My grandmother was Hazel (Wright) Goff, a granddaughter of William Oliver Wright and Beulah Elizabeth Long (#8), the daughter of Peter. Hence Peter Long is my 3g grandfather. I have to begin by giving credit to Beulah Jane Wright, River John, NS, my 1st cousin, for doing a considerable amount of original research on this family. I have expanded with the major sources listed below.

I hope this report will be useful to help younger generations connect their parents and grandparents to the original family. Please note that corrections or additions are always welcome!

Long Family of Annapolis County, NS

First Generation

1. Jacob Lange.

John Jacob Long from Prussia was named as the father of Peter in the Chute genealogy.

Jacob Long was listed as a tax paying resident of Clements Township under the 1791 Capitation Tax Act (Calnek pages 251, 252), and is in the 1827 census of Clements, Methodist, family of four males and two females. Jacob Long and Peter Long are the only two Long's in the 1827 census for Clements Township.

Lois Jenkins, historian, of Clementsvale, confirmed that Jacob Peter Lange, originally of Waldeck, Germany, received a land grant on the Hessian Line for his service to the British. He subsequently anglicized his name to Long, and was the father of Peter Long. Waldeck, a former principality in present-day Hesse and Lower Saxony, maintained a militia for foreign service and supported King George III with 1200 soldiers during the American Revolution. Waldeck soldiers served alongside those from Hessen-Kassel, together they were known as the Hessians. Altogether there were some 30,000 Germans fighting in the American Revolution, most in the colonies but some deployed in Canada.

From Calnek and Savery, History of Annapolis County, 1897, "Two settlements, the Waldeck Line and the Hessian Line (now Clementsvale), were originally begun by the disbanded Waldecker and Hessian soldiers, who sought refuge here at the close of the Revolutionary War, after the peace of 1783. These settlements are formed on lines parallel to each other and two miles apart, their direction being nearly east—west, and are still, in part, cultivated by their descendants, who are now scarcely distinguishable by the other inhabitants by language or custom. Inter-marriages with the settlers of British origin have been constant and common."

From Lois Jenkins, "Jacob Peter Long, or Lange as his name appears in a 1784 muster roll, was one of the disbanded German soldiers; he belonged to a Waldeck regiment. His early role in the story of Clements is perhaps a unique one. Since he was married when he arrived, he was entitled to 150 acres of land. (The allotment was to be 100 acres per man, plus 50 acres each for wife and children.) He was initially granted a 100-acre lot in the Hessian Line. He made a petition (called a memorial) to Governor Sir John Wentworth in 1799 concerning the additional 50 acres: The Memorial of Jacob Long, Humbly sheweth That your memorialist served during the late war in America as a rifleman in Colonel Worms [sic] Battalion of jaegers and at the peace of 1783 came with his family to this province to settle and to obtain His Majesty's gracious bounty in land: That your memorialist was informed that he was intitled to one hundred and fifty acres of land, of which he first drew one hundred, viz. No.31 in the Hessian line in the Township of Clements; but this in the early settlement of the country being out of the way, your memorialist settled in the town plot of Digby, pursuing his trade as a carpenter and there had assigned him other land in the Township of Digby by the agents, viz. No.5 in the letter B which contained about fifty acres making up your memorialists complement as a disbanded soldier with a family; That your memorialist, as soon as his circumstances would permit, settled upon his first lot in the Hessian line where he has continued to this day, and has made improvements according to the utmost of his ability, to put that lot in good order, That your memorialist is now desirous of settling his lot No.5 letter B in Digby, but finds it reported vacant by the Commissioners, and also find many applicants . . . who lay claim to it; That your memorialist not being named in any grant of land in the Township of Digby is hereby in Danger of losing his land, and therefore humbly prays that your Excellency & Honour will be pleased to confirm his title, if in your wisdom you shall think the same right; and your memorialist as in Duty Bound will ever pray [Signed] Peter Long Digby 1st Oct 1799. It appears as though Long may not have succeeded in acquiring title to his Digby lot, as he was still living on the Hessian Line when his application to operate a "house of entertainment – license free – in the Hessian Line, Clements" was presented to the Annapolis County Court in April 1802. These "houses of entertainment" were actually stage-coach stops along the route from Annapolis to Digby and beyond." There was a Hessian Line & a Waldeck Line, along which lots were initially granted to soldiers from the various German regiments. However, within 10 years the majority of them had left the area.”

