California. Barbara was born to Percy and Georgie Morison in Windsor, Nova Scotia on Oct. 31, 1924. Barbara, a telegraph operator met Bob when he was stationed in Nova Scotia while serving in the Canadian Navy during WW 2. They were married in 1945 and following their wedding travelled by train west and made their home in Duncan B.C. where they lived for 65 years. Over the years, Barbara maintained a strong connection to her birth province. She could find a Nova Scotian under any rock in B.C. through her keen interest in how people were connected. She would always discover that a person would have a cousin who had an uncle with a wife who had some connection to Nova Scotia! However, it was people she loved and she was interested in even if the maritime connection wasn't made because by then she was your friend. Barbara enjoyed contributing to many community organizations such as the Duncan United Church, Violet Lee Fellowship, Cowichan Valley Garden Club, Kinnette Club, and the Heart and Stroke Foundation. A generous, role model and respected community person, Barbara was an avid reader incredible cook, gardener and traveler who without hesitation opened her home to anyone with graciousness, friendliness and a good cup of tea. Barbara's family would like to thank the staff at Dove Hill in Chemainus, as well as her many friends who visited, phoned or sent cards to Barbara during her time there. We will be hosting a tea to celebrate Barbara's life in the Spring 2013 when the wild flowers stand above the grasses and mosses over Maple Bay... Barbara's favorite time of year! In lieu of flowers, if you wish, kindly donate to the Osteoporosis Society of Canada or the Heart and Stroke Foundation or a charity of your choice. In Barbara's words, "Toodle-loo!" We love you, Mom. #1, #2, #3, #4 and all of your family.

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

There are also several individual Dill's in the Windsor and Hants Co. records still unaccounted for:

- Rachel Dill married John Hinds 12 Nov 1811 {Long, Heather. Marriages in Nova Scotia; this is interesting as 35. Newton Dill and Rebecca Proctor named a son Joseph Hind Dill. I wonder if Rachel might have been a sister of Newton?}
- John Dill married Margaret Matthews Dec 12, 1807 Halifax NS. No further information given on the record. {I believe John Dill Jr., the son of John Dill Sr., married Sophia Beckwith in 1805, and they went to Ohio - see notes under John Dill Sr., Chapter 4. David had a son John who md. Rachel Smith in 1806. Robert had a son John who md. Elizabeth Dill. John could be a son of Mungo? Otherwise, this John remains unplaced, perhaps not of the same family.}
- Alexander Dill b. 1788 Nova Scotia Immigration Boston 1848, departing from Windsor, NS. {See note under John Dill Sr.}
- Alexander Dill, b. ca1800. He married Laura Cochran, daughter of George Cochran (1764-1834) and Mary Caldwell, of Windsor. {Likely referring to Alexander Dill, s/o Daniel, of Mungo, who md. Catherine Cochran.}

Dill Family of Nova Scotia

So it looks like a cluster of about the same age: Eleanor Rachel (b. 1804), William (b. 1812), Mary (bef. 1816), and Sarah (b. 1818). Some of them may be siblings. Who is their father? A son of John Sr., or Robert or Mungo?

Rebecca Dill, b. Aug 22, 1853, Windsor, dau. of George Dill and Rebecca Cochran. Joseph Alex. Gullan, Springhill, son. Jan 24, 1930 (late registration of birth, NSHVS). Daniel Gullan (W) 34 md Rebecca Dill (S) 24 d/o E. and Catherine 12 Aug 1876 Hantsport (NSHVS). {Is this Geo. b. 1813 s/o Mungo Jr.? See also Mungo-Daniel-Alexander. He md. Catherine Cochran and this could be their dau. Rebecca.
