Richard McHeffey and his wife Mary Caulfield emigrated from Ireland to Windsor, Nova Scotia, 1769 or 1776, and from Windsor the family spread to Shubenacadie, Milford Station and Gays River areas of Hants County, NS. This report traces eight generations of their family.

Like many other old historical surnames to these areas, you can see the McHeffey's diminishing in numbers. In the Nova Scotia census, a search for McHeffey/McHeffy/McHaffey/McHaffy shows the following: 1871 -68 people; 1881 -61 people; 1891 -25 people; 1901 -44 people, 1911 -15 people.

MacHeffey or variations yields no results.

McHeffey with parents 8. James and Mary (Hamilton), and William McHeffey (md. Hattie Bennett) and George McHeffey (md. Phoebe Crooks) with parents 14. Edward and Effie (MacDonald) McHeffey, and adds further details from Gays River Cemetery records, courtesy of Jerry Pace. This revision updates numerous minor details.

Appendix

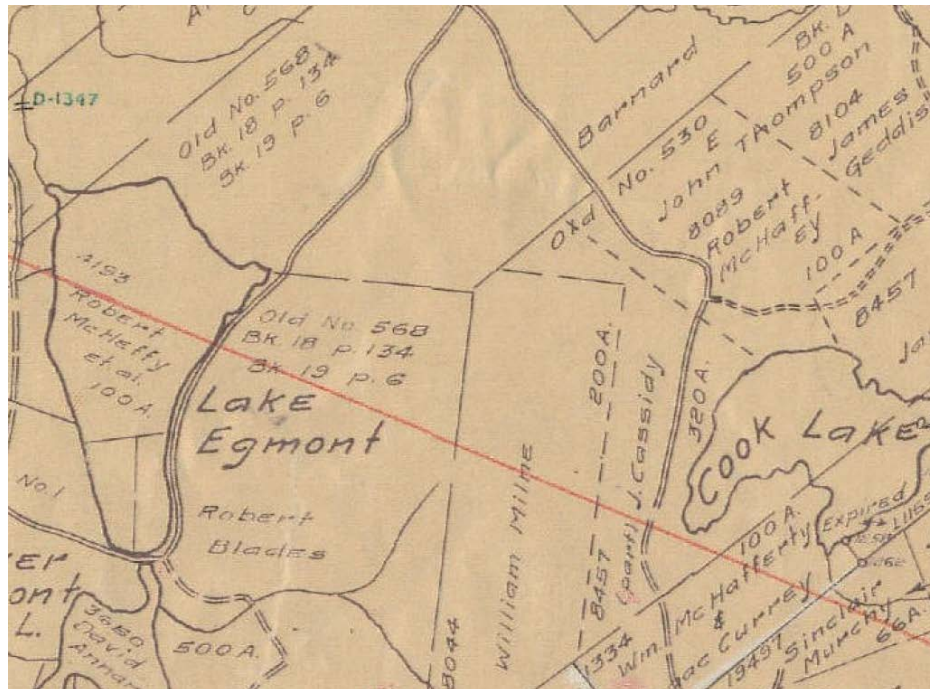

The Appendix includes several McHeffey families or individuals with connections to Nova Scotia, but whom I have not connected yet with the lineage from Richard. Undoubtedly, given the infrequency of the surname, they are related, but a generation or two is missing. There are no other McHeffey families in Nova Scotia that I am aware of.

McHeffey Family of Nova Scotia

First Generation

1. Richard Ellwood McHeffey. Born ca 1734 in Ireland. Richard Ellwood died in Hants Co., N.S., on 20 Jan 1790; he was 56. Buried in Old Parish Burying Ground, Windsor, NS.

Richard was born in 1734, in County Tyrone, Ulster, Ireland. He, his wife Mary (Caulfield) McHeffey, and their son Daniel emigrated from Ireland. There are two differing accounts of the McHeffey's immigration to Nova Scotia:

In the first version, the family may have arrived in Nova Scotia in 1769 as passengers on the ship Admiral Hawke bearing Ulster Scots from Londonderry to Philadelphia. It foundered off Sable Island and the passengers were brought to Halifax and convinced to stay in Nova Scotia.

