William Kilcup and Hannah Lutches are my 6 great-grandparents on both my father's side, from son Joseph and his daughter Henrietta Maria Dill, and my mother's side, from daughter Sarah Margaret Blois. I have compiled an ancestry report of New England settlers to Hants County (Burgess, Kilcup, Wood and Sanford), including the ancestry of William Kilcup back to Boston, and it is available at

<http://www.gofffamilyhistory.ca/DillBurgessKilcupWoodAncestriesHantsCountyNS.pdf>

The Kilcup line is as follows:

1. William (b. 1602, England, to Charlestown, Mass. 1649, d. 1689, Boston) md. Grace
2. Roger (1650-1702) md. Anne
3. George (b. 1692) md. Mary Thatcher
4. George (b. 1713) md. Margaret Detton
5. William (b. 1739, Boston, Mass., settled in Windsor, Nova Scotia, 1761) md. Hannah Lutches

This report provides as much detail as I can on the descendants of William and Hannah Kilcup, in Windsor and beyond. The first two sources listed below provided the skeleton, and I have compiled much primary data from the next 4 sources. Doris (Kilcup) Winkie was my original source of information, 25 years ago, and I have finally gotten to publishing this report. I hope it is useful as a starting point for anyone searching their Hants County roots.

There are still some unconnected Kilcup families, and I have provided details of them in an Appendix, starting on page 238. They may, or may not, all be from the William Kilcup family. As is mentioned in more details below, the book "Gateway to the Valley", published by the Centennial Committee of the Annapolis Valley, 1977, states that the McKillup family of Ireland emigrated to Nova Scotia and changed their name to Kilcup. Religious persecution caused them to leave Ireland. They settled in the Annapolis Valley, Kings Co., NS. It is entirely possible that some of the unconnected Kilcup's were indeed McKillup's, although there are no McKillup names in the Nova Scotia Historical Vital Records.

Corrections or additions are always welcome!

First Generation

1. William Kilcup (5th generation in North America), son of George Kilcup (3 Aug 1713-) & Margaret Detton (ca 1714-bef 23 Dec 1773). Born in 1739 in Boston, MA. William died in Windsor, Nova Scotia. Residence: Fort Louisbourg (1759) Ellershouse, NS (400 acres).

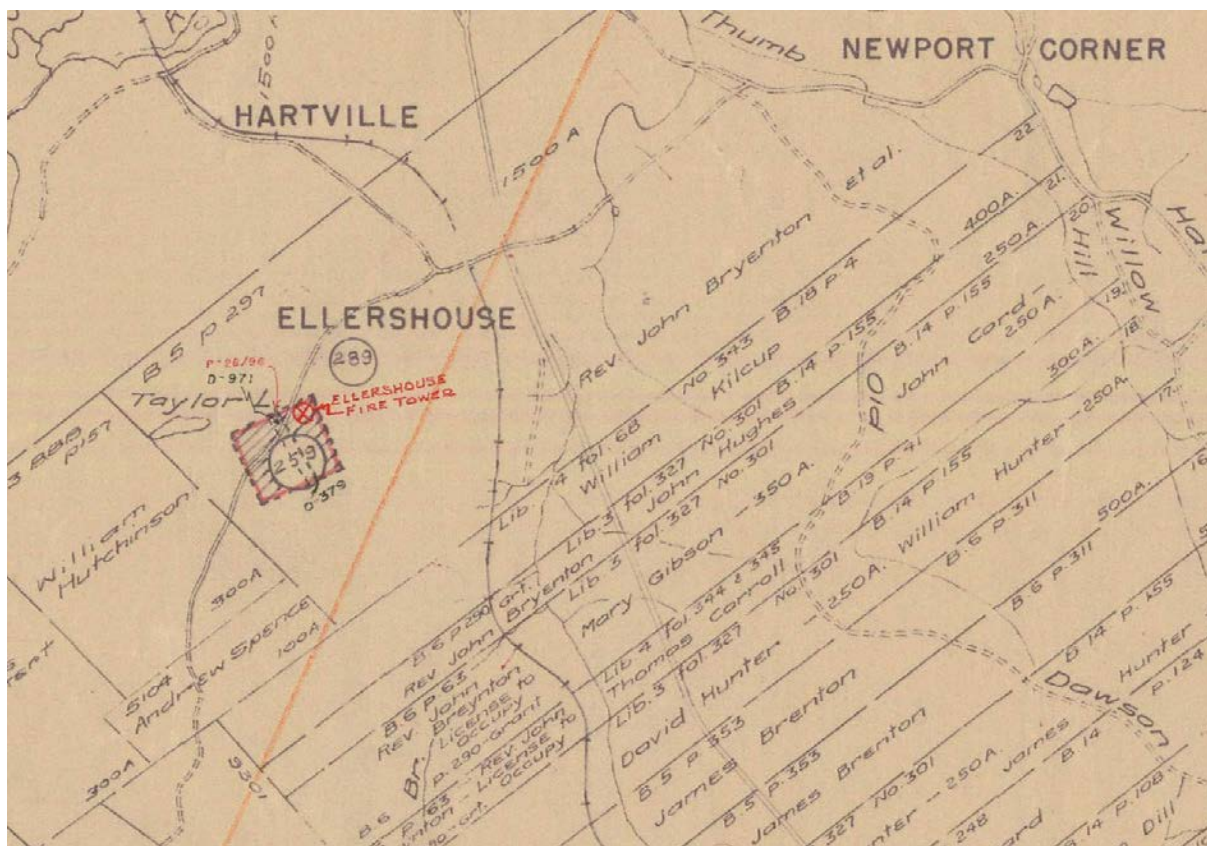

The ancestry of William Kilcup, going back to the American family, was principally from Doris Kilcup Winskie, May 4, 1996. She has positive evidence of the American tie. However, Ralph Blois, in his extensive Blois genealogy, disputed this claim. His claim comes principally from "Gateway to the Valley", published by the Centennial Committee of the Annapolis Valley, 1977, which states that the McKillup family of Ireland emigrated to Nova Scotia and changed their name to Kilcup. Religious persecution caused them to leave Ireland. They settled in the Annapolis Valley, Kings Co., NS and then moved to Falmouth where son William m. Hannah Lutches on 2 Mar. 1765. It should be noted, however, that there are a few unconnected Kilcups - see the Appendix, page 180. It is possible that one or more of these families might have been McKillup's, although that name is not in the Nova Scotia Historical Vital Statistics.

William's petition for a land grant in Nova Scotia (6 July 1785) to Governor John Parr stated that he had served as a soldier in the Royal American Regiment and the Royal Nova Scotia Volunteers (J. V. Duncanson's Rawdon and Douglas) originating in New England, Amesbury, Mass. He served from 1759 under Col. Jonathan Bagley and was in Louisburg, NS for one year from Jan. 1, 1760 to Jan. 12, 1761. He was mustered out as a private at that time. William was baptized at the New North Church in Boston on Nov. 11, 1739, the son of George and Margaret (Detton) Kilcup, and spent his early years in Boston, enlisting in the service at age 20 in Amesbury.

In his 1785 petition, he stated he had "two sons able to labour, and four daughters". The Poll Tax records of 1791 in Windsor Township list William Kilcup, William Kilcup Jr. and Joseph Kilcup, each as "farmer having more than 6 head of cattle and horses". William Jr. and Joseph were the only Kilcup's listed in the 1817 Hants County census. In that census, Joseph was in the Township of Windsor and in his household were three males between 16 and 50 years of age, three boys, three women and two girls. William was in the Township of Douglas and in his household were two males between 16 and 50 years of age, one boy, and two women.

Second Generation

Family of William Kilcup (1) & Hannah Lutches

2. William Kilcup (William¹). Born in 1768 in Falmouth, Hants Co., NS. William died in Gore, Hants Co., NS, on 19 May 1870; he was 102. Residence: Windsor, NS, 1799.

1817 Hants County census, William Kilcup, Township of Douglas, two males between 16 and 50 years of age, one boy, and two women.

