Kenty Family of Grand Lake and Hants County

Preface

The early work on this report was begun by Beulah Wright (#74i) of River John, NS, and passed to me in 1996. Thirty years later I have published it in the present form. Beulah was my father's first cousin. She passed away in December, 2025, so this report is dedicated to her.

Another report was published in 2003 and I have utilized that in this report as well:

Chamberlain, Marjorie Kenty and Kenty, Howard Lee (2003), "The Leppert and Kenty/Canty family". Charleston, South Carolina.

See #60i and ii

Their report is available for download at

<https://www.familysearch.org/library/books/viewer/495932/>

There is considerable more information on Melchior and Catherine Leppert and their family.

I have reviewed all of the Nova Scotia Historical Vital Statistics for Kenty births, marriages and deaths and for Kenty in Nova Scotia censuses, 1871-1931. I also reviewed all of the available burial information at findagrave. I also made use of data at familysearch. Sources are indicated below.

I hope this book will be helpful to the family - please share with others. Any errors or additions are always welcome! Please contact me.

I have also compiled genealogies of several other Hants County families, notable Fraser and McPhee, from whom I descend and in which there is considerable overlap with the Kenty's. Please see gofffamilyhistory.ca

Tiny Thompson - Hockey Hall of Fame - Inducted 1959.

Played 12 NHL seasons
from 1928 to 1940.

In an era when great goaltenders were the rule, rather than the exception, Cecil (Tiny) Thompson didn't take a back seat to anyone.

The tag of Tiny was something of a misnomer; he stood 5-foot-10 and weighed around 170 pounds. His goaltending opposition at that time included such stalwarts as George Hainsworth, Roy Worters, Charlie Gardiner and Lorne Chabot, but he was still able to win the Vezina Trophy on four occasions -- 1929-30, 1932-33, 1935-36 and 1937-38.

Kenty Family of Grand Lake and Hants County

Thompson was born in Sandon, B.C., May 31, 1903, and played his early hockey there. He also played amateur hockey for the Calgary Monarch Juniors, Pacific Grain Seniors, Bellvue Bulldogs and Duluth in the Minor Central League. He signed with Minneapolis in 1924, and played two years with them as an amateur then another two years with the same club when it turned professional.

Boston purchased Thompson and Cooney Weiland before the 1928-29 season. Tiny took over as the No. 1 goalie from Hal Winkler and remained with the Bruins for 10 seasons. He played his final two NHL seasons with Detroit, then retired. His lifetime average in league games was 2.08 and his playoff average of goals-against was 1.88 per game. In addition to his Vezina Trophy awards, Thompson was twice voted to the league's first All-Star team, and twice to the second team.

One of Thompson's most memorable matches was a classic marathon contest against Toronto in 1933 where, after a scoreless three regulation periods, he tended goal for another 104 minutes and 46 seconds of overtime before the Leafs won, 1-0, to take the quarter final series.

Arline Marie (Norton) Kenty, 87, a longtime resident of Malden, passed away on Friday, May 18, 2007 at the Rosewood Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Peabody. Arline was born in Portland, Maine, in 1919, the daughter of Frank and Madeline (Burns) Norton. At an early age, she moved to Medford, MA, where she was raised and educated. She graduated from Medford High School with the class of 1937. In 1940, she married her sweetheart, Ralph W. Kenty, and the two shared over 66 years together. Arline worked at Morton's as a model for fur coats when she was young, and quite possibly had a career as model, even having once won a Catherine Hepburn look a like contest. But at the onset of WWII, like many other American women, she joined the homefront effort by taking a position as an assembly line worker, making parts for airplanes during the war. She later worked as a telephone operator at Anderson Window in North Andover after being married for approximately 5 years. She eventually retired to become a homemaker and dedicate herself to the raising of their family, both children and grandchildren. Over the years, she also had many other 'adopted children' whom she would welcome into her home and helped to raise. Arline was a very active woman, who always maintained a dignified presence. She enjoyed gardening, crocheting, and dancing, and also loved to travel, wanting to see the world. Arline was a member of the Immaculate Conception Church in Malden, and also member of the Ladies Jr. Aid Association. Her greatest joy, though, was her grand children and great grandchildren. She is survived by her husband Ralph W. Kenty of Malden, MA, her daughter, Alexandra Kelly (Haney) of Reading, her grandchildren, J. Paul Haney III of Exeter, NH, Sean F. Haney of Andover, Dr. Jessica L. Kenty-Drane of Woodbridge, CT, and, Kate E. Kenty of Revere, as well as 7 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Madeline(Burns)Norton, and her son Ralph F Kenty.