A second version has Daniel crossing the Atlantic with his father about 1776 at the age of 11. This version seems unlikely if he had siblings born in Nova Scotia before that date, as is recorded elsewhere. In 1785 he was granted 700 acres on the southeast side of the River Shubenacadie in Hants County. He passed away on January 26, 1790, and is buried in the Old Parish Burying Ground in Windsor, Hants, Nova Scotia.

Robert and Daniel McHeffey, farmers in 1791 poll tax, Windsor.

James McHeffey, 1817 census Douglas Township, 1 man, 3 boys, 1 woman, 2 girls.

Joseph McHeffey, 1817 census Douglas Township, 3 men (16-50) 1 boy, 1 woman, 1 girl.

It seems that at some time, Richard Sr., Denny, William and James moved from the Windsor area to the Milford Station/Shubenacadie area, and then they spread towards the Gays River area, which sits at the boundaries of Colchester, Hants and Halifax counties. Robert, George Henry, and Richard Jr. seem to have stayed in the Windsor area. No current record of John but Joseph appears to have emigrated from the Windsor area to New York State in 1836 at age 55 with four of his children.

From "The Boundaries of Nova Scotia", p. 39, "Subsequently in 1871, by Statute 34 Vic., Cap. 47, part of the line between the Counties of Halifax and Colchester was established in these words: The boundary line between the Counties of Halifax and Colchester, at and near the junction of Gay's River, with the Shubenacadie River, is hereby established as follows: beginning on the eastern side of such Shubenacadie River at the line between the properties of the heirs of the late Daniel McHeffey and the heirs of the late William McHeffey the elder."

Richard Ellwood married Mary Caulfield. Born in 1740. Mary died in Windsor, Hants Co., NS, in 1790; she was 50.

4. William McHeffey (*Richard Ellwood*¹). Born on 10 Aug 1765 in Ulster, Ireland. William died in Milford Station, Hants County, Nova Scotia, on 1 May 1823; he was 57. Buried in Old McHeffey Family Burial Ground, Milford Station, Hants Co., NS.

At about the time James Wardrop settled on the Hants County side of the Shubenacadie River at what is now Milford Station, families by the name of McHeffey took up land on the Halifax side of the river where today the Nelsons live; this was in the year of 1785. This ridge opposite the Wardrop's was known as McHeffey Hill and was occupied by William who in 1806 built himself a frame house to replace his first house of logs. This house is still lived in today. Many members of this family lived in Gays River, Shubenacadie and at Mount Pleasant. Today not one bearing the name is to be found in this locality. In the old cemeteries, especially the one on McHeffey Hill are stones marking the last resting place of a family once very numerous in this area.

(Milford Station History by Annie Wallace, 1960)

William was the father of Edward S. McHeffey (1789, Shubenacadie-14 Mar 1870, Gays River), Richard McHeffey (1791-22 Mar 1860, bur. Milford Station), William McHeffey (1792-6 Mar 1857, Milford Station), Robert McHeffey and John McHeffey (WikiTree).

Familysearch has ch. Robert, John and Anne.

There is a Henry McHeffey 1805-1859 at Gays River Cemetery, in the plot with Alex (1848-1880) s/o William (s/o Edward) and Hattie Bennett. No others in that plot (Gays River Cemetery records). So he may be another son of William and his great-nephew is buried in the plot with him.

From Familysearch, Margaret McHeffey, b. ca1794, md. George Corbett 26 Dec 1832 in Gays River as his second wife. Might she have been a dau. of William? Denny had a dau. Margaret b. 1794 who md. James Bentley.

On 2 Jan 1788 when William was 22, he married Elizabeth Church, daughter of Edward Church (22

In 1801 when Mary was 33, she second married Thomas Parker. Born in 1777. Thomas died in 1849; he was 72.

Familysearch has the father of Thomas as Francis Richard Parker, b. 1760 Yorkshire, England. They have Thomas b. Newport Station, Hants. From familysearch, Thomas had a sister Sarah and a half-brother Joseph, no other details.

There were three Parker brothers from Yorkshire who came to Windsor/Newport sometime around 1780. Some of that family came to the Shubenacadie and Musquodoboit areas. The name "Francis" is common amongst both families.