Windsor Poll Tax, Aug. 20, 1791, William Kilcup Jr., farmer, age 23. He is probably the man who purchased Prospect Farm at Windsor in 1799 from Colin and Letitia Campbell (now part of the West Hants Industrial Park). William and Mary sold part of this land on Nov. 27, 1818 for £195/6/10 to Benjamin DeWolf Jr. (Doris Winkie information).

"Halifax Chronicle Herald" Mar 29 1965 p 6: Mrs Henry Ward was Hannah Kilcup, daughter of William Kilcup Jr, b1768 d.1870 -102 years and 5 months 19 days. "when he was 100 years old he walked to town, 27 miles, then he could still dance a jig."

They had 14 children, all living at the time of Mary's death.

William married Mary. Born in 1773. Mary died in Windsor, Hants Co., NS, on 10 Apr 1860; she was 87.

Named as Mary Moir in familysearch, no source given.

² Gerrit Lutgens is listed in "Immigrants to Nova Scotia", by L. Smith, pg. 139, arriving on ship Speedwell, 1751, farmer, from Friesland, age 39, with wife and 4 children. St. Paul's Church Records, Halifax, (1749-1768), on 17 Oct 1751, baptism of William Cumberland Paul "Lutiz", son of Gerat and Hendris Lutiz. Also on 29 Dec. 1766, the marriage of John Matthew Lutgens and Sophia Mulhig. The Lutgens were said to have arrived with 4 children. Probably Hannah (Janna?) was one, and these may have been brothers.

Kilcup Family of Hants County, NS

They had the following children:

- i. David Douglas. Born ca 1792. In various records, his birth date has been given as 1815 rather than 1792. If that is the case, he may be the David who married Elizabeth Adams, parents of Mary Falis – see Appendix, -B, p. 228.
- ii. George. Born ca 1793. I suspect now that this is George Henry #14 below.
- iii. William. Born in 1795.
- 9 iv. Joseph (1797-9 Jul 1869)
- 9a v. Lucilla Lucinda (1797-1 Nov 1887)

3. Joseph Kilcup (*William*¹). Born in 1770 in Falmouth, NS. Joseph died in Gore, NS, on 10 May 1845; he was 75. Occupation: Farmer. Residence: Windsor, West Gore, NS.

An Ancestry tree has a son of Joseph and Ann being George b. 1805 in NS, md. 9 Dec. 1836 in St. George, NB to Margaret Kimbal Masters, b. 1803 Pennfield, NB, d. 1880, parents of Phineas Selindsey Kilcup (b. Phineas and Mary had the following children:

IF this George is a s/o Joseph and Ann, this suggests George Henry (#14) who md. Sarah Baxter may be an older son of William (#2) and Mary.

They had the following children:

William and Elizabeth Ward were married in England and, embarking at Hull between Feb. 28 and March 7, 1774, came from Yorkshire to Nova Scotia in the ship 'Two Friends'. Glasco Sun, May 8, 1908, page 3. Obituary of Mrs. Jordan

Elizabeth Ward Jordan was born at Kentville, Kings County, Nova Scotia, Sept. 1, 1823. Died at Glasco, Kansas, April 30, 1908, aged 83 years, 7 months and 29 days. At the age of 22 years she was united in marriage to Wm. Jordan, on June 15, 1846, and for twenty-five years they made their home in the land of her birth. There were ten children born to them, two of whom died in childhood. In the spring of '71 they, with their eight children, broke the ties which bound them to their native land, and, with many others, set out for the prairies of the great West, there to face the perils and hardships of pioneer days. They moved in with the family of Jacob Frankforter, a quarter of a mile south of town. The house was only a small, two-room affair, but the sixteen members of the two families succeeded in getting along therein until the Jordans had erected a living place on the homestead, four miles northeast of Glasco, where they continued to live until death claimed the companion of fifty-eight years. During the entire time of her residence here she was regarded as an ideal mother and homekeeper and an excellent neighbor. Her children and grandchildren are among the most prosperous and respected citizens of this section. Three years ago last October Grandma Jordan was stricken with paralysis, from which she never fully recovered. Through these years of affliction she was patient and cheerful, even to the hour of her death. She was cared for during these years by her daughter, Miss Anna, who was able assisted for about three years by Mrs. Sarah Abrams, niece to the deceased, and for whose kind and tender ministrations the children all feel very grateful. Before coming to Kansas Mrs. Jordan was a member of the M.E. church, but she never united with any church here. However, "By their fruits ye shall know them," and many a pillow has been softened and many pains eased by her timely and kind ministrations. She leaves two brothers, two sisters, eight children -- five daughters and three sons -- twenty-three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Thus death has claimed another of the old settlers and neighbors. One by one they are passing. Be ye, also ready, for in an hour that ye think not, the summons comes.

Marriage Bond 19 Oct 1848 John Kilcup and Caroline Thompson of Windsor, married by Rev. John L. Murdock, Windsor, witnessed by G. Henry Kilcup and James Thompson. G. Henry is a son of John and Rebecca, so you could assume he was witnessing his brother's marriage. Doris Winskie has this John as s/o John and Rebecca.

Marriage Register 10 Jan 1878 Springhill NS John Kilcup 30 Bachelor Music Teacher b. Newport Hants Co. res Springhill s/o John & Rebecca md. Isabel Corbitt 25 Spinster b. 5 Islands res 5 Islands d/o Edw. & Rebecca. These are Alice Mombourquette's (#162i) great-grandparents and she had this John as a son of John and Rebecca (Woodward). The age of John in the 1871 census is right.

So then who is the John who md. Caroline Thompson? And who is Nellie in the 1871 census? The "M" makes it look like John and Nellie were married to each other, but John declared himself a bachelor in his marriage register to Isabel. Something is not quite right! Maybe John who md Caroline Thompson is the son of George Henry Kilcup (#14) who md. Sarah Baxter. They were in Windsor and the age would fit. So maybe this George Henry witnessed his son's marriage.

Resident Here Near 75 Years

Last of Generation of Pioneer Family

James M. Sivwright, Successful Farmer, Member of Board of Supervisors From Mayfield For Several Terms, and Valued Citizen, Died at His Home Here on Tuesday.

James M. Sivwright, member of a well known and highly esteemed pioneer family of DeKalb county, and a resident of this county nearly three-fourths of a century, departed this life at his home on North Cross street in Sycamore on Tuesday, July 26. His death was the result of a complication of ailments of about nine years' duration. James M. Sivwright, son of Alexander and Mary (Kilcup) Sivwright, was born in Windsor, Nova Scotia, March 1, 1838, and came with his parents to Illinois and Mayfield township in 1848. There he continued to reside except the past three years he had been a resident of this city. On March 13, 1862, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Ann Drake of Mayfield. To them were born two daughters: Mrs. Flora Collier of this city and Mrs. Harriet Wallisan of Council bluffs, Iowa, both of whom with the widow survive. The greater part of Mr. Sivwright's life he was engaged in farming. From 1890 to 1895 he was a member of the DeKalb County Board of Supervisors, representing the township of

Kilcup Family of Hants County, NS

Mayfield. He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Kingston, and since early manhood a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Kingston. Of a genial nature and the strictest integrity he had many friends and admirers. He possessed a remarkable memory. In 1860 he made a trip to Pike's Peak in company with several others, in a "prairie schooner," and spent the summer there. About nine years ago he made another trip to Pike's peak, this time in an automobile, in company with Dan Collier, his son-in-law, and remembered many of the places he had previously visited, although that was 52 years before. He is the last of the family of three sons and two daughters. His brother Nelson Sivwright died here twenty years ago. Funeral services were held at his late residence on Cross street on Thursday at 2:30 p.m., under the direction of the Masonic lodge, Rev. James O'May pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. The interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Death of Mary Ann, Walton, widow of late Duncan McDougall, age 83 years, PW 30 June 1883.

In the Walton cemetery in one row are the following:

Mary McDougall, wife of Duncan, d. June 25, 1883, ae 83 (hence b. 1800).

John MacDougall (sic), d. Feb. 18, 1862, ae 28 (hence b. 1834).

Lucy Ann McDougall, wife of Alexander, d. Dec. 19, 1865, ae 26 (hence b. 1839).

Samuel R. MacDougall, d. 1880, ae 3 yrs.

