Tupper Family Register

First Generation

1. Eliakim Tupper¹. Son of Elias Tupper (12 Oct 1715-14 May 1800) & Jerusha Sprague (20 Oct 1720-8 May 1795). Born on 4 Dec 1742 in Lebanon, CT. Eliakim died in Stewiacke, NS, on 22 Aug 1811; he was 68. Residence: Cornwallis (1761), Truro, (1773), Upper Stewiacke, (1792).

Eaton reports a birth year of 1741, while Calnek reports a birth year of 1761, but this latter date is impossible based on his children's birth years, as reported by Miller.

"Record of Marriages for the Township of Cornwallis" : p. 236 "Eliakim Tupper son of Elias Tupper and Jerusha his wife was married to Elizabeth Newcomb daughter of Eddy Newcomb and Abigail his wife on the [blank] 1762 by Handley Chipman, J.P."

Eliakim was one of the early settlers of Truro. He removed from New England to the western part of Nova Scotia about the year 1760, and about the year 1773 he removed to Truro, where he kept an Inn, the only one in Truro at that time. On Sept. 16, 1780, he was appointed Justice of the Peace for what is now the whole of the Counties of Colchester and Pictou. He carried on business as a merchant. He was the contractor for finishing the inside of the first church that was built in Truro. His business, while in Truro not being very profitable, and having a large family of sons, he was induced to leave Truro and removed to Stewiacke about the year 1792, and settled on the farm occupied by his grandson in 1873, Eliakim Tupper, Esq., and his sons. He was married to Elizabeth Newcomb about the time they first came to Nova Scotia (from Miller).

Although Thos. Miller gave a death date of 22 Aug. 1810, Eliakim Tupper, despite 'being weak in body but sound in mind and memory,' signed his will on 14 May 1811, it was probated 27 Nov. 1811 but was not settled until 1814. Perhaps he died 22 Aug. 1811. From Helen Gibson, "This helps to explain how he, Eliakim Tupper, signed a grant application for my 4 Gr Grandfather Samuel Godfrey on - Oct 20th 1810 - "Samuel Godfrey appeared before me one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and made oath that the above Memorial is true, and that he is willing to take the Oath of Allegiance when required - Eliakim Tupper J.P."

"The following list of Stewiacke-area deaths have been derived from the published booklet: Celebration of the 100th anniversary of the settlement of Stewiacke, held on October 6, 1880 (Truro, NS, The Guardian, 1880, pp. 11-13, 15, 18, 20-25.
Tupper, Eliakim Aug 22, 1811, age 80.
Tupper, Mrs. Eliakim Feb. 10, 1824, age 81.

This date confirms that above, but seems he was 68 rather than 80.

They had two sons Benjamin and Samuel and five daughters, Mary S. married Ephraim Dickie, Elizabeth married Hugh G. From Miller "Mary S., their eldest daughter (referring to Eddy and Ann Tupper), was born June 17th, 1801. She was married to Ephraim son of William Dickey and Hannah Howard, January 19th, 1822. They had five sons and three daughters.” *Mary, b. 1841, is named as the youngest daughter in her marriage announcement, Presbyterian Witness. Hence Eliza, b. 1851 d/o Ephraim and Mary, must be the daughter of Mary Brenton.

Mary Dickey, 77, Widow, b. Up. Stewiacke, d/o Eddy & Mary Tupper, died 22 Nov 1876, Lr. Stewiacke. Wm Dickey, informant.

On 19 Jan 1822 when Mary Simpson was 20, she married Ephraim Dickey, son of William Dickey⁷ (1761-20 Jan 1846) & Hannah Howard (1759-28 May 1854). Born in 1800. Ephraim died in 1865; he was 65.

There were two Ephraim Dickey's in Stewiacke. From the 1838 Nova Scotia census (Col. Archives), Lower Stewiacke, Dickey Ephraim 1 male under 6 1 female under 6 1 male 6-14 1 female 6-14 1 male over 14 7 persons total, and Middle Stewiacke Dickey Ephraim 2 females under 6 4 persons in total. Nova Scotia and US records show children born to Ephraim Dickey and Mary Tupper, and to Ephraim Howard Dickey and Mary Brenton, with dates overlapping. Each had a Thomas Dickey. Their fathers, David and William, both married daughters of Ephraim Howard, so Ephraim Dickey was named for his grandfather in each case. The Thos. Miller book confirms that Ephraim, s/o William, married Mary S. Tupper. Hannah Munson, the daughter of Mary Tupper, claimed her grandparents to be William Dickey and Hannah Howard.

From a biography of their son Rev. Thomas Ellis Dickey, referring to his parents “Mr. Dickey's parents died in Nova Scotia, the father in 1865, the mother in 1879. Of their nine children, Eddy became a leading citizen of Elk River, MN, and was killed in 1890 by the falling of a plank from a pile-driver. Benjamin has been an extensive lumberman of Minneapolis for many years, Hanna [Mrs. Luther Munson] also resides in Minneapolis. Thomas E. came to Minnesota in 1854. The others yet live in Nova Scotia.”

From Illustrated Album of Biography of the Famous Valley of the Red River of the North and the Park Regions of Minnesota and North Dakota: Containing Biographical Sketches of Settlers and Representative Citizens: Rev. Thomas E. Dickey. Alden, Ogle, 1889, Minnesota. “Ephraim Dickey had a family of nine children, seven of whom are now living – Eddy, Hannah (now Mrs. L. C. Munson, of Minneapolis), William, Elijah, Eliza, Benjamin and Mary (now Mrs. William Holesworth). {Note: Elijah?}

1861 census Lower Stewiacke, Ephraim Dickey 1 male, 3 females, 4 total in household. (Note: only one Ephraim Dickie/Dickey in the 1861 census Colchester Nova Scotia).

According to Thomas' biography, they had nine children. Eddy (1823), Hannah (1827), Thomas (1836), Elizabeth (1839), Mary (b.1841) and Benjamin (b.1845) listed parents as Ephraim Dickey and Mary Tupper. John (1826-1854, Pine Grove Cemetery) is a guess, so there is at least one more unaccounted for.

From the United Church of Canada Bulletin 41-01, Remembrance Day.