In 1838, Richard was elected to the Nova Scotia House of Assembly, and represented Windsor until 1840. In 1853 he was called to the province's Legislative Council (equivalent to a Senate, no longer in existence). In 1867, when the Nova Scotia government was deeply divided over Confederation, he successfully negotiated an administration for a new government under the leadership of William Annand. He served as a minister in the Legislative Council, as custos rotulorum for Hants County, and as a Grand Warden in the Freemasons. Hon Richard A. McHeffey died 5 December 1874 at Windsor, Nova Scotia, and was buried in Maplewood Cemetery in Windsor, NS. (Wikitree)

- Unfortunately the biography prepared by the Nova Scotia Legislature and repeated in Wikipedia and other sources, shows information that is conflated with a much-older relative bearing the name Richard McHeffey. The 1871 Census clearly shows he was born circa 1800, and not in 1773, and the legislature bio clearly shows several death dates, including the correct one in 1874.

- Online family trees attempting to correct this information, appear to conflate him also with two other relatives bearing the same name, one married Elizabeth, the other married Mary Dimock. These are likely candidates for the competing death dates.

- More research may succeed in clarifying the correct information for these Richard McHeffeyes.

On March 26, 1831, Richard married Jane Hill, the daughter of Robert Hill and Elizabeth Cleveland of Windsor, and their children included:

- 1 Charles, born 1834, who married Ellen Vesch Maxner. Janet Hunter McHeffey O'Brien b. 23 Oct 1858 Martock, Hants, d. 16 Dec 1949 Halifax, d/o Charles and Ellen (Maxner) McHeffey, wife of James O'Brien (1859-1932), bur Maplewood. William Edward McHeffey, son, b. 10 Feb 1866 Martock.

- 2 Katherine (or Kathleen) Elizabeth, who married Alfred C. Thomas 5 Nov 1862

Jane Ann (Annand) McHeffey and two sisters died of fever in 1837. After her mother's death, the farm was divided between Mary Jane and her sister, Anna, and Mary Jane and James moved to Gays River. In Gays River, James expanded the farm and established a lumber mill. Gays River was an important junction on the road from Halifax to Pictou and the road to the Musquodoboit Valley, which was only later bypassed by railroad through Milford and Stewiacke. James appears in the 1861 census as the head of a family of 11. The couple appear in the 1871 and 1881 censuses as Baptist farmers. James died on April 28, 1890 at Gays River, and is buried in the Gays River United Church Cemetery.

The Family of William McHeffey, by Donald A. Wallace, St. Louis Genealogical Society Quarterly, Spring, 2009.

William McHeffey was born on 18 January 1822 in Gay's River, Halifax County, Nova Scotia. He was a miner and a farmer. William was married three times and moved to Colorado to live with his daughter Henrietta in 1895 at age seventy-three. William died on 19 August 1903 in Ft. Lupton, Weld County, Colorado, and was buried in Hillside Cemetery in Ft. Lupton.

He married Janet (Jane) Taylor on 29 July 1852 in Gay's River. Janet was born in 1836 in Musquodoboit, Halifax County, Nova Scotia, and was the daughter of Susan and William Taylor. She died on 9 February 1869 in Gay's River, from consumption and was buried in Gay's River United Church Cemetery.

William and Janet McHeffey had eight children:

of Henry Stanley Benjamin and Veta (Collicutt) of Brookfield. The family moved to Florida, where his mother's family had land, when Bob was young, to start a fernery to supply the florist business. When the depression ended that endeavour, they returned to Saint John, NB, then to the family home in Brookfield, and to Truro in the 1930's where his mother ran a boarding house. During the depression, Bob helped the family income by snaring rabbits and growing mushrooms in the barn. He loved the outdoors, animals, building things, reading and the company of his cousins. In 1938, he joined the militia of the North Nova Highlanders, then signed on for active service when the war broke out. He first trained in Amherst, where he met his future wife, Verna Lockhart. After training in England, mostly in the south, he transferred to the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals, and was posted to Portsmouth with the 4th Field Battalion of Field artillery. They embarked for Normandy in early July 1944 about a month after D-Day and moved from France into Belgium in September 1944, through the Scheldt to the Nijmegen area of Holland by the end of 1944 and into Germany in 1945. He and Verna married in November 1946 and remained in Amherst with her family while he earned a BSc degree from Mount Allison University. They moved to Halifax where he received degree in chemical engineering at the Nova Scotia Technical College (now DalTech) - both with assistance from the Department of Veterans Affairs. His career began at Dominion Steel in Sydney in June 1950. There he joined a recently formed engineering militia unit as an officer cadet. In 1953 he took a job with Bathurst Power and Paper Co., and transferred to the 2nd New Brunswick militia, reaching the position of captain in 1960 when he resigned to take a position in the Research and Development Department of St. Regis Paper Co in West Nyack, New York. He returned to Canada for brief stint at Irving Paper in Saint John, then took a position with Environment Canada, first in Ottawa, then in Dartmouth, where he retired in 1986. He and Verna made lifelong friends with many people encountered in his work life, notably John and Marilyn Cramsie, with whom they crossed paths in Bathurst, New York and back in Halifax. Bob was an avid stamp collector, beginning with a collection inherited from an aunt. A keen bridge player all his life, he was introduced to the game as a teenager at his parents' boarding house in Truro, when a fourth was often needed amongst the boarders. He and Verna enjoyed many travels including trips across Canada, to Europe, and cruises with his sister, Shirley, and her husband Allen Benjamin. He loved baseball, old movies and lobster suppers with his family. Bob was a kind, generous, calm, honest and trustworthy man, with a winning smile and a quiet sense of humour and mischief. He supported many in need, including a number of cats orphaned by various crises amongst younger relatives. His needs were simple. He was devoted to Verna and cared for her with patience and understanding for 38 years after a diagnosis of bi-polar disorder. He and Verna participated in the Royal Nova Scotia International Tattoo in a colour guard in 1989, and a living tableau another year. He served many years as Treasurer of the Somme Branch Legion, Dartmouth, and volunteered with Meals on Wheels, the Natal Day committee and was a longtime envelope secretary at Grace United Church. He is survived by daughter, Elinor (Ron Richards), Dartmouth, son, Ian (Debbie Denton), Saint John, NB; grandsons, Sean, Saint John, NB, and Trevor (Lisa Macwan), UK; great-grandchildren, Maya and Louis, UK; sister-in-law, Doris Lockhart,

U.S. Veteran Robert F. McHeffey, who taught high school math in the Oklahoma City and Putnam City School districts during in the 1970s and 1980s, died peacefully on October 23, 2021, at the age of 91. In his final days, Bob, as he was known, remarked often on how lucky he had been in life. Lucky in his marriage to his wife, Jayne; in the devotion and accomplishments of his daughters and grandchildren; in his careers with the U.S. Air Force and as a teacher; and in a long and active retirement. Bob was born in Boston, Massachusetts on May 18, 1930. His father died when Bob was young and he was raised by his mother, Bina, and his aunt Maude. He loved to tell the story of the lucky day when he had skipped school to seek autographs outside the Red Sox locker room and one of the players asked if Bob would be interested in working parttime as an "office boy" for the baseball team. It was an offer Bob quickly snapped up and was forever grateful to have received. Still, too many days of skipped school and the lack of fatherly influence took a toll, and Bob was heading for trouble when he was rousted by a Boston police officer who strongly encouraged the teenager to enlist in the military. Bob took his advice joining the U.S. Air Force at the age of 18. A few years later, recognizing the need for a further steadying influence, he returned to Boston and asked Jayne Bowen, to become his wife. It was, he often said, the best decision of his life. They married on Sept. 26, 1954, and began a life characterized by moves to different Air Force Bases and the birth of daughters – six of them! Robyn was born in Idaho, Lisa was born in New York, Lynn was born in Indiana, Heather was born in Florida, and Heidi and Patti were both born in Germany. The couple's final posting was at Clinton Sherman Air Force Base in Burns Flat, Oklahoma. When Bob retired as a Senior Master Sergeant in 1970, the family moved to Oklahoma City. Bob had earned his GED and begun taking college classes through the military, so he was able to finish his bachelor's degree in math at Oklahoma City University and begin his teaching career. (He later earned a master's degree in math from OCU.) Bob was a respected and popular teacher at Star Spencer High School, John Marshall High School, and Putnam City West High School. As a former high school dropout, he had a special gift for relating to students at all levels. During these years, he became an accomplished competitive athlete, earning hundreds of medals in road races, marathons (including the Boston Marathon), and triathlons. In 1996, Bob and Jayne moved to Fairfield Glade, Tenn., a favorite vacation spot. Sadly, Jayne developed Alzheimer's disease shortly after their move and Bob was her devoted caregiver until she died in 2005. Bob remained in Fairfield Glade for another 13 years, enjoying the area's resort amenities, including world-class golf courses. This time was greatly enriched by his relationship with Charlotte Lintelman, who shared his passion for golf and tennis and who was a wonderful companion on trips that included a vacation in Paris, where they were thrilled to watch the French Open tennis tournament. Bob returned to Oklahoma in 2018, moving into Spanish Cove Retirement Community in Yukon and gaining the opportunity to spend more time with his family. Although we will miss his sweet and loving presence in our lives, we are happy he is reunited in heaven with our mother and youngest sister, Patti, who died in 1975. A graveside service is planned in November, and Bob will always be remembered by his family, which includes his daughters: Robyn Tower and husband, Mike, of Norman, Oklahoma; Lisa Eagleton of Apache Junction, Arizona; Lynn Rodrigues and husband, Mike, of Yukon, Oklahoma; Heather Topper of Norman; and Heidi White and husband, Steve, of Jacksonville, Florida. He also is survived by his grandchildren and their spouses: Elizabeth & Andy Hale and Peter Tower & Ruth Shih; Joel Eagleton & Jamie Mahinthorathap; Michael Rodrigues, Samantha & Nathan Payne, and Matthew Rodrigues; Justin Topper, Kyle Topper, and Kevin & Jordan Topper; and Stephanie White, Abby White, and Austin White. His great-grandchildren are Jude and Tate Rodrigues, Logan Eagleton, and Luke and Olivia Payne.