On 13 Nov 1821 when Mary Anne was 18, she married Daniel "Duncan" McDougall, son of Donald "Daniel" McDougall⁶ (10 Jul 1752-) & Margaret (10 May 1772-12 Oct 1820), in St. Pauls, Rawdon, Douglas, NS. Born in 1799 in Nine Mile River, N.S. Daniel "Duncan" died in Walton on 8 Apr 1873; he was 74. Occupation: Farmer, McAlpine Directory, Walton 1868.

In the History of Central Hants, by Ralph Whittier, it is stated that Duncan McDougall who m. Mary Ann Blois Nov. 13, 1821 was one of eleven children of Donald and Margaret McDougall.

The children and grandchildren of Duncan and Mary Ann have been pieced together from various sources: as recorded from Ralph Blois in the Blois genealogy, also listings in the Douglas Township Book, various church records, and some assumptions to tie it all together, as noted. The children were shown baptized in St. Pauls in Rawdon. Duncan's father lived in Nine Mile River, so it is unsure when or why Duncan went to Kempt, and whether he was the first of the McDougall family there or not.

⁶ Please refer to my report "The McDougall's of Nine Mile River and Kempt Shore, Hants County, NS", at <http://www.gofffamilyhistory.ca/McDougallHantsCountyNovaScotia.pdf> for further details.

Kilcup Family of Hants County, NS

Duncan McDougall/Mary Ann Blois children: I have seen the Douglas Township Book record of this family - Duncan McDougall, m. 13 Nov. 1821 at St. Pauls, Rawdon, Mary Ann Blois, Douglas Hants, children - Donald, bapt. 7 Sept. 1822, Mary Jane, Daniel, Sarah, no dates. An entry on pg. 41 further states Note made by Mr. Scott from memory, issue not recorded in DTB - Abram, William Henry. The LDS records the following, supposedly from records of St. Pauls, Rawdon: Abram, ~1824, Mary Jane, ~1826, Daniel ~1828, Sarah ~1830. Ralph Blois also lists Elizabeth, natural dau. of Mary Ann Blois, b. 1820. Ralph records births as follows: Daniel, b. 10 June 1820, Donald, chr. 7 Sept. 1822, Sarah, b. 1824, Abram, b. 1829. No dates for Mary Jane or Wm. Henry. J.V.Duncanson, Rawdon/Douglas, in Blois family states the same but no dates, references Ralph Blois. From Registry of Hants Co. deaths, 1864-1877, Abraham McDougall, s/o Duncan and Mary Ann, d. 19/09/75, ae 47 (b. 1828). Sarah m. Joseph Teasdale 25 Jan. 1842 (could not be born 1830, maybe 1824).

There is a problem in Ralph Blois' children of Duncan and Mary Ann, though. He lists two children Donald and Daniel, but then the same wife and children (with a few assumptions) for each. Since Donald and Daniel are sometimes used interchangeably, I can only assume this is the same person.

In the 1861 census for Kempt (PANS mfm 9915 Poll #6, Abstract 7, #36), Duncan McDougall is listed as Head of Household with 1 male 60-70, female 50-60, 1 male 15-20.

The 1871 census shows Duncan (aged 78) and Mary Ann (aged 66) in Kempt, with Alexander (34, b. 1836), Henry (29, b. 1842), Salter (24, b. 1847), Eliza (19, b. 1852) and John (9, b. 1862). I believe this was a mixed family, related in part to the deaths of Duncan's brother Alexander and Duncan and Mary Ann's daughter-in-law Rebecca (Blois), wife of Daniel. I guess that Alexander was a nephew, the son of Alexander and Jane Murphy. I believe John may have been his son, as there is a death of Lucy Ann (1839-1865), wife of Alexander, recorded in Hants Death Register and buried at Walton. Henry was the youngest son of Duncan and Mary Ann. Salter and Eliza are grandchildren, children of Daniel and Rebecca (Blois).

The 1881 census for Kempt shows McDougall, W.H., 39, Mary Ann, 77, Mary 14. This is Mary Ann (Blois), but who are W.H. (Henry above??) and Mary McDougall?

Alexander, Duncan, and Henry McDougall, are all listed separately as farmers in the 1868 McAlpine Directory, Walton. Henry, 44, is single in the 1891 census of Kempt. An Alexander McDougall is also listed as farmer in the 1868 McAlpine Directory for Kempt and 1890 and 1896 directories for Summerville.

From a local scrapbook called "A Record of Woodville", about Nathan Kilcup, written by a local lady named Clara Wood.

When Nathen Kilcup moved here from the Morris Place, Lakeville, probably in or near 1856-57, he bought the farm from James Walton (Mrs. L Rockwell's father). Mr. Kilcup was a deacon in the Billtown Church. He likely came from Grand Pre. He married Margaret Matilda Calkin, daughter of Edmund Calkin, April 22, 1834. When they first moved here, they lived in the old Mahar house, while having a new one built. Whidden Burke built the home for Nathan Kilcup. Ross Clarke bought from the Kilcup family April 1, 1891. This "new" house is still there. Mr. Nathan Kilcup died July 11, 1878. (He had a sister who lived to be 108.) Mrs. Kilcup died Feb.19, 1888.

The family of Nathan and Margaret Kilcup were:

(This was told to me years later by Karl.)
6. Harriet E. (Hattie). Born Dec. 15, 1855. She was the tenth child and born at the Morris place. The Kilcups moved here afterwards. She was married three times. The first husband was Whalen Brown, whom she married in 1890. He was living at the P. A. Killam place. He bought it from George Burgess in 1889, and sold it to Almon Congdon in 1890 (April). Whalen and Harriet lived in Bridgetown. Here a daughter Murial died of T.B.; they also had a boy, Gordon, who lives in Roslindale, Mass. Whalen was a relative of Russell Chesley. Her second husband was Mr. Pickett from Bridgetown, and her third was Mr. Davis from Mass. Mrs. Davis was interested in my Woodville history, and was able to answer my queries of the past. She died in Sept., 1950, age 95. She died in Roslindale, Mass where her son Gordon lives.

Died At her home in Kirwin Township, Phillips County, Kansas, on March 23, 1882, at 9:30 a.m. Mary Ward Lord, aged 60 years, 5 months and 19 days. Deceased was born in Kings county, Nova Scotia, October 4, 1821, and was married to George T. Lord on January 31, 1844. They removed to Wisconsin in 1849 where they lived until 1870 when they came to Kansas, settling in Phillips county in 1871, being among the first to establish homes here. Their friends were many and none more loved and respected for their many good qualities than Aunt Mary and Uncle George. In Mrs. Lord's death our community loses one whom to know was to regard with kindest feeling. None more neighborly or more kind hearted, none more honest or self sacrificing. Her neighbors join the sorrowing relatives in this affliction. She had known for some days prior to her death that she could not live, yet she kept up and no one expected that the Grim Angel would come so soon. She was ready to go beyond this vale of tears and when the hour came, quietly falling asleep with a smile of relief resting on her face, Aunt Mary was gone.

On 31 Jan 1844 when Mary Ann was 22, she married George Tuttle Lord. Born on 5 Jan 1821 in Nova Scotia. George Tuttle died in Monument Station, Logan County, KS, on 28 May 1882; he was 61.

Henry is a son of John and Rebecca (Woodward), but their son John may be the one who married Isabelle Corbitt, so I wonder if this John might be a son of George Henry Kilcup (#14) and Sarah Baxter. Commonwealth of Massachusetts Return of a Death Rachel D. Gordon, 310 Ferry St., Malden, widowed, Maiden Name Rachel D. Dill, birthplace Rawdon, NS, Daughter of Joseph Dill, b. Rawdon and Mary Burgess, b. Rawdon, wife of Wm. Gordon.

Frances Wallace Province of British Columbia Death Registration, parents named as Joseph Dill and Mary Burgess.

Joseph and Mary Dill named their first daughter Sarah Maria, presumably from her grandmother's, Sarah Wood and Henrietta Maria Kilcup.

