Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

Preface

I will begin by saying that I am not a direct descendant of the Dillmans. My family ran the Stage Coach Inn and Post Office at Goffs, a little further along the Old Guysborough Road from Devon and Wyse Corner where the Dillmans settled. I have traced the genealogies of all the families from that area that I do descend from, including along maternal lines – Goff, Dickey, MacInnes, McDougall and McMullen. They are all available from my website, www.gofffamilyhistory.ca. That led me to researching the genealogies of several overlapping families from the Guysborough Road – Kellough, Kerr, Keys, McHeffey and McMichael, also available on the website above. And now to the Dillmans. There was also considerable overlap with McMullens and Dickeys, so I decided to go to the beginning with this family and pull together all of the available online records. This report is the result. It was a major task since there were large families and, unlike some of the other families above, many stayed in the area. Here are some numbers:

- Nova Scotia 1871 census - 47 Dillmans, all in Wyse Corner.
- Nova Scotia 1881 census - 79 Dillmans, all in Wyse Corner or Dartmouth..
- Nova Scotia 1891 census - 75 Dillmans
- Nova Scotia 1901 census - 69 Dillmans, all in Halifax County, 59 in Meaghers Grant/Wyse Corner, 10 in Dartmouth.
- Nova Scotia 1911 census - 120 Dillmans
- Nova Scotia 1921 census - 93 Dillmans
- In the Nova Scotia Historical Vital Statistics, Dillman: 83 births, 99 deaths, 67 brides and 62 grooms.

I concluded that all the Dillmans in the province were from this family. However, the following note from Victoria (Webber) Dickie in her Dillman genealogy contains a further detail, “During the process of researching the family tree of Hessian soldier Christopher Dillman at the Nova Scotia Public Archives the 1812 record of a marriage between Ann Dillman and Robert Henwood was found. Christopher Dillman’s family was thought to be the only family with the surname Dillman in the province at that time so it appeared that Ann must belong to that family. Thanks to family tree research done by Andrew Stillman, this information has been found to be a mistake. George Adam Dillman (son of Hans Dillman of Pennsylvania) settled at Parrsboro Nova Scotia at the end of the American War of Independence. Immediately the surname of his family changed from Dillman to Stillman. George Adam (Dillman) Stillman had at least 10 children and the only time that the surname “Dilman” appears again is on the document of the wedding of his daughter Ann.”

In my research I came across the Dillman Family Association, <https://dillmanfamilyassociation.org> And in their library I found the following:

I also saw this book in the catalogue at Library and Archives Canada,
All our yesterdays: a retrospective of family life in rural Hants County, Nova Scotia.

I have not accessed this book either.

Following the preparation of the first version of this document, I obtained a copy of the Dillman Genealogy, 2016-17, by Victoria (Webber) Dickie (#182 below). In this revision, I have included considerable data from her report. I do have an Appendix with a few Dillman names I have not been able to place within their appropriate family.

Any errors or additions are always welcome! Please contact me.

Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

First Generation

1. Christopher George Dillman, son of Johann Christof Dillman (1710-) & Christina Diefenbach (1714-). Born in Jul 1752 in Bad Schwalbach, Hesse, Germany. Christopher George died in Meaghers Grant, NS, in 1848; he was 95.

Christopher was a Hessian soldier who deserted the Hessian army, either before it left England or before it left Nova Scotia to return to Europe, and joined the 84th Royal Highland Rgt. After being discharged in Halifax, he settled on a claim adjacent to Martin Meagher's Grant, N.S. and married Margaret McDougall, sister of a Captain in his Rgt, Alexander McDougall (Flo Dickey information).

Chris. enlisted in Hannau Artillery 4/1776. Listed as deserter 5/1776. On 3 Sept 1776, he enlisted in Capt Neil MacLean's Company of the *4th Royal Highland Regt. The above per NS Archives. Reputedly, he changed units in England and fought in New York with the 84th, being discharged at Dartmouth, NS (Jim Dillman correspondence, 11 Feb 2000).

From Frances Wilcox (great, great-granddaughter, via Roland Dunbrack, dunbrack.org): "The first Dillman in Nova Scotia was a soldier taken from his vineyard in Hesse by officers who "sold" boys to the King of England to fight in the Revolutionary War. Two of his brothers were taken at the same time, and the shock of losing her boys was so great that their mother died. His name was Christopher Jacob Dillman, and he was 21 years old when taken from Germany. After the war ended, he was able to contact his family in Hesse and he learned that his mother had died. He was never able to find either of the brothers who came to America when he did. Christopher's brother Ludwig, returned to Germany. This first Christopher was given a land grant of 400 acres on the shores of the Musquodoboit Harbor. With the overpopulated conditions in Hesse, this land grant was really a big thing. Christopher married a little black-eyed Scotch lassie named Margaret McDougall from Glasgow. He was a blond, blue-eyed German with curly hair, 6'2" in height. She never weighed more than 95 pounds. They had 18 children, of whom there were able to raise only 8. Christopher gave his land grant to his son Christopher, his 17th child, after he was no longer able to take care of the large acreage, in exchange for a home for their old age."

Christopher's father Johann Dillmann, farmer, married Christina Elisabetha Diefenbach in the Reform Church Langenschwalbach, Hess in 1735. They had eleven children, all baptized in that church. Frances Wilcox, great great granddaughter of Christopher visited his ancestral home in the Rhine Valley of Germany and studied the family records of the Reform church where he was baptized. He was baptized in July 1752.

Halifax Co Land Grants Index Sheet #74, Old 758, Bk 19, p123 shows grants to :
Christopher Dillman, 300 acres adjacent Beaver Lake and Alexander Dillman , 300 acres adjacent to Christopher and Dollar Lakes, both adjoining Meagher's Grant.

Christopher Dillman 1827 census Musquodoboit, 3 males, 2 females in the household.
Christopher Dillman 1838 census Lower Musquodoboit, 1 in the family.

I had several exchanges of information in 2000 with James E Dillman, Ocala, FL. His line of Dillmans is:
Johann Christof (1710 Ger- ?)
Christopher (I) George (1752 Ger- 1848 Meagher' Gr.) & Margaret
Christopher (II) (1806 M.G. - 1883 MN)
George Christopher (1851 M.G. - 1918 MN)
Edwin Kennedy (1889 MN- 1958 MN)
James Edwin (1923 MN- Still kickin')

Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

He wrote "What amazes me is the age spread between generations. I'm only 5 degrees away from old Johann! Our firstborn, Jim, Jr was born in 1953, keeping up the spread. He lives here in FL and we have a daughter in Columbus, OH. The other thing is that, while Chris (I) was German, he and his kin married Scots ladies down to my Dad, who switched to Irish, so I'm half Irish, 7/16ths Scottish and only 1/16th German with a German name." James Edwin Dillman, 26 Jan 1923 - 20 Apr 2014, bur. Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell, Sumter Co., FL.

Dillman children in the Halifax Co. School Register of 1834: Alexander, Daniel, Jacob (II), John, Christopher (III), Catherine, Daniel, Burke, Duncan, Susan, Edwina, Alfred, Samuel. (NS Archives, information from Jim Dillman).

Alexander is probably Louis', b. 1827, so 7 years old. Daniel, Jacob, John and Catherine are Jacob's. They would have been ages 12, 10, 5 and 7. Christopher, Jacob's son b. 1819 might still have been in school, age 15. Christopher Jr.'s children are all too young to be in school in 1834. So who are Daniel, Burke, Duncan, Susan, Edwina, Alfred and Samuel? They must have been children of John b. 1792 or Alexander b. 1794. I have no further record of them. Note that Jacob's son Daniel and his wife Susan had children named Daniel, Duncan, Burke, Susan, Edwina and Alfred. I have to assume that Jim's information was correct, I have not seen the original document at NS Archives.

On 19 Oct 1786 when Christopher George was 34, he married Margaret MacDougal, daughter of John MacDougal (see family on following page), in St. Georges, Halifax. Born in 1765. Margaret died in Meaghers Grant, Hfx. Co., NS, in 1838; she was 73.

Sister of Alexander MacDougal and Catherine (MacDougall) Dunbrack. Christopher Dillman and Alexander MacDougall served in the same unit of the Second Battalion of the Royal Highland Regiment, commanded by Colonel Small. In 1802, Dillman and John Dunbrack, husband of Catherine MacDougall, bought 3 acres "upon the Musquodoboit River in Martin Meagher's Grant, on the east side of the river bound on the north by Dunbrack's." The Dunbracks and Dillmans lived closely together for many years. (dunbrack.org)

They had the following children:

Family of John MacDougal (1)

There may be a connection between the Meaghers Grant McDougalls and the Blue Mountain, Pictou Co., McDougalls.

1. Alexander MacDougal (John¹). Born in 1755. Buried in Pioneer Cemetery, Middle Musquodoboit, NS.

Alexander MacDougal, b. Scotland 1765, served in the 2nd Battalion of 84th Regiment of Foot starting in 1775. He received two grants, one at Meaghers Grant and one at Little River (Elderbank). He brought his parents to live on the second grant. Alexander had two brothers, whom may have gone to Ontario, and sisters Catherine, m. to John Dunbrack, Sarah, m. to Mr. McIntosh, Mr. Bacon, and John Dunbrack after the death of Catherine, and Margaret, m. to Christopher Dillman. Alexander m. Catherine MacDonald of Kennetcook, and had children John, m. to Nancy MacInnes, Alexander, m. to Hannah Dickey and Phoebe Hamilton, Daniel (1794-1802), Elizabeth, m. Hon. Wm. McKeen, Catherine, m. David Dickey, Dougall, m. Mary Parker, Janet, m. Benjamin Smith, William, Nancy, m. David Fisher, and Grace, m. James Bruce. This information from Flo Dickey, Tucson, AZ, Jennie Reid, and other sources.

In 1789 when Alexander was 34, he married Catherine MacDonald, daughter of Angus MacDonald (-1802) & Catherine MacLeod (1731-1813). Born ca 1773. Buried in Pioneer Cemetery, Middle Musquodoboit, NS.

Death date of 23 Oct 1858 at Tufts Cove from familysarch, although that is contradicted by information from Vickie (Webber) Dickie, below.

John Dillman (second son of Pioneers Christopher and Margaret Dillman) was born in Nova Scotia ca 1795. John obtained from his father part of the original Dillman land grant. As per a deed dated July 14, 1823 (he would then be age ca 28), John sold this 150 acre lot to Peter Ogilvie. The next bit of information on John Dillman is in the 1840 census of Maine U.S.A: Household of John Dillman – 1 male age between 40-50, 1 female age between 40-50, 2 males age 5-9, 1 male age 15-19, 1 female age 5-9, 1 female age 15-19. Census of East Machias Washington County Maine 1850: John Dillman age 55 born Nova Scotia, Wife - Ester age 50 born Maine, Children - John L Dillman age 9, Mary Jane Dillman age 9 (twin of John L), Francis Dillman age 5. As per the 1850 census, John and family were living on a farm working about 50 acres. They had two oxen, three head of cattle and seven sheep. Living next door to them were John's nephews Christopher and John Cole from Nova Scotia.

In Washington County Maine District Court Sept 1, 1840, John Dillman and Oliver Crocker are defendants in a case involving debt (case dismissed). That would indicate however that he had been in Maine for some time before that. The ages of his young children in 1850 do not match the ages of any of the people in the 1840 household. Perhaps Ester had been married before and they were her first family?

The last record for John Dillman is the 1860 census where he is listed as age 63.

