John and Barbara Teasdale came to Hants County Nova Scotia from Penrith, Cumberland England in 1818. Two of their sons, Joseph and John, had families who stayed in the Hants County area for a few generations, migrating to Halifax and to Antigonish, while Robert, another son, moved to Massachusetts. This genealogical report details their families.

I am not a descendant of this family but they overlap with several families in Hants County that I do descend from – McDougall, Fraser and McPhee.

Road, Hants Co., an uncle of Rev. J.J. Teasdale, who departed this life on March 2nd, aged 75 years. Mr. Teasdale's native place was Penrith, Cumberland Co., England. In 1819 when 7 years of age he came with his parents to Windsor, N.S., where the family resided a number of years. He afterwards settled at Indian Road, in which place he remained until removed to the better world. About 38 years ago he was converted and joined the Methodist Church under the ministry of the late Rev. Wm. McCarty, the genuineness of which change he continued to show by a good walk and conversation, ever manifesting an interest in the welfare of the cause of the Lord. His last affliction was painful, but patience had her perfect work. In an interview with him a few days before his death he spoke of his abiding confidence in God's goodness, and manifested calm submission to His will. He leaves a widow, five sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. On the day of his burial a large number assembled evincing their respect for the departed – and we thought his life and death warranted the text by way of improving the occasion, "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace."

An Archival Mystery

Jan 6, 2015, United Church of Canada

Intrigue in the Archives! The other day I was going through some records when I noticed a reference to a sermon book of a Rev. John James Teasdale. We have lots of sermons here at the Archives so that's nothing out of the ordinary but what caught my eye was a note about a possible bullet hole through the book of sermons. When I pulled out the book, sure enough, there was a rather suspicious looking hole in the book. I'm not an expert on guns or bullet holes by any means but after doing some "thorough research" (i.e. walking down the hall to talk to my co-workers), it seems likely that a bullet was what caused the hole. Don't take my word for it though, you can see and decide for yourself if you scroll down the page.

Rev. Teasdale was born in Windsor, Nova Scotia in 1839. He was ordained as a Methodist minister in 1862 and served in various Maritime churches including Yarmouth which is where these sermons were preached. Teasdale would later become president of the Nova Scotia Conference. He passed away on May 31, 1910 in Ontario. The Maritime Conference Archives acquired 10 books of his sermons from Dalhousie University who had in turn purchased the books from an antiques dealer in Smith's Cove, Nova Scotia. It's hard to say when the book was damaged, the sermons were dated 1891 so at least we know Rev. Teasdale was alive long after that date. I'm hoping that it was just someone doing some target practice and that no one was actually injured. In any case, it certainly makes for a mystery...

On 14 Jul 1862 when John James was 23, he married Sarah E. Jost in Guysborough, NS. Born on 18 Apr 1840 in Guysborough, NS. Sarah E. died in London, ON, on 7 Apr 1935; she was 94. Buried in Mount Pleasant, London.

John Clarkson has dedicated his entire career to the Miller School of Medicine, including the last ten years as senior vice president for medical affairs and dean. As he prepares to step down from his post to become executive director of the American Board of Ophthalmology, University of Miami Medicine traces Clarkson's path from student to leader. .... "The idea of ophthalmology was planted much earlier, when the dean was in high school and began dating his future wife, Diana Teasdale. Her father, L. R. Teasdale, M.D., practiced ophthalmology in West Palm Beach. "Diana has two sisters, and I was the first somewhat permanent male around the household," the dean recalls. "Her father was always talking to me about medicine."