In correspondence in 1996 with Terri Cornell in Texas, a descendant of Caleb's son Charles, she said "I have no written proof that Caleb's daughter Mary Burgess married Joseph Dill, only my grandmother's word for it. She died in 1985 at the age of 95, sharp until the end. She was very close to her Burgess grandparents, Charles and Hannah, just as I was very close to her. Hearing my grandmother speak often and fondly of her own grandparents made them seem closer than my great-great-grandparents. She remembered that Mary's daughter was the mother of Dr. Fred Sims (dentist) of Belmont, Mass." And indeed Eunice Dill, d/o Joseph and Mary and sister to my 2g grandmother Sarah Maria (Dill) Fraser, md. William John Simm, the parents of Dr. Fred.

Sailed from Boston Mass. on Uncle Elisha Card's ship at age 13 as a crew. Went to Washington at age 25. All children born in Lynden, WA.

Daniel Kilcup, was born in Nova Scotia, where he was reared and educated. In the early '60s he came down the Frazier river on a scow, on which were his cattle and goods, and landed at Edison, a few miles north of Bellingham, where for a time he was engaged in logging. In 1865, or possibly a little prior to that date, he went to Bellingham, where he worked in the coal mines. He also served as a captain of the boats on the bay, for he had gone to sea at the age of twelve years and thus was experienced on the water. About 1870 he and his brother-in-law, Henry West, came to Lynden and took up a homestead. Their journey to this was not an easy trip, as they had to come up the Nooksack river in canoes, under the guidance of "Old Captain John," an Indian. At that time they were in the midst of a veritable wilderness, there being not even a trail to their land. Here Mr. Kilcup entered upon the formidable task of clearing the land of the dense growth of trees and brush which covered it. The wood around them were filled with wild animals, including bears, deers and cougars, and they had to be constantly on their guard. Once a year he walked to Bellingham, where he did his trading, but a other times his goods were brought up the river to him by Indians. He slashed about twenty acres of this land and cultivated it between the stumps. In those days the neighbors cooperated in helping each other clear their land, and 'logging bees' were a common event. The spirit of mutual helpfulness was more in evidence then at the present time.

Here Mr. Kilcup lived until his death, which occurred in 1888, about the time the first railroad through here was under construction. He was married to Miss Harriet Fillerdue, who was born in eastern Canada, of an old French family, her marriage to Mr. Kilcup occurring in British Columbia. She died October 17, 1918. To Mr. and Mrs. Kilcup were born thirteen children, namely: Captain John, who lives in Oregon, is married and has six children, and who was one of the first to run river boats up the Nooksack river; Sarah, who died when about fourteen years of age; Mrs. Louisa Pease, of Los Angeles, California, who is the mother of three sons; Mrs. Mary Coffin of Los Angeles, the mother of three children; Mrs. Margaret Murphy, who lived at Lynden but is now deceased, leaving five children; Mrs. Agnes Bratt, of Los Angeles; Emma, the immediate subject of this sketch; Mrs. Annie Hill, of Lynden, who has three children; Daniel and Charlie, who died in infancy; Robert, of Portland, Oregon, who is married and has six children; Dillon, of Lynden, who is married and has a son; and Mrs. Edith Heallander, of Bellingham.

EMMA (KILCUP) GRANDQUIST

Wholly devoted to home and domestic duties, doing through all the best years of her life the lowly but sacred work that comes within her sphere, there is not much to record concerning the life of the average woman. And yet what station so dignified, what relation so endearing, what office so tender and ennobling as those of home-making, wifehood and motherhood. In the settlement of Whatcom county woman bore her full share of hardships, and privations, helping man in his toilsome work, cheering him when discouraged, sharing his dangers, rejoicing in his success, and quietly and unostentatiously doing her part. Among this courageous band of women whose efforts contributed in a definite measure to the development of this section, specific mention should be made of Mrs. Emma Grandquist, who is one of the best known and most beloved women of her community.

Her father, Daniel Kilcup, was born in Nova Scotia, where he was reared and educated. See paragraph above.

Emma Kilcup secured her early education in the school at Nooksack Crossing, which she attended three months a year, Mrs. C.I. Roth being her teacher. In 1904 she became the wife of E.J. Grandquist, who was born in Sweden, whence he and three sisters came to the United States together. His father, Eric Grandquist, never left his native land and there his death occurred. E.J. Grandquist came to Whatcom county about 1889, when Fairhaven was started, having been in Tacoma for a few years prior to that time. He was a lumber man by vocation, having worked in sawmills in his younger days, but in later years he took up the work of the ministry, being for five years prior to his marriage pastor of the Independent Free Thought Bible Spiritual Society. Following his marriage Mr. Grandquist did a good deal of farming in addition to his ministerial labors. After completing her schooling, Mrs. Grandquist took care of her mother, living on the home place until 1922 when they moved to Bellingham, where they lived until Mr. Grandquist's death, which occurred October 9, 1924. She then returned to the old home place, where she is now living.

Mr. and Mrs. Grandquist had done a good deal of effective work in improving the farm, having cleared over sixty acres of the land, which is now one of the splendid and productive farms of this locality. She is now giving her attention mainly to dairy farming, in which she is meeting with splendid success, keeping fifteen good grade cows, and also has five acres in berries. She is a good business women, handling her affairs with sound judgment and discrimination, and has a very comfortable and attractive home. To Mr. and Mrs. Grandquist were born two children, Paul and Dorothy, both of whom are in high school. Mr. Grandquist was a man of good education, was a deep thinker and had the courage of his convictions. He possessed a forceful personality and wielded a wide influence among those with whom he was brought in contact. Kindly and generous, friendly and courteous, he was in the highest esteem throughout this community, where he had a host of warm and loyal friends. Mrs. Grandquist is a woman of charming qualities, gracious and tactful in manner, and has long enjoyed the respect and admiration of the entire community, where she is widely and favorably known. Dimock's Pharmacy received the Squibb 1,000,000 prescription award. In 1963, only eight pharmacies in Nova Scotia had filled that many orders and qualified for the award. Jebidiah Shaw opened the Windsor pharmacy after the Great Windsor Fire of 1897. He sold it to Mr. Dakin, who, in turn, sold it to C.A. Ryan. E.H. Freeman then took ownership prior to R.C. Dimock.

He spent his early years in Methuen, MA before moving to Andover, where he graduated from Punchard High School in 1954. At Punchard High School he excelled in football, basketball, and track and was named the most outstanding athlete of his graduating class. He continued to play football while studying education at the University of Connecticut (Storrs) and was the outstanding fullback of the 1956-57 Yankee Conference Champions. He was later inducted into the Andover Punchard High Sports Hall of Fame. He was a proud graduate of UConn and later received his M.A. in Education from North Adams State College. Paul served in the U.S. Army after college and was a member of the Third Armored Division in both Berlin and Frankfurt, Germany. Paul especially enjoyed his family, travel, teaching, and sports. His coaching and teaching career started at North Adams, MA and continued in Stoneham and Billerica, where he was a biology teacher and head coach of football and track teams. His abiding enthusiasm for sports led him to a career change when he became president of Whitland Fitness Corporation, which sold athletic equipment and manufactured high jump pits for meets large and small, from Madison Square Garden to local high school gymnasiums. His enjoyment of sports and his alma mater continued right up to watching the UConn Women's basketball team win their historic 100th game in a row from his hospital bed. As a youth he sang in the boys' choir at Grace Episcopal Church, Lawrence. He later became a lifelong member of Christ Church, Andover and served at various times as usher, vestryman, and building committee member. He also took great pleasure in travelling with his family. After having 2 children there they emigrated back to England and settled in London, where George grew up. They went on to have a total of 15 children, many of whom did not survive childhood. Their 12th child, Harold, was my great-grandfather who I remember from when I was a very young child.

Best wishes,

70. Mary Ann Blois (William³, Sarah Margaret Kilcup², William¹). Born in 1824 in Douglas, Hants Co., NS. Mary Ann died bef 1871; she was 47.

Mary Ann Blois' mother, Ann Fielding Blois, died in a chimney fire in Boston when Mary Ann was 4. Her father remarried in Boston a year later, but it is entirely possible that Mary Ann was raised by Fielding relatives. This is suggested on account of the fact that in at least two occasions, informal records, unsubstantiated but nevertheless real, have indicated her to be Mary Fielding, and son George was named George Fielding Swet, suggesting a close connection to the Fielding family.