With each passing year, fewer are left to remember the wars that the Remembrance day poppies signify. One Nova Scotia family has a unique way of remembering. Their grandfather and great-grandfather, James Howard Tupper, left his wife and four children to serve in the First World War. Before he left he wrote a letter to each of his sons which their mother, Letty, was to give them on their twelfth birthdays. In these letters James shared with his children his love for them, his devotion to his wife and his strong faith in God. "First", he wrote, "be true to your God. Second, be true to yourself. Third, be true to your country." While he was serving in France, James asked a friend to take a small piece of ivy home to his wife. Letty planted the ivy, which thrived in the rich farm soil of the Annapolis Valley. In September 1916, James was killed in action. No one can say for sure the influence James had on the succeeding generations. However, each of James and Letty's sons served as ministers in The United Church of Canada, and this legacy has continued as a great-grandson now carries on the tradition. James' presence is also acknowledged as his vine continues to be woven into anniversary corsages and bdridal bouquets, and crawls along the walls of family homes.

November 11, 2001, Hello to Colleagues and Friends:

Just a note to let you know that the Mission and Service Fund bulletin for November 11, 2001 has a strong personal connection for me. The back of the bulletin tells the story of a Nova Scotia family who have a special way of remembering. The story is about my great-grandfather who was killed in World War I. One of the things he did before he died was to pick a slip of ivy vine in a convent garden in France and it made its way back to my great-grandmother and it has been growing in the family, ever since. We have it growing in our kitchen in Fort Qu'Appelle. The bulletin cover mentions his legacy of faith and love. His two sons became United Church ministers (one being my grandfather) and it says that one great-grandson is a minister as well - that's me! It is a legacy that I am proud of and remembrance has a personal meaning for me. Even though I never knew James H. Tupper, I do feel that he has influenced my life. If you are worshipping or leading worship in a place that uses the bulletin, I have one request - could you send me a copy! It would be neat to have copies of the cover from congregations throughout the country.

Warden Tupper's Death - Col. Eliakim Tupper, Warden of Colchester County, died this morning at the residence of his son-in-law, L.M. Ellis, Queen Street, Truro. The death of Col. Tupper has come upon us all with a shock. It was so sudden and to most of our citizens so unexpected.

For some time the Warden had been suffering from severe pains from an injury to his abdomen, which latterly developed into an abscess on the wall of the abdomen, and which such serious symptoms that he left his home in Stewiacke and arrived in Truro on Monday the 10th inst., for medical treatment. There is no doubt but that the deceased contracted cold while journeying to Truro, and when he arrived here he was a very sick man. His physician, Dr. J. H. McKay, did all that medical skill could do, and had consultation with Dr. W.S. Muir on Sunday last. Both physicians agreed as to the nature of the disease and as to the very serious condition of the suffering man. Yesterday the Warden was about the same in his symptoms. He lingered through the night and this morning, as already stated, passed quietly away.

The immediate cause of death was an abscess on the wall of the abdomen resulting in peritonitis and blood poisoning. Inflammation of the bowels had set in and was another complication that baffled all medical skill.

By the death of Warden Tupper, Colchester County loses one of its ablest, shrewdest and most talented men. After the Municipal Incorporation Act was passed, Col. Tupper was the first Warden in Colchester. He at once showed his firm and lucid grasp of the new Act, and from his clear interpretation of its complicated provisions started the machinery running smoothly in the county.

The deceased was born 66 years ago on the farm at South Branch, Upper Stewiacke, where he has ever resided, and to a community in which he has ever been universally respected. He was Warden of this County at the time of his death.

The deceased has left a widow, one son Martin L., who resides on the homestead, and a daughter, Mrs. L.M. Ellis of this town. To them and other relatives the News extends heartfelt and sincere sympathy in their unexpected and sad bereavement.

It is expected that the remains will leave here on Thursday for the Presbyterian church in Upper Stewiacke Village, where the funeral service and ceremonies will take place at about 2 o'clock on that day. - (Truro Daily News - Tuesday Dec 18, 1894)

Warden Tupper's Funeral - An immense mass of people assembled at Upper Stewiacke Presbyterian Church, yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of the late Warden Tupper. There was an immense congregation of friends from all parts of the Stewiacke Valley, and other places in the country. Among those present were: Councillors H. H. Eaton, Salmon River; Bigelow, Lower Stewiacke; McGill Johnson, Upper Stewiacke Village; and Charles Creelman; James McCurdy, Clifton, License Inspector; Hugh McKenzie, Municipal Clerk; Geo. R Archibald, Lower Stewiacke; John Dickie, Middle Stewiacke; W.D. Dimock, Truro, and many others. The funeral services were very impressive, and were conducted by the Rev'ds A. G. Gunn, S. F. Fraser and John Robbins. Mr Gunn gave an admirable address and Rev. John Robbins supplemented his remarks by a most touching figure to the memory of the late Colonel Tupper. After the services were over, friends passed around the bier and gave the last look of love on him who has been so universally respected by all. The death of Colonel Tupper has left a blank in this county that will be very hard to fill. All spoke of him with the greatest respect, feeling that the district of Stewiacke has lost a most valuable member of society, and the County of Colchester one of its ablest men. - (Truro Daily News - Friday Dec 21, 1894)

On 10 Aug 1855 when Eliakim was 26, he married Elizabeth Hamilton, daughter of James Hamilton (ca 1810-) & Elizabeth Gammell (ca 1811-12 May 1883). Born in 1834. Elizabeth died on 4 Jun 1902; she was 68.