John married Esther. Born in 1801. Esther died in Aug 1860; she was 59. Buried in Cole Cemetery, East Machias, Maine.

They had the following children:

- 15
 - i. John Loring (Twin) (23 Apr 1842-Feb 1908)
 - ii. Mary Jane (Twin). Born on 23 Apr 1842 in East Machias, Maine.

Mary J worked as a domestic servant in households in Maine until 1900 when she married Edward Harrison at Lincoln Maine. From a church record in Maine archives: Sarah E Dillman b Oct 1867 - Parent Mary Jane Dillman.

- iii. Francis (Died as Child). Born on 13 Sep 1845 in East Machias, Maine. Francis died in May 1860; he was 14.

4. Alexander Dillman (*Christopher George*¹). Born in 1794.

From Victoria (Webber) Dickie,

Information found on the internet in 2014 led to the question - Did Christopher and Margaret have a son Alexander? There was no awareness of this Alexander in the local Meaghers Grant history at that time. The area around Chipman, New Brunswick was a lumbering community first settled by Irish people in the early 1800s. In the 1861 census of Chipman there was an Alexander Dilmon born in Nova Scotia – about 50 years of age. He would have been born ca 1811. He appeared again on the 1871 census of Chipman N.B. Family members continuing from then on have been researched through Ancestry.com. Through Ancestry DNA connection in 2017 it was shown that one of his descendants is in the range of a fifth or sixth cousin to a Dillman descendant in Meaghers Grant.

On November 4th ,1910 at Lancaster New Hampshire David Dillman married Sarah Whipp. His age varies from one document to another but by average he was born ca 1866. Also his place of birth varies as well - Canada - New Brunswick - or Maine? At his wedding he gives his place of birth as Canada and his fathers name as Alexander Dillman, deceased, and his mothers name as Rachel, deceased. In Alexander Dillman's household in Chipman, New Brunswick in 1871 there was a boy named David, of Irish decent, born in New Brunswick, age given as 7. Was David a family member or was he someone taken in by the family and later used the name Dillman for himself? David Dillman had a son William Dillman who died in California in 1989 and a son Robert Ellsmere Dillman born New Hampshire and married in California in 1938. David Dillman died Nov 1933 at Brighthook Hospital Vermont.

Alexander married Jane.

8. Lewis Dillman (Christopher George¹). Born in 1802 in Meaghers Grant, Halifax Co., NS.

Lewis had an Uncle Ludwig Dillman in Germany.

Marriage solemnized in the parish of St. Pauls in the county of Halifax, Nova Scotia: "Lewis Dillman, bachelor, of Musquodoboit and Jane McKenzie of Cole Harbour were married in this parish by banns this twelfth day of April, 1826 by me – Robert Willis, Rector"

Children: Kenneth, Christopher, Alexander (Jim Dillman information)

In March, 1838 Lewis Dillman received a deed to two hundreds acres of land "Beginning at the Meadow Brook" and being on the westerly side of Meadow Brook (to the west side of the Musquodoboit River.) This was known for generations as the property "over the meadows." The fact was known from the very early time of the settling of Meaghers Grant that there was a valuable deposit of lime on that property.

Alexander Dillman (1827-1904), son of Lewis Dillman and Jane McKenzie, married Jennie Cole (1823-1906) and had son Thomas (1856-1936) who married Victoria Conley (1867-1957), the parents of Jennie Dillman who married Horris Douglas Steward McMullen.

Note from Victoria (Webber) Dickie, "Male child (third son of Lewis and Jane) on 1851 census of household of Lewis and Jane Dillman. He was age between 10 and 20 years in 1851. He was not on their 1861 census. Could this have possibly been Jeremiah Dillman who enlisted in the Maine 7th Infantry at Augusta Maine in August 1861? He gives his birth date as 1840 and states that he was born in Nova Scotia and his mother and father were born in Nova Scotia."

From the Hennepin County Pioneers Association, dated Nov 1978:

DILLMAN, Christopher (1806-1883) and Catherine (Dunbrack) (1812-1896) Dillman headed a family migrating to Minnesota also. They settled in what is now southern Medina on Dillman Lake east of Lake Katrina. He was one of the founders of the old Medina Presbyterian Church and Elder. Years later when the Grove Center school was established (now part of Orono Consolidated) it was often referred to as Dillman School. What is known now as Homestead Trail (County Road #201) will still be called Dillman Road by oldtimers for years to come.

In 1832 when Christopher was 25, he married Catherine Dunbrack, daughter of James Dunbrack (1787-1877) & Jane McLeod (1790-ca 1814). Born on 10 Feb 1812 in Musquodoboit, NS. Catherine died in Marshall, MN, on 12

Jul 1896; she was 84.

From Frances Wilcox (great-granddaughter):

Catherine must have had an unusually strong character. It was the Scotch women who were the original "Scotch covenanters". Both Catherine and her mother-in-law Margaret McLeod can be given credit that their husbands and children were devout Christians.

She was a wonderful homemaker and even in the new homes to which Christopher took her she kept her standards. Willard Dillman was impressed with her white tablecloths and cheerful candlelit kitchen. She always had a warm welcome for the men of the family when they came in from work -- good food with wonderful home-baked bread and the butter she churned. In the morning the family had prayers after reading a chapter from the Bible. In fact, Willard as a youngster of 4 or 5 was so eager to learn to read that he used that Bible as his source of learning.

That Catherine and her husband lived to a ripe old age in an era when life expectancy was 18 years speaks well for their prudence as well as their good luck, and the protection of the Almighty, whom they trusted and prayed to daily -- hourly, probably.

Mama loved both Christopher and Catherine, and told me a great deal about them. In an age when the Minnesota wilderness was filled with atheistic Germans, heavy drinking woodsmen, and Indians on the warpath, it meant everything to a young girl, growing up and longing for the better things of life, that her grandparents loved and worshiped God and trusted Him for their daily protection.

It had been very hard for Catherine to leave so many of her family in Nova Scotia --- brothers and sisters, and daughter Eliza Yuill. She had Mama write letters for her, unable to do it herself because she wept when she tried. Eliza had four children: Martha Ellen Yuill Crowe, Zuie Yuill Black, a daughter who married a Nelson, and Arthur Yuill's father.

They had the following children:

s/o Benjamin and Louise (NSHVS Marriages)

Alberta, Past and Present, Historical and Biographical. Vol 2. Frank W. Russell

Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

Following in the professional footsteps of his father, Frank W. Russell has chosen the practice of law as his life work and has proven a worthy son of a distinguished sire. He has been a resident of Vegreville for the past twelve years and is the oldest practicing barrister in the town. He was born near Halifax, Nova Scotia, October 16, 1873, and is a son of Hon. Benjamin and Louise (Coleman) Russell, both natives of that province. The father was graduated in law from Dalhousie University and has devoted his life to the legal profession, practicing in the city of Halifax, in which he is widely and favorably known. He is an eminent jurist, presiding over the supreme court of Nova Scotia, and in governmental affairs he has also played all important part. In 1896 he was elected a member of parliament from Halifax, serving until 1900, and in that year was chosen to represent Hants, Nova Scotia, in that legislative body, continuing in office until 1904. During his younger days he was official reporter of the assembly and he was also reporter of the supreme court of Nova Scotia. To Judge and Mrs. Russell were born eight children, seven of whom survive. Of these four are living in this province, namely: A. H., a barrister and solicitor of Red Deer; B. Wy., who resides in Calgary and is doing engineering work for the government; Mrs. E. B. Roach of Calgary; and Frank W. After completing his public school training Frank W. Russell became a student in the law department of Dalhousie University, finishing his course in 1894. He then went to the States and took postgraduate work in law at Cornell University at Ithaca, New York, leaving that institution in 1895, well equipped for his profession. Entering his father's office in Halifax, he became a member of the firm of Russell & Ross, with which he was connected until 1902, when he went to Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, and opened an office. He remained in practice there for eight years and throughout that period acted as town magistrate, while for a time he also served as assistant reporter of the supreme court of Nova Scotia. In 1910 he came to this province, selecting Vegreville as the scene of his professional activities, and he has had no reason to regret his choice, for a liberal clientele has been accorded him. He is well versed in all branches of jurisprudence and conducts his law business with ability, carefully preparing his cases and presenting them with clearness and force.

Mr. Russell married Miss Elvie R. Dillman, a native of Nova Scotia, and they have become the parents of eight children, the firstborn being Marjorie L., who is a graduate nurse. The others are: Norma, Mary, William B., Hugh Al., Barbara Al., Bruce D. and Jean. Mr. Russell has always taken a keen interest in civic affairs, being particularly, active in promoting the cause of education, and from 1913 until 1922 was a member of the Vegreville Board of Education. He is identified with the Masonic order and exemplifies in his life the beneficent teachings of the craft. He possesses a keen mentality and is fitted by natural ability and by training for the legal profession, in which he has gained a gratifying measure of success. However, his interests are not confined to the law and he is recognized as a broad-minded, public-spirited citizen, whose influence is at all times on the side of progress, reform and improvement.

From the West Hennepin County Pioneers Association, dated Nov. 1978: The James Dillman family left their mark around Long Lake until this day. The farm ownership descended to son SOLON who married Ethel Archibald. Fronted with a long row of giant elm trees it was a showplace dairy farm for years until their son David sold out in 1968. In turn their son James Dillman represents the family here. Both generations are life members of our museum. Considered a daring adventure at the time, nevertheless James in 1874 joined a covered wagon caravan that headed for the black Hills (and Fraser River eventually), looking for gold. When he came back he was considered wealthy as he bought a new cutter, a team of horses, and a new fur coat and furthermore wooed his bride, and so they married and built a substantial house which is still standing on the old homestead.

On 3 Mar 1870 when James Dunbrack was 33, he married Mary Ellen Brown in St. Anthony, MN. Born on 6 Nov 1844 in Indiana. Mary Ellen died in Maple Grove, Hennepin, MN, on 26 Feb 1923; she was 78.

James Ladenburg who had suffered a long illness, died at the Tracy Hospital, January 24. The funeral was held at the Middleton Funeral Home on Wednesday afternoon with Rev. S.L. Hammond, pastor of the Federated Church, in charge of the service. James Dillman Ladenburg was born at Long Lake, Minnesota, December 26, 1867. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. G.P. Ladenburg who came to Lyon County in 1872. They took a homestead a few miles east of Marshall where James grew to manhood. Mr. Ladenburg farmed the home place until about 1920 when he bought a home in Marshall where he has lived since that time. For about thirteen years Mr. Ladenburg worked for the Marshall School Board, serving as janitor. In 1902 James Ladenburg was married to Laura E. Story who died in 1923. On June 17, 1925, Mr. Ladenburg and Miss Leona D. Watkins were married at Pendleton, Oregon. Mr. Ladenburg was a member of the Presbyterian church, and served for several years recently as a trustee in the Federated Church. He was devoted to his home and his church, and was faithful in church attendance as long as his health permitted. Mr. Ladenburg is survived by his wife and a sister, Mrs. R.B. Wilcox, of Racine, Missouri, who was formerly Mrs. O.F. Woodard of Marshall. A brother, George. Two sisters: May, Mrs. J.J. Wickersheim and Eva, Mrs. W.J. Morgan, preceded him in Excelsior Editor Dies. Slight, white-haired Willard Dillman walked into his office at Excelsior promptly on Tuesday at 7AM as he had every day since Aug. 1, 1902. That was the day he took over the weekly Minnetonka Record as a young man of 28. This particular Tuesday was a special day. Some of his friends had told him they were getting together for a luncheon in his honor. Mr. Dillman had a lot to do before the luncheon. He already had turned out his homespun column, "Rambler's Notations" and now he put his beloved editorial page together. Around noon, Mr. Dillman left the Record's one-storey, white-shingled office for the Sampson House, two blocks away. The luncheon fell on a regular Rotary day, Mr. Dillman was a charter member. When he sold the Record a month ago to young George DuToit of Chaska, the group's members, all good friends of his, had decided "we ought to do something for him". Mr. Dillman wanted to present the pen with which he had written his editorials for 30 years to his successor. As he handed it to DuToit, he said he knew "George would never write anything with that he doesn't believe." Then he sat down. When the meeting adjourned Mr. Dillman rose smiling as his friends pressed toward him to shake his hand. But he got only part way up. Then he slumped back into his chair. Gentle Willard Dillman was dead of a heart attack.

