The Withrow Family of Hants County, Nova Scotia

First Generation

1. Jacob Withrow. Jacob died in Dorchester, South Carolina in 1781.

Three sons of Jacob and Elizabeth Withrow from South Carolina were amongst the original grantees of Rawdon Township, Aug. 3, 1784. David and Jacob each received 250 acres and John received 500 acres. (Duncanson, JV, Rawdon and Douglas)

“Canadian” Withrows. The first-known ancestor of the Canadian Withrows was Jacob Withrow, born circa 1730 in the American mid-Atlantic region. Jacob and his wife Elizabeth Alder are known to have lived in both North Carolina and South Carolina, raising 5 children: John, Jacob, Sarah Jane, David, and James. Jacob and oldest sons John and Jacob, Jr. fought as loyalists during the American Revolution. At the close of the war, the four oldest Jacob Withrow children were forced to leave South Carolina with other loyalists, resettling in Nova Scotia – hence, the term “Canadian” Withrows. Jacob Sr. died in South Carolina in 1782 while still a loyalist militia soldier. The fate of wife Elizabeth and youngest son James are not known. Descendants of the Jacob Withrow family today can be found throughout Canada, Michigan, Minnesota, Washington (state), Alaska and other states in the U.S. <https://withrows.org/about/>

JOHN J. WITHROW DEAD. Honorary President of the Toronto Industrial Association Ill Only a Few Hours- His Career.

Toronto, Aug. 6.--Death came with great suddenness to Mr. John J Withrow, the well-known honorary president of the Industrial Exhibition Association, last night, at the family residence, 27 Wilton Crescent. Mr. Withrow was out as usual on Saturday, and was evidently enjoying the best of health. When he retired on Saturday night he was apparently in the best of spirits. He arose yesterday morning at an early hour, as was his habit, and after partaking of breakfast, strolled about his home. About 9 o'clock he was suddenly taken ill, at the time complaining of a pain in his head. He gradually grew worse, and despite all that physicians could do. he passed away at 9 o'clock in the evening. In the death of

The Withrow Family of Hants County, Nova Scotia

Mr. Withrow, Toronto has lost an old and highly respected citizen who will be greatly missed in business circles. One great institution that will ever perpetuate his memory is the Industrial Exhibition, of which he was one of the originators. When the Exhibition was inaugurated, 22 years ago, he was elected its first president, position which he occupied until last year, when he was re-elected honorary president. With the demise of Mr. William Christie, Ex-Ald. R. G. Close, and now Mr. Withrow, death has laid a heavy hand on the Exhibition directorate in the past few weeks. The late John Jacob Withrow was of United Empire Loyalist descent. but a native of Toronto, where his father, James Withrow, for years was a contractor. The family came from Virginia after the war of American Independence. and at first settled in Nova Scotia, afterwards removing to Toronto. The deceased was born in Toronto 67 years ago. He received his early education at the Toronto Academy after which he spent some time in an architect's office. Subsequently, he served full course as a practical builder under his father, and, on his return from an extensive tour throughout the States, devoted himself exclusively to the building and contracting trade, becoming a member of the firm, Withrow & Hillock, contractors. He served as an alderman at the City Council Board. and as unsuccessful candidate for the Mayoralty in 1885, being defeated by a narrow margin. During his service as a public man he made an enviable record for integrity and assiduous adherence to the interests of the people. In religion he was a Methodist. He leaves a widow. His brother is the Rev. W. H. Withrow, author and journalist, Toronto.

J. V. Duncanson has a question mark on Mary Ann and says she may not be of this family. However, the death record seems to be some confirmation.

However, there is confusion with the George E. Dill and Mary Ann Temple family. They cannot be the same family, as Mary (Withrow) Dill was still living in the 1881 census with her family whereas Mary (Temple) Dill died in 1872. Ethel Dill (d/o Mary Ann Withrow) was b. 26 Apr 1869 and Mary Ann Dill (d/o Mary Ann Temple) was b. 27 Jul 1869.