Death of Mrs. Eliakim Tupper - The widow of the late Warden Tupper, after 2 or 3 months of sickness, died at her son's residence, Middle Musquodoboit, on the morning of Jun 4th. Her daughter, Mrs. L.M. Ellis, of town had been at her bedside for some time, faithfully nursing the much beloved mother in her last illness. Mrs. Tupper was 68 years of age. The funeral took place on the 6th inst., the Rev. Edwin Smith officiating. Internment was beside her late husband in the family lot in the Upper Stewiacke Cemetery. Mr. C.F. Cox of this town attended the funeral; his first wife was a daughter of the lamented Mrs. Tupper. - (Truro Daily News Saturday June 7, 1902)

In 1880, he built a dam and grist mill in Big Lake Township, on Elk River three miles from its mouth, it is run by Obert & Boughton. Father: Ephraim Dickey b. 1800 d. 1865, son of William Dickey and Hannah Howard

Mother: Mary Simpson Tupper b. 1801 d. Nov 22, 1876, daughter of Eddy Tupper and Ann Fulton

Hannah Dickey and Luther Munson married on May 21, 1850 in Cooper, New Brunswick, Canada. Luther and Hannah Dickey Munson along with her brother Benjamin Tupper Dickey arrived in Minneapolis [called St Anthony] on July 4, 1850 after a varied trip over land, over the Great Lakes. Their steamer, the Delaware towed the burning Griffith to shore. Per an interview published in the Minneapolis Morning Tribune on Dec 19, 1915, she and Luther were some of the first settlers in St. Anthony and was a member of the Territorial Pioneers' Association. She kept a scrap book containing time-worn cuttings from ancient newspapers. She was best friends with Gov. Pillsbury's wife. She is proud of the fact that she comes of old English stock. Her mother was a cousin of the late Sir Charles Tupper, the "Grand Old Man of Canada". She is related to Robert Fulton, the builder of the first steamboat. She was called Grandma by every child in the neighborhood. When she first came to Minneapolis, there wasn't a bridge to cross the Mississippi River and the only means to cross was by ferryboat. For a time after the bridge was built there was a 5 cent toll, which was reduced to 3 cents. They lived in a little shack near what is now Third Avenue and Fourth Street Southeast. Her first parlor furniture consisted of 3 round stools and a dry goods box, which served as a table on top and held the kettle and saucepan underneath. She had a No. 8 cook stove and burnt green oak for fuel. "People nowadays seem to think we didn't have time for jollity in those days, but let me tell you we used to have the grandest times! There was no such thing as hired help then; we all just helped each other. Well do I remember the first ball ever given here. It was at the Winslow house, which was a grand place then, with statuary and pictures and carpets that couldn't be beat anywhere roundabout. They sent the guests to table in two lots. I was invited to go in with the first shift, but I said no, I'll keep on dancing a while. And right mad I was with myself when the second lot of us went in and found all the dainties gone and nothing left but a bit of cold meat and some bread." She remembers the first newspaper printed in 1857. "The Civil War-well, I guess I remember it! I took boarders those days and 5 of them went off. I didn't have any close relatives in it, but I knew every man in the first regiment that was raised here and sent off under General Baudeliere. We had a dinner for them all before they left and well do I remember what it was like for the women that saw their menfolk go and never got news of them for months." Her views regarding the European War "I guess it's a case of six of one and half-dozen of t'other, and I don't see any reason for worrying my head about it. It seems to me, thought, there's enough battles for every person to fight with himself in a lifetime without starting in fighting other people."

Obituary March 17, 1917. "Munson, Mrs. Hannah, aged 90. Died March 15 at her home, 327 2nd Av. SE. Born in Nova Scotia March 10 1827. She was a pioneer of East Minneapolis, having lived there 67 years. She is survived by her son Eugene and four grandchildren."

Among the prominent of the Churches that have transformed the wild Montana of the early days into the peaceful and law-abiding commonwealth that exists today must be considered the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Tupper Family Register

Rev. Thomas E. Dickey was born in Lower Stewiacke, N.S. on April 2, 1836, son of Ephraim and Mary [Tupper] Dickey. His father was a large mill-owner, and a native also of Nova Scotia, his grandparents, however, being of Massachusetts Colonial stock, emigrating to the province from that state. His paternal grandmother was a Howard, and her husband, Col. Howard, was an active officer in the American army of the Revolution. The English family of Howard is one of the most distinguished, tracing its descent from Hereward, the Saxon, a powerful opponent of William the Norman in his successful conquest of England in 1066. Mr. Dickey's parents died in Nova Scotia, the father in 1865, the mother in 1879. Of their nine children, Eddy became a leading citizen of Elk River, MN, and was killed in 1890 by the falling of a plank from a pile-driver. Benjamin has been an extensive lumberman of Minneapolis for many years, Hanna [Mrs. Luther Munson] also resides in Minneapolis. Thomas E. came to Minnesota in 1854. The others yet live in Nova Scotia. Thomas E. Dickey was matriculated at Jubilee College at Robin's Nest, Peoria Co., IL in 1860. Then for seven years Mr. Dickey attended the Bishop Scabury Divinity School at Faribault, MN and was graduated therefrom in 1867. Entering the Episcopal ministry, his first charge was a mission at LeSueur, MN.

And from "Illustrated Album of Biography of the Famous Valley of the Red River of the North and the Park Regions of Minnesota and North Dakota: Containing Biographical Sketches of Settlers and Representative Citizens. Alden, Ogle, 1889, Minnesota." Rev. Thomas E. Dickey, a minister of the gospel, will form the subject of this sketch. He, like every other man, has had an experience that would fill a volume of this size, if given in detail, but duty devolves upon the writer to herewith record only the chief facts concerning this man's birth, parentage and relation in life with men. He is a native of Nova Scotia, born April 2, 1836. His parents were Ephraim and Mary (Tupper) Dickey, natives of the same country. The father was a lumberman and followed the business of lumbering until his death. He was a major of the militia and a justice of the peace. Our subject's grandfather was William and his grandmother Hannah (Howard) Dickey. Hannah's father was a colonel in the Revolutionary war and a native of England. Mary Tupper's parents were Eddy and Annie Tupper, natives of England and Nova Scotia, respectively. Ephraim Dickey had a family of nine children, seven of whom are now living – Eddy, Hannah (now Mrs. L. C. Munson, of Minneapolis), William, Elijah, Eliza, Benjamin and Mary (now Mrs. William Holesworth). Until he was fourteen years old, our subject attended school in Nova Scotia, and then embarked in the lumbering business at the age of eighteen years. He came to Minneapolis, Minnesota, doing the same business until he was twenty-one years old. He then attended the high school of Minneapolis a year and went to Jubilee College, in the town of Robbin's Nest, Illinois, another year then came to Faribault, Minnesota, where he finished his classical studies, also graduated from the seminary, in 1867, having the degree of B.D. conferred upon him. He then took charge of the Episcopal Parish at Le Sueur, Minnesota, for three years. His next charge was at Austin, Mower County, Minnesota, where he remained two years, then went to Olympia, Washington Territory, remained one year and next spent a year in California. From that state he went to Silver City, Idaho, where he remained a year. The next three years were spent in Bozeman, Montana Territory. From there he came to Moorhead, Minnesota, in 1877, taking charge of the mission on the Northern Pacific extension from Lake Detroit to Bismarck, making two trips per month for a year. He was then made President of the Nebraska College, at Nebraska City, holding that office four years, and then returned to Moorhead and became rector of that parish. He built the Bishop Whipple School in 1882, south of Moorhead. The buildings and grounds cost not far from thirty thousand dollars. The date of our subject's marriage was 1870. His wife was Miss Helen Wright, a native of Vermont. Her father was Kent Wright. Their children are – Henry W., Charles K., Ellis S. and Edward. The first named is now a teacher in Dakota. Politically Mr. Dickey is a Democrat. He belongs to the Masonic fraternity and is now numbered among Moorhead's most prominent men.