Note: Death of Wellington Sweet (b. Truro, NS), Feb. 2, 1900, Boston, MA, records parents as Wellington Sweet (b. Annapolis, NS) and Mary Blois (b. NS). NEHGS.

On 7 Mar 1841 when Mary Ann was 17, she married Wellington Sweet, son of James Sweet (abt 1777-2 Dec 1847) & Elizabeth, in St. Paul's Anglican, Rawdon, NS. Born in 1818 in Rawdon, NS. Wellington died in Truro, Colchester Co., NS, on 1 May 1884; he was 66. Residence: Gore, Nine Mile River, McClure Brook, Truro Hts., NS.

Wellington Sweet, age 16, son of James, is listed in the School Papers for District #5, Rawdon, 1 June 1834. Maria, 13, daughter of James, is also listed.

“Wellington Sweet of this parish (St. Pauls Anglican, Rawdon) and Mary Ann Blois were married in Douglas Church by licence with consent of parents this 7th day of March, 1841.”⁴⁷

The marriage of Wellington Sweet and Mary Ann Blois was recorded by Ralph S. Blois in his history of the Blois family. He included the children from the 1871 census, so missed the older ones.

1860 Census, Ward 5, Salem, Massachusetts: Wellington Sweet, Age 36, Farmer, Laborer, Born Nova Scotia, Mary Sweet, Age 37, Born New Brunswick, Elizabeth Sweet, Age 19, Factory Operative, Born Nova Scotia, Mary Sweet, Age 17, Born Nova Scotia, George Sweet, Age 15, Teamster, Born Nova Scotia, William Sweet, Age 13, Born Nova Scotia, Hiram Sweet, Age 12, Born Nova Scotia, Clarissa Sweet, Age 10, Born Nova Scotia, Harriet Sweet, Age 7, Born Nova Scotia, Sarah Sweet, Age 5, Born Nova Scotia, Adelaide Sweet, Age 3, Born Nova Scotia, Ada Sweet, Age 7/12, Born Massachusetts.

1861 Salem Massachusetts Street Directory Lists: Wellington Sweet, Farmer, House 114 Essex St. There is no listing for Wellington Sweet in the 1859, 1864, 1866, 1869 or 1872 Street Directories, which were the only Directories available for that time period.

The following children were listed in the 1871 census (Truro A 397) with Wellington 50, widower: Clara Amanda 19, Harriet 17, Adelaide 15, Ada 11, Wellington Jr. 9, Emma 6, and Eber 5.⁴⁷ At Truro B 122, George 23 is listed with Eunice 21, Mary 1, and Hiram b. Dec. 1870. In 1881 (Truro 628), Wellington 57, widower, is with Ada 19, Emma 16, Wellington 15, and Eva (must be Eber) 14.

A letter from Janet (Nix) McDonald, Jan. 20, 1997, suggests "there were other children not included in the 1871 census: Elizabeth Ann, b. 20 Nov. 1841, George Fielding, b. 20 Aug. 1844, William McLane, b. 12 May 1846, Hiram, b. 7 Jan. 1848, and Clarissa, b. 28 Feb. 1850. The births came from "Baptisms - Methodist Shubenacadie Circuit" from Ralph Whittier Collection."

George Sweet's marriage says he was born in Rawdon in 1848. Clara Sweet's death in 1875 (Wellington father, Mary mother) at age 23 says she was born in St. John in 1852. Harriet Sweet's death in 1873 (Wellington father, Mary mother) at age 19 says she was born in Shubenacadie in 1854.

From the Presbyterian Witness, 10 May 1884, pg. 152 "Wellington Sweet died 1 May 1884, aged 64, at Truro".

So we have a picture of Wellington and Mary being married in Rawdon in 1841, having children born in Hants Co. from 1841 to 1850, one born in Saint John, NB (at least according to one record) in 1852, further children born in Hants Co. in 1854 and 1856, them being in Salem in 1860, then again in Truro in 1862 to 1866 when the last child was born, and Wellington being a widow by 1871, passing away himself in 1884.

There are some discrepancies in all of the above. First, we have two birth dates for George, one based on his baptism record and Salem census as 1844, another, based on his marriage register and later census records, as 1848. The 1860 census matches the older birthdate. In the Salem records, we have an elder daughter Mary, and a younger daughter Sarah, who hadn't shown up anywhere else. We also have a Clarissa, b. 1850, and a Clara Amanda, b. 1852, but these may be the same daughter. So, in total, likely 13 children, including only one George, one Clara, also a Mary and a Sarah. Joan Jowsey stated that other than George and Elizabeth, we have no knowledge of any of the other children, and don't where they may have scattered to. However, Clara, Harriett and Adelaide died young and Ada, Wellington and Emma have been found in Mass.

They had the following children¹³:

Family of Mary Anne Blois (27) & Daniel "Duncan" McDougall

77. Daniel McDougall¹⁴ (*Mary Anne Blois*³, *Sarah Margaret Kilcup*², *William*¹). Born on 10 Jun 1820 in Rawdon, NS. Daniel died on 7 Sep 1900; he was 80. Buried in Blois Cemetery, Gore. At the age of 2, Daniel was baptized on 6 Oct 1822.

Baptised 6 Oct. 1822 Daniel, son of Duncan and Mary Ann McDougall of Douglas by G. L. Wiggins, records of the Newport and Walton Presbyterian Church, PANS. Daniel has been a puzzle to sort out, and some of this is still based on assumption. I believe the problem is the use of both Donald and Daniel to refer to the same person. According to Douglas Township records, Duncan and Mary Ann had both a Donald and a Daniel. In later records, both names show up, but never at the same time, and when it is all put together, I think there was only one Daniel/Donald as an adult. There may have been two children at birth.

Ralph Blois suggests that Daniel first married Rebecca Crane Blois and had one child, Eliza. Daniel later married Sarah Custance. Eliza married a younger brother of Sarah. Ralph lists the children of Daniel and Sarah McDougall, as follows: Bessie (b.1864), Harry (b.1865), Creighton (b.1868), Webster (b.1869), Tupper (b.1876), Abraham, Slater, dau., dau., dau., Ethel. He also lists the children of Donald and Sarah as Abraham (b.1849), Nancy (b.1851), Elizabeth (b.1857), Harvey (b. 1865), Creighton (b.1868), Daniel (b.1869). I think he has a mistake in his listings of ch. of Donald and Daniel. I think he has listed the same wife (Sarah) and children for both. Abraham is listed twice. Creighton is listed twice. Harvey H. is Harry Hope, D. Webster is David W. (Ralph's Daniel). Ralph stated that he got some of these names from an obituary that did not list sisters first names. I suspect, though, that some of them were half-siblings.

Census: 1861, NMR, McDougall, Daniel 3M 4F = 7 Total, 1 death 1-2yr F since Mar. 30, 1860, 1F 3-4, 1F 4-5, 1F 5-10, 2M 10-15, 1F 10-15, 1M 30-40 (widower). No Donald McDougall in 1861 NMR census.

There is a Donald McDougall, farmer, in the 1868 McAlpine Directory for Nine Mile River. No Daniel.

1871 census Nine Mile River, Donald 47, Ch. Eng., b NS, Scottish, farmer, Sarah 31, Abraham 22, Nancy 20, Elizabeth 14, Harvey H. 6, Creighton 3, David W. 2. Sarah could not have been the mother of the first 3. She must be a second wife. There is no Daniel in the 1871 census of NMR. This is obviously where Ralph Blois has taken the children of Donald and Sarah from. I believe, though, these are all children of Daniel, some of Rebecca's and some of Sarah's.

Prov. Register of Deaths, Hants Co., 1864-1877: McDougall, Nancy, 24, 22/12/1872, b. NMR, parents Donald and Rebecca. McDougall, Elizabeth, 16, 19/06/1873, b. NMR, parents Donald and Rebecca. Presbyterian Witness: McDougall, Harry Hope, d. NMR, diphtheria, ae 15, 18 Sept. 1880, s/o Daniel and Sarah. Presbyterian Witness: McDougall, Charles Tupper, d. NMR, diphtheria, ae 4 yrs., 4 Oct 1880, s/o Daniel and Sarah McDougall.