- i. Caroline Alta. Born on 11 Feb 1916 in Ferndale, Whatcom County, Washington. Caroline Alta died in Bellingham, Whatcom Co., WA, on 18 Nov 2010; she was 94.

Alta McClellan, born Caroline Alta McHeffey, co-founder of Hardware Sales, passed away at home on Nov. 18th, surrounded by her loving family. She was 94.

McHeffey Family of Nova Scotia

Where do you begin to encapsulate the life of someone like Alta McClellan? The fourth of eight girls, born and raised in Ferndale. Alta was preceded in death by her parents, George and Margaret McHeffey; husband, Max, of 61 years; grandson, Rob George; and sisters: Eva Bosch, Wanda Wehmeyer, Rhoda Cram, Viola Ritter and Thea Wittren. You start there, at the root of her life. But anyone who knows anything about Bellingham and Whatcom County also knows that you can't stop there. For the name Alta McClellan is, in this area, synonymous with greatness, with work ethic, with community. At the age of 46, when most of us are toying with the idea of retirement, Alta and her husband Max bought a business. They and one other employee ran Powder Sales, where they specialized in selling dynamite and surplus goods. The intent was to provide a little business that would see them through old age. As history will tell, their "little" business grew into the local landmark now known as Hardware Sales where Alta remained at the helm, six days a week from 5:30am - 7:00pm, ruling with a firm but loving hand up until mere weeks before her passing. It would be remiss to speak of Alta without making mention of her desk, infamous in its own right for its teetering piles of paperwork and signs overhead that read, among other things, "Those not fired with enthusiasm will be." One can only speculate where a woman like Alta gets her dedication and determination or what it takes to build someone of her character and strong core values. Alta was not catapulted into success. She earned it. At age 11, her mother died, leaving her father to raise all eight girls, the youngest only six months old. His determination to keep them together by working day and night made him one of her first role models. At age 16, their family home burned to the ground and they lost everything. Maybe that's why Alta never looked at anything as an obstacle, merely a challenge and was known for saying, "We can try it. If it doesn't work we can always change it." She knew that commercial hardware was considered a "man's game" but said she never looked at it that way. "You just need to believe in yourself and what you're doing." Consequently, Alta was the recipient of many awards, including the 2002 Business Pulse's Whatcom County Lifetime Business Achievement Award, the 2007 Boys and Girls Club Bill Quehrn Community Service Award, the 2007 Whatcom in Business Professional Woman of the Year Award, the 2007 Bellingham Elks Hernia Award (for donating the greatest dollar value in coins to their children's programs), and the 2008 Bellingham Whatcom Chamber of Commerce Woman of the Year Award. Just before Labor Day 2010 her unfaltering work ethic was showcased on an episode of Evening Magazine. Alta considered her only "free" time to be any hours that Hardware Sales wasn't open for business. Even so, she managed to serve as president for the Eagles Auxiliary and was a member of the Moose and Elks Lodges. In their younger years, Alta and Max enjoyed vacationing in California and Arizona in their motor home. In her later years, if Alta did allow herself a vacation, she liked to spend time with her family on the Oregon Coast and go antiquing. Other than that, aside from work (which often went home with her), Alta was an avid Seahawks fan, could not be disturbed during Wheel of Fortune, was a familiar face around town during football season, and could often be found at Fred Meyer buying cookies to take to work for customers who came upstairs to pay their bills and for kids who knew right where to go for a cookie. So, besides hard work and strong family ties, what was Alta's secret to a long, happy life? Maybe it was that dish of ice cream she had for dinner every night. Alta McClellan's passing is a great loss not only for her family and friends and the employees whom she considered family, but for our community.