Second Generation

Family of Jacob Peter Lange (1)

2. Peter Long (*Jacob Peter Lange*¹). Born in 1786 in Annapolis Co., NS. Peter died in Clementsvale, Annapolis Co., NS, on 11 Jan 1858; he was 72.

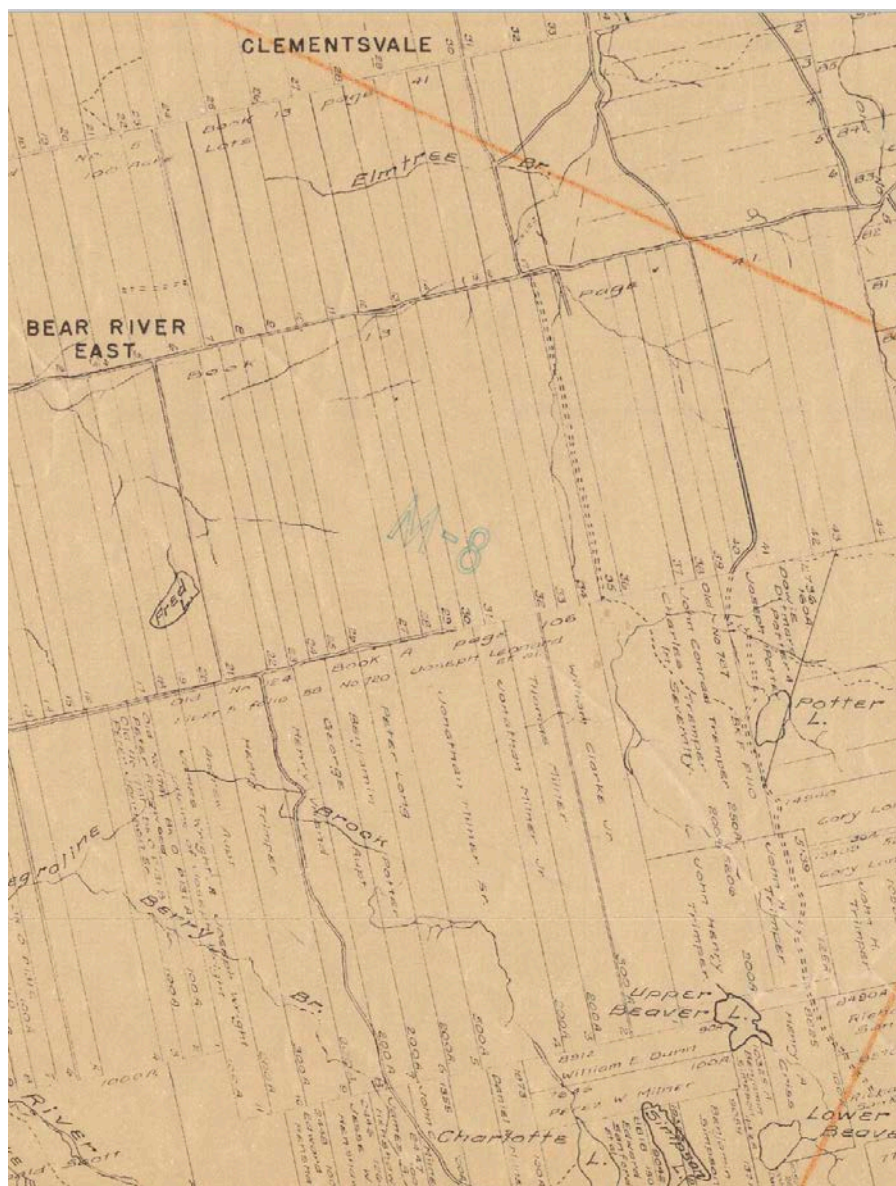

There were several Long loyalists from U.S. to New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Peter's father was a disbanded German soldier who had fought for the British in the American revolution. Lewis Mortimer Long, Peter's grandson, referred to his lineage as son of John Henry, of Peter, of John Jacob of Prussia. The family origin was stated as "German" in early census records. Peter Long received a land grant in Clements (200 acres, Sheet 21, Crown Land Information Centre) between the grants of Jonathan Milner Sr. (500 acres) and Benjamin Potter (200 acres). Peter is in the 1827 census of Clements, Methodist, four sons and three daughters (5 males and 4 females).