San Diego Union-Tribune, July 19, 1996. HELEN N. JOHNS Red Cross volunteer and church leader 77. As the wife of a career naval officer, Helen N. Johns called many a faraway port home. As an American Red Cross volunteer, she helped bring the comforts of home to injured servicemen in foreign hospitals. Mrs. Johns, who later became a leader and missionary in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, died Tuesday at Birch-Patrick Convalescent Hospital in Chula Vista of complications from a stroke. She was 77. The Johns left the Chula Vista home in which they had lived since 1969 for a Mormon mission to Rochester, N.Y., in the early 1980s. For a year and a half, they worked full time there, guiding tours of historic Mormon sites and serving in various wards and branches of the church. As president of her church's Second Ward Relief Society in Chula Vista, Mrs. Johns provided classes in homemaking, spiritual living and career goals. She also was involved in her church's young women's program. Born in Cheney, Wash., Mrs. Johns was 18 months old when her family moved to Corning, Calif., north of Sacramento. She moved to Oakland at age 12, later volunteering there in the USO and working as a salesperson in a drug store. She married Mr. Johns during World War II and began her work with the Red Cross after the war. She taught rehabilitation classes, hosted luncheons for fellow volunteers and visited hospitalized servicemen. During the Vietnam War, while living in Yokosuka, Japan, Mrs. Johns volunteered at a large medical center housing injured servicemen across the street from her residence. Her husband, Walter Wade Johns, a retired Navy commander who finished his career at the Naval Amphibious School in Coronado, died Nov. 22, 1994. Survivors include a daughter, Glenda Andrew, of Chula Vista; two sons, Riley Johns, of Lemon Grove, and Steele Johns, of Chula Vista; a sister, Doris Abbott-Nall, of Menlo Park; a brother, Bill McPhee, of Taft; 13 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren.

Active with the P.T.A., the Ladera Recreation District, the Ladera Community Church, parent support groups at La Entrada and Woodside High, and other organizations, she also served for 25 years as a volunteer I.C.U. receptionist at Stanford Hospital. An avid lover of music and sports, she sang in the Ladera Church choir, was a patron of the San Francisco Symphony, swam competitively with the Rinconada Masters, and enjoyed hiking and camping. Most important, though, was her commitment to her family. Doris's husband John Abbott passed away in 1990. In 1994, Doris married Mr. James R. Nall, a Bay Area computer scientist. My family line arrived in Nova Scotia as Loyalists, after the War of Independence was over, around 1783. David Withrow was the youngest of three brothers and a sister who were the children of Jacob and Elizabeth (Alder) Withrow. Two of the brothers, Jacob and John, received land grants in Hants County, Nova Scotia and even though David was only about 11 years old he also received a smaller land grant. Their sister, Sarah, married George Bond and he apparently sold his land grant and is said to have moved to Ontario. A fourth son, James Withrow, remained behind and is believed to have fought for the Americans. The Withrow family grew in numbers over the next century or so, with many of the Nova Scotia Withrow descendants returning to the United States during the latter part of the 1800s up to the mid 1900s, mainly for economical reasons. There are now very few Withrow members living in Nova Scotia connected with my family lines. I am a retired Junior High school teacher and I have been married to my wife, Alfreda (Emmett) Withrow for nearly 50 years, and we have three children and three grandchildren.

They had the following children:

- i. Albert William. Born on 8 Apr 1938 in Truro, NS. Albert William died in Toronto, ON, on 17 Jul 2008; he was 70.