Published in Bellingham Herald from November 20 to November 21, 2010

In 1935 when Caroline Alta was 18, she married Max C. McClellan. Born on 28 Mar 1917 in Ferndale, Whatcom County, Washington. Max C. died in Bellingham, Whatcom Co., WA, on 13 Feb 1997; he was 79.

- ii. Vera. Born on 5 Aug 1918. Vera died on 5 Jul 2017; she was 98.

Bellingham Herald, The (WA) - Friday, July 14, 2017

Vera Young (McHeffey) passed away on July 5th, 2017 exactly 1 month shy of her 99th birthday. She was born August 5th, 1918 in Bellingham, WA to George McHeffey and Margaret Kelly, the 5th of 8 girls. Vera married her neighbor Wilfred (Bill) Young and graduated from Ferndale High School in 1936 and soon moved to Bellingham. During the war, she and Bill moved to Seattle where he worked for Boeing. After the war, they returned to Bellingham and purchased their home on the corner of "F & Girard". She was an active member of Whatcom County Democrats, attended their monthly meetings, and was recognized for her contributions in 2000. It has been rumored that many local elections were won and lost by who had their signs in the windows of her house. She had always baked for friends and family and her cookies and pumpkin bread were her staple. 6 cookies and 2 Pepsis' were left for the garbage men every week, rain or shine, and she would take cookies across the street to the kids playing at Battersby Field. A cookie tin was given to anyone who visited along with trips to the Police and Fire stations and to the workers at Hardware Sales, her sister's store with the instruction that "if you want more cookies, bring back the cookie tin." Somehow, each cookie tin found its way back. Sometimes, the cookies didn't quite turn out the way she expected "darn oven", but everyone enjoyed them because they know the love that went into each and every batch. After Bill passed away in 1997, she started volunteering at the Bellingham Food Bank and went on doing so until 2012 at the age of 93. She always had a story of how she had to train the new person when they would get a new "Executive." No matter how many times she told them, "they" would always mix the buns with the rolls." And of course each time she came in, she brought her cookies with her. Vera was preceded in death by her husband Bill and her sons George and Tom Young. She is survived by her grandsons Bill Young of Seattle, David Young of Gold Bar, Steve Young of Bellingham, Mike Young of Snohomish, John Young of Birch Bay and Don Young of Ferndale with numerous great and great-great grandchildren.

Vera married Wilfred Henry Young. Born on 24 Jul 1915 in Hallowell, Cherokee County, Kansas. Wilfred Henry died on 6 Oct 1997; he was 82.

Benjamin, Lynda Joan. It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Lynda Joan (Stevenson) Benjamin at the age of 80 years. A lifelong resident of Hilden, Lynda passed away on September 13, 2024, while a resident at Debert Court. Lynda is survived by her daughter, Cheryl Benjamin; son-in-law, Andrew Weatherbee, and grandson, Finn Weatherbee, and a loving family from coast to coast. She was predeceased by her husband, David Franklin Benjamin. Lynda took great pride in her professional career, beginning with the Children's Aid Society of Colchester County and retiring from the federal civil service after many years. After retirement, she returned to her roots and served with the Board of Directors of the Children's Aid Society. Lynda valued her communities, whether they be of geography, of service, or of activity: she was a member of the Hilden United Church, Beta Sigma Phi, and the Brookfield Golf Club. She was a lover of beautiful baking at Christmas, playing bridge, completing the daily cryptoquote, and travelling with dear friends. Her journey through Alzheimer's was difficult; memories filled with love and laughter remain. We will remember her always as we sit on the deck by the river with family and friends.