On 5 Feb 1871 when Thomas Ellis was 34, he first married Hellen M. Wright in Le Sueur, MN. Born in 1836 in Shoreham, Addison, Vermont. Hellen M. died in Flathead, Montana, on 15 Oct 1909; she was 73.

They had the following children:

- i. William. Born in 1862.
- ii. Henry Whipple. Born on 2 Apr 1871 in Austin, Mower, Minnesota. Henry Whipple died in Humboldt, California, on 8 Aug 1942; he was 71. Buried in Conrad Memorial Cemetery, Kalispell, Flathead, Montana.

He came to Kalispell in the fall of 1892 and was connected with the Kalispell and Conlon Mercantile companies for a number of years. Later he was with the Conrad National Bank, where he served as cashier for a period of approximately 15 years. He served as assistant manager of the War Finance Corporation at Helena during the first World War. Later he was located at Conrad, Mont. where he was engaged in settling matters for the First National Bank of Helena. About 1932 Mr. Dickey went to Helena as assistant manager of the Regional Agricultural Corporation, and then he moved to Kalispell, for a year, before moving to California, where he passed away August 8. The Humphrey plant focused on bottles, fruit jars, paten-medicine bottles and flasks, which were marketed to local soft drink producers, druggists, and manufacturers. Early Vancouver Volume Four By: Major J.S. Matthews, V.D. 2011 Edition (Originally Published 1944)

Narrative of Pioneers of Vancouver, BC Collected During 1935-1939.

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION WITH MR. AND MRS. HERBERT CREELMAN, AT THEIR SUITE NO. 46, 2625 HEMLOCK STREET, FAIRVIEW, VANCOUVER, 25 MAY 1937.

ANDREW ONDERDONK. M.J. HANEY. C.P.R. CONSTRUCTION.

Mr. Creelman: "I came west with the first gang, when M.J. Haney commenced in March 1883; the gang had finished in Winnipeg; M.J. Haney was the bridge contractor—he was superintendent—and we came by the Union Pacific. The Northern Pacific and Great Northern were not through then; then we came up from San Francisco by the, I think it was, the 'Geo. W. Elder' to Victoria, then over to New Westminster, and up the Fraser. Yale was headquarters, and there were only three or four locomotives there, and two or three miles of track each side of Yale; Mrs. Creelman was not with me then; she came in 1886; there were a few railroad men with me; all the rest were bridge men, and for about two months I fired on 'Old Curly'" (Emory, or No. 2), "wood burner, two foot lengths."

C.P.R. TUNNELS.

"The end of the track was up past the big tunnel, past Spuzzum. The east end of the tunnel fell in, and there was one engine east of the tunnel; Ed Austin was her engineer and was with her, and, do you know, that engine was on the other side of that tunnel for seven months. The track was just a few miles to what we called 'Cariboo Joe's' tunnel, i.e. the first tunnel on the other side of the big one.

"The track on this side" (west) "of Yale was down nearly to Hope—at American Creek—that was all the track—the two lengths, east and west of Yale, was all the track there was west of the mountains, when I came."

EARLY RAILWAY LOCOMOTIVES.

"When I came first the engines were: Yale (known as No. 1), Emory (known as No. 2 or 'Old Curly'), New Westminster (known as No. 3) and I think another one. Later that year, they got five engines, new Baldwin locomotives, all unloaded at Port Moody."

C.P.R. LOCOMOTIVES. C.P.R. ENGINEERS.

"I was senior man as locomotive engineer, except Ed Austin, and I said to Mr. Cotterel, superintendent, C.P.R. here the other day, that I was now the senior man connected with the C.P.R. living. Jim Doig is older than I am, but I was here first. About all I know now living who worked for Onderdonk on the construction are W.H." (Billy) "Evans, C.C. Brown, Teddy Hosker, Jim Doig, who was conductor, W.O. Miller, who was train despatcher at Yale, and, of course, Peter Barnhart, who lives in Kamloops; the rest live in Vancouver.

140

"W.O. Miller started as a telegraph operator at Yale for W.H. Armstrong" (later Armstrong and Morrison, Vancouver.) "Bill Miner was on the Yale, No. 1; Ed Austin had the New Westminster, or No. 3; Charlie Johnson had 'Old Curly'" (No. 2), "and I had the 'Savona,' No. 4."

C.P.R. CONSTRUCTION. PORT HAMMOND. C.P.R. OXEN.

"The 'Savona,' No. 4, was landed at Port Hammond, and they started laying the track from there both ways. Old Man Heath, an Englishman, he was a machinist in the shops at Yale, and claimed he was a locomotive engineer, but he put the engine in a ditch down at Pitt Meadows, and killed himself. I was on night shift, and it came my turn to be day shift, so they sent me down to get No. 4, and we pulled her out of the ditch, jacked her out with jacks, and" (laughingly) "pulled her into Hammond with two oxen, and before we got her ready for the road, there was another vacancy, and Teddy Hosker, who was firing for me, he got the night shift and I got the day. Hosker came down to the slough at Pitt Meadows; it was deep water; he had a canoe; and he got the body of Mr. Heath, and took it down to New Westminster."

C.P.R. CONSTRUCTION.

Tupper Family Register

“No. 4 was at Port Hammond, and there was another engine at Port Moody; they worked from both ends, and the track was connected up east of Westminster Junction. I was running the engine at Port Hammond, and Ed Austin was running the one at Port Moody, and the end running west from Hammond, and the end running east from Port Moody, finally were connected up, as I say, east of Westminster Junction.