In 1807 when Peter was 21, he first married Martha Langley¹, daughter of John Jr. Langely (-1822) & Beulah Winchester (bef 1756-). Born in 1788. Martha died in Clementsvale, Annapolis Co., NS, on 21 Feb 1835; she was 47.

Martha, daughter of John and Beulah Langley was a first cousin of Martha, daughter of Aquilla and Mary Langley. One Martha married Peter Long, the father, and the other married William Bennett Long, the son.

3. Jacob Long (Peter², Jacob Peter Lange¹). Born in 1807. Jacob died on 1 Apr 1887; he was 80. Buried in Clementsvale Cemetery.

Jacob may be a son or a brother of Peter. There was 21 years difference, so could be either. In his marriage in 1825, he was named as “Jacob Jr.”, although this is not seen in any other records. The Long genealogy (Long and Davis, 1987) records this Jacob but without confirmation of relationship to Peter. However, they also list a Jacob as a son of Peter, with no further information.

Long Family of Annapolis County, NS

Nov. 16, 1863, age 29.³¹ The names of Anna Catherine and Hannah Maria Faith came from Beulah Wright.

*Martha was the grandmother of Wellington (“Wellie”) Brown of Spring Hill, Annapolis Co., a well-known sports guide in the area. He had a large cooking pot which he claimed the first Long’s brought with them from Holland, which may fit in with Chute’s listing of John Jacob Long as being from Prussia, and census records of family origins as German. Wellie remembers his grandmother Martha had a brother John who had gone to the United States. He remembered his Uncle’s visits to his N.S. home.³¹

Marriage (1) 3 Feb 1825, by banns, by Rev. John Millidge of Annapolis, Jacob Long, Junior of the Parish of Clements, and Ann Trimper of the Parish of Clements; witnesses: John Trimper and Charles Trimper (Annapolis, St. Luke's Parish, Register of Marriages, page 49, no. 147)

Marriage (2) 18 Jan 1860, by Rev. James Taylor, Wesleyan, Jacob Long of Hessian Line, widower, and Rachel Ann Simmons, widow. (Annapolis Royal, St. George and St. Andrews United Parish Register)

Rachel, Alden and Jane are a second family. Alden is named as son of Jacob and Ann (NSHVS), but he was born in 1860, so must be Rachel Ann Simmons rather than Ann Trimper.

Ruth Alicia Long and Edna Long Davis relate a family story that William Bennett Long may have been adopted by Peter and Martha Long as a result of being orphaned from a ship wreck, and that his surname may have been Atkinson or Atkins. There is no documented proof of this legend, although it was retold by several of the older family members.³¹

William Bennett first married Martha Langley, daughter of Acquila Langley & Mary Chute. Born on 9 Nov 1819. Martha died abt 1846; she was 26.

They had a son George, followed by twin daughters, Elena and Huldah, and Jane did not survive their birth. Elena died within a few months, so Huldah, and probably her brother George also were taken in by their grandmother Lydia. Huldah succumbed to consumption at age twelve. Beulah was said to be a good-natured woman who loved to laugh. She is buried in the cemetery, beside her husband, though her name has never been added to the headstone.

She will be much missed by her nieces, Dawn, Melinda, and Julia, and her nephew, John, as well as by her many good friends, including her dear walking companion, Jane Wasson. At Judith's request, there will be no visitation or funeral service. A small family gathering will take place at a later time. Her remains have been cremated, and her ashes will be scattered as she wished. A strong Brannen woman to the end, she will be remembered for her adventurous spirit, her keen interest in people, books, and politics, and the caring attention she gave to everything in life. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Chalmers Hospital Foundation, for either the Gastrointestinal (GI) Lab or the Palliative Care Unit, would be much appreciated.

With great sadness, today we advise that Neil McKelvey, O.C., Q.C., C.D., has passed away. One of Stewart McKelvey's founding fathers, his death marks the end of an important chapter in the history of our firm. Neil founded Saint John law firm McKelvey Macaulay Machum in 1955 with Wally Macaulay and Larry Machum. In 1990, the firm merged with Stewart MacKeen & Covert, Scales, Jenkins & McQuaid and Stirling, Ryan to become the regional law firm that is now known as Stewart McKelvey. We will forever be indebted to Neil for his role in creating and building Stewart McKelvey.
