Revised March 25, 2024

I became interested in this family because of my research into the McMullen family of the same area<sup>1</sup>. One of the early McMullen women (Margaret Moody, d/o Mary McMullen) married Thomas Killough of Gays River, and in looking for their children I ended up pulling together a draft genealogy of this family, since it is an uncommon name and there were only a few families. However, there are Killough/Kellough families in the Gays River area - William (b. 1825, md Elizabeth McHeffey<sup>2</sup>) and Thomas (b. 1819, md Margaret Moody) are sons of William Sr. (b. 1786) and Martha who came to Gays River, also I believe Andrew Kellough who married Mary Amelia Kilcup and lived in Gore, Hants Co. is another son; but I have not connected them with Thomas (b. 1804, md Janet Henderson) – he may be a nephew or younger brother of William Sr. This Thomas had a son Robert Henderson Kellough in Gays River, who married Henrietta Cook and they have many descendants.

I found the early records to be mostly Killough, but then in the later records Kellough seems to be more predominant.

So this report is very much an early draft version and I would appreciate any feedback. I start with the William and Martha Kellough family, then on page 23 I have the Thomas and Jennet (Henderson) Kellough family. Most of the data is from Nova Scotia Historical Vital Statistics (NSHVS; www.novascotiagenealogy.com), from Canadian census data, from cemetery inscriptions, and from Massachusetts vital records (www.familysearch.org).

I also want to share links for the broader Killough family and the Killough Reunion Association at <http://killough.org> They prepared a book, “The Killough/Kellough Family in Ireland, Canada and the United States”, by Zora Killough Cunningham, 1997. The database is online at

Killough/Kellough Family of Colchester, Hants and Halifax Co., Nova Scotia

http://killough.org/killough\_book/book\_index.htm and the 1991 version of the book is completely scanned and available as a pdf download at <https://www.familysearch.org/library/books/records/item/297806-the-killough-family-in-ireland-canada-and-the-united-states?offset=1>

Nova Scotia is not mentioned in this book. Chapter 12 contains one of the Irish/Canadian Branches, which is an Ontario family. James (1798-1869) emigrated from Antrim, Ireland to Lanark Co., Ontario in 1834. His father is buried near Ballymoney, Antrim, which interestingly enough is where Mary Ann (Kellough) Wright of Seattle, WA claimed her father, Robert Kellough of Gays River, was from (see #4 in the Thomas and Jennet Henderson Kellough family below). This family was in the Almonte/Ottawa area, and some generations migrated to the US. A DNA match has been made between a descendant of this Ontario family and a descendant of the Gays River family. James' brother John (p. 337) also emigrated first to Lanark Co. ("where the other Killoughs were"), then to Holland Landing, ON, and generations from there to Saskatchewan and British Columbia. So while the details have yet to be worked out, this provides a tentative linkage for the Nova Scotia family all the way back to John Killough, b. 1630, of Drogheda Scotland.

First Generation of the William Kellough Sr. Family

1. William Kellough. Born in 1786 in Ireland. William died in Gays River, NS, on 16 Jan 1875; he was 89. Buried in Gays River United Church Cemetery, NS.

At the time of the Halifax Explosion she was living with her father and sister, Bertha, at 35 Kaye Street in Halifax. Her father was killed instantly and she and her sister were displaced. At some time after the explosion a roommate from Mount Allison contacted her from Winnipeg because she was struggling with tuberculosis. This led her to undertake a diploma in social welfare at the University of Manitoba, where she studied under J.S. Woodsworth. During this time she lived with her uncle, Murray Kellough. While living in Winnipeg she renewed a friendship with Harold M. Hockin, the younger brother of her deceased fiancé. They were subsequently married in 1919 and lived the balance of their lives in Winnipeg. Mrs. Hockin died in December 1958.

NS Archives Fonds consists of a pass for access for the devastated area issued by the City of Halifax and a sixteen page hand-written letter by Ethel Jean Bond to her uncle, Murray Kellough, of Winnipeg, Manitoba. In her letter she describes the devastation of the Halifax Explosion, the death of her father, and the injuries that her sister Bertha sustained, and discusses the impact on various neighbours in the vicinity of Kaye Street in Halifax, including the Swetnams, Killams, and Theakstons, among others.