ALBERT WILLIAM FULTON JULY 17, 2008 Albert William Fulton was born in Truro, N.S. on April 8, 1938. He died in Toronto on July 17, 2008. Albert was the eldest child of Neil Seidmen Fulton (1900 - 1944) and Evelyn Jane (nee Wood) (1906 - 1985). He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Emily (nee van der Vaart), their sons Alexander of Toronto and Nathaniel of Margaretsville, N.S., his brother Laurie of Truro, his wife Mildred, and their children and grandchildren. He was predeceased by his sister Laurel (1941 - 1986). Albert enjoyed his schooling in Stewiacke and Amherst, N.S. and graduated from McGill University in 1958. He taught high school math and science in Carleton Place, Russell, near Ottawa, where he met the love of his life in 1961. Albert taught mostly math at Weston Collegiate Institute, retiring in 1988 to pursue historical interests. He was delighted to attend the 150th anniversary celebrations at the school last October. During the summers, until 1967, Albert enjoyed riding his bike down the hill to U of T to mark the grade 13 departmental exams, an experience which resulted in his own students being better prepared to write exams. Albert's first historical project was the mounting of an exhibition by past and present Wychwood Park artists to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Park in 1888. The subsequent half year was spent researching and writing, with Keith Miller, the 300-page book, The Art of Wychwood, copies of which are in the Toronto Public Library system. Albert's next project involved traveling to the Maritimes and New England to research his own family history. Two of his direct ancestors had arrived in Plymouth, Mass. in 1620 on the Mayflower. His research eventually led to an extensive library of the Mayflower and UEL descendants and 32 binders on his direct ancestors, mostly through about 10 generations. Albert was extremely proud of his parental grandfather and namesake, Albert David Fulton (1867 - 1936), the Town of Stewiacke voluntary photographer and historian who published the definitive history of the town in 1907. Some of Albert's most prized possessions were AD's photography equipment and glass plates, and AW always strove to follow in AD's footsteps, albeit in a different location. Aside from his wife and sons, Albert's two passions were collecting and preserving the history of the two Toronto neighbourhoods which he considered to be the most interesting and the most beautiful - Toronto Island and Wychwood Park. After considerable effort, he and Emily were successful of acquiring a house on Algonquin Island in 1980 and a duplex in the Park in 1982. For many years Albert opened the Toronto Island Archives to the public on Sunday afternoons and the Wychwood Park Archives on Wednesday evenings, and he published an 8-10 page historical quarterly newsletter of both neighbourhoods. Albert hoped that both of the vast collections would find homes in the proposed City of Toronto Museum.

Albert William married Emily Van Der Vaart. Born in 1937. Emily died in 2013; she was 76.

battle with cancer, Emily passed away peacefully and surrounded by love on February 2nd in Toronto, at the age of 75. Dearly loved wife of late husband Albert and adored mother of Alexander and Nathaniel (Julia). Predeceased by parents Hubertus and Antonina and sister Nina. Soon after she was born in Indonesia the family moved to Holland where her father, an industrial entrepreneur, pursued business interests. Emily had many vivid memories as a young girl during the Occupation. After the war, the family moved to Ottawa, where Emily's father was a diplomat in the Dutch embassy, involved primarily in fostering trade between Holland and Canada, such as the entry of Heineken beer into the Canadian market. Emily had many amusing recollections of growing up, as her parents often entertained at home, and she met many people in political and business circles. Emily and Albert had a long and loving marriage. So many wonderful trips with the kids, sailing and motorhome adventures, treks to Europe, iceboating. She was a devoted homemaker, volunteer and sweet compassionate soul. Such a patient, generous and forgiving mother and wife. Mom had a delightfully dry sense of humour and always enjoyed a good story. She loved cooking, gardening, old Hollywood movies and all things Dutch. Emily loved living on the Toronto Islands and being a part of many events, the garden tours, 'Strawberry Socials' at the Church of St. Andrew-by-the-Lake, and Albert's weekly archives open house. So many wonderful close friends and neighbours, especially Sandy and Vivian, longtime dear friends, who did so much to help Emily in these final years. And the Island community, so many people so generous with their time and efforts. This is a truly special group of people. Offering everything from a steady supply of delicious home cooked meals and helping with shopping to an endless stream of moral support. Her sons will be deeply grateful to the Island community for the rest of their lives. We are pleased to announce that a bequest is made to McGill University, establishing a Scholarship fund in the Faculty of Medicine in Albert's name.

He was a son of the late Neil and Evelyn (Wood) Fulton. Born in Truro with his twin sister, Laurel, they lived in Stewiacke for the first five years, and then the family moved to Amherst where Laurie attended school until his graduation from Amherst High School. He then attended Provincial Normal College in Truro from 1959-1961, graduating in Industrial Arts and received the coveted "Silver N" award. He taught at Amherst Regional High School for 16 years before moving to Truro where he spent several years working at Home Hardware on Willow Street. Moving to Truro meant that he was close to the family's beloved cottage at Shortts Lake. Laurie loved music and during his early years played the violin while Laurel played the piano. He was a member of Saint Andrew's United Church and a former member of Session. He sang for many years with Trinity-St. Stephen's Choir in Amherst, Cantabile choir, Saint Andrew's Senior and Men's choirs and The Forefathers Four Quartet. Luke and Neil McDonah, whom he loved dearly; brother and sister-in-law, Gerald and Judy Brown, Winnipeg; niece, Anne Koldon; nephews, Jim and Mike Brown and Alexander and Nathaniel Fulton; several cousins. Along with his parents, he was predeceased by his twin sister, Laurel Fulton; brother, Albert (Emily) Fulton.