On 3 Jan 1899 when Willard Fleming was 26, he first married Ravina Halverson in Iowa County, Wisconsin. Born on 2 Apr 1863 in Dodgeville, WI. Ravina died in Hennepin, MN, on 6 Jan 1938; she was 74.

Leighton Dillman Park is part of the Dartmouth Common, greenspace that was set aside shortly after Dartmouth was founded in 1750, following the medieval English practice that ensured livestock could be fed. The Common’s boundaries were Park Avenue (what was then the rear of the new town), along Victoria Road, down Boland Road and back to the shoreline. Around 1840, the northwest section of the Common was subdivided and laid out into streets to accommodate Dartmouth’s growth. Early trails across the Common became Windmill Road, Shore Road and School Street and later, Fairbanks Street. John Leighton Dillman (1897-1988) was the park’s volunteer gardener for 25 years.

On 14 Sep 1927 when John “Leighton” was 29, he married Mary Alma Smith in Dartmouth, NS. Born on 25 Jun 1904 in Newellton, Cape Sable Island, Shelburne, Nova Scotia. Mary Alma died in Dartmouth, NS, on 5 Dec 2003; she was 99.

Not located in 1891 or 1911 census.

According to “History Along the Old Guysborough Road”, she also had a son Frank Doyle, b. 1884.

Charlotte “Jane” first married Peter Doyle. Born in 1829. Peter died in Guysborough Road, Halifax Co., NS, on 15 Oct 1887; he was 58.

1881 census Wyse’s Corner Doyle Peter 52 (W) Peter Sr. 88 (W) b. Ireland James 47 (single).

The story of Peter Doyle’s murder is recorded in History Along the Old Guysborough Road, by Noreen Gray and Annie (Blois) Smith, 1987.

On the morning of Oct. 15, 1887, Peter Doyle, 57, had arisen early and accompanied by his hired man, William Preeper, alias Arnold, age 19, had seen to the morning chores. After that the two men returned to the house for breakfast. In the house were Jane, Peter’s wife, age 25, Maurice, Jane’s son age 7, and Frank, the son of both the Doyle’s, age 3. Doyle dressed for Church and walked to Miller’s farm where a circuit priest from Enfield was conducting mass. After the service he headed home. On the next day, Doyle’s wife Jane and her two children arrived at the Ledwidge farm to report that Doyle had gone hunting after he returned from Church and had not returned home. After a search lasting three days, Doyle’s body was finally found on a track towards Horseshoe Lake by John E. MacDonald and Kenneth Dillman, still dressed in his Church clothes. He had been shot in the back at close range. The Halifax Police Dept. was dispatched to the Guysborough Road. After an investigation, Jane Doyle and William Preeper were arrested and charged with murder. It was thought that they were having an affair. Emily Dillman, Jane’s sister and Morris Doyle, her 7-year old son, both were able to give damning evidence against them. Following a lengthy and very public trial, including appeals to both the Nova Scotia Supreme Court and the Supreme Court of Canada, Jane Doyle was found not guilty but William Preeper was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged, then commuted to life imprisonment. However, a Royal visit in 1891 to Nova Scotia by future King George V, then Prince of Wales, resulted in a pardon being granted to Preeper, amenity for record of good conduct. Preeper was a free man. Upon his acquittal William Preeper left Nova Scotia for the black hills of Dakota. Jane Doyle married a retired British Army Sergeant in 1890. They took up residence in Sydney, NS where they operated a tavern for many years.

The accused was William Preeper, aka William Arnold. Son of Bridget Preeper before her marriage to George Arnold, and grandson of William John Preeper and Matha Peveril. Mary Dillman, Jane’s sister, was married to Lewis Dillman purchased the original Thomas Gotobed property. Thomas Gotobed came to Halifax on the brig, "Flora", in 1832. With him were his wife and family including his eldest daughter, Rebekah, by a former marriage. His ventures in Halifax were not too successful, and he later bought a farm in Musquodoboit. Their farm was located on the Old Guysborough Road, just past Dollar Lake. He died in 1839 at age 42 as a result of a fall from his horse. His wife and her daughters returned to England. Rebekah remained in Nova Scotia and later married Hugh McMullen. According to "History Along the Old Guysborough Road", by Noreen Gray and Annie (Blois) Smith, 1987, after Gotobed's death the farm was purchased by William Stairs, a partner of the Halifax firm Wm. Stairs Son and Morrow. Mr. Stairs developed the land, building large barns for which the cement foundations are still visible (1987). Though the Stairs family resided in Halifax, they spent many pleasant weekends on the Guysborough Road farm. Arriving in a coach driven by four horses they made somewhat of an impression on the local inhabitants. By 1900 the Stairs family seem to have lost interest in their country estate and it was sold to Lewis Dillman. Lewis and his wife Cass (nee Andrews) raised 13 children here. Mr. Dillman operated a shingle mill and it was while thus employed he suffered an accident which ended his life. His widow later sold the farm to a large logging firm and spent her remaining years in Lantz.

George Dillman, Goffs, Guysborough Rd., son, informant (NSHVS deaths). Cause of death - traumatic amputation of arm, shock due to hemorrhage.

Marvin E. Dillman, who had operated Dillman's Sand Lake Lodge near Lac du Flambeau for more than 40 years, died this morning after a long illness. Mr. Dillman was a former school principal at Lac du Flambeau and a former assemblyman for Oneida, Vilas and Forest Counties.

"Dillman's has been a landmark on White Sand Lake in Lac du Flambeau for well over half a century." Joyce Laabs, Lakeland Times. Marvin and Peg Dillman bought the resort from Peg's parents in 1934. It has been operated by their daughters and their husbands for many years. The resort has seen changes, yet it still meets the vacationing public's changing needs in a classic vacation paradise. The family has been welcoming guests to the ever popular family vacation amenities such as, four beaches, a marina for a variety of water sports on crystal clear White Sand Lake, tennis courts, children's playground, picnic grounds, nearby golf and plenty of space to relax.

When the resort was initially purchased it included a hotel, 13 buildings, 35 acres and 1500 feet of frontage on White Sand Lake. Peg and Marvin Dillman were married at Dillman's on June 1, 1935. Dillman's started as a boy's camp, but the plans (including not enough time to promote it and prepare for a boy's camp) didn't work out. Luckily Peg and Marvin were able to rent the main hotel and several cabins during that first summer to tourists, and Dillman's Sand Lake Lodge had its beginnings. The next several years brought many improvements (including indoor plumbing, electricity...).

In 1939, tragedy struck in the form of fire. An apartment in the back of the hotel had an unattended fire in the fireplace, a log rolled out and the fire started. There was no phone, so they had to drive the mile and a half to the nearest phone at the Lac du Flambeau Depot to call the Fire Department., by the time they arrived the main lodge was destroyed and they were only able to save the outer buildings. Over the next 53 years there were obviously many changes to the resort and many, many memories that families created at Dillman's. In 1992, there was yet another large fire that consumed the main lodge. In 1993 a new main lodge was built in the same exact spot.

TALBOT, Harriet Alberta (Potter) - 88 of Central Onslow passed away July 2, 2010, in Colchester Regional Hospital, Truro. Born in Clementsvale she was the daughter of the late Jennie and Willis Potter. Harriet was a veteran of the 2nd World War and served with the CWAC. Following the war she worked at Cornwallis where she met her late husband, Cecil Talbot. Their marriage was blessed with three children. Son, Philip (Juanita) Talbot, of Central Onslow and sons, Matthew and Travis, Daughter, Sandra (Richard) Sampson of Bridgetown and her stepdaughters Joanne, Lynn and Tammy; Son, John (Roxanne) Talbot of Georgetown, Ontario and son Dylan. She is also survived by one great grandson Vander, and one step great grandson Kyle. She was predeceased by granddaughters Gwendolyn and Catherine. Harriet enjoyed the support and love of a close knit family including surviving sister Edith (Berry) Thompson of Bedford and her late sisters Glendean Young, Gladys White, Greta Walker, Louise Selig and late brother Robert Potter. Harriet enjoyed the change each season brought. Happiness for her was tending her gardens, picking mayflowers and berries, especially blueberries. She was a great cook and recycled long before it was the trend. Harriet loved keeping in contact with family and friends, her long distance phone plan was well used. She kept her mind active reading and doing crossword puzzles and her hands nimble with knitting mittens and socks.

Doris E. (Swanson) Lebel, 72, of Panama City, Fla., departed as she had requested with quality and dignity in her home surrounded by her family. She battled her illness with great strength and courage for many months until succumbing to untreatable cancer. She was a member of St. Dominic's Catholic Church, and served as Eucharistic Minister, Scripture Reader, and volunteered in the church bookstore. Doris was born in Somerville, MA on February 18, 1940 to Charles and Helene Dillman. She graduated from Somerville High School in 1958, and married her first husband, George Swanson in 1959. Later, she attended Middlesex Community College where she graduated with honors. Her nursing degree allowed her to be qualified in many vocations, including burn unit, critical care and pediatrics. She was a Head Nurse for an Alzheimer's unit, and also worked with mentally impaired patients and veterans. She was attacked by one of her patients receiving injuries that attributed to her being disabled. Doris was extremely passionate about volunteering. After marrying Arthur Lebel in 1986, she relocated to Tyndall Air Force Base where she provided her nursing skills freely. She worked as a volunteer at the base hospital, as well as the American Red Cross. On many occasions, she assisted with blood donations and reported the initial HIV information to base personnel. She was talented in arts and crafts, and loved to sew and stitch embroider. Doris enjoyed baking desserts such as her famous cookies that she would share with everyone because she had a heart of gold. She also enjoyed the Knights of Columbus, and supported her husband who was a 4th Degree. She dearly loved each and every one of her endeavors. Doris' life took her to many places around the world, and greatly enhanced her husband's military and Civil Service career with her abilities to be a hostess and event coordinator and strategic planner. For her efforts, Doris received accolades and citations for her partnership in many out-standing achievements which include a Presidential Citation from President Bill Clinton. Doris is survived by her husband of 26 years, Arthur P. Lebel; her children, Beth Clougherty of Ft. Myers, Fla., Heidi McNair of Nashua, NH, Brian Swanson of Gardner, MA, Lynda Lebel of Lilburn, GA, Debra Lebel of Woodstock, GA, and Lora Lebel and Wanda Jordan, both of Panama City, Fla.; and her grandsons, Matt Clougherty and Andrew Clougherty, both of Tewksbury, MA and Casey

MacLean, J. Dillman, CMA. It is with heavy hearts that the family announces the passing of John Dillman MacLean, age 93, of Dartmouth. Dill passed away peacefully on May 14, 2022 in Parkland At The Lakes Enriched Care Unit after a lengthy journey with Alzheimer's. Born in Sydney Mines, he was the son of the late Alexander and Gladys (Dillman) MacLean. Besides his parents, he is predeceased by his wife Jean (McIver) and brother Stanley. Dill moved to Dartmouth, NS in 1941 and made lifelong friendships. He felt fortunate to live in the then small town of Dartmouth, but like many Cape Bretoners, he never forgot his roots and revisited the Island on a regular basis. Prior to his illness, Dill was an active member of St. Clement's Catholic Church, including working with the St. Vincent de Paul society for many years. His faith was an integral part of his life and was reflected in the way he lived. He had a passion for golf and spent many hours on the course at Brightwood. He also enjoyed participating in the Brightwood Bowling League. While raising his family in Bel Ayr Park, he started the Bel Ayr Baseball school, sharing his knowledge and skills with the neighborhood children, something we all enjoyed. He loved to travel and took the opportunity to take several trips after retirement. Dill was kind, caring, respectful and compassionate. He always had a moment to stop and speak to everyone he met. Prior to his illness, he could be seen walking daily throughout Dartmouth, stopping to talk with people along the way. His love for his family was all encompassing, celebrating all of our joys and providing unconditional love throughout our lives. His love for Jean was inspirational. He is survived by his children, Ann (Scott) of Bible Hill, NS, Michael (Suzanne) of Kentville, NS, and Stephen of Seaforth, NS, four grandchildren Emily, Rileigh, Chris and Seth, and several nieces and nephews.