“All the time they were working at Yale, and finally the track was connected up at Deroche.”

HARRISON HOT SPRINGS.

“A lot of Onderdonk men were lying around at Yale waiting for the C.P.R. to take the line over, so a lot of us went down to Agassiz, and up to Harrison Lake; there was nothing there then but a log shack, and an old cedar log chopped out, hollowed out, for a bath; it was not an old canoe, but a log chopped out to make it hold water for a bath. The water was too hot at first, so what you did was, put some in, and cool it off with a few pails of cold water, and after you had been in a little time you could stand it quite hot.” (See Morton or Findley narrative, Early Vancouver.)

Mr. Herbert Creelman was born at Colchester, Nova Scotia, 10 March 1858, was brought up a Presbyterian. He married Miss Sarah McMullen of Truro, Nova Scotia (Methodist) at Halifax, and recently celebrated their Golden Wedding in Vancouver.

They have three children: one son, Hugh, who is principal of a school at Esquimalt, and two daughters.

A free mason, raised at Truro Lodge, No. 43, Nova Scotia, in 1881, and afterwards affiliated with Cascade Lodge, Vancouver. Pensioned by the C.P.R. in 1924.

As to his South American experiences—he was away from the C.P.R. for one year—he says, “forget that.”

On 19 May 1885 when Herbert (Hugh) was 27, he married Sarah (Sadie) McMullen, daughter of Hugh McMullen (17 Aug 1812-7 Feb 1897) & Rebekah Brown Gotabed (May 1822-5 Aug 1889), in Halifax, N.S. 92. Alfred Dickie (Harriett Tupper⁴, Eliakim³, Samuel², Eliakim¹). Born on 28 Mar 1860 in Upper Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Alfred died in Halifax, Nova Scotia, on 6 Sep 1929; he was 69. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Stewiacke East.

Dr. W. R. Dickie, 95 South Park Street, Halifax, son.

DICKIE, ALFRED, lumberman, politician, and office holder; b. 28 March 1860 in Upper Stewiacke, N.S., son of James Edward Dickie, a merchant, and Harriet Tupper; m. 1886 Alice Amelia Dickie of Cornwallis, N.S., and they had three sons and two daughters; d. 6 Sept. 1929 in Halifax.

Alfred Dickie was educated in the public schools of Upper Stewiacke and at Dalhousie University in Halifax (BA 1879, MA 1883). He started his lumbering career in Stewiacke in 1890 in partnership with Avar Black, whom he bought out after six months, forming the Alfred Dickie Lumber Company. In 1896 he acquired a property and sawmill at Tusket in Yarmouth County, where T. N. McGrath, his assistant at Stewiacke, moved as manager and half owner. The following year he purchased properties at Ship Harbour and Liscomb, and in 1904 an area on the Sherbrooke River. By 1897 his firms constituted the leading lumber exporter in Nova Scotia next to the operations of Thomas Gotobed McMullen of Truro; Dickie and McGrath held 18,000 acres in the western part of the province and Alfred Dickie Lumber had 65,000 in Colchester, Pictou, Halifax, and Guysborough counties. The produce of Dickie’s Stewiacke mill was transported on the Intercolonial Railway to Halifax; lumber from the Tusket mill was sent by steamship – he owned several – and later by the Halifax and South Western Railway. In 1900 Dickie formed, and became president of, the Grand River Pulp and Lumber Company, which cut pulpwood in Labrador and held 500 square miles of timber limits around Hamilton Inlet. It was these lands that sparked the ownership dispute over Labrador between Quebec and Newfoundland, with Quebec officials intervening by stamping Dickie’s pulpwood as crown wood belonging to their province.

Beneath the veneer of prosperity, however, Dickie’s business ventures suffered from the natural calamities that often struck forest and sawmilling operations and from the uncertain and volatile business cycles that plagued the lumber industry. His steam mills were seriously affected by fires; by 1897 Dickie had endured at least four that destroyed or damaged his facilities. Forest operations were heavily dependent on manpower, horses, and water and snow conditions. A dearth of water or an over-abundance or lack of snow could prove disastrous. With the rapid expansion of his business, these problems clearly contributed to Dickie overextending himself. By 1904 the manager of the Royal Bank of Canada in Nova Scotia, who financed his operations, was “taken severely to task” by his superior in Montreal for allowing Dickie’s loans to reach the “enormous” figure of $634,040.39 without security. Dickie himself was criticized for not having incorporated his business and for carrying too little insurance on his stationary mills and none on his lumber shipments. Two years later all Dickie’s assets were transferred to the Royal Bank, though he did retain one share to qualify as a director. He was appointed manager at a salary of $833 per month.

Tupper Family Register

From 1904 Dickie continued to act as a prominent Nova Scotian lumber baron. He posed as an owner, continued to manage his old properties, and was the frontman in seeking to sell them. In the prospectus of sale, it was stated that, according to conservative estimates, his properties were capable of producing and exporting 50–60 million board feet per year, and that the extent of his forest lands in Nova Scotia was between 350,000 and 400,000 acres. In 1904 Dickie was instrumental, with other Nova Scotian lumbermen and the provincial government, in sponsoring a report on Nova Scotia's pulpwood lands by Robert Mason of New York and Joseph Bureau of Quebec. Two years later his Nova Scotia and Labrador properties were offered for sale by the Forest Exploration and Lumber Company of Montreal, the latter at the price of $1,000,000. On 30–31 May 1907 Dickie and McGrath played a leading role in the annual meeting in Yarmouth of the Lumbermen's Association of Western Nova Scotia; the whole group was photographed during a visit to their mill in Tusket. In 1908 there were prospects of selling the Nova Scotia properties to the Traubridge Syndicate of London, England, and Dickie requested that the Royal Bank underwrite the bonds or stocks of the syndicate to the extent of $100,000. In the end, however, the effort failed.

