Preface

I will begin by saying that I am not a descendant of the Tulloch family, but my 2g grandmother Sarah Maria (Dill) Fraser was married to Peter Tulloch for 33 years after her first husband, James Fraser (my 2g grandfather), passed away. I am from Truro and worked in Hants County for a few years, so I know the area well and have completed genealogies of several of the founding families of the Nine Miler River area - Fraser, McPhee, McDougall, Roulston, Custance, Teasdale, Lively and others, see my website at gofffamilyhistory.ca.

There were other Tulloch families in Halifax County- Halifax and Cole Harbour. In compiling this report, I have reviewed all of the Nova Scotia Historical Vital Statistics for Tulloch births, marriages and deaths inn Hants Co., and in some cases Halifax Co., and for Tulloch in Hants Co. Nova Scotia censuses, 1871-1931. I also reviewed all of the available burial information at findagrave. I also made use of data at familysearch. Sources are indicated below. To my knowledge, there are no Tulloch descendants remaining in Hants Co.

I hope this book will be helpful to the family - please share with others. Any errors or additions are always welcome! Please contact me.

"Mrs. Peter Tulloch. There passed away at Elmsdale, on Tuesday May 15th, one of the most highly respected citizens of that community in the person of Mrs. Peter Tulloch aged 77 years.
Deceased was formerly Miss Sara Dill of Centre Rawdon. She was twice married; her first husband being the late James Fraser of the Gore who passed away about 20 years ago. Her second husband the late Peter Tulloch predeceased her over two years ago. Four children, one daughter and three sons by her first husband, survive. They are Frances, Mrs George Wright, Joseph, James and George Fraser. Two sisters are left to mourn, Mrs John B Wallace of West Gore, recently moved to Vancouver, and Mrs Simm in Waverley, Mass.
There are few people who enjoyed more the universal love and respect of her family and friends than did the deceased lady. She was a woman of exceptional strength of character, a Christian woman in the truest sense.
The passing of Mrs. Tulloch will leave in the hearts of her children a blank, which nothing can fill and she will be greatly mourned by a wide circle of friends. The funeral was largely attended."

Leonard's first job was breaking wild horses for a neighbor. years. Our hearts are broken but we are comforted in the knowledge that Mom and Dad are together again. Jessie was born December 3, 1927 in Youngstown Alberta to James and Jean Robson. At the age of 5 Jessie moved with her family to the Onion Creek area, 5 miles west of Carnwood. Jessie completed all the schooling that Onion Creek offered, then temporarily moved to Thorsby and subsequently Edmonton, where she completed her grade 12 education. In 1944 at a local dance Jessie caught the eye of a handsome young man from Lindale. Jessie and Frank were married on Dec 27, 1947, they began their married life in Lindale and went on to raise their family there. When her 3 children were of school age, Jessie left them in the capable hands of their Father and Grandparents and went to Edmonton for 10 months where she earned her teaching certificate. She returned to Lindale and acquired a teaching job at the local school and taught there for several years. During this time their 4th child was born. Jessie and Frank resided in Lindale until 2005. When acreage living became a little too much work for their liking, a move to Drayton Valley was made, where they both resided until their passing. Ron cherished reading, writing, drawing, and playing with his five grand children Oliva, Benn, Jane, Jack and Abby. Ron's passion was his family. He enjoyed boating, waterskiing and treasuring time with family and friends at his cottage on Shortts Lake. He was delighted to support his children's musical endeavours. Nothing made him happier than watching and listening to his children play and perform. Ron was the proudest "roadie", meticulously packing up the family station wagon with musical gear for the next gig. Throughout the years, they travelled widely across Canada, the United States and Bermuda. He is remembered as an active member and Elder of the Milford United Church. Patricia passed away on May 14, 2026, with family and carers of the Admiral Long-Term Care facility, by her side. Patricia was a kind and quiet individual who enjoyed a good book, and a sweet treat. She was often up for a game of Scrabble or a CrossWord Puzzle. Pat spent over 20 years working at Atlantic School of Theology, in Halifax, helping many clergy fulfill their journey working in their chosen divinity. Amazingly, despite dementia, Pat loved to patrol the halls in the nursing home checking out each noise and occasionally sitting at the “secretary” desk to monitor affairs. Patricia’s caring spirit also led her to support many individuals during times of crisis while volunteering on a Help Phone Line. Although quiet by nature Patricia also had an adventurous spirit which was evident when, at age 17, she became the youngest female sky-diver in Nova Scotia. Her adventurous spirit was also evident by her many trips South, with her life partner, Tom Ptolemy, as well as her time in Europe with her dear friend Cheryl. Patricia also cherished her time spent at the cottage in Toney River, particularly with her cousin Emily. Patricia was predeceased by her parents Andrew and Inez Dill (ne: Stephen), her dear Aunt Mary Vaughan, her many aunts and uncles, and Tom’s son Craig Ptolemy. Left with many wonderful memories are her partner Tom Ptolemy, her girls Rachael Baker (James), and Marianne MacDonald (Jeff), and son Andrew McCurdy as well as Tom’s children Joyce Pardy (Matthew in heaven), Allan Ptolemy (Jenn). Patricia also leaves behind her siblings Brian Dill and Charlie Dill (Janice), as well as many loving cousins, and friends. Patricia will also be remembered by her many grandchildren, Kayla, Jayde, Harley, Danielle, Alex, Alyssa, Eric, Devin, Jack, Emma, Amelia, Liam, Chloe, Maggie, Emily, Briella, and Joshua.