Obituary of Wilfred Anthony Dillman

It is with gratitude for a life generously and lovingly lived, that we announce Wilfred Anthony Dillman passed away on September 8, 2017 in Dartmouth General Hospital. He was born in Wyse's Corner on June 27, 1929. He was the son of the late William and Ena (Barron) Dillman. He was employed with DREA Dockyard Lab as a Senior Industrial Radiographer. His journey with heart disease forced an early retirement. He served as Clerk of Session at United Memorial Church in Halifax and Woodlawn United Church in Dartmouth as well as many boards and committees at various levels of the church. Some of his happiest years were the 7 years he spent as Lay Assistant to the ministers of Woodlawn United Church where he was involved in administrative tasks, pastoral care and social outreach. He was also involved with the First Presbyterian Church in Zephyrhills, Florida. Wilfred enjoyed square dancing in Dartmouth and Zephyrhills. He loved his vegetable gardens and spending time at the cottage in Pugwash. He was known as a 'sharp' card player and a great hugger. Wilfred is survived by his wife of 61 years, Joyce (Tupper), daughter Janet (Stephen Sollows), Yarmouth and son Paul (Elizabeth Bryce), Ottawa. He was very proud of his six grandchildren Jennie (Nicholas), Emily, Steen, Ruth, Rebekah and Luke. - iv. Jean Margaret. Born on 28 Nov 1926 in Enfield, NS. Jean Margaret died on 17 Sep 2021; she was 94.

Jean Margaret Fraser of the Northumberland Veterans Unit Pictou, formerly of Trenton, November 28, 1926 – September 17, 2021. Blessed with her presence for 94 years, Jean Margaret Fraser passed away peacefully on Friday, September 17th, knowing she was deeply loved by all of those who knew her. Born November 28, 1926 in Enfield, Nova Scotia, she was a daughter of the late Alfred and Margaret (Reynolds) Dillman. Nan was honoured to enroll in the army and proudly became a transport driver during WWII with the Canadian Women's Army Corps (CWAC). It was during this time she met and later married the love of her life, after which, she raised her children. She then returned to the workforce, this time in the circulation department with the Evening News in New Glasgow. Her love of fashion and "bling" led to her time spent working at K-Mart, where she was a bugger for the "blue light special," and you would never catch her without her lipstick, even all these years later. Prior to retirement, she was employed as a custodian by the Pictou District School Board, where she took great pride in knowing she played a hand in looking after the students, as children always had her heart, and spent many years as a proud member of the Ladies Auxiliary RCL Branch 34, as well as the First United Church in Trenton. Lovingly left with memories of many Christmas mornings around the tree are her sons, Danny (Juanita), Robert "Sonny" (Tana), daughters, Patricia (Fred), and Robin, as well as her grandchildren, Amanda (Mike), James "JB", Jeff (Shannon), Weldon (Ben), Cheyenne (Jonah), Robert (Lindsay), Andrew (Trish), and Shannon (Charlie), who will always remember banging the pots and pans on New Year's Eve. She will also be missed by her adoring great-grandchildren, Emma, Keegan, Ben, Reid, Laine, Colt, Sonya, Meredith, Audrey, Caleb, Riley, Nash, Lucas and Hannah, who deeply loved their Great Nana "Jeans," as well as sisters, Hazel Chickness, June Dollarhide and brother, Wilfred (Ida), many nieces, nephews and cousins, including her special niece, Jeanne, and caring neighbour, Carmen. Waiting to welcome her, along with her loving husband of 61 years, Herbert "Skipper" Fraser, will be her parents and her sisters, Evelyn, Ida and Violet, as well as her brother, Basil, son-in-law, Carl, brother-in-law, Robert "Bud," sister-in-law, Myrtle (Kaiser), sister-in-law Marjorie (Ted), and Burt. Those who knew Nan knew she always had a pot of tea on, a meal, and a warm bed should you need it. They also knew her as a spitfire who loved fast cars with the roof down, the Montreal Canadiens, and dancing. She was recognized by her iconic hairstyle and infectious laugh. They also knew when "The General" surfaced, look out, you were in trouble (but she always loved you). She was also infamous for her love of animals, whether it be a monkey purchased from Swap and Shop, or a pony that frequented the legion, there were always loving pets on the corner of 7th and Duchess. Nan's generous heart transcends her life here on earth, and we feel she would be honoured if donations were made in her name to an organization that supports animals in need, or a charity of your choice. We knew one day Hunner would knock on the kitchen pipe and tell you he was ready; we think he wants his foot rub.... They lived and loved together while here with us and will continue to do so forever.

On 5 May 1947 when Jean Margaret was 20, she married Herbert Weldon Fraser in Stellarton, Pictou Co., NS. Born in 1925 in New Glasgow, NS.

v. Wilfred Allan. Born in 1929 in Oldham, Hfx. Co., NS. Wilfred Allan died in Enfield, NS, on 6 Jan 2024; he was 95. Buried in St. Bernards Catholic Church, Enfield.

DILLMAN, Wilfred Allen – age 95 of Enfield, passed away suddenly at home on January 6th, 2024. Born in Oldham, he was a son of the late Alfred and Margaret (Reynolds) Dillman. Wilfred was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle and friend who was loved dearly by all. He worked as a paving crew foreman for Steed & Evans Ltd. in the summer and a snow plow operator for the Ministry of Transportation at Halifax International Airport for 25 years, in the winter. He would often joke about chasing snowflakes around the runways. Wilfred retired at age 65 and was one of the fortunate ones to be able to have had 30 years of retirement to enjoy. He stayed busy building different things, doing small engine repair, and gardening. His whole family reaped the benefits of his large vegetable garden each year, and the yard was filled with beautiful flowers he grew and tended. He loved fishing and going to his camp with friends and family for weekends of fun and fishing. He truly was a "jack of all trades" as his knowledge and experiences were immense. He always loved being outdoors, which is where you would find him most of the time. Lending a helping hand was in his nature, he was witty and smart. Wilfred is survived by his children, Doug (Marie), Enfield; Leonard (Elizabeth), Enfield; Ernest, Enfield; Sandra (Kerry), Fletchers Willa Wye Rockett, who for decades was a major force in the Belmont Dramatic Club, died on Saturday, Nov. 23. Rockett, known as "The Purple Lady" for her favorite lilac color, turned 100 on July 29. "I could not have lived in a better place," said Rockett on her centennial birthday. "I'm so so lucky to have all of you. I love you all," she told her friends and family. A Belmont resident since 1931, Rockett was well-known for acting, directing, producing some of the early productions of the Belmont Dramatic Club – the second oldest community theater club in the US – having joined the organization in 1940 before going behind the scenes working on mailings and tickets. She was an honorary board member at the time of her death. Rockett was born in Needham on July 29, 1913 to William H. Wye Jr. and Bertha Wye (Conley). The family moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin before traveling back to Needham before settling in Winchendon on the New Hampshire border when it was known as "Toy Town" for the Morton E. Converse & Company. "That's where I went to high school, where I had my happy days," Rockett told Belmont Patch in July. Rockett was her High School class' valedictorian in 1929. Rockett graduated from the prestigious Leland Powers School of the Theater in Boston's Fenway neighborhood in 1932 at the same time as the great character actor Reta Shaw. She studied acting and elocution before beginning a career teaching public speaking, acting and speech in Belmont from 1932 to 1944. She worked in the accounting department at Mass Bonding Insurance in Boston from 1945 to 1971 and at J. C. Paige, Boston from 1971 to 1978. She married Francis W. Rockett in May 1944 but has been a widow for nearly a half century. For many years, she lived in a two-family on Trapelo Road with her parents on the first floor. She moved in with her mother on Harriet Avenue a few years after her husband's death. Rockett loved to travel and would never miss a chance to head off to the Cape and loved visiting Nantucket. Her niece said one of her biggest thrills was winning a drug store contest which allowed her to take her mother on her mother's 75th birthday on a tour of Paris.

DILLMAN, Leonard William – age 79, of Rines Creek, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family on August 5, 2021 in Colchester East Hants Health Centre, Truro. Born in Rines Creek, he was a son of the late Thomas and Lyla (Turple) Dillman. Leonard started very young as a farmer by looking after his parent’s farm beginning at the age of 8. He was a very hard worker and eventually bought and ran his own beef farm. Not only did he run his own farm, he also worked full time for the Department of Transportation since the age of 15. Leonard loved horses, cows and working in the woods. Leonard was devoted to his family. When he married his wife Margaret, he also took on her 3 children as though they were his own. He enjoyed attending local exhibitions and especially watching the horse pulls. Leonard will be dearly missed by his family and friends. Leonard is survived by his wife of 34 years, Margaret; children, Joseph (Kim), Jill (Frank), Jamie Annette (Kyle), Leonard “Buddy” (Stephanie); grandchildren, Joshua, Tristian, Paige, Derek, Amie, Hunter, Nick, Jeremy, Jakob; brother, Christopher “Keith” (Betty); sister, Marlene (Bill); many nieces and nephews. It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Christopher Keith Dillman, on September 26, 2024. “Keith” will forever be remembered as a kind, gentle, loving husband, father, and grandfather. He leaves a legacy of love, pride, courage and integrity, and was fondly known for story telling and well executed jokes, sprinkled in with some corny one-liners when pinched for time. He faced the challenges of visual impairment with courage and determination throughout his adult life, and it certainly did not hinder his pursuit of goals and aspirations. Keith was very well respected throughout his career with CNIB, and worked tirelessly to help improve the lives of persons with vision loss. Keith is predeceased by siblings, Ivan Ross Dillman (in childhood), Elwood Lewis Dillman, and Leonard William Dillman; parents Lyla Blanche (Turple) and Thomas Addie Dillman; nephew Christopher Dillman. He is survived by his beloved wife of 57 years, Elizabeth (Betty) Dillman, devoted daughters Krista (Doug MacEachern) and Kathy (Roy Meech); adoring sister Lyla May Marlene Peterson. He is lovingly remembered by grandchildren, Scott, Thomas, Abbey, Grace, and John. He was an immensely proud Grampy, every step of the way. His numerous nieces and nephews were very special to him, and they would often reach out for some words of wisdom.