In October 1911 Dickie and McGrath Limited had to cancel orders because their logs had been stranded all summer as a result of drought and the cold season was about to set in. The following year Dickie lost an entire winter's output of logs in Labrador. Then, in 1913, he and the Royal Bank finally managed to dispose of most of his forest lands. An American firm, the S. D. Warren Company, purchased the Tusket lands. Archibald Fraser, of the Fraser Pulp and Lumber Company Limited in Plaster Rock, N.B., bought 247,815 acres of Dickie's remaining lands. Dickie nonetheless managed to reconstitute Dickie Lumber as the Canadian Lumber Company Limited in Stewiacke. Although he retired and moved to Halifax in 1912, he continued to serve as president of this company and have an interest in it until his death. His son Rufus Edward, a one-time president of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association, was its general manager. Despite his crash, Alfred Dickie succeeded in building up his holdings once more. He certainly thought highly of his part in Nova Scotia's lumber industry. In testimony in Halifax before the federal royal commission on pulpwood in 1923, he confidently stated that "my operations and experience, I think, are larger . . . than any other individual ever has had in Canada." At the time, he held 25,000 acres of forest lands in Nova Scotia and considerable lands in Labrador, and both tracts were for sale. In 1914 he negotiated with Walker Brothers in Boston and William Whitmer and Sons in Philadelphia for the sale of his Nova Scotia holdings but the deliberations came to naught. In the 1920s he continued to pay $160 to Newfoundland's minister of agriculture and mines for the lease of 80 square miles of timber limits in Labrador.

Throughout his career Dickie was heavily involved in public affairs. In the provincial elections of 1894 and 1897 he unsuccessfully contested the riding of Colchester, in which Stewiacke was located. He was a school commissioner for Colchester, the first mayor of the town of Stewiacke from 1906 to 1911, the president of the local branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and an elder in his Presbyterian church. In Halifax he served as school commissioner in 1921–23, and president of the North British Society. He was involved there as well in the Halifax Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, and was an elder of Fort Massey Presbyterian (United) Church.

After being confined by ill health to his home on South Park Street for two months, he passed away on 6 Sept. 1929 and was buried in the family plot at Stewiacke. Despite the ups and downs of his ventures, he died a wealthy man, with an estate valued at $315,000 plus life insurance. (Dictionary of Canadian Biography)

Miriam Dickey to Be Honored by Tea. Miss Miriam Dickey, whose forthcoming marriage to Mr. Robert O. Kinsey of Seattle was recently announced, will be honoured Saturday afternoon with a tea at the home of Mrs. LaDessa Nordale. The tea is being given by membership of the Soroptimist Club of Fairbanks which Miss Dickey organized in 1940 and served as first president. The honoree is well known throughout the territory through her long association with the Lathrop company. This began in 1931 shortly after graduation from the University of Washington when she became secretary to the late Austin E. Lathrop. (Fairbanks Daily News, Apr 14, 1953)

Midnight Sun Broadcasting Company, Anchorage Museum, “Miss Miriam Dickey is Secretary-Treasurer of the Midnight Sun Broadcasting Company, and is Capt. Austin Eugene Lathrop’s “right hand man” in all his other widespread enterprises. It was her interest in radio and its application to an isolated Alaska in 1938 that brought about the application for a grant at Fairbanks. The station was begun in the summer of 1939, and began operating October 1st, 1939 with a power of 1,000 watts on 610 kilocycles. Power was increased to 5,000 watts in September of 1942, and to 10,000 watts in December of 1943, at this time the frequency being changed to 660 kilocycles, a very desirable clear channel. This F.C.C. special service authorization was the establishment of a precedent, since no other station under the jurisdiction of the F. C. C. had been allowed full unlimited time privileges sharing a 1-a clear channel. The dominant station is WEAJ (now WNBC) New York. The necessity for a clear [channel] was to avoid the interference caused [by] the 610 k.c. signal by KFRC in San Francisco. Coverage in the outlying areas, both from a military and civilian standpoint was, and still is, so important, interference, even though it is sporadic and only when transmission conditions are good, could not be tolerated.” (Alaska’s Digital Archives)

DICKIE, Edwin James (Ted), BSc, PEng; 88 Dartmouth, formerly of Stewiacke. A good and honest man died August 27th, 2010 on what would have been his 61st Anniversary. Ted was born at home in Stewiacke on January 5, 1922 to Nellie (Gould) and Rufus Dickie. His childhood was full of adventure with his 3 brothers, 2 sisters, a pet bear named Billy, and a team of great Dane dogs whose leader Danny would haul Dad and his siblings around town in a sleigh. His playground was the "Canadian Lumber Co." which was one of the biggest logging operations in N.S. at the time. His growing-up years spanned the Great Depression, the tail end of the Age of Iron Men and Wooden ships and the space between two World Wars. Dad was greatly influenced by all three events and had many stories of the exploits and strengths of the company loggers who still used taxes, buck saws and horses to get the logs out. Much time was spent at Clam Harbour, at the family cottage, where he met the love of his life at the age of 13 - Florence MacKinnon - and promptly married her in a mock wedding on the beach. Many events would transpire before their real wedding in 1949, including getting his pilot's license on his 17th birthday, finishing school and earning a BSc at Mount Allison University, where he narrowly escaped death when his residence burned down. He was a 2nd Lieutenant in the Cadet Officers Training Corp there. He later graduated from McGill University as a Mechanical Engineer and began work in the Canadian Lumber Company, first in Stewiacke, then in mill sites at Barney's River, Glenelg, NS and Gillis Dale. Ted and Flo had three children, Paul (Maxine), Mark, and Jan (Fred Watkins). When Paul was of school age, they moved from the mill camps to Stewiacke. In 1955, Ted left the lumber business and began exporting wild Christmas Trees to the States. In Stewiacke, he was a member of the United Church, a Gyros leader and a member of the school board at various times. He eventually took a job with the Voluntary Economic Planning Board and then with the NS Department of Development in Halifax. The family moved to Dartmouth in 1963. Dad is survived by his sister Lois (McMillan) and was predeceased by wife Florence, brothers Donald, Harold and his sister Alice (Hampton). He is fondly remembered by his children and grandchildren- Heather, Michael and Allison Watkins and Chelsea and Ryan Dickie. Interment at Pine Grove Cemetery in East Stewiacke.

On 27 Aug 1949 when Edwin James (Ted) was 27, he married Elizabeth "Florence" MacKinnon. Born in 1916. Elizabeth "Florence" died in 2007; she was 91. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Stewiacke East.

v. Lois Ellen. Born on 24 Aug 1925 in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Lois Ellen died in Bethesda, Maryland, on 4 Dec 2018; she was 93.