As a young man he moved to Halifax and worked in the grocery business. He subsequently worked in the same field in Boston and Winnipeg. He lost his Winnipeg business during the Great Depression and subsequently worked a small farm in Selkirk, Manitoba, growing experimental crops and studying at the University of Manitoba. On 30 January 1907 he married Jessie Russell Phillips of Halifax and together they had three children. His wife died on 21 January 1919 from influenza and his children were sent back to Nova Scotia for a year. Thereafter, they returned and his wife's older sister, Annie Blanche Phillips, helped to raise the children. Ultimately, Murray Kellough moved back to a small farm on the edge of Winnipeg. He died there on 27 July 1965.

life, Babe (Kathleen MacPhee) and together they bought a small farm in Shubenacadie. It was here they began their life together. Gordon was a successful poultry farmer and cattle buyer. After selling the poultry business, he continued to work in the poultry industry and to be a regular at the Thursday Cattle Auctions in Truro. Gordon enjoyed good food, good music, a game of cards or three, and spending time with family and friends. Gordon was predeceased by his parents; sister, Bessie Reid; half sisters, Hazel Lively, Mable Russell and Martha Blois; half brother, Henry Britton. Left to grieve are his loving wife of 68 years; daughters, Betty (Brian) MacPhee, Shubenacadie; Millie (Randy Marion) Cottrell, Wallaceburg, ON; Catherine Kellough, Milford; son, David (Joan), London, ON; grand children, Jo-Leigh MacPhee, Kentville; Mark (Crystal) MacPhee, Shubenacadie; Matthew Cottrell, Goodrich, ON; Douglas Cottrell, Ottawa, ON; great-grandchildren, Joshua and Brooklyn; sister, Verna Weatherhead; several nieces and nephews.

KELLOUGH, Kathleen Marie, better known as “Babe” - age 91, of Milford. In the wee hours of January 25, 2024 Babe Kellough drew her final breath tucked away in her bed at home surrounded by her fur family. Born in MacPhee’s Corner, she was the only daughter of the late Albert and Cleta (Lively) MacPhee. Mom was a kind and compassionate person. So proud of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Her love for them shone through like a ray of sunshine beaming through on a cloudy day. Food was her love language. She was an old school cook who might have had the recipe book open, but I don’t think she ever looked at it. Counter tops lined with bread and Tupperware containers filled to the brim with sweet treats. And don’t forget the seasonal favourite - fruitcake! A big old farmhouse kitchen was the entertainment centre. Visitors would be seated around the table, and I think they would have been hard pressed to get out the door without having a cup of Red Rose along with a slice of homemade pie, cookie or doughnut. If that table could have talked it would tell you yummy times were had by all and how many games of crib dad had won. If mom was going “out” for a sweet treat - ice cream was her favourite and DQ was her stop of choice. Or a puppachino from Starbucks. The staff knew it was her when we would pull up to the speaker and order 2 pup cups 1 spoon. Collecting, grading and delivering eggs, along with raising a family, chasing a beef cow that had escaped to see if the grass was really greener on the other side. Babe never stopped. Add to that cleaning and ironing no iron sheets -her days were full. When the cows and chickens were gone, she took time to enjoy some fun. Mom had a great sense of humour, broad smile and loved spending time with others. For years she would canvass her old neighbourhood in Shubenacadie. It was as much about the visit as it was about the collection. In 2014 she was recognized for her years of service by the Canadian Red Cross. She also gave bowling a go. Again it may have been about the socializing as it was about the bowling As she left her 70’s, Alzheimers came a calling. To help keep busy and sociable we signed her up for adult day programs with both VON and Northwood. She might hemm and ha about going but when we got to the door and a staff member was coming to greet her, that smile appeared spreading from ear to ear. A long time member of the United Church in Shubenacadie she cooked roasts for the fund raising dinners. Her faith was very important to her, saying her prayers every night before bed until the later stages of Alzheimer's took that part of her memory away. But, the disease never took away her love of music. She loved dancing to fiddle music, clapping hands, tapping feet and swaying along with the rhythm. Even the mechanical Santa that lived in the front window at Christmas made a great dancing partner. Over the last few months she enjoyed Apple Music on the tv. You would see her lips moving as she sang along, even if you didn't hear a voice. She is survived by daughters, Betty (Brian) MacPhee, Shubenacadie; Millie (Randy Marion) Cottrell, Wallaceburg, ON; Catherine Kellough, Milford; son, David (Joan), London, ON; grandchildren, Jo-Leigh MacPhee, Kentville; Mark (Crystal) MacPhee, Shubenacadie; Matthew Cottrell, Goodrich, ON; Douglas Cottrell, Ottawa, ON; great-grandchildren, Joshua and Brooklyn; several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, Gordon, brothers, Paul and Alden.

Also from the Frame genealogy, “Robert and Elizabeth (McHeffey) Kellough had children Annie (Arthur A. They went to the Western United States.” From familysearch Mary Ann Kellough 1858-1945 md. to Arthur A. Wright, Laura Kellough 1870-1956 md. to Walton Taft and Fred Cushing, Lewis H. Familysearch shows Robert Kellough, father of Mary Ann, Laura and Lewis, as having died in 1873, which might make sense in terms of the orphaning of the children, however the Robert Kellough who died in 1873 in Gays River, Halifax Co., was a child age 2, s/o William and Elizabeth (McHeffey) Kellough, of cholera.