DILLMAN, Raymond "Ray" Roderick - age 85 of Dunmore, Alberta, formerly of Shubenacadie, Nova Scotia, passed away peacefully on January 17, 2024, at Masterpiece Southland Meadows, Medicine Hat, Alberta. Born in Meaghers's Grant, Nova Scotia, on November 1, 1938, he was a son of the late Harvey Dillman and Phyllis (Norman) Dillman/Miller. Ray was a truck driver for over 58 years, both in Nova Scotia and Alberta. Retiring at the age of 77. To say he was meticulous, is an understatement, his lawn was better kept than any professional landscapers and he took the utmost pride in his vehicles, they always looked as if they just left the showroom. Ray always had a joke to tell, and he loved to tease, often his quick wit would leave you speechless, even though you were expecting it. A trip home to NS always included an East Coast lobster and clam boil with friends and family. The Buffalo Club in Eastern Passage was a place Ray liked to go to meet up with his friends. Although he lived in Alberta most of his life, Nova Scotia was always home. Ray is survived by his loving wife of 40 years, Jean (Hilderman), Dunmore, Alberta; his children, Darelene (Dave Larson), Bashaw, AB, Deryk, Brooks, AB, Helen, Thompson, MB; stepchildren; Sheldon (Eva)Albrecht, Calgary, AB, Eunice (Randy)Wong, Medicine Hat, AB; brother, Robert, Cooks Brook, NS; 12 grandchildren; 4 step grandchildren; numerous great-grandchildren, step great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Besides his parents he was predeceased by his stepfather, Ralph Miller; daughter, Deborah (October 2023); daughter in law, Melanie;

It is with heavy hearts the family of Robert David Dillman of Cooks Brook, NS announce his passing on April 28, 2024, at home. Born June 15, 1948, in Elderbank, NS to the late Harvey and Phyllis (Norman) Dillman. He was the last surviving member of his immediate family. In Dad's younger years he loved to play baseball and hockey with the community locals, work on the family farm and along with his brothers, torment his mother and sister. He moved to Thompson, Manitoba at the age of 16 to work, he worked there until he met mom, he then moved back to NS. Mom and Dad married on April 15, 1972, and started their family. Dad was a hard worker, always working to provide for his family. Dad worked for Department of Transportation for 31 years, retiring in September 2003, he could operate any piece of equipment they had. He drove trucks for many local companies as a second job so we could do extra things as a family. In 1990 Mom and Dad started Shady Brook Enterprises, they worked hard to get the company established. After mom passed and he retired, he worked hard to grow the company even further. In 2023 Dad purchased Porter's Lake Septic Pumping to add to the fleet. Dad love getting into the seat of the "Shady Lady" (his 1989 Ford Louisville) and hauling whatever needed to be hauled, he also took great pride in operating his excavator. Dad loved his family and always made us his priority, he loved Dodge vehicles, cold Keith's beer, car races (especially when Jeff was racing), going for drives and talking about old times with Tanya, weekend breakfast dates with Dillan, visits from Taylor and Wren to break up his days and watching Gabby show her horse. Dad had a quick wit, loved to torment and had a nick name for everyone, whether you knew it or not. He was known to many as Gramps and wore the title proudly. Left heartbroken are his daughter; Tanya (Doug MacKenzie) of Lake Egmont, and his son Jeff of Cooks Brook, his grandchildren, who were his world; Dillan Black (Nicole Richard), Belnan, Taylor Black (Devon Saulnier), Meagher's Grant, and Gabby Dillman and her mother Cathy Scullion, Cooks Brook; his great-granddaughter, Wren Saulnier (or as Puppy called her, "Fart") and Baby Boy Saulnier, Meagher's Grant; chosen grandchildren, Ben (Dorita) Bell and their son Charlie, Musquodoboit Harbour, and Molly (Peter) Barbrick and Baby to Be, Middle Musquodoboit. He is also survived by his sisters-in-law, Rose Dillman, Shubenacadie and Jean Dillman, Dunmore, AB, along with sister and brother-in-law, Sharon and Verne Thomas, Meagher's Grant, numerous nieces and nephews from coast to coast. He had a second family, the owners, staff and friends he made at Whistler's Pub and Grub. He was predeceased 20 1/2 years ago by the apple of his eye, his wife, Susan (Jodrey), his brothers, Norman, Ray, and Ivan, his sister and brother-in-law, Una and Bill Colman, sister Irma and brother Michael, both in infancy. His step- father Ralph Miller and his in-laws, Earle and Fay Jodrey.

RHODDY (Dauphinee), Dara Mae- age 69, of Lantz, passed away peacefully on February 6, 2025 in Braeside Home for Special Care, Middle Musquodoboit, with family by her side. Born in Truro, she was the daughter of the late Donald and Lillian (Lively) Dauphinee. Dara was a longtime employee of Cara Operations at the Halifax International Airport, working in the restaurant. She finished her working career at the Enfield Big Stop as a baker. Dara was a “people-person” who enjoyed being with family and friends. When she was in good health, she was focused on baking and cooking, and hosting family dinners and gatherings. She enjoyed crocheting and knitting. At one point in her life, she was an intense broomball player, known for her ultra-competitive nature. She absolutely loved children -who were naturally drawn to her. Dara appreciated nature and had a soft spot for all pets and animals, especially birds. Dara will be sadly missed by her husband of 50 years, Perry; children, Dereck (Chris), Tara (Leslie), Crystal (Howard) and Holly (Jeff); former daughter-in-law, Jennifer; grandchildren, Ryan, Alexander, Allyson, Madison and Makaila; brothers, Stephen (Carolyn), Donald, Tony and Timmy (Janice); several nieces and nephews. Born in Simpson’s Corner, Lunenburg County, she was a daughter of the late Elvin and Frelove (Tufts) Rhoddy. Mary loved her community and had many neighbours and friends on speed dial who were always there for her. She was an avid Bingo player and considered TV Bingo to be a great night out, without leaving the comfort of her home. She will be sadly missed by her son Rick (Maxine) Fancey, daughters Debbie Lightle and Darlene (Stephen) Richardson; stepdaughter, Muriel Stoddard; her best friend, Fred Campbell; 5 grandchildren; several great grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her husband Claude; son Kevan; grandson Travis; and her 7 siblings, as she was the last of her immediate family.

FANCEY, Kevan, age 58, of Enfield. With broken hearts we announce that our dear sweet Kevan passed away July 19, 2018 at the QEII Halifax Infirmary Site. Born in Enfield (1960), he was a son of Mary (Rhoddy) Fancey and the late Claude Fancey. Kevan enjoyed a career as a long-haul truck driver and then drove a mixer for Mobile Concrete. He was a member of the Enfield Legion and was highly respected in the community. Kevan touched so many lives, he was truly an inspiration with his strength and courage during many years of health struggles. He will be forever loved and missed by his mom, Mary Fancey, brother, Rick (Maxine) Fancey; sisters, Debbie Lightle,

Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

Darlene (Stephen) Richardson and Muriel Jarvis. Kevan had several nieces and nephews who he considered friends, as they brightened his world. He is also survived by his former wife, Madeline; stepchildren, Bill (Cathy) Duann and Audrey; three grandchildren. Kevan was predeceased by his dad, Claude Fancey.

Note: the whole Dillman/Byng/Rhoddy/Howie relationship is all very confusing!!

On 28 Jun 1938 when Vernon Lloyd was 32, he married Margaret Eileen Fletcher in Montrose, Col. Co., NS. Born in 1915 in Montrose.

They had one child:

- i. Glenda Irene. Born in 1954. Glenda Irene died in Ottawa, ON, on 14 Apr 2022; she was 68. Buried in Middle Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS.

Glenda Irene (Fisher) Driscoll – 68, Perth, Ontario, formerly of Middle Stewiacke, passed away peacefully on Thursday, April 14, 2022, at Ottawa Hospital after a long and courageous battle with cancer. The world is a little less filled with laughter after her passing. Glenda was born in Truro to Margaret (Fletcher) and Vernon Fisher. She was raised on a farm in Middle Stewiacke as the only daughter in a family with three older brothers. Despite being the youngest and the only girl, she held her own with her siblings, playing pranks regularly alongside her brother, Earle. After graduating from high school, Glenda married and had two sons, Scott and Gary. She moved to Kingston, Ontario in the late 1970s to explore new opportunities with her family. When she began to outgrow her first marriage, she threw herself into her work with the Federal Government at the military base in Kingston, Ontario. Through her work, she met and quickly fell in love with a handsome Sergeant who would regularly visit her office with a big smile and many jokes to tell. After several years of dating, Glenda married her soulmate, Dennis, in 1988, and for the next 34 years, Dennis and Glenda formed an incredible partnership filled with love, mutual respect and most importantly, lots of laughter and fun. While Glenda experienced her share of sorrow, including the unexpected loss of her son, Scott, in 1986, she survived these difficult times through her loving relationships with Dennis and her son, Gary. In 1988, Glenda moved to Alberta for new adventures, including a career in Calgary real estate alongside Dennis. While work was important, Dennis and Glenda always made sure to travel to many different countries throughout the world, including Israel, Hawaii, Mexico and various parts of the United States and Canada. In 2009, after winding down their business, Glenda and Dennis moved to Perth, Ontario and shortly after, her son Gary and wife Roxanne moved to Ontario as well. In 2010, Glenda was filled with joy at becoming a grandmother for the first time. She spent the next eleven years doting on her granddaughter and soaking up all the time she could with Kaitlyn, including attending horseback riding lessons and Christmas concerts, baking treats together and organizing "Grammie" sleepovers. In addition to her neighbours and family in Ontario, Glenda also developed a community in Lincolnshire, Florida, spending many cold Canadian winters in the warm Floridian sun. She developed a close community of new friends among fellow snowbirds and cherished these friendships, particularly when she was diagnosed with cancer in 2016 and her Lincolnshire friends organized a "Team Glenda" support team with t-shirts and supportive messages and photos for Glenda as she prepared for radiation treatment. Despite all her travel, Glenda always remained loyal and connected to her home province of Nova Scotia, setting up a little home in Middle Stewiacke and spending many a summer and fall visiting with family and old childhood friends. Glenda is survived by her beloved husband, Dennis; her son, Gary Kennedy (Roxanne); granddaughter, Kaitlyn; step-daughter, Tammy Driscoll Day (Byron); brothers, Muir (Carolyn) Fisher, Earle (Audrey) Fisher; sister-in-law, Bev Fisher; many nieces and nephews. In addition to family and friends, Glenda also leaves behind her loyal canine companion, Chase. Along with her parents, she was predeceased by her son, Scott Kennedy; step-son, Lee Driscoll; brother, Donald Fisher.