She graduated from Mount Allison University, Sackville, New Brunswick, Canada in 1946. While there, she was Secretary of the Women's Council and Vice President of the Student Union. Following school, she moved to Montreal and worked at the Pathological Institute of McGill University, where she met and married Dr Gardner Craddock McMillan in 1948. They moved to Switzerland for a year for her husband's studies, then moved to Lachine, Quebec, Canada to raise their family. They moved to Bethesda, MD in 1967 where her husband worked at the National Institutes of Health (NIH). She participated in art shows sponsored by the Welcome to Washington International Club, showing her water color paintings.

She was predeceased by her parents, Rufus Edward Dickie and Ellen Fletcher Gould Dickie; her husband of 56 years, Gardner Craddock McMillan; and her son, William Edward 'Ted' Dickie McMillan (1950-2016). She was survived two daughters and their spouses; a son; two daughters-in-law; five granddaughters; three grandsons; two great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law; and a cousin.

Lois Ellen married Dr. Gardner Craddock McMillan. Born on 10 Nov 1918 in Lachine, Quebec. Gardner Craddock died in Bethesda, Maryland, on 8 Apr 2004; he was 85.

He graduated with a degree in medicine from McGill University in Montreal, Canada in 1944, having won the John Munro Elder Prize for Honors studies in anatomy. He received his Masters degree in 1946 and a PhD degree in 1948. He was a Markel Scholar in Medical Science and began his research career with investigations of human and experimental atherosclerosis. Among his early work was the paradoxical observation that experimental diabetes, induced by alloxan, inhibited the atherosclerosis resulting from feeding cholesterol to a rabbit. As a result of this fundamental research, it became known that some lipoprotein particles are atherogenic whereas others are not, and it likely caused the speculation that the cause of atherosclerosis was far more complicated than being solely caused by too much cholesterol in the blood. He also studied the effects of undernutrition and of cortisone on cholesterol-induced atherosclerosis. He served as Strathcona Professor of Pathology and became Chairman of the Department of Pathology at McGill University. He was also chief of Pathology at the Royal Victoria Hospital in 1957, and a consulting pathologist, through 1966, to the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital, the Montreal Neurological Institute, the Montreal Children's Hospital, the Montreal General Hospital, and the Jewish Hospital of Hope. He became a fellow of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada (Pathology) in 1964. He continued to study human and experimental atherosclerosis, reporting on the effects of saturated, unsaturated, and trans-fatty acids in cholesterol-fed rabbits and on amino acid deficiencies. He received the AHA Citation for Distinguished Service to Research in 1965. He joined the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in 1966, first as a consultant and then as special assistant to the Director of the Heart Institute (1968), as Chief of the Arteriosclerosis Diseases Branch, and, between 1972 and 1991, as Director of the Arteriosclerosis, Hypertension, and Lipid Metabolism Program at the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute. Through his efforts, the NIH pioneered research programs on nutrition, lesion dynamics, and the relationship of hemodynamics to atherogenesis, which led to the establishment of nonhuman primate resources. He retired in 1991.

He was survived by his wife, Lois Ellen Dickie McMillan; two sons and their spouses; two daughters and their spouses; and eight grandchildren.

Family of Sarah Margaret Tupper (92a) & Wilson James Mosher

154a. Walter Palfrey Mosher (*Sarah Margaret Tupper*⁵, *Ferdinand Brock*⁴, *Samuel*³, *Samuel*², *Eliakim*¹). Born on 10 Aug 1906 in Lanesville, Col. Co., NS.

His Aunt Ada Tupper married Walter E. Palfrey of Bridgetown, Annapolis County.

On 3 Aug 1935 when Walter Palfrey was 28, he married Lillian Annie Fulton, daughter of Albert David Fulton (20 Mar 1866-30 Mar 1936) & Brita Isabella Shaw (1874-1957), in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Born in 1908 in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS.

They had one child:

- i. Leslie Russell. Born in 1939 in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Leslie Russell died in Truro, NS, on 12 Aug 2025; he was 86.

Leslie Russell Mosher - 86, Truro, passed away peacefully, on his own terms, on Tuesday, August 12, 2025, at Colchester East Hants Health Centre, Truro. Born in Stewiacke to Walter and Lillian (Fulton) Mosher, Leslie's early education took place in a one-room schoolhouse where three grades shared a classroom. By the time his family moved to Truro, he was seven and already proficient in multiplication, division, and longhand — and ready to take on the world. Leslie was blessed with friendships that lasted a lifetime. His close-knit group gathered weekly for breakfast and lively conversation, celebrated birthdays, and travelled the world together — skiing in Switzerland, France, and Whistler, and once embarking on a memorable journey to Baffin Island with Rod McLellen & friends. At age 12, Leslie began working in his father's Canadian Tire store on Willow Street, assembling bicycles. He later earned a Commerce degree from Dalhousie University and returned to work full-time in the family business, which became a Home Hardware in 1973. He retired in 2019 at the ripe old age of 80. Deeply committed to his community, Leslie was a lifelong member of Rotary Club of Truro, serving as president and earning the Paul Harris Fellowship Award in 1993 (plus three additional recognitions). He handled the Club's finances for four decades until an accountant arrived — a development he greeted gleefully. Rotary House held a special place in Leslie's heart. During the 1980s and 90s, he also volunteered with Canadian Red Cross. As a young Boy Scout, Leslie and his schoolmates made countless memories. He served as Quartermaster for the Canadian Jamboree in Charlottetown and, at 16, travelled to Sutton Coldfield, England, for the World Jamboree. On their first night, he and his troop wisely pitched their tent on a hill. They awoke dry and well-rested — unlike the rest of the camp, which had flooded overnight. Leslie ran the store with old-fashioned values. His staff was instructed not to answer the phone while helping a customer — the person in front of you came first. Long-time patrons were greeted by name and, when needed, received home deliveries. Many returned for years, not just for supplies, but for the advice and familiar faces. After retiring, Leslie spent his summers at Shortt's Lake, enjoying swims, evening tennis with the late Dave Wilson, and cribbage games with his cousin, Laurie Fulton. He was surrounded by his "adopted family" — the Fulton cousins, Mildred, Kevin and Karen; sister, Heather, and Karen's children — who cared for him like a mother hen. His Truro family will miss seeing him out and about in his dilapidated red Home Hardware jacket. We'll all miss his sharp, dry humor — right to the end, he couldn't resist leaving his doctor with a parting joke. True to his nature, Leslie requested no funeral. As he often said, "I've been to so many funerals I don't dare send my only dark suit to the dry cleaners." A private gathering will be held later. Leslie is survived by sister, Alison Smyth and brother-in-law, Roger Crowther, both of Bridgewater; nephews, Jonathan Smyth, Panama; Jeremy Smyth, Florida, USA; cousins, Mildred and Heather Fulton, Kevin and Karen and sons, Aiden, Luke, and Neil McDonah; all of Truro.