Family of Murray Parker McHeffey (116) & Joyce Kehoe

123. David Parker McHeffey (Murray Parker⁶, Francis Richard Parker⁵, Francis Parker⁴, Richard³, James², Richard Ellwood¹). Born on 20 Feb 1948 in Montreal, Quebec. David Parker died in Rumson, NJ, on 17 Jan 2015; he was 66.

David Parker McHeffey, 66, of Rumson, passed away at his home on Saturday January 17, 2015. He was born in Montreal, Canada and lived in Ridgewood and Little Silver before moving to Rumson, NJ. He was a graduate of St. Peters Prep, Jersey City, and Duquesne University, Pittsburgh. He was also a member of the Seabright Beach Club and Sea Bright Lawn Tennis & Cricket Club.

David made a career as a market maker in securities, as well as a fixed income broker for several Wall Street firms. David was predeceased by his son, Keith McHeffey, his parents Murray and Mickey Kehoe McHeffey and his son-in-law Michael Squillante. David is survived by his wife, Deborah M. Sawch; two daughters, Leigh Squillante of Allenhurst and Amanda Kennedy (Gregg) of Rumson and their mother, Sherry McHeffey of Little Silver; six grandchildren, Mickey, Chrissy, Jenny, Jimmy, Wesley and Maren; three step-children, Alexandra, Kathryn and Michael Sawch of Rumson; his nine siblings, Laurie (Lynn) of Denver, Barbara Atkinson of Denver, Peter of Red Bank, Michael (Mary Ellen) of Red Bank, Constance Madigan (Kevin) of Shrewsbury, John (Jeannie) of Tinton Falls, William of Middletown, Robert (Alison) of Fair Haven, and James (April) of Middletown. Intelligent and curious, David could complete the Sunday NY Times crossword puzzle in an afternoon and repair the neighbor's lawn mower by sunset; always ready to help without being asked. He was also a student of history, devouring lengthy tomes in a week's time. David loved fishing, gardening, biking, paddle tennis and being outdoors. His family and friends remember him as a "big game hunter" who in fall and winter would map out squirrel nests. When spring came he knew where the varmints were hiding, and the "hunt" was on. Few knew of David's culinary expertise. Bi-weekly trips to Monmouth Meats provided him with the centerpieces for the dishes he made with instinctive style. All who were lucky enough to sit at the dinner table with David and his family can attest what pride he took in serving a meal. David was an avid Steelers fan and his quick wit was engaging. He had a keen sense of humor which will be missed by family and friends.

KEITH MCHEFFEY OBITUARY, An Anchor in a Crisis

Keith David McHeffey was flying home from France two years ago when one of the jet's engines failed and the pilot was forced to drop fuel, turn around and head back toward Ireland. In the panic, distraught flight attendants plucked Keith from his seat, gave him a crash course in emergency landings and assigned him the unenviable job of operating the emergency door and slide. Keith, 31, inspired confidence. Friends called him for help in the middle of the night and he would come; if a house got flooded, he would be there at midnight helping. "These kind of things sort of happened to him," his mother, Sherry McHeffey, said of the incident on the plane, which landed safely at Shannon Airport. "We were assuming this was one of the worst things that would ever happen to Keith." The son of a broker, Keith had become a trader. He lived in Monmouth Beach, N.J., played in a softball league, skied and snowboarded, played basketball and rode a mountain bike in Atlantic Highlands, near his home. Two months ago, he took a job at Cantor Fitzgerald. He was planning to work in the firm's new offices in Shrewsbury, N.J., which, his mother said, had been expected to open early this month but turned out not to be ready.