It is perhaps a bit surprising that there is no record of either Daniel or Donald, NMR, in the census of 1881 or 1891.

Al was born in Camden, Nova Scotia and raised in Windsor; he met and married Sharon when he was posted to Borden, Ontario during his early years serving in the Canadian Armed Forces in the Provost Corps. They married in 1963 and started their family under challenging circumstances; at one point he was posted to Cyprus for six months, leaving Sharon with two toddlers, while he served with the UN Peacekeeping Forces. He was promoted to Sergeant just as Sharon and Al made the decision to leave military service and raise their family in Nova Scotia. This is where Al truly made his imprint on the world. He was deeply engaged in sports, music, politics and local media, and many people came to know, admire, and love him for his charm, humour, intelligence, and amazing capacity for friendship. His accomplishments include his first years serving as a sports reporter for the Chronicle Herald, Managing Editor of the Dartmouth Free Press, and then nurturing the Bedford Sackville Weekly News as Editor as it grew into the Halifax Daily News – he made his mark on print media. At the same time, he had a distinguished and diverse career in radio, and many still fondly remember his Saturday Night Classics on CHFX where he was the only person playing the old country music that he loved so well. He was a noted emcee with a great gift for humour and storytelling, and the Old Time Fiddling Contest was his regular gig for years. Always devoted to Nova Scotia sports, Al coached hockey at various levels including High School, Midget, Junior A and Junior B. He was noted for “walking the boards” when he didn’t like a referee’s call. In addition to his coaching duties, he served as league President for the Metro Valley Jr. A Hockey League, Commissioner of the Maritime Jr. A Hockey League, President of the NS Jr. B Hockey League and President of the NS Sr. Hockey League. He was also very active in baseball, coaching numerous junior and senior teams, and he served in a variety of executive posts and committees with Baseball Nova Scotia and Baseball Canada. Al was also an accomplished baseball umpire and hockey linesman, officiating at high levels in the 1960’s and 1970’s. Al served as Director of Communications for Vince McLean during his tenure as Leader of the Opposition. He worked tirelessly with Owen Davis to make sure Owie's dream of starting a community radio station came to fruition, and stayed on as a popular broadcaster at CIOE until just last year. He was famous for never refusing to donate his time to a good cause, sometimes to Sharon's chagrin. Al and Sharon both worked hard, and raised a family of four children to embrace their values of public service, compassion and honesty. There were often hard times and reversals, but Al had a natural optimism that helped him to remember that the pendulum always swings back, even in the face of unimaginable grief and loss. Al's strength and resilience stayed with him to the end, despite continuing to mourn Bryce, Lauren and Sharon.

William and Anna (Redmond) Isenor's daughter Mary emigrated to Boston to marry in 1889 Nelson J Kilcup, 25, born to Nova Scotia parents Edward A and Catharine; by clergyman J.A. Shipman of Boston. Their son Edward died in childhood. Their daughter Carrie was thirty-seven and single in the 1930 US Census - Mary lived alone with her, Nelson having passed away, at 1168 Washington in Dorchester, Boston which rented for $35 per month (expensive in those days). Carrie was a photographer's assistant until 1940 when she stayed home to look after her 80 year old mother - she passed away in 1946 at the age of only 53.

Nelson worked for many years as a "dresser" in the famous Baker Chocolate Mill but passed away in 1926 at the age of 61. By 1930 Nelson's half-brother Watson was living nearby and also working at the chocolate factory. Nelson and Mary lived only a few houses from the chocolate factory, which was the oldest chocolate maker in the US, founded in 1767. Walter Baker was the grandson who made the chocolate world famous. He had a major disagreement over slavery with his nephew Henry Pierce, who supported the anti-slavery movement. Henry still inherited the mill and built a major expansion just as Nelson arrived in Boston, and there he found his niche. The mill has now been redeveloped into very high end apartments - a beautiful brick building.

Kilcup Family of Hants County, NS

Ralph Blois in his Blois Family History lists a Slater, lived in Alton, as a son of Daniel and Sarah (Custance), the second wife of Daniel. I am sure this is Salter. But he could not be the son of Sarah Custance, because he was born before Daniel's first wife Rebecca (Blois) died, and he married a younger sister of Sarah Custance, namely Hannah Sabra Custance. I think he is in the 1861 census with his widowed father in Nine Mile River, and in the 1871 census with his sister Eliza living with their grandparents Duncan and Mary Ann in Kempt. Salter's first daughter was born in Walton, so it makes sense that they had this tie to the Hants Shore.

Dr. J. Avery Vaughan passed away peacefully, Saturday, December 6, 2014 in Hants Community Hospital, Windsor, surrounded by family at the age of 92. Kilcup Family of Hants County, NS love for his community. Following graduation from Windsor Academy he studied at Acadia University, earning a Bachelor of Science in 1942. He then attended Dalhousie Medical School in Halifax, graduating in 1947 near the top of his class. After a four year Residency in General Surgery, also at Dalhousie, he was offered a Fellowship in Surgery at the Lahey Clinic in Boston. He turned this down, preferring instead to return, in 1952, to his hometown of Windsor to practice surgery. As well as being a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons he also earned a Fellowship in the American College of Surgeons in 1970. His distinguished surgical practice spanned 33 years, beginning at the Payzant Memorial Hospital in 1952 until its close in 1976, and continuing at the Hants Community Hospital until 1985. For most of that time he held the position of Chief of Surgery. Following retirement from surgical practice he continued in General Medicine in his home office in Windsor until 2010, a medical career of some 58 years. Throughout his career he also made daily house calls, frequently travelling great distances to reach his patients, and he continued to do this even into his 90's. In addition to medicine, he was also a self-taught pianist, photographer and artist, producing well over 300 paintings. His art has been exhibited at many galleries around the Province and has won several awards. He taught art lessons for many years both from his home studio and at various settings in the Annapolis Valley, most especially the Wolfville Baptist Church. His students numbered in the hundreds. Dr. Vaughan's death is a loss to both the medical and artistic community of Nova Scotia. He was at heart a teacher, who eagerly passed on his knowledge in a gentle and brilliant way. He was a consummate student of many things, with a profound understanding of the interrelationships of science and nature, and could teach complex concepts in an easy to understand manner. This enthusiasm for life, nature, learning and teaching never waned. Following the death of his first wife, Hazel, in 1988, he went back to Acadia to pursue his interest in art history, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1992 at the age of 70. He felt strongly that education was a vital pathway to success, and through his boundless generosity he helped scores of people gain an education, sometimes anonymously, and always freely. Avery has lived happily with his wife Helena, in their home in Windsor, since their marriage in 1997. More than anything, he loved his family, and they are profoundly grateful for his selfless devotion to them. His passing leaves a large void in his family and also in the community, but his legacy will live on in the hearts and deeds of his cherished family and friends. Avery is survived by his wife, the former Helena (Martin) (Lunn); sons, Paul and Gary (Sharon Forsythe); sister, Pauline Murdock; six grandchildren, Paul's children, James, Mary Kathryn and Emily; Gary's children, Matthew, Claire and Laura; stepsons, Steve (Cathy) Lunn and Rob Lunn; step grandson, Steve's son, Peter Lunn. Date of Death: 9th September 1941 Commemorated at: Brookwood Military Cemetery, Surrey, United Kingdom

Plot: 30 I 6

His Death was ruled an accidental death. He fell out of a train near Tadworth Station by opening the door to what he thought was a corridor train only to step in to mid-air. His body was found shortly after lying between the track rails.

The Maple Leaf Legacy Project

Surrey Mirror - Friday 19 September 1941. TADWORTH TRAGEDY. SOLDIER'S FALL ON TO RAILWAY LINE. THOUGHT IT WAS CORRIDOR TRAIN.

How a Canadian soldier fell out of a train near Tadworth Station by opening the door at night under the impression that he was in a corridor train, was described to the Coroner (Dr. C. J. Baron) at the inquest at Sutton on Friday last. The soldier was Pte. Ralph Otis Kilcup, and the principal witness was his friend, a soldier, who described how he made a grab at Kilcup to try and save him from falling out of the train.