TUPPER, Eddy - age 83 of Stewiacke. It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of our wonderful father, Eddy Tupper. We will miss him dearly. His sense of humor, his smile and his presence. Dad farmed all his life in Stewiacke on the family farm, taking over from his parents Page and Jean Tupper. In the early years, a person had to do whatever was needed to do to keep the farm running, and Dad was no exception. From running a grader building the Gays River Road, raising chickens, working in the woods, to milking cows. He was building a life for his wife Lillian and their children. He will be missed by son Charles (Liz), Toronto, daughters, Donna Rondeau, Coronation,

On 20 Jul 1941 when William Earle was 21, he married Thelma Joyce Hines, daughter of James Densmore Hines (17 Feb 1877-12 May 1969), in Halifax, N.S. Born on 26 Jul 1919 in Elmsdale, Hants Co., NS. Thelma Joyce died in Halifax, NS, on 21 Aug 2020; she was 101.

Thelma Joyce Dickie of Halifax, passed away peacefully on August 21, 2020 having lived a long and full life. Thelma was born in Elmsdale, on July 26, 1919, the youngest daughter of James Densmore and Goretta Jane (Jennie) Hines. She had a happy childhood growing up on a dairy farm on the banks of the Shubenacadie River. Some of her favourite memories were of running barefoot to take the cows to their summer pasture, riding horseback and of floating on the river in a boat while reading a book or gazing at the wonders beneath the surface of the water. Thelma attended school in the two-room Elmsdale school from school age through to grade 11. As grade 12 was not offered in Elmsdale, she travelled daily by train to Halifax to attend the Halifax Academy to complete her high school education. In the spring of 1938 she was graduated from the Provincial Normal College in Truro but had to wait until her mid summer birthday to be old enough to receive her teaching license. The first six years of her teaching career were spent in one and two-room schools in the communities of Lakeside, Windsor Junction and Elmsdale. Thinking that the male soldiers returning from the WWII would take the available teaching positions, she decided to train as an obstetrical nurse. In the spring of 1946, at the Grace Maternity Hospital's graduation exercises, she was awarded the school's proficiency prize. On July 20, 1941 Thelma had married her soldier, William Earle Dickie of Stewiacke. Shortly after their marriage he sailed for England with the Canadian army and four years of war. The accompanying photo was the one Bill carried in his map case from England to the beaches of Normandy and on to the Netherlands. Thelma and Bill were blessed to celebrate 67 years of marriage before Bill's death in 2009. While raising a family of four children in Fairview, Thelma substituted in the area schools. When her children grew older she accepted a teaching position at Sir Frederick Fraser School for the Blind where she remained until her retirement at the age of 65. To better understand the work of her blind students she completed the Grade 2 Braille course given by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. Following retirement she travelled extensively in North America and Europe. When she and her husband were not travelling she took courses at Mount Saint Vincent University where she was granted a Bachelor of Arts degree at the age of 79. Thelma was a long-time member of Fairview United Church. She was an Elder, a Sunday school teacher, a Messenger leader and a Life Member of the United Church Women (UCW). She was a Canadian Girls in Training (CGIT) leader and a member of a group of former CGIT leaders until her death. She loved the United Church Camp in Berwick, from the first time she attended in 1942. She spent many happy family times under the camp hemlocks with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was a loving, fun, amazing grandmother who was adored by her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Thelma was an avid reader and an exceptional cook known for her delicious apple pie and creamy brown sugar fudge. She especially enjoyed time spent with her dear friend, Lynne Fiske on adventures such as beach days with their nine children. Many happy memories involved time spent with the players and spouses of the Fairview Aces Volleyball team on which team her husband, Bill, was a player. In her youth she played second base on the Elmsdale ladies softball team travelling to games in the neighbouring villages in the open back of a milk truck. Playing on that team led to an enduring love of ball playing and cheering for her favourite team, the Toronto Blue Jays. Thelma is survived by her children, Judy Rondeau, John (Lee) Dickie, Stephen Dickie and Christine (Norman) Williams; grandchildren, Mark (Rose) Rondeau, Jeffrey Rondeau, Suzanne (Paul) Burke, Joshua (Monica Pearson) Williams, Zachary Williams, Jessica (Brandon Averill) and Benjamin Williams; great-grandchildren, Timothy Burke, Jacob Burke, Seleucia Williams, Percival Williams and Charlie Averill; sisters-in-law, Evelyn Hines, Ann Poser and Avis Tufts; brothers-in-law, Don Montrose and Hugh Heasler; many nieces and nephews, including special niece, Jane Parker; and her good friend Shirley Singer. She was predeceased by her husband, Bill; siblings, Clementine (Charles) Forbes, Madeleine (Ross) Fraser, Jennie (Donald) Barkhouse and James Hines; sisters-in-law, Sarah (Craig) Taylor, Celia Heasler, Jean (Menzie) Stewart and Joan Montrose; brothers-in-law, Howard (Gwen) Dickie and Harry Dickie. The Heasler house was always filled with family for Celia's cooking and dinners. She loved to host the family and friends and cook for everyone. GOURLEY, Carl Oscar, B.Sc. (Agr.), P.Ag. - 83, Kentville, passed away Thursday, May 6, 2004, in Valley Regional Hospital, Kentville. Born in Stewiacke, he was a son of the late Elmer and Ethel (Crowe) Gourley. Carl completed grade 11 in 1937. He then spent a year on the family dairy farm, which had a milk route in Stewiacke. In June 1939, he joined the militia which, at the outbreak of the Second World War in September, was called up in the North Nova Scotia Highland Regiment. His unit was posted to England in July 1941 and in 1944 took part in the D-Day invasion of Normandy. On the second day of the invasion, Carl was wounded and taken prisoner.