Keith McHeffey, 31, was able to fulfill his love of the shore by living in Monmouth Beach, N.J., with his girlfriend. Though it was a long commute to the World Trade Center, where he worked on the 104th floor as an equity trader for a division of Cantor Fitzgerald, at least he got to spend some of those 90 minutes aboard a ferry. A graduate of Salisbury State University in Maryland, he remained close with college buddies and enjoyed mountain biking, basketball and softball. He is survived by his parents and two sisters. Lately, he had looked forward to relocating to an office that the firm planned to open within weeks in New Jersey, said his mother, Sherry McHeffey of Rumson, N.J. "He was very happy with his new job and looking forward to coming down closer to home."

McHeffey Family of Nova Scotia

Appendix

McHeffey is an uncommon surname, so it seems plausible that McHeffey's with origins to Nova Scotia may be part of this family. The Appendix contains several families or individuals who I have not yet connected – they may or may not be related to this family.

McHeffey, John 66 (b. 1805), Jane 53, Elizabeth 31, Mary Ellen 29, 1871 census St. Croix. They are beside Charles, s/o Richard Andrew MLA, so I wonder if this John is a brother of Richard, s/o Robert? McHeffey, John 76, Jane 60, Elizabeth 45, Ellen 43, 1881 census Windsor. McHaffy Jane 72 Libbie 44 Ellen 40, 1891 census, Curry's Corner, Windsor. McHeffey Jane Head Widow b. 28 Oct 1817 Ellen dau. 10 Jul 1837, 1901 census Windsor. McHeffey Jane widow d. 4 Jul 1909 Martock age 91 years 8 mos. b. Windsor, bur. Maplewood (NSHVS). McHeffey, Ellen single age 72, 1911 census Windsor. Ellen McHeffey, b. 10 Jul 1837 Windsor d. 7 Jan 1924 Windsor, single, d/o John McHeffey b. Windsor and Elizabeth Parker b. Newport. James O'Brien Windsor nephew by marriage, bur. Maplewood (NSHVS).

Mark Flagg of Campobello Island and Branch Island of the Port of Annapolis, co-signed by Joseph McHeffey of Windsor, md. Sarah McHeffey widow of Windsor, Hants Co. 23 Jun 1815. Not sure who she is. George Henry McHeffey md. Sarah Parker but he died in 1830.

James Gilbert of Gays River, tanner, md. Elizabeth McHeffey, 20 Oct 1830 (NSHVS). No direct evidence of who her father was. See #22, Isobel Jane McHeffey, d/o Richard, md. James Gilbert in 1834. Might Elizabeth be a sister of Isobel who died between 1830 and 1834?

Nathaniel McHeffey b. 9 Feb 1821, single age 50 in the 1871 census Windsor, and age 80 in the 1901 census Windsor.

Catherine "Annie" McHeffey (see #51 above), b. 1842, md. Edward Wilson Dimock. No direct evidence of who her father was. His first wife was Elizabeth Timlin, d/o Mary Maria McHeffey, d/o George Henry McHeffey. William McHeffey b. 1850, in 1871 census Windsor with Mary McHeffey Timlin and Edward Wilson Dimock. I don't know who he is, perhaps a brother of Catherine "Annie" McHeffey Dimock?

James K. McHeffey md. Margaret E. Trenholm, 29 Jun 1865, Windsor (NSHVS), no other details given. 1871 census Windsor Trenholm Richard 66 John 37 McHaffey Elizabeth 34. I don't know these connections. There are two James K. McHeffey's in the Gays River families, but details don't fit. Trenholm Richard 1806-1883 bur. Windsor Forks wife Hannah Redden (1807-1858) had ch. William John 1834-1888 and Elizabeth Margaret 1837-1899, wife of William Bell, bur. Maplewood Windsor.

William McHeffey, b. 1820s, md. to Hattie Bennett, ch. George, Alexander, Annie Tays, Sarah McKenzie. I don't know who this William is, likely a grandson or great-grandson of Richard. There may be a connection to George McHeffey b. 1823 who md. Phoebe Crooks.

George McHeffey b. 1823 Nova Scotia, emigrated to Iowa. Likely a grandson or great-grandson of Richard. Married Phoebe Crooks, three sons Dan, Robert and Samuel. He may be related to William who md. Hattie Bennett. <https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/45099346/george-mcheffey>

I have placed William (41) and George (39) as sons of Edward and Effie (MacDonald) McHeffey, based on ages and locations.