Edwin Wood Fuller, Jr. CHARLOTTE - Edwin Wood Fuller, Jr., 82, passed away peacefully at Levine & Dickson Hospice House, Charlotte, NC on Tuesday, December 9, 2014. His family was at his side. Ed was born on March 19, 1932 in High Point, NC because there was no hospital in his hometown of Liberty. His parents were the late Edwin Wood and Mary Blue Fuller. Ed graduated from Liberty High School in 1951 and attended UNC-Chapel Hill from 1951 to 1953 before joining the U.S. Army. He served for two years at Camp Atterbury in Indiana. After an honorable discharge, Ed returned to his beloved UNC and graduated in 1957 with a B.S. in Business Administration. Ed was a builder at heart. As his family will tell you, he could build or fix anything. He was a natural as a building contractor, and owned Fuller Construction Co., building many homes and apartment buildings in Charlotte in the 1960's and 1970's. In the early 1980's, Ed realized a childhood dream and opened Fuller True Value Hardware Store. It was there that he could practice his true passion, helping customer fix things. Later after selling the hardware store, he enjoyed working in real estate and building custom homes. Ed's most cherished times were spent with his family. His kids remember years of sporting events when they could look up into the stands and see their dad, cheering them on. Through it all - childhood, college, jobs and families of their own - Ed Fuller was there to offer love, support and wisdom. Ed also loved playing tennis at Olde Providence Racquet Club. He and his tennis buddies played every Tuesday and Thursday for over 25 years. Ed loved tinkering in his workshop, playing bridge, volunteering with Friendship Trays, and spending time with his four grandchildren. He will be remembered for his charm, wit and enormous heart. His kids will most remember how much he adored their mom. He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Antonia Teasdale Fuller; daughter, Margo Fuller Wells and his son-in-law Greg Wells and their children Spencer Fuller Wells and Reese Teasdale Wells, all of Charlotte; son, Edwin Wood Fuller III, and his daughter-in-law Carolyn Sherrill Fuller and their children Stuart Redmond Fuller and Carolyn Pierson Fuller, all of Winston-Salem; and his sister, Betty Fuller Maxwell of Chapel Hill. 18th, 2013, in Camp Hill Veterans' Memorial Building, QEII, Halifax. He was the eldest son of the late Clyde and Mary Elma (Fulton) Teasdale. As a lifelong resident of Dartmouth, Gordon's wonderful childhood was spent in and around the lakes of Dartmouth, swimming and skating. The Teasdale brothers shared many fishing trips with their father and Gordon was an avid paddler at Banook Canoe Club. At the age of 12, he and three of his friends each made their own wooden kayak. The little boats caused great excitement and interest to fellow paddlers and the general public when they were launched on Lake Banook. He attended Park and Hawthorne Schools, and Greenvale/ Dartmouth High. In 1942, Gordon enlisted in the RCAF for Aircrew Training in Quebec and Ontario. He received his pilot's wings the following year and was posted to No. 126 Fighter Squadron in Gander, Nfld. flying Hurricane aircraft. His mission was to patrol the Atlantic Coast searching for enemy submarines. When his squadron was posted back to RCAF Station, Dartmouth, he would fly daringly low over the homes of his mother and sweet-heart (Doris Dyke) and dip the aircraft wing in a salute to them. After honorary discharge in 1945, Gordon married his high school sweetheart, Doris. Gordon enjoyed people and became a travelling salesman with the Colgate Palmolive Company. His next career lasted more than 30 years as a successful and respected Real Estate Agent. His pastimes included curling as a 30-year member of the Dartmouth Curling Club, golfing, and spending quality time at the cottage. After retirement, Gordon surprised everyone by purchasing a keyboard and taking piano lessons. Practicing and giving recitals gave him much enjoyment. He had a hearty playfulness and delighted being with his grandchildren. Gordon was very fit and continued to golf, work out at Cole Harbour Place, and cross-country ski, among other activities. Gordon always greeted people warmly and was genuinely interested in what was important to them. Recently, he sang his rendition of 'I Did It My Way' and tried to tell a joke which had his girls in hysterics because he couldn't remember how it went! He treasured his girls: wife and soul mate of 67 years, Doris; daughters, Patricia and Marilyn (Allen Mitchell); granddaughters, Sandra and Emilee, and many nieces and nephews who were dear to him. Also survived by sisters, Margaret Teasdale, Muriel MacLeod; brother, Clyde F. Teasdale (Virginia), and sister-in-law, Barbara Teasdale. He was predeceased by brother, Donald K. Teasdale.