Cole, Donald Murray “Cob” – Age 62, of Elderbank, died peacefully, July 8, 2023, in Musquodoboit Valley Memorial Hospital, the result of a massive stroke. Born in Halifax, the third son of Frank and Harriet (Dean) Cole, he was raised in Elderbank, graduated MRHS, and went right to work. He drove a truck for a number of people before becoming an owner/operator based mostly out of Regina. Three years ago he sold his truck and trailer, packed up his guitars, motorcycle and tools and moved back to Elderbank, and again got a job driving a truck. Between his first and last job there were a lot of stories, guitar playing, karaoke singing, dancing and maybe a few beer along the way. He kept in contact with many of his “trucker” friends with many lengthy conversations. He worked hard; enjoyed meeting and talking to people, and always tried to find music, good food and conversation wherever he was parked. Don got the name Cob, meaning “cheap old b...”, in grade 7 and it stuck the rest of his life. Don was a 4-H member and was proud to have the reserve champion beef calf at the first NS Provincial 4-H Show. Don played rec hockey and enjoyed the team banter. He made it sound like he was almost a star. Don is survived by his brothers, Dean (Rita) and Dave (Helena); nieces and nephews, Sandy (Emma), children Pippa, Lauchie, Tilly; Joan; Allyson (Chad); Kyley, son Everett; Liam; Shelby (Bubba). He enjoyed his nieces and nephews, especially as they got closer to legal age. They would often stop in for a visit and refreshments and to watch CFL, Nascar, hockey or curling. He also provided lots of advice and helped fix machinery on the farms, and drove the tractor when needed. Don lived life his way.

Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

wife Bernice

ii. Joyce.

Joyce married Lawrence Butcher.

Butcher, Lawrence Hugh – Age 79, passed away at his home in Chaswood, on August 24, 2023, surrounded by loved ones, after a short battle with cancer. Lawrence was born in Higginsville, and spent his childhood on the family farm. At a young age, he left home to work in the woods. He then spent a short time working as a mechanic but later left that field to pursue a career in carpentry. Carpentry soon became what he was most well known for. Those who knew Lawrence knew of his strong work ethic and lifelong witty sense of humour. He also had a big heart and loved helping others in the community. Lawrence loyally served on the Musquodoboit Valley Volunteer Fire Department for 33 years and was a dedicated volunteer with Musquodoboit Valley Search and Rescue for more than 30 years. Lawrence was an avid outdoorsman with a love of nature and wildlife. As much as he loved deer hunting, he would, at times, return home without a deer. Instead, he would tell stories about how he would sit and watch them. He enjoyed going for hikes in the woods, ATV trips, bowling, playing cribbage, or spending time at his camp making maple syrup. Lawrence is predeceased by his parents, Freeda (Fraser) and Eldridge Butcher; brothers, Lloyd and Lester; parents-in-law, Marion (Foley) and Murray Dillman; sisters-in-law, Edith Dillman and Martha (Dillman) Codner. 180. Roy Gerald McMullen (Jennie Dillman⁵, Thomas⁴, Jane (Jennie) Cole³, Margaret Dillman², Christopher George¹). Born on 9 Mar 1921 in Antrim, Hfx. Co., NS. Roy Gerald died in Dartmouth, NS, on 11 Feb 1978; he was 56. Buried in St. Pauls, Antrim.

Shortly after the tragic death of his mother in 1933 when he was 12 years old, Roy and his younger brother Earl were mostly brought up by their older brother Charles "Charlie" McMullin. Roy was a heavy machine operator for many years and was involved in a number of construction projects around the Halifax-Dartmouth area. In the wintertime, he would often drive a large snowplow to clean the city streets.

Roy and family used "McMullen" spelling.

May 11, 2017. Hi Doug, I found your contact information after coming across the extensive work you've done on the McMullen family of Halifax County. My mother is a McMullen and my relatives are as follows:

- 1. Archibald McMullen
- 4. William McMullen
- 15. Archibald McMullen
- 47. Horris Douglas Steward McMullen
- 138. Roy Gerald McMullen (Grandfather)

I was born in raised in Nova Scotia, but I've lived in the Philadelphia area for the past 10 years while the majority of my family still resides in NS. Now that my wife and I have a family of our own, it's important for me to connect the dots with my family tree so our children will understand their Canadian roots.

I updated the Roy McMullen registry with the info for my mom's (Marjorie Gail) family. I can confirm 100% that Roy used the "McMullen" spelling, but my mom said that most of his siblings used the "McMullin" spelling. She was not sure how or why the spelling of their surname changed among family members.

Thanks for all of your research - it has been a great resource as I've begun to explore my family tree.

Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

Shirley Claressa Webber, 3 FEBRUARY, 1957 – 26 JUNE, 2011. WEBBER, Shirley Claressa, 54, Wyse's Corner, passed away peacefully Sunday, June 26, 2011, with family at her side at the Halifax Infirmary, Halifax. Born in Dartmouth she was the daughter of the late Eric Boutilier and Joyce Ripley of Amherst. Shirley raised two families, that of her brothers and her own children and did a good job. She was interested in bingo and auto racing both local and NASCAR and spending time with her grandchildren. Although she was afflicted with a serious disease she showed courage and determination and never gave up her will to live. She is survived by husband, Tom, daughter, Laura and son Joey, Wyse's Corner; grandchildren Emily and Allison; four brothers, Leonard (Tammy), Rick (Annmari), Danny and Vincent; nephew Brandon and niece Shanda. Predeceased by her father and stillborn son, Lawrence.

They had the following children:

- i. Joseph Gordon Eric. Born in 1983. Joseph Gordon Eric died in Shubenacadie, Hants Co., NS, on 19 Apr 2020; he was 37.

WEBBER, Joseph Gordon Eric "Joe" – age 36, of Wyse's Corner was taken from this world tragically on April 19, 2020 in Shubenacadie. Born in Halifax, he was a son of Thomas Webber, Wyse's Corner and the late Shirley (Boutilier) Webber. Joe was a loving father, partner, son, brother, uncle and a friend to many. Though family was at the top of the list, he had other passions in life. Bow hunting was one pursuit he enjoyed over the past ten years and he was continually honing his skills. He was a gifted horseman, he had an innate ability to work with draft horses; recently he was able to "break" a very headstrong horse. In his younger days, Joe loved racing at Scotia Speedworld. He had worked his way up from Thunder and Lightning Class to Hobby Class while always carrying the #75 on his car. He enjoyed the competition and the comradery. A true country boy, Joe genuinely liked working in the woods and couldn't imagine living in town. He loved his family immensely. Besides his father, Joe will be sadly missed by daughters, Emily, Rory and Shirley; partner, Shanda MacLeod; sister and closest friend, Laura; niece, Allie; nephew, Rylee; numerous aunts, uncles and cousins as well as a wide circle of friends. He was predeceased by his mother, Shirley Webber; paternal grandparents, Gordon and Laura Webber; maternal grandparents, Eric and Joyce Boutilier.

N.S. shooting victim Joey Webber was 'always happy-go-lucky'
Webber was killed Sunday morning while he went out to run an errand for his family

Haley Ryan · CBC News · Posted: Apr 22, 2020 2:30 PM EDT

Joey Webber, one of the victims of Nova Scotia's mass shootings, is remembered as a hard-working father who was always ready to lend a helping hand with a smile. Darren Bezanson, a neighbour and longtime family friend of Webber's in Wyse's Corner, N.S., about 50 kilometres north of Halifax, watched him grow up and recalls seeing him always playing outside the family home with his sister. Webber later moved into that childhood home on Old Guysborough Road with his partner, Shanda MacLeod, and their daughters, now aged six and one. All of Bezanson's memories of Webber, who was in his late 30s, involve him with a smile on his face, since he can't remember a time he ever saw him angry or upset. Webber was outgoing and a great neighbour, who would come and help no matter what you needed, and never looked for anything in return. Like his dad before him, Bezanson said Webber was a woodsman. He grew up around horses, since Webber's father ran a forestry business using horses, and also machines, for logging in the woods around their community. A GoFundMe set up by his partner's family said Webber had been recently out of work due to Northern Pulp's closure affecting many in forestry, but had started back to work just a couple days before he died. Bezanson said Webber's partner has taken their daughters to her mother's house for now so the homestead is sitting empty. Webber's 14-year-old daughter from a previous relationship lives just across the street with his sister. Bezanson's last memory of Webber was about five weeks ago, when his daughters and partner had found Bezanson's missing wallet along the road. Webber came out his front door just as always, with his big rubber boots on, a cigarette in his mouth and smiling, Bezanson said. "We stood there and we talked and laughed and that. And you know, that's my last memory of him and it's a happy one. All my memories with Joey, and his whole family, is happy. But I'm glad that, you know, I got to see him." Bezanson said that on Sunday morning, Webber heard there was an active shooter situation around Portapique, N.S., and wanted to get an errand out of the way.

'Always happy-go-lucky'

He told his family he was headed to get furnace oil at the Milford gas station "before that crazy guy" came closer and started shooting people. "Just joking, right, as Joey. Always happy-go-lucky," Bezanson said Tuesday. After getting his oil, Webber would have then driven along Highway 2 in Shubenacadie, N.S., where Bezanson said he came across the spot where the gunman in his mock cruiser and authentic uniform killed RCMP Const. Heidi Stevenson. Bezanson said Webber likely would have stopped upon seeing what appeared to be a police officer on the road carrying a firearm. Webber was shot and killed in the area, Bezanson said.

'I started tearing up'

Bezanson said there's been so many thoughts going around his head since he found out on Monday Webber was a victim. He said it could have just as easily been his own sons who live in the area, or himself. "I don't know whether [it] didn't really sink in, but I was eating my lunch yesterday and I started tearing up. I mean, thinking, like, 'I've known this boy since he was just a little child, three or four years old,'" Bezanson said, with a catch in his voice. "You would never expect stuff like this to happen, let alone be one isolated person from this community to be out there and get shot. It's just tragic. It's a senseless act, and it doesn't make sense and it never will." For a tight-knit community like theirs, as well as the other rural areas affected by the shooting, Bezanson said the only word is "traumatized." Wyse Corner is still grieving their last tragedy, Bezanson said, with the horrific case of Codey Hennigar. Hennigar killed his mother and grandparents before setting fire to their home in January 2015, which was just a few doors down from Webber's home.

Procession planned for Saturday

Since the family won't be able to have a large funeral due to COVID-19 restrictions, Bezanson has organized a procession of cars to line up at the entrance of Dollar Lake Provincial Park on Saturday at 1 p.m. AT. The pace car from Scotia Speedworld is set to lead the group, Bezanson said, a fitting tribute given Webber's passion for stock car racing, which he took part in around the early 2000s.