P.C. Crossley said that at 10.55 p.m. on September 8th, in response to a wireless message, he went to Kingswood Station, and walking about 300 yards along the track found Kilcup lying on his back between the two sets of rails. Trooper J. Findlay, another Canadian soldier, told witness "We had just left Tadworth when Kilcup said, 'I am going to the toilet.' He opened the door, I felt a gust of wind, and he fell into space."

Mr. R. Packham, the guard of the train, said he put on the main lights as the train left Tadworth Station, and just afterwards the Communication cord was pulled, and the train stopped. He got out and heard someone call out, "My mate's fallen out." They walked back towards the station and found Kilcup lying on the down track. A soldier told witness that he thought it was a corridor train.

Trooper J. Findlay told the Coroner that he and Kilcup were on leave, and had that day been to Redhill to try and trace Kilcup's brother. After boarding the train Kilcup put his gear on the rack and said he was going to the toilet. "The door opened," said witness, "and I saw him as he disappeared. I made a grab at him, but I was too late. I pulled the communication cord."

Dr. E. T. Ruston said death was due to contusion of the brain resulting from a depressed fracture of the skull. The Coroner recorded a verdict of "Accidental death," and said there was nothing to suggest that Kilcup's death was anything but a pure accident.

On 26 Jun 1939 when Ralph Otis was 23, he married Josephine Mary Jane Brogan in Hemmingford, Chateauguay-Huntingdon, Quebec. Born on 21 Oct 1916 in Hemmingford, Chateauguay-Huntingdon, Quebec. Josephine Mary Jane died in Hemmingford, Chateauguay-Huntingdon, Quebec, on 16 Aug 2005; she was 88.

An examination of the creation of the Wrentham State School and its first Superintendent, George Loney Wallace: As an innovative leader in the field for the study of the feeble-minded, George Wallace utilized his position and prestige to influence national associations and the local community to promote the interests of the Wrentham State School. Specifically, he revolutionized the role of the institution in the parole of its inmates, returning them to the community once properly educated, and influenced the Massachusetts Legislature to classify and care for a new feeble-minded category: the defective delinquent.

The Massachusetts State Legislature created the Wrentham State School for the Feeble-minded under chapter 508 of the Acts of 1906 as a farm colony and educational facility for children deemed feeble-minded. With the widespread use of the Binet-Simon test as the sole apparatus used to identify and classify feeble-minded children, the number of feeble-minded children believed to be living in the United States increased dramatically in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century. Due to overcrowding at the state's first institution for the feeble-minded, the Massachusetts School for the Feeble-Minded at Waverly, the legislature was forced to allocate funds for a second institution. The Board of Trustees chose Wrentham because of its close proximity to Boston and Providence with the added benefit of large tracts of land available to build the new farm colony. The dual role of the facility was based on the research of the care and treatment of the feeble-minded from the leading experts at the time. Superintendents across the country were convinced that the incorporation of sensory training, through demonstrations of gymnastics, military procedures, and farming techniques was an excellent way to "emphasize that which is of greater value, namely, the self-reliance and manliness gained by the boys in doing this [farm] work." Additionally, the farming community allowed the institution to be self-reliant and therefore less expensive to the taxpayer, producing its own fruit, vegetables, eggs, milk, poultry and beef.

The state legislature believed that the appointment of a strong intelligent superintendent increased the efficiency of the institution. Dr. George Loney Wallace was selected as Wrentham's first superintendent in 1906. He was highly qualified; he attended Baltimore Medical School in Maryland and had ample experience with the feeble-minded community as the assistant physician to Walter E. Fernald, the longstanding and well-respected superintendent at Waverly. Wallace settled in nicely to his role as the new superintendent. Like many superintendents for the feeble-minded at the time, Wallace was a member of the American Association for the Feeble-minded (AAFM), Massachusetts Psychiatric Society (MPS) and the National Committee for Mental Hygiene. He attended annual conferences, presented scholarly papers on the subject of feeble-mindedness, and published case studies of his institution. He was an active and respected member of the academic community for the feeble-minded and on more than one occasion Wallace was elected president of the AAFM and the MPS. As an elite member of several associations for the study of the feeble-minded, Wallace had the unique opportunity to promote his own agenda: to run a well-organized and properly supervised institution. Consequently, over the course of his career as the superintendent of the Wrentham State School, George Wallace revolutionized the role of the institution in the parole of its inmates, returning them to the community once properly educated and trained to perform a functional occupation. Additionally, he was able to influence the Massachusetts Legislature to classify and care for a new feeble-minded category: the defective delinquent.

The original campus was built out of nine converted family farm houses on 500 acres of land. Dr. George L. Wallace, the original Superintendent, accepted 10 boys who were transferred from Fernald to the new land in Wrentham in January of 1907. He proposed to have a total of 60 boys there by that summer. Wallace, like many other Massachusetts mental health physicians at the time, followed the teachings of Dr. Samuel G. Howe of Boston. Howe believed in teaching and training of the mentally disabled, and preparing them for integration into society, rather than segregating them from the general population. In the early years of the facility, able bodied young men with developmental disabilities were brought to the school to do farm work, and to learn skills of manual labor.

To gain public support for the Wrentham State School, as well as the study of the feeble-minded throughout the United States, George Wallace utilized his position and prestige as superintendent to influence the larger national associations and the local community to promote the interests of the Wrentham State School. Until his death on July 3, 1930, Wallace collaborated with members of the American Association for the Study of the Feeble-minded to create a practical approach to the management of a feeble-minded institution; he began the parole system to clear space on the waiting list for feeble-minded children, he advocated for the reclassification of the defective delinquent to ease the burden of the institution staff and he used his prestige to garner community support for his institution.

Daniel Walter Kilcup, 72, of Reston VA, died Monday, November 24, 2014 at the Adler Hospice Center in Aldie, VA, following a hard-fought, 16-month battle with pancreatic cancer. He left behind an adoring wife of 29 years, Susan Olson Kilcup, and a wealth of friends and family who are deeply feeling his absence in their lives. Dan was a proud New Yorker who was born in Coney Island Hospital in 1942, grew up in Flatbush, and attended Erasmus High School before joining the Navy at 17 years of age. He proudly served as the Admiral's Yeoman onboard a Naval aircraft carrier during the Bay of Pigs invasion, and started his career in printing and graphics by writing, editing, and cranking out hundreds of copies of news updates on the event on a mimeograph machine. And even this early on, Dan showed a love for music and dragged his drum set through foreign ports of call to play in rag-tag bands. His skills as a Yeoman served him well after leaving the Navy, where back in NYC he became a typist with AllenWayne Printing and Graphics. Within a year the owner recognized that Dan had amazing creative and marketing talents (and was a workaholic who slept in the office after working all night) and chose him to open a new branch of the company in the Washington, DC market in 1965. (During the early 70's Dan also formed Tobacco Road, a classic rock band, and played throughout the DC/VA/MD area for several years.) As President and CEO, Dan made that office thrive as well, and was able to buy the company from his boss and mentor within the next few years. He was extremely proud to have seen the company reach almost 50 years of success in the field, evolving from full-fledged printing services into the internet realm, and then diversifying into a fully digital environment. Dan continually kept AllenWayne at the forefront of what the marketplace demanded, doing independent research and always, always - putting customer service and loyalty building at the top of his list. Dan retired in 2008, turning the reins over to a man he always considered a second son, Roland Owens, and AllenWayne continues to thrive under Roland as it plans a move to new office space next month.

Retirement meant nothing to Dan but more chances to be busy. Forever a traveller and adventurer, he and Susan took even more trips, became involved with more causes, and gained even more time for creative ventures. Dan wrote and published Sherlock Holmes novels, created amazing string art photographs, and served as "Gigmaster" and drummer to a thriving classic rock band in the DC area, Back N Time, playing venues from the Washington Golf and Country Club to the Annual Muscular Dystrophy Run (see www.dankilcup.com for all of his exploits, and to order a free Kindle copy of his books). Dan was a generous supporter of the Hospice Cup Races and Hospice of Northern Virginia (now CapitalCaring, where he spent his last days at their Adler Hospice center) and donated proceeds from his early novels to them. He was also an enthusiastic supporter of various other causes and constantly discovered new ones, including the Friends of Fairfax County Animal Shelter (where Susie volunteered) and many local area theater companies, as he loved live theater.