In later years she began learning more painting techniques through workshops and lessons in pastel portraiture, acrylics, Oriental Brushwork, and her favourite, watercolor. On August 3rd, 1946 she married her highschool sweetheart, Gordon Parker Teasdale. They had two daughters; Patricia, Dartmouth and Marilyn (Allen) Moncton N.B.; two granddaughters, Sandra (Jeroen) Jasper, Ab. and Emilee

The Teasdale Family of Nova Scotia

d/o Edmund Parker and Minnie Clarke

They had the following children:

- i. Sterling D. Born on 20 Jun 1934 in Antigonish, NS. Sterling D. died on 4 Apr 2007; he was 72. Buried in St. Ninian's Cemetery, Antigonish.

Wife Edna Mason, b. Little Dover, Guys. Co., Jan. 1, 1933 - Sept. 26, 1985.

On April 7, 2023, Colleen Marie Teasdale said goodbye for now to her beloved family after a short but courageous battle with lymphoma. For the past three months, she finally let others take care of her the way she's always cared for them. Born June 30, 1961 to Frank and Marie MacDonald, Colleen grew up in McArras Brook in a large family, where her siblings and cousins were also her best friends. When chores were done, days were spent outdoors, often on the beaches close by. After graduating from the Cosmetology Program at the Stellarton Vocational School in 1982, Colleen spent more than a decade practicing as a professional hairdresser. She then devoted the rest of her life to managing a business alongside her husband and caring for her family. After they got married in 1986, she and Harold built a house and started their family in St. Andrews. Colleen led her family with a soft but steady hand. She was incredibly proud of her kids and all of their accomplishments, and never missed an opportunity to share and celebrate their successes. At the same time, she was humble and graceful about her own many talents. She could take on and master any DIY project, never needed tape to expertly paint a room, and seemed to make every recipe taste better than everyone else who tried. For decades, Colleen and Harold's home has been a gathering place for family, friends and neighbours - whether they were invited or not. Her open door, attentive ears and ability to make the most delicious food appear on the table without a moment's notice made it easy for anyone to drop in and feel at home when they needed a friend. But of all the company she cherished, every moment she spent with her family was her favourite. Whether it was laughing around the dinner table, summers camping at Whiddens, or a visit out to the shore, she always found joy in the simple things they did together. Over the years, they enjoyed many family vacations to places like Mexico, Costa Rica, and Maui. Of all the wonderful memories her travels gave her, it was the mishaps and misadventures that kept her laughing in the years that followed. Colleen enjoyed the many years she spent living in Fort McMurray but cherished one year in particular when all of her children moved into their home away from home (as we called it, 410 Athabasca). It was a year of endless laughter, backyard parties on beautiful northern summer nights and more shenanigans than she could roll her eyes at. Colleen was outwardly poised and secretly silly. Never wanting to be the centre of attention, in a boisterous room she could most often be found making a joke off to the side or quietly giggling to herself until tears streamed down her face. Uncontrollable bouts of laughter made it harder for her to breathe than the cancer ever could. She will be dearly missed by all those who sought the comfort and warmth of her company. She is survived and forever loved by her husband, Harold, daughters Alicia (Greg Oicle), Miranda (Logan Hilliard), son, Bradley, sisters, Anne (Jim) Clarke, Hamilton, ON; Marion (John) MacEachern, McArras

Former Lumber Mill in North Grant Transitions to Performance Space Aug 21, 2023

A former working lumber mill that operated for about 50 years in North Grant, Antigonish County is being repurposed into a performance space. The building is being renovated by local actor, director, playwright and musician Laura Teasdale and her father Charlie on their family property. Laura Teasdale says it all began when her father agreed to sell all the lumber mill equipment to a Pictou County resident. She says the transformation began after the equipment was removed. Teasdale says there are a number of possibilities for the space. There's room for outdoor concerts which could be moved indoors in case of inclement weather, family gatherings such as weddings, improv nights, classes, and music