Beatrice Aileen SANFORD (Thursday, 19 Aug 2004)

It is with deepest sadness we announce the passing of our Mother, Beatrice (Aileen) Sanford (nee Corbett) on Thurs., Aug. 19, 2004 after several years of declining health. Mom was born June 26, 1921; the middle child of Seward Corbett and Eva Streach in Cook's Brook, N.S. She married Albert Edgar Sanford on April 28, 1937 in Nova Scotia. The couple had seven children of their own and raised a foster child Ronald Dillman for 17 years. In August of 1959 she moved to Lac la Hache, B.C. with five of her own children and Ronnie, to join her husband, who was working in the logging industry. Earl, Freda, Ken, Larry, Aubrey, and Ronnie travelled with their Mother across Canada by train to make their home in B.C. The oldest daughter Eva was married and remained in Nova Scotia. Her youngest son Leonard was born here in July 1964. Her career in life was to struggle in hard times to raise her family and make ends meet, which she did lovingly and with no regret. She loved having her family around her and did so on many occasions. People were always welcomed at her door and she had a soft spot for the children. Hobbies came later in life for Mom; after the family was grown she joined a bowling league in 100 Mile House and a card club in Lac la Hache. Reading was also a passion for her. She is survived by Eva McMullin (Stanley), Lake Egmont, N.S.; Earl Sanford (Josie), 108 Mile Ranch, B.C.; Freda Meda (Dan), Lac la Hache; Ken Sanford (Helen), Lac la Hache; Larry Sanford (Marlene), Delta, B.C.; Aubrey Sanford (Vicki), Lac la Hache; Leonard Sanford (Tari), Lac la Hache and foster son Ronald Dillman, Dartmouth, N.S. Also by 16 grandchildren; 21 great grandchildren; sister Florence Jodrey, Middle Musquodoboit, N.S.; sister-in-laws Ellen Sanford, Williams

Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

DILLMAN, Thelma Frances, 84, Shubenacadie, passed away peacefully November 21, 2010, in Brentwood Ponds seniors care facility, Brentwood, surrounded by family, following a hard battle with cancer. Born in Cooks Brook, she was the daughter of the late Everett and Mary “Mamie” (Wilson) Mitchell. Mum was a school teacher in one room school houses in Lake Egmont, Brookvale, Chaswood and Cooks Brook, lifelong baker and cook, house keeper, later caring for children and most importantly though - Our Mother. Leaving teaching after the birth of her fourth child, she raised her family by selling her home baking with intermittent cook house employment. People drove for miles to buy her bread and pastries from local markets, and miners never missed a meal when they smelled her homemade bread and donuts. She also cared for children, first in her home and later in theirs, finally refocusing on just her own family and grand children at the age of seventy. She was a life time member of the Gays River United Church and avid puzzle enthusiast. She will be sadly missed by her daughters Diane Dillman, Enfield and Frances (Brent) Hull, Chaswood; sons Jamie (Scott), Shubenacadie; John, Quebec and Michael, Truro; granddaughters Melanie and Meghan; grandson Jay; sisters Ruth, Middle Musquodoboit, Georgie, Alton and Loraine, Missouri, USA; nieces Ruby, Lois, Muriel, Donna, Rose and Barb; nephews Gordon, Laurie, Dana and Tommy; very special ladies and gentlemen she considered her daughters and sons – Amelia, Robin, Jamie Lee and Scott. She was predeceased by son Myrlan, and a very special young man she also considered her son, Bradley; former son-in-law Artie; brothers Wilbur and Earl; nephew Freddie, niece Gloria; dear friends Ivy, Muriel and the reverend Calder Fraser.

They had one child:

194. Marven Aubrey Dillman (*Aubrey “Ralph”*⁵, *Alfred Dickie*⁴, *Jane (Jennie) Cole*³, *Margaret Dillman*², *Christopher George*¹). Born on 19 Feb 1941 in Timmins, ON. Marven Aubrey died in 100 Mile House, BC, on 17 Apr 2011; he was 70.

Marven was born Feb. 19, 1941 in Timmins, Ontario. He grew up in Meagher’s Grant, Nova Scotia. He was a hard-working boy who soon decided to join his dad in the family business which was horse logging and the milling of logs. (Throwing his school books in the garbage one day and informing his dad Ralph he would be part of the crew instead of attending school). At age 25, in the year 1967, he came to B.C. (Lac la Hache) along with his son Rod, who was born 1965, and wife Shirley. There he continued in the logging industry. In 1968 Rick was born, followed by Alana in 1972. Marven loved to hunt, fish, and ride horses and cause mischief. In the summers he enjoyed his haying and loved working on the ranch. He stayed in the logging industry up until January 2010 – working with pride alongside with his sons in Rod’s Logging Company. He was diagnosed with cancer in 2007 and with his stubbornness and perseverance tried to outlast it. Unfortunately in October 2010 Marven became housebound, eventually he was confined to his bed. This was a hard battle for him as he was used to his freedom of doing (and saying) exactly what he wanted. Shirley continued to care for Marven till his last day. Marven is predeceased by his first grandchild Travis (who he figured would have ‘the place scoped out’ before his arrival), his father Ralph, his brother Eric and little buddy Buster. He is survived by his mother Muriel, brothers: Gerald and Morley, sons: Rod (Deb), Rick; daughter Alana; grandchildren: Jordan, Kendall, Chandell, Mikayla, Dakin, Ryan and step-grandchildren: Tanara and Trevor.

Child:

- 237 i. Rod

206. Lewis "Cyril" Dillman (Samuel "Ervin"⁵, Lewis Alexander⁴, Kenneth McKenzie³, Lewis², Christopher George¹).

Daniel Ryan Dillman "Danny" – 63, Tatamagouche, passed away after a lengthy battle with cancer on August 19th, 2023 in Lillian Fraser Memorial Hospital, Tatamagouche. Born in Tatamagouche 20 April 1960, he was a son of Lewis Cyril Dillman and Norma Jean (Tatttrie) Dillman. Danny was gifted with the ability to operate and repair anything mechanical, starting at the age of 12. He could easily change a motor in any vehicle. You could also find him on the farm working, especially during the harvest season. He worked for many years with Cumberland Paving as a heavy equipment operator as well as numerous other jobs in the area. In later years, Danny worked on a lobster boat – which was a job that he truly enjoyed and loved. In earlier years, he was an avid hunter and had a passion for muscle cars, motorcycles and snowmobiles. He was predeceased by his grandparents, Lloyd David Tatttrie "Fiddling Lloyd" and Mary Ann Tatttrie (Wright). Surviving are his parents, Cyril Dillman, St. John's, NFLD and Norma (Tatttrie), Amherst; his brother, David Dillman, Lake Echo; niece, Brittany Dillman, Fredericton, NB.

Bernadette Linehan, August 9, 1958 - February 21, 2023, St. John's, NL. Predeceased by parents Frederick and Kathleen Linehan, brothers Frederick, Harry, Eugene, Bob, Joseph, sisters Betty, Catherine, and husband James Kean. Leaving to mourn with fond and loving memories daughter Joan (Russell Chafe), her precious grandchildren Hannah and grandson James with whom she thought the world off and lived every day to be with. Her long-time companion Cyril Dillman, who will miss her dearly and her dog Maggie. Brothers and Sisters Gerard (Eileen), Patsy (Michael Tremblett), Barbara, Joan (John Downey) as well as a large number of nieces, nephews and friends. Bernadette may have been small, but she was one of the toughest people we knew. Always there to help. she would never expect anything in return. She looked at every day as a gift, especially the ones she got to spend with James, which were almost every day. Watching her play with James warmed our hearts and her loss will be immeasurable to everyone who was lucky enough to have shared their time with her. She loved going out to eat, even though she never ate very much and she was a great believer in enjoying life's small joys. She loved being a mom and a Nanny. She treasured and was honoured by those roles and will be missed more than words could ever express.

Lewis "Cyril" married Norma Jean Tatttrie.

They had one child:

Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

DILLMAN, Ronald Clarence - 77, passed away unexpectedly August 31, 2002, surrounded by his loving family. Born in Dartmouth, January 19, 1925, to Elmer and Alvina "Tina" (Barrett) Dillman, he is survived by his beloved wife of 54 years, Thelma May (Noseworthy) Dillman. He was the devoted father of Ronald Dillman (Pam), Indian Point; Margie Oliver (Rob), Halifax; Gerald Dillman, Hubley; Sherry Johnson (Alan), Timberlea, and Annette Wagner (Ken), Chicago; brother of Marjorie "Doreen" Brown, Halifax, and grandfather to 20 grandchildren. He was predeceased by cherished daughter, Linda Rose Smith (Wally), (Head of St. Margarets Bay). He was decorated for his services during the Second World War with the Royal Canadian Engineer Corps. He returned to work as a blacksmith in the Halifax Shipyards, finishing his career in the Halifax Dockyards. His life was his family - always there when needed. He could be found in his garden or with his dog Coco on his lap.

On 31 Jul 1947 when Ronald Clarence was 22, he married Thelma Noseworthy in Halifax, NS. Born on 19 May 1929. Thelma died on 31 Oct 2016; she was 87.

Thelma May Dillman, 87, passed away peacefully on October 31, 2016, surrounded by her loving children. Born in Halifax, May 19, 1929, to Roy Noseworthy and Mary Ann Boutilier (Noseworthy ne Kenway) she is survived by her children; Ronald Dillman (Pam), Cold Lake Alberta; Margie Oliver (Rob), Sherbrook Lake, Nova Scotia and Annette Wagner (Bob), Chicago Illinois; sister Margaret (Peggy) Bignell (Hugh), Hubley, Nova Scotia, 21 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her loving husband Ronald, father Roy, mother Mary, brothers Lewis (Alicia) Noseworthy, Roy Noseworthy and Gerald (Anne) Noseworthy, cherished children, Linda Smith (Wally), Gerald Dillman and Sherry Johnson (Alan). Thelma was a true matriarch. She dedicated her formative years to her family, working at St. Mary's University after her children were grown. In retirement, she travelled often to visit her children and grandchildren. She was happiest surrounded by family and her dog, Coco.

Jena Dillman age 39 passed away unexpectedly at her parents home at Indian Point, Nova Scotia on December 30th, 2023. She was surrounded by her devoted and loving parents, Ronald and Premila Dillman and her partner Andrew Smid. Jena is survived by her daughter, Miilah Gordon Dillman age 15, who lives in British Columbia; parents, Premila and Ronald Dillman; sister, Melonie Dillman- Shannon; brothers, David Mason and Justin Dillman; Auntie to Micah Dillman, Aaliyah Dillman and Lucca Shannon. Jena was born on September 19th, 1984, in Vancouver BC and graduated from Sir John A MacDonald high school in Nova Scotia. After graduation she moved to BC to study broadcasting at Media Performing Arts, Columbia Academy, Vancouver, BC. Jena spent her childhood growing up in different parts of BC from Aldergrove to Enderby and then Kamloops before moving to the other coast with her family to where her father grew up in St. Margarets Bay, Nova Scotia where her parents live to this day. Jena was a free spirit, she lived much of her adult life in Western Canada or travelling from Coast to Coast. She loved spending time with her cousins and wherever she was, her friends became her family. She had a lot of love to give to whoever was in her midst and was a bright light whenever she walked into a room. Jena struggled for many years with the strongholds of addiction and fought for her life constantly. Despite the many trials and traumas she experienced Jena was an eternal optimist and had constant plans and dreams for her life and future with her daughter Miilah. Just in the last week of her life, Jena felt a strong need to return to Nova Scotia after spending Christmas with her daughter. She felt a pull in her heart that she needed to get better so she could be better and take care of her parents. We remember Jena for her energy, her big bright eyes, her laughter, and radiant smile. She knew how to dress like a queen and could turn rags into riches. There was only one Jena Dawn Premila Dillman and she will live on in all of our hearts because of the way she touched those who crossed her path. Jena was our gypsy, our butterfly, and our angel.