131. Lillian Annie Fulton (Albert David⁵, Amanda Ellis⁴, Sarah Maria Withrow³, David², Jacob¹). Born in 1908 in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS.

On 3 Aug 1935 when Lillian Annie was 27, she married Walter Palfrey Mosher, son of Wilson James Mosher (15 Sep 1872-23 Sep 1943) & Sarah Margaret Tupper (25 Apr 1872-30 Jan 1960), in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Born on 10 Aug 1906 in Lanesville, Col. Co., NS.

His Aunt Ada Tupper married Walter E. Palfrey of Bridgetown, Annapolis County.

They had one child:

- i. Leslie Russell. Born in 1939 in Stewiacke, Col. Co., NS. Leslie Russell died in Truro, NS, on 12 Aug 2025; he was 86.

Leslie Russell Mosher - 86, Truro, passed away peacefully, on his own terms, on Tuesday, August 12, 2025, at Colchester East Hants Health Centre, Truro. Born in Stewiacke to Walter and Lillian (Fulton) Mosher, Leslie's early education took place in a one-room schoolhouse where three grades shared a classroom. By the time his family moved to Truro, he was seven and already proficient in multiplication, division, and longhand — and ready to take on the world. Leslie was blessed with friendships that lasted a lifetime. His close-knit group gathered weekly for breakfast and lively conversation, celebrated birthdays, and travelled the world together — skiing in Switzerland, France, and Whistler, and once embarking on a memorable journey to Baffin Island with Rod McLellen & friends. At age 12, Leslie began working in his father's Canadian Tire store on Willow Street, assembling bicycles. He later earned a Commerce degree from Dalhousie University and returned to work full-time in the family business, which became a Home Hardware in 1973. He retired in 2019 at the ripe old age of 80. Deeply committed to his community, Leslie was a lifelong member of Rotary Club of Truro, serving as president and earning the Paul Harris Fellowship Award in 1993 (plus three additional recognitions). He handled the Club's finances for four decades until an accountant arrived — a development he greeted gleefully. Rotary House held a special place in Leslie's heart. During the 1980s and 90s, he also volunteered with Canadian Red Cross. As a young Boy Scout, Leslie and his schoolmates made countless memories. He served as Quartermaster for the Canadian Jamboree in Charlottetown and, at 16, travelled to Sutton Coldfield, England, for the World Jamboree. On their first night, he and his troop wisely pitched their tent on a hill. They awoke dry and well-rested — unlike the rest of the camp, which had flooded overnight. Leslie ran the store with old-fashioned values. His staff was instructed not to answer the phone while helping a customer — the person in front of you came first. Long-time patrons were greeted by name and, when needed, received home deliveries. Many returned for years, not just for supplies, but for the advice and familiar faces.

The Withrow Family of Hants County, Nova Scotia

After retiring, Leslie spent his summers at Shortt's Lake, enjoying swims, evening tennis with the late Dave Wilson, and cribbage games with his cousin, Laurie Fulton. He was surrounded by his "adopted family" — the Fulton cousins, Mildred, Kevin and Karen; sister, Heather, and Karen's children — who cared for him like a mother hen. His Truro family will miss seeing him out and about in his dilapidated red Home Hardware jacket. We'll all miss his sharp, dry humor — right to the end, he couldn't resist leaving his doctor with a parting joke. True to his nature, Leslie requested no funeral. As he often said, "I've been to so many funerals I don't dare send my only dark suit to the dry cleaners." A private gathering will be held later. Leslie is survived by sister, Alison Smyth and brother-in-law, Roger Crowther, both of Bridgewater; nephews, Jonathan Smyth, Panama; Jeremy Smyth, Florida, USA; cousins, Mildred and Heather Fulton, Kevin and Karen and sons, Aiden, Luke, and Neil McDonah; all of Truro.

Born in 1929 in West Gore, Bob was a son of Hope and Roberta, and one of nine siblings. He was proud of his house renovations and called East Petpeswick his home for over 20 years. Bob loved music; he played the piano and guitar and was an avid fiddle player at local dances until he married. In his later years, he enjoyed listening to old-time music and dancing and was a regular at dances, fiddle competitions, and jamborees throughout the Maritimes with his partner, Glenda.