But beyond work, travel, and entertainment - Dan was a man who dearly loved and treasured his family. He was always available to offer the latest tech or business advice, discuss world affairs, or amuse kids and adults alike with his silly, brilliant humor. He was one of a kind, and when Dan was in a room, you knew it. He leaves behind beloved daughter June of San Diego, CA, who was the apple of his eye and cut from the same bright cloth, and her amazingly talented husband Michael, and their precious daughters Shelby and Natalie, with husband Christopher. He was preceded in death by a son, Danny, a brilliant and loving young man, who gifted him with a really special granddaughter, Nicole Hanson, of Pasadena, CA, who with husband Dan have given him four great-grandchildren, Daniel, Reid, Bennett, and newborn Kennedy, who actually got to meet her granddad when she was only a week old. On Susan's side, he leaves a beloved son Michael in New York City (who was truly a son to Dan), whose daughter Emma always brought joy to his eyes, and whose mother Cindy was a constant positive presence in his life as well. Dan adored Susan's family - Ed and Nancye Lindsey were HIS parents, he said so frequently, and he loved planning special trips and traveling with them every year. Her sisters Debbie Gillett, Pat Lindsey and Cathy Lindsey (along with husband Rick Rambo) found in Dan the brother they never had, and he clearly loved them like a brother - complete with teasing and guidance counseling. Debbie's husband Don and children David Gillett and Lisa Fore (with husband Jason) were also much loved by him, as were David and Lisa's children - He never tired of talking with bright Maddie, or picking out special toys to amuse Riley and Cassie. He left behind beloved pup Peaches, who stayed by his side throughout his illness and at the end, napped on his lap. And Dan treasured greatly Susan's family with her first husband and Michael's father, Allan Olson (now deceased)- who live in Lowry Virginia. Sister-and-Brother-in-Love Carolyn and Jack Blevins and their precious daughters Alaina (of Lowry) and Christina (of Los Angeles) held a special place in his heart, and even though their mother Delia, father Carl, and grandmother Nana (Caroline) are now deceased, they gave him a spiritual and religious grounding that carried him through to his last days.

Appendix- Unconnected Kilcup's (Any further information greatly appreciated!)

This Appendix contains a few other Kilcup families from the Hants and Kings County areas that I don't have connected to the family of William Kilcup. They may fit or they may be unrelated.

In this Appendix are:

- A. David Kilcup, 1830-1915, md. Susanna Ward. Their two sons Aubrey and Judson lived in Falmouth and married Laurillard sisters. See details on the next page. I don't know who this David's father is, but I have an idea. He must be 4th generation, maybe the son of Joseph and Sarah "Mary" Hughes (Joseph³, William², William¹) – see note under Judson (A.3) below. David was b. in Douglas, Hants, and Joseph lived in West Gore.
- Edward Joseph Kilcup, b. 4 Jun 1882, s/o John Kilcup and Mary Russell, residing Windsor, bapt. 21 Oct 1883 St. Mary's Basilica, Halifax.
George Kilcup d. Oct 18 1885 Boston (67 Preble St.) age 4, b. NS s/o John (b. NS) and Mary (b. St. Johns N.F.)
George Kilcup b. Jun 1885 Boston (67 Preble St.) s/o John (b. NS) and Mary (b. St. Johns N.F.)
Is this John the John, s/o David and Susan Ward??
- B. David Kilcup, 1815-1900, Centreville, Kings Co. I suspect this David is the son of William (#2) and Mary Kilcup (David Douglas, #2i)).
1871 census Centreville Kings Co. Killcup David 56 (b. ~1815) Elizabeth 56 Mary 17, also 1881, David 66 (b. NS) Elizabeth 69 (b. Ireland) Mary E. 24 (b. USA).

- B1. Habitant Cemetery, Kings Co., Elizabeth C., wife of David H. Kilcup, Died Mar 30, 1866 aged 37. d/o "And. Henderson", NSHVS Deaths. b. ~1829
Kilcup, David H. md. 27th ult. Elizabeth C. Henderson, at Lakeville, all of Cornwallis. PW 7 Apr 1860.
If David Kilcup (A above) md. Susanna Ward in 1854 and they were still having children in 1879, and if David Kilcup (B above) md. Elizabeth Adams in 1844 and she was in the 1881 census, then who is David Kilcup who was married to Elizabeth Henderson in 1866??
- C. Eliza Kilcup, b. ca1809, md. John Johnson, Baptist Church, Canard, 1827. Their son Frederick S. Johnson, 39 (b. 1861, Wolfville, Kings Co.), widowed, md. 7 Oct 1900 in Newton, Middlesex, Mass. to Eunice L. Tucker, 39, d/o George W. and Eunice L. Hall (Mass. marriages). A.5. Sylvia Kilcup (Burpee Roy³, Aubrey Benjamin², David Benjamin¹). Born in 1938.

Sylvia married Richard Nix.

Maplewood Cemetery, Windsor. Nix, Richard David b. 8 Mar 1935 Berwick, Kings Co., d. 27 Jun 2011 Halifax, s/o Theodore Morris Nix and Anstice May Cossaboom (findagrave). Wife Sylvia Joan, 15 July 1936 –

They had one child:

- i. Joan Margaret. Born on 23 Aug 1968 in Halifax, NS. Joan Margaret died in Windsor, Hants Co., NS, on 5 Dec 2021; she was 53.

Joan Margaret Carmichael, 53, of Windsor, passed away peacefully, quietly and sweetly on Sunday, December 5, 2021 at 2:43 p.m. in the Hants Community Hospital in the face to face embrace of her husband, Alan. Her brother Edmund and nephew Alec were by her side. Joan was born in Halifax, Nova Scotia on August 23, 1968 to Richard and Sylvia (Kilcup) Nix. She was united in Christian marriage to Acadia sweetheart, Alan Redvers Camichael on August 9, 1997 and was a devoted and loving mother to Myriam Johanna Carmichael, born April 23, 2003. Joan grew up in Halifax and also at the beloved family cottage during summer months in Marshville, Pictou County. As a young lady, Joan was involved in the Halifax City Schools music programs, the life of the former Calvary United Baptist Church, Spryfield, C.G.I.T., educational roles within the United Baptist Convention and also at various interdenominational camps. Joan was educated at J.L. Hsley High School (1986), Saint Mary's University (1989 & 1990), Acadia University (1992) and Mount Saint Vincent University (2008). She was a teacher of physics and biology at the former Windsor Regional High School (1994 – 2004) and at the Avon View High School (2004 - 2021), a school whose name is something she coined in the building committee and planning phases of the soon to be, Avon View High School. She had a quiet pride in this contribution. I am told that it became evident from an early age, that Joan was born to be a teacher and communicator in every sense of the word. To that, I offer some words told to me by a former student, WRHS Class 2002: “Mrs. Carmichael gave me my foundation for science and always believed in me and is one of the teachers I will never forget. She made such an impact on me ... helped pave the road for where I am today. She knew how to connect with us and make us understand tough things and knew how to push us to be our best while being a safe person for us and did it with humour and jokes on the side. I hope she knows the impact she has on so many of us”. I read these words to Joan on December 3rd and she lit-up with joy upon hearing who it was from, and knowing once again that she had made profound and lasting impacts on this and countless other students over so many years. Joan had a deep and profound faith in Jesus Christ that often left one astonished and reflective. She had a way of understanding, distilling and dancing with life and faith, that will serve to nurture her family and friends for years to come. Joan leaves behind to mourn, her devoted husband Alan; precious daughter, Myriam and her cat, Ginger; her mother Sylvia Nix; siblings, Edmund Nix; Beth Sutherland and Robert Nix, all of Halifax; nieces and nephews elsewhere. She also leaves behind valued friends, teaching colleagues and a long list of former students, both near and far. Joan was predeceased by her father, Richard Nix. Joan’s unfailing love, friendship, smile, sweetness, tenacity, creativity and humour will be missed.