BOUTILIER, Brandon -It is with the heaviest of hearts that we announce the passing of Brandon Boutilier, 30, of Shubenacadie, on December 31st, 2022 at home. Brandon's death was sudden, but peaceful, and he was surrounded by his loved ones until the end. Brandon was born at the IWK in Halifax on February 9th, 1992. Brandon spent his formative years surrounded by the love of his parents, Rick and AnnMarie, and his sister, Shanda. Brandon's childhood was filled with biking and four wheeling and lots of handwashing for little Brandon who hated having dirty hands. Growing up, Brandon could often be found cruising around the mean streets of Antrim with his lifelong friend, Dennis, his uncle, Chris and sister, Shanda. Brandon graduated from Musquodoboit Rural High and subsequently from NSCC with a diploma in Refrigeration and Air Conditioning. Brandon thoroughly enjoyed his job working for EBM Refrigeration, where he valued the kindness and mentorship shown to him by his employer, Eric. The best part of Brandon's day was coming home to see his 2-year-old daughter, Libby, and partner of 15 years, Holly Mosher. Brandon and Holly were high school sweethearts for whom their first love was their true love. Holly was Brandon's best friend and there was no one else he would rather spend his time. Brandon and Holly loved their nights together watching Netflix, but their real joy came from watching their daughter grow and thrive. Brandon was a wonderful father who could always be counted on to dress-up for Halloween, have his nails and hair done, and do just about anything that would bring a smile to his daughter's face. When he wasn't being a loving father and supportive partner, Brandon could be found tinkering away in his backyard garage. Growing up Brandon learned his mechanic skills from his father and his greatest joy was passing on those same skills to his daughter, Libby. The two could often be found in the garage working on Libby's toy cars and she was his number one assistant. Brandon could always be counted on to lend a hand to those in need and did so cheerfully. Brandon is survived by his life partner, Holly Mosher; daughter, Libby Boutilier; his parents, Rick and AnnMarie (McMullin) Boutilier; sister, Shanda Boutilier (Jon Thompson) and his grandfather, Ronald McMullin. Brandon will be missed by his niece and nephews Willow, Jayce and Lucas, who he thoroughly enjoyed, and many aunts, uncles, cousins, in-laws and friends. Brandon was predeceased by his maternal grandmother, Sandra (Bezanson) McMullin and his paternal grandparents, Eric and Joyce (Dillman) Boutilier; his Aunt Shirley (Boutilier) Webber and cousin, Joey Webber.

Travis Ryan Dillman came into the world 10 weeks pre-mature on Oct 17, 1983 to proud parents Rod Dillman and Carrie Emslie. He also left this world far too early, at the age of 24, after being caught in an avalanche while snowmobiling in the mountains that he grew up in and loved. Travis was very active and enjoyed baseball, hockey, dirt biking, RC car racing and snowmobiling. Travis attended PSO and graduated in 2001. Travis took the opportunity to go to Rainbow Lake, Alberta and learn the oil field industry where he excelled and worked his way to the top of the company. He was well respected by his peers. His new job duties took him to Grande Cache, Alberta where he was excited to be back in the mountains and said it reminded him of home. It was there that he and Shannon Krueger decided to make their home. They bought a house and recently got engaged. Travis touched the lives of many people young and old. He often came home to visit his family and friends. He had a zest for life and lived life to the fullest. His glowing smile and warm heart will be cherished forever by his fiancé Shannon Krueger (and her family), Dad Rod Dillman (Deb), Mom Carrie Emslie, brother Jordan, stepbrother Trevor, stepsister Tanara, Grandparents Marven and Shirley Dillman, Great Grandmother Muriel Dillman, Uncle Rick, Aunt Alana, Grandparents Al and Ellie Emslie, Auntie Lori, Uncle Dean, and many nieces, nephews and friends, as well as his cat Levi. A celebration of Travis' life was held on December 29th, 2007 in 100 Mile House.

She was interested in bingo and auto racing both local and NASCAR and spending time with her grandchildren. Although she was afflicted with a serious disease she showed courage and determination and never gave up her will to live. She is survived by husband, Tom, daughter, Laura and son Joey, Wyse's Corner; grandchildren Emily and Allison; four brothers, Leonard (Tammy), Rick (Annamarie), Danny and Vincent; nephew Brandon and niece Shanda. Predeceased by her father and stillborn son, Lawrence.

Shirley Claressa married Thomas George Webber (183), son of Gordon Alexander Webber (1901-15 Mar 1991) & 107. Annie "Laura" Dillman (26 Oct 1909-3 Dec 2002).

They had the following children:

- i. Joseph Gordon Eric. Born in 1983. Joseph Gordon Eric died in Shubenacadie, Hants Co., NS, on 19 Apr 2020; he was 37.

WEBBER, Joseph Gordon Eric "Joe" – age 36, of Wyse's Corner was taken from this world tragically on April 19, 2020 in Shubenacadie. Born in Halifax, he was a son of Thomas Webber, Wyse's Corner and the late Shirley (Boutilier) Webber. Joe was a loving father, partner, son, brother, uncle and a friend to many. Though family was at the top of the list, he had other passions in life. Bow hunting was one pursuit he enjoyed over the past ten years and he was continually honing his skills. He was a gifted horseman, he had an innate ability to work with draft horses; recently he was able to "break" a very headstrong horse. In his younger days, Joe loved racing at Scotia Speedworld. He had worked his way up from Thunder and Lightning Class to Hobby Class while always carrying the #75 on his car. He enjoyed the competition and the comradery. A true country boy, Joe genuinely liked working in the woods and couldn't imagine living in town. He loved his family immensely. Besides his father, Joe will be sadly missed by daughters, Emily, Rory and Shirley; partner, Shanda MacLeod; sister and closest friend, Laura; niece, Allie; nephew, Rylee; numerous aunts, uncles and cousins as well as a wide circle of friends. He was predeceased by his mother, Shirley Webber; paternal grandparents, Gordon and Laura Webber; maternal grandparents, Eric and Joyce Boutilier.

N.S. shooting victim Joey Webber was 'always happy-go-lucky'
Webber was killed Sunday morning while he went out to run an errand for his family

Joey Webber, one of the victims of Nova Scotia's mass shootings, is remembered as a hard-working father who was always ready to lend a helping hand with a smile. Darren Bezanson, a neighbour and longtime family friend of Webber's in Wyse's Corner, N.S., about 50 kilometres north of Halifax, watched him grow up and recalls seeing him always playing outside the family home with his sister. Webber later moved into that childhood home on Old Guysborough Road with his partner, Shanda MacLeod, and their daughters, now aged six and one. All of Bezanson's memories of Webber, who was in his late 30s, involve him with a smile on his face, since he can't remember a time he ever saw him angry or upset. Webber was outgoing and a great neighbour, who would come and help no matter what you needed, and never looked for anything in return. Like his dad before him, Bezanson said Webber was a woodsman. He grew up around horses, since Webber's father ran a forestry business using horses, and also machines, for logging in the woods around their community. A GoFundMe set up by his partner's family said Webber had been recently out of work due to Northern Pulp's closure affecting many in forestry, but had started back to work just a couple days before he died. Bezanson said Webber's partner has taken their daughters to her mother's house for now so the homestead is sitting empty. Webber's 14-year-old daughter from a previous relationship lives just across the street with his sister. Bezanson's last memory of Webber was about five weeks ago, when his daughters and partner had found Bezanson's missing wallet along the road. Webber came out his front door just as always, with his big rubber boots on, a cigarette in his mouth and smiling, Bezanson said. "We stood there and we talked and laughed and that. And you know, that's my last memory of him and it's a happy one. All my memories with Joey, and his whole family, is happy. But I'm glad that, you know, I got to see him." Bezanson said that on Sunday morning, Webber heard there was an active shooter situation around Portapique, N.S., and wanted to get an errand out of the way.

'Always happy-go-lucky'

He told his family he was headed to get furnace oil at the Milford gas station "before that crazy guy" came closer and started shooting people. "Just joking, right, as Joey. Always happy-go-lucky," Bezanson said Tuesday. After getting his oil, Webber would have then driven along Highway 2 in Shubenacadie, N.S., where Bezanson said he came across the spot where the gunman in his mock cruiser and authentic uniform killed RCMP Const. Heidi Stevenson. Bezanson said Webber likely would have stopped upon seeing what appeared to be a police officer on the road carrying a firearm. Webber was shot and killed in the area, Bezanson said.

'I started tearing up'

Bezanson said there's been so many thoughts going around his head since he found out on Monday Webber was a victim. He said it could have just as easily been his own sons who live in the area, or himself. "I don't know whether [it] didn't really sink in, but I was eating my lunch yesterday and I started tearing up. I mean, thinking, like, 'I've known this boy since he was just a little child, three or four years old,'" Bezanson said, with a catch in his voice. "You would never expect stuff like this to happen, let alone be one isolated person from this community to be out there and get shot. It's just tragic. It's a senseless act, and it doesn't make sense and it never will." For a tight-knit community like theirs, as well as the other rural areas affected by the shooting, Bezanson said the only word is "traumatized." Wyse's Corner is still grieving their last tragedy, Bezanson said, with the horrific case of Codey Hennigar. Hennigar killed his mother and grandparents before setting fire to their home in January 2015, which was just a few doors down from Webber's home.

Procession planned for Saturday

Since the family won't be able to have a large funeral due to COVID-19 restrictions, Bezanson has organized a procession of cars to line up at the entrance of Dollar Lake

Dillman Family of Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

Provincial Park on Saturday at 1 p.m. AT. The pace car from Scotia Speedworld is set to lead the group, Bezanson said, a fitting tribute given Webber's passion for stock car racing, which he took part in around the early 2000s.

ii. Laura Clarissa.

239. Rick Boutilier (Joyce Dillman⁶, Russell St. Clair⁵, Lewis Alexander⁴, Kenneth McKenzie³, Lewis², Christopher George¹).

Rick married AnnMarie McMullen (241), daughter of 216. Ronald McMullin & Sandra Ruth Violet Bezanson (7 Feb 1953-10 Jun 2014).

They had one child:

i. Brandon. Born on 9 Feb 1992. Brandon died on 31 Dec 2022; he was 30.

BOUTILIER, Brandon -It is with the heaviest of hearts that we announce the passing of Brandon Boutilier, 30, of Shubenacadie, on December 31st, 2022 at home. Brandon's death was sudden, but peaceful, and he was surrounded by his loved ones until the end. Brandon was born at the IWK in Halifax on February 9th, 1992. Brandon spent his formative years surrounded by the love of his parents, Rick and AnnMarie, and his sister, Shanda. Brandon's childhood was filled with biking and four wheeling and lots of handwashing for little Brandon who hated having dirty hands. Growing up, Brandon could often be found cruising around the mean streets of Antrim with his lifelong friend, Dennis, his uncle, Chris and sister, Shanda. Brandon graduated from Musquodoboit Rural High and subsequently from NSCC with a diploma in Refrigeration and Air Conditioning. Brandon thoroughly enjoyed his job working for EBM Refrigeration, where he valued the kindness and mentorship shown to him by his employer, Eric. The best part of Brandon's day was coming home to see his 2-year-old daughter, Libby, and partner of 15 years, Holly Mosher. Brandon and Holly were high school sweethearts for whom their first love was their true love. Holly was Brandon's best friend and there was no one else he would rather spend his time. Brandon and Holly loved their nights together watching Netflix, but their real joy came from watching their daughter grow and thrive. Brandon was a wonderful father who could always be counted on to dress-up for Halloween, have his nails and hair done, and do just about anything that would bring a smile to his daughter's face. When he wasn't being a loving father and supportive partner, Brandon could be found tinkering away in his backyard garage. Growing up Brandon learned his mechanic skills from his father and his greatest joy was passing on those same skills to his daughter, Libby. The two could often be found in the garage working on Libby's toy cars and she was his number one assistant. Brandon could always be counted on to lend a hand to those in need and did so cheerfully. Brandon is survived by his life partner, Holly Mosher; daughter, Libby Boutilier; his parents, Rick and AnnMarie (McMullin) Boutilier; sister, Shanda Boutilier (Jon Thompson) and his grandfather, Ronald McMullin. Brandon will be missed by his niece and nephews Willow, Jayce and Lucas, who he thoroughly enjoyed, and many aunts, uncles, cousins, in-laws and friends. Brandon was predeceased by his maternal grandmother, Sandra (Bezanson) McMullin and his paternal grandparents, Eric and Joyce (Dillman) Boutilier; his Aunt Shirley (Boutilier) Webber and cousin, Joey Webber.