Thompson; great-grandchildren, Logan and Jaiden McLean and Chandler Fulton; sister, Olive Johnston, Truro; sister-in-law, Della Fraser, London, Ont. She was predeceased by her husband, Keith Francis Wright; brother, Ross Fraser.

On 15 Oct 1938 when Della Elizabeth was 23, she married Keith Francis Wright, son of George Davenport Wright (19 Mar 1866-9 Sep 1931) & Frances Ann Fraser (26 Dec 1864-10 Apr 1943), in Elmsdale, NS. Born on 15 Dec 1906 in Elmsdale, NS. Keith Francis died in Pictou, NS, on 5 Mar 1991; he was 84. Buried in Hamilton Cemetery, River John. Occupation: Farmer, Woodworker.

Keith Wright completed his education in Belnan school, with grade twelve. He trained for a railway station agent, but did not like it, so left before he wrote the examination. For several years he operated a meat business, buying cattle throughout Hants County, butchering and then delivering the meat by truck on a regular basis through Elmsdale, Lantz, Enfield, Milford, and surrounding area. His brother, Harding, was partner in the business first, later he operated the business himself. As well, he farmed with his father, a dairy farm, then took over at his father's death. The family farm was "Hillside", one hundred acres in Belnan, Hants County. In 1949, he sold the farm and moved to Pictou County, buying a farm in Hedgeville, which he operated with his children until his health forced him to retire. During those years he cut pulp wood on his own lot, using a swede saw and hauling the pulp from the woods with a single horse. He loved horses, and oxen; attended the Bridgewater exhibition to watch the oxpulls whenever he was able, and any other exhibition where oxen were featured. He read and saved every story about oxen and had scrapbooks full of clippings and postcards. He always worked hard, to provide for his large family, never had many of the luxuries of life, but enjoyed his family and doing things with them. His wife, Della, always worked on the farm with him, making hay, gardening and cutting wood. As his children grew, they were always with him. He loved walking through the woods, to the river, and in later years when he was able to afford a car, he loved driving the back roads and exploring the countryside. Unfortunately, the last seven years of his life, he suffered from severe ill health. He had become badly crippled with arthritis, then took diabetes, which caused neuritis and he lost the use and feeling of his right side. A series of small strokes added to the incapacitation and he was confined to his chair for the remainder of his life. He minded that terribly, but when the families came to visit, when the grandchildren were playing around him and when the boys were playing their guitars and everyone was singing, he was happy. He died in the Sutherland Harris hospital in Pictou on the morning of March 5th, 1991, with Della, six of his children, his son-in-law and two of his daughters-in-law beside him. He is buried in the Hamilton cemetery in River John. He was proud of his heritage, loved his family, and raised them to respect the principles in which he believed (contributed by daughter Beulah Wright).

Mar 22, 1950, moved to River John.

Nov 2, 1964, fire destroyed home.

But the greatest and most rewarding interest was in family, organizing reunions and get togethers and keeping in touch with extended family. Beulah has always lived with and chose to be the caretaker for her parents and special brother, Leigh. She loved all children and enjoyed the greatest pleasure from her twelve nieces and nephews, their partners and children, and also seven step-nieces and nephews and their partners and children.
